LOS ANGELES SET FOR REGIONAL ELECTION CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON -- Los Angeles has been selected by the Federal Election Commission as site for a Far West Regional Conference on Election Administration and Federal Campaign Financing to be held December 4-6.

Regional sponsors of the Conference are the Secretary of State of California and the Registrar of Voters of Los Angeles County.

In the Far West Region are Alaska, California, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, Pacific Territories, and Washington.

The two-day conference is designed for elections administrators, state legislators and staff, Federal candidates, political action committees, political party workers and all others with an interest in the elections process.

In the area of election law administration, 17 workshops will discuss legislative and administrative functions required to run a well-organized, fair and open election.

Federal campaign finance issues will be discussed in 12 workshops designed for candidates, political parties, corporate and labor organizations and non-connected political committees.
