From: Richard DiMatteo
To: mdove@fec.gov
Subject: Act Blue
Date: 12/11/2007 08:56 AM

To Whom it May Concern:

The classification of Act Blue as a PAC is absurd. It represents no particular party, does not actively advocate or recommend specific candidates or direct any of its contributions to campaigns. The choices are all made by those who choose to bundle their contributions through a common distribution point to candidates the contributors choose themselves. It represents now specific special interest but is simply a financial transaction point. You are asking for needless litigation.

Richard DiMatteo