Ms. Dove,

I read today that the FEC is considering not allowing matching funds to be applied to funds raised thru ActBlue.

I am a huge fan of ActBlue because it vastly simplifies the process of contributing to my favorite candidates. ActBlue does not choose candidates to support, it's simply a mechanism, like PayPal.

I do hope you will allow ActBlue to function as it has and that you allow them to get matching funds for money made thru ActBlue. It's a great democratic tool for small contributors like myself.

Regards,

Mike Stensrud
