MUR 1601

Gentlemen:

Enclosed is a Statement of Designation of Counsel in connection with this matter, executed by Burt Pines, individually and on behalf of Brown For U.S. Senate. The Statement of Designation of Counsel designates Reavis & McGrath as counsel to Brown For U.S. Senate and Burt Pines in accordance with its terms.

Pursuant to my telephone conversation with Marybeth Tarrant today, on behalf of Brown For U.S. Senate and Mr. Pines, we respectfully request that the Commission extend the deadline for response to its January 4, 1984 letter to Mr. Pines from Thursday, February 23, 1984 until Tuesday, March 6, 1984.

As stated in my telephone conversation with Ms. Tarrant, we were engaged by Mr. Pines and Brown For U.S. Senate only recently. We have been requested by our clients to prepare a comprehensive response to the Commission's Summary of Allegations attached to its January 4, 1984 letter to Mr. Pines. The additional time for response requested hereby will allow us to review in detail the documentation underlying the Commission's Summary of Allegations and prepare a detailed letter addressing the Commission's concerns.

Re: MUR 1601

Dear Mr. Pines:

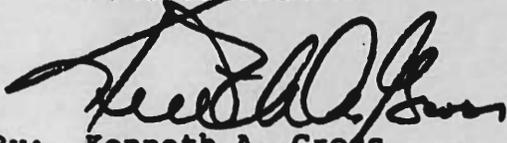

This is in reference to your letter dated January 23, 1984, requesting an extension until February 23, 1984, to respond to the Commission's notice that it has reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee and you, as treasurer of the Committee, violated the Act.

The General Counsel's Office has granted your request and, therefore, we will expect your response on or before February 23, 1984. In addition, enclosed are the attachments which you requested in your letter.

If you have any questions, please contact Marybeth Tarrant at (202) 523-4057.

Sincerely,

Charles N. Steele

12/ While the Brown Committee stated in its response to the RFAI that this contribution was refunded, the refund does not show up on any of the committee reports.

13/ Brown committee stated this was earmarked funds. This is verified by reports of the Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee's reports.

Re: MUR 1601

Dear Mr. Pines:

On January 3, 1984, the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and you, as treasurer of the committee, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b, provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") by accepting excessive contributions and corporate and labor union contributions. The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you and the committee. Please submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter within ten days of your receipt of this letter.

In the absence of any additional information demonstrating that no further action should be taken against you and the committee, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if you so desire. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d).

If you and the committee intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and a statement authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

Letter to Burt Pines

The investigation now being conducted will be confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you and the committee notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Marybeth Tarrant, the staff member assigned to this matter, at 202/523-4057.

Sincerely,

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

It is alleged that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, accepted excessive, corporate, and labor union contributions in violation of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Excessive Contributions

The Brown for U.S. Senate committee's 1981 Mid-Year Report disclosed the receipt of $4,100 in excessive contributions designated for the primary election from the following five (5) individuals: Jaswan-Singh Bains, Daniel Berke, Esmeralda Contreras, Chanchal Rai and Florence Smerling. See Attachment 1. Two of the contributions exceeded the limitation by $500 (Bains and Rai), two exceeded the limitation by $800 (Contreras and Smerling) and one contribution exceeded the limitation by $1,500 (Berke). During July and August 1981, the committee made refunds to all of the individuals except Chanchal Rai. As of this date, no refund has been made to Chanchal Rai. 1/

85040561816

A Request for Additional Information (RFAI) was sent on March 23, 1982 by RAD. The RFAI acknowledged the refunds and noted the possibility of Commission action regarding the acceptance of the excessive contributions.

In its 1981 Year End Report, the committee reported receiving $5,000 and $4,000, designated for the primary and general elections, respectively, from the Armenian National Committee PAC (C00146969) on December 16, 1981. The committee also reported receiving $4,000 on December 28, 1981, designated for the primary election, and $5,000 on December 22, 1981, designated for the general election, from the Californians for Better Government Political Action Committee - formerly known as Brown PAC - (C00140434). These PACs had not qualified as multicandidate committees when the contributions were received. 2/

1/ It appears that the committee may have inadvertently itemized the same contribution twice on the 1981 Mid-Year Report. One page of the report shows two contributions from Rai, one for $500 on June 13, 1981 and one for $1,000 on June 24, 1981, both designated for the primary. The report also shows another $500 contribution on June 13, 1981, designated for the general. In both instances, however, the committee reported an aggregate of $1,500 from Rai.

2/ The Armenian National Committee PAC qualified as a multicandidate committee on May 19, 1982. Brown PAC qualified on April 14, 1982.

In addition, the committee's 1982 April Quarterly Report disclosed the receipt of an additional $1,000, designated for the primary election, from the Armenian National Committee PAC on February 15, 1982. Thus, the total amount of excessive funds received from these non-qualified committees was $15,000. See Attachment 2.

On July 6, 1982, an RFAI was sent to the Brown committee regarding the possible acceptance of excessive contributions from the two PACs. The July 14, 1982, response to the RFAI noted that $9,000 had been refunded to "Brown PAC" on April 6, 1982, and $8,000 had been refunded to the Armenian National Committee PAC on June 9, 1982.

On June 14, 1982, after it had qualified as a multicandidate committee, the Armenian National Committee PAC recontributed $8,000 to the Brown committee -- $4,000 designated for the primary and $4,000 designated for the general. The $4,000 designated for the primary was excessive, however, because it was received after the primary, at a time when the Brown committee had no primary debts. An RFAI regarding this issue was sent to the committee on January 14, 1983. A Second Notice indicating no response from the committee was sent on February 4, 1983. 3/

3/ While the RAD Referral indicates the committee did not respond, on its 1982 October Quarterly Report, the Brown committee reported refunding an additional $4,000 to the Armenian National Committee PAC.

85040561818

On October 7, 1983, an RFAI was sent to the committee regarding a possible excessive contribution from the Retail Political Action Committee. The contribution was made on June 5, 1982. The committee responded by stating that it was not aware that Retail PAC had not qualified as a multicandidate committee and that, on October 11, 1983, the excess amount ($1,000) was refunded. See Attachment 3.

B. Corporate Contributions

The committee's 1981 Mid-Year Report disclosed forty-six (46) receipts totalling $25,094.41 that appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts. The committee's 1981 Year End Report disclosed an additional forty-nine (49) receipts totalling $29,250 that appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts. RFAIs addressing both reports and noting the committee's possible receipt of funds prohibited under the Act were sent on May 4, 1982. The committee's May 11, 1982 response noted that the itemized receipts questioned by the RFAI were either "sole proprietorship or non-corporate partnership contributions acceptable under the law."

On June 9, 1982, RAD sent a letter to the Secretary of State of California, Corporation Filing Division/Status & Records ("Secretary of State") requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status and date of incorporation, if applicable, of these entities. The request dealt with entities disclosed on the

1981 Mid-Year, 1981 Year End and 1982 April Quarterly Reports. A response was received from the Secretary of State on June 17, 1982.

The response indicated that only nine (9) of the entities in question on the Mid-Year Report and only six (6) of the entities in question on the Year End Report were incorporated. Contributions from these entities totalled $10,100. Consequently, a Second Notice was sent to the committee on June 25, 1982, noting receipt of these fifteen (15) corporate contributions. See Attachment 4.

On July 7, 1982, the committee responded. As to the nine contributions questioned in the Mid-Year Report, the committee stated that six contributions totalling $3,500 had been refunded on August 1, 1982, and one $1,000 contribution had been refunded on June 30, 1982. 4/ The committee explained that it had not returned the two remaining contributions because the $1,000 disclosed as having been received from Genesis International Trading, Co. was actually a personal contribution from a company employee, 5/ and the $250 check from Amigo Development Co. Ltd. did not constitute a contribution because it was drawn against an account containing insufficient funds to cover the check.

4/ The Committee stated that the $1,000 had been refunded to CD Investments, Inc., however, no such refund appears in the committee's reports.

5/ While it was not noted in the RAD Referral, the committee also amended its report to show that this was a contribution from William Burke, President of Genesis International Trading Co. and stated that it was made with a personal check. See Attachment 5.

8 5 0 4 0 5 6 1 8 2 0

As to the six contributions disclosed on the Year End Report, the response stated that one $400 contribution had been refunded on June 30, 1982, one $500 contribution reported as being from Consolidated Land Co. Inc., was actually a personal contribution from its owner, Bobbie Cornelius, each of three $1,000 contributions were from a "Private Co. Not Corp." and the remaining $400 contribution was in the form of "earmarked funds" from the Rockwell International Corporation. The response referenced an "attached letter" concerning the earmarked funds from the Rockwell International Corporation, however, the letter was not attached to the response. It is assumed that the committee meant that certain individuals who contributed to the Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee had earmarked those funds for the Brown Committee. 6/ See Attachment 6.

A RAD staff member contacted the committee regarding the response. The committee was asked to explain what it meant by "Private Co. v. Private Corp." and to clarify whether the "personal" contributions were drawn from personal accounts, repayable corporate accounts, or non-repayable corporate accounts. No response was received.

6/ The Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee's reports substantiate the committee's claim that the $400 contribution reported as coming from Rockwell Corp. was actually earmarked funds from two individuals. The Brown committee has still not identified the individuals in its reports.

The committee's 1982 April Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-Primary, 1982 July Quarterly, 1982 October Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-General, and 1982 30 Day Post-General Reports disclosed the receipt of sixteen (16) apparent corporate contributions totalling $6,900, during the period from February 12, 1982, through November 22, 1982. 7/ See Attachment 7. RFAIs concerning the apparent receipt of corporate contributions shown on these reports were sent on December 7, 1982 and January 14, 1983.

On December 14, 1982, the committee sent a letter stating that its 1982 July Quarterly Report should be amended to indicate that two of these contributions, Adray's CBS Premiums and Sol Schwartz Jewelry Co., had been refunded as of December 14, 1982. However, these refunds were not reported on the committee's 1982 Year End Report. In addition, the committee stated that the R&S Associates that contributed to their committee is located in San Francisco while the the R&S Associates listed as a corporation with the Secretary of State is located in Los Angeles. See Attachment 8.

On February 4, 1983, the committee was sent a Second Notice for failure to respond to the January 14, 1983, RFAI. While the committee did not respond to the RFAI, on its 1983 Mid-Year Report, it did report refunding nine of the contributions in question on January 28, 1983. However, we have no explanation as to why the other contributions were not refunded.

7/ This number is based on the Secretary of State's responses to letters from RAD dated August 24, December 8, and December 23, 1982, requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status of numerous entities appearing in the aforementioned reports. It is noted, however, that there are discrepancies in the responses received from the Secretary of State.

It is noted that the committee consistently reported corporate and non-corporate contributions as being either "transmitted for" or "transmitted by" particular individuals. Many of the above discussed contributions were reported in that manner. See example at Attachment 9. When questioned by RAD, the committee stated that those terms indicated the reporting of contributions through an intermediary and that in all cases they meant transmitted "for." See Attachment 10. However, it appears that the committee is confused and does not mean that these contributions were collected by an intermediary. Rather, it seems that they are reporting the business name appearing on the contribution check along with the individual to whom they feel the contribution should be attributed.

C. Labor Union Contribution

On June 18, 1981, the committee received a $500 contribution from the Federated Fire Fighters. See Attachment 11. It appears that this contribution may be from a labor organization, however, the committee was not requested by RAD to provide more information regarding the contributor's possible labor union status.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), a committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution in violation of the limitations set forth in section 441a.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a), a political committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation and/or a labor organization.

Contributions which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign depository and reported. If deposited, the treasurer shall make and retain a written record noting the basis for the appearance of illegality. A statement noting that the legality of the contribution is in question should be included in the report. The treasurer shall make his or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution. 11 C.F.R.

§ 103.3(b)(1). When a contribution cannot be determined to be legal, refunds shall be made within a reasonable time, and the treasurer shall note the refund by amending the current report or noting the change on the committee's next required report.

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2).

The reports filed by the Brown committee indicate that the committee accepted excessive contributions from at least 5 individuals and 3 political action committees as well as, at least 30 corporate contributions and possibly one union

contribution. As approximately $40,000 in prohibited contributions appear to be involved, and as the committee has not yet completely rectified or adequately explained all of the prohibited contributions at issue, it is recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b.

In response to a request from Commissioner Reiche, the Office of General Counsel wishes to clarify recommendation #2 in the First General Counsel's Report in MUR 1601 to read as follows:

Take no further action against the Armenian National Committee PAC.

This amended recommendation does not change the substance of the recommendation to take no further action but adds the word "further" making implicit reference to the conciliation agreement entered into with the Armenian National Committee PAC in the context of another matter relating to the Brown for Senate Committee. See the discussion in MUR 1601 First General Counsel's Report regarding MUR 1461.

The suspense date for voting on the recommendations in MUR 1601 is Tuesday, January 3, 1984.

GENERATION OF MATTER

The Brown for U.S. Senate committee was the principal campaign committee for 1982 senatorial candidate, Edmund G. Brown, Jr. Burt Pines is the committee treasurer.

This matter was referred to the Office of General Counsel by the Reports Analysis Division (RAD). On November 18, 1983, the Commission voted to open a MUR in this matter.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

It is alleged that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, accepted excessive, corporate, and labor union contributions in violation of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b.

85040561831

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Excessive Contributions

The Brown for U.S. Senate committee's 1981 Mid-Year Report disclosed the receipt of $4,100 in excessive contributions designated for the primary election from the following five (5) individuals: Jaswan-Singh Bains, Daniel Berke, Esmeralda Contreras, Chanchal Rai and Florence Smerling. See Attachment 1. Two of the contributions exceeded the limitation by $500 (Bains and Rai), two exceeded the limitation by $800 (Contreras and Smerling) and one contribution exceeded the limitation by $1,500 (Berke). During July and August 1981, the committee made refunds to all of the individuals except Chanchal Rai. As of this date, no refund has been made to Chanchal Rai. 1/

A Request for Additional Information (RFAI) was sent on March 23, 1982 by RAD. The RFAI acknowledged the refunds and noted the possibility of Commission action regarding the acceptance of the excessive contributions.

In its 1981 Year End Report, the committee reported receiving $5,000 and $4,000, designated for the primary and general elections, respectively, from the Armenian National Committee PAC (C00146969) on December 16, 1981. The committee also reported receiving $4,000 on

1/ It appears that the committee may have inadvertently itemized the same contribution twice on the 1981 Mid-Year Report. One page of the report shows two contributions from Rai, one for $500 on June 13, 1981 and one for $1,000 on June 24, 1981, both designated for the primary. The report also shows another $500 contribution on June 13, 1981, designated for the general. In both instances, however, the committee reported an aggregate of $1,500 from Rai.

December 28, 1981, designated for the primary election, and $5,000 on December 22, 1981, designated for the general election, from the Californians for Better Government Political Action Committee - formerly known as Brown PAC - (C00140434). These PACs had not qualified as multicandidate committees when the contributions were received. 2/

In addition, the committee's 1982 April Quarterly Report disclosed the receipt of an additional $1,000, designated for the primary election, from the Armenian National Committee PAC on February 15, 1982. Thus, the total amount of excessive funds received from these non-qualified committees was $15,000. 3/ See Attachment 2.

On July 6, 1982, an RFAI was sent to the Brown committee regarding the possible acceptance of excessive contributions from the two PACs. The July 14, 1982, response to the RFAI noted that

2/ The Armenian National Committee PAC qualified as a multicandidate committee on May 19, 1982. Brown PAC qualified on April 14, 1982.

3/ With regard to the excessive contributions from the Armenian National Committee PAC, on January 18, 1983, in the context of MUR 1461, the Commission voted to find reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions from the PAC, but to take no further action against the Brown Committee. In addition, the Armenian National Committee PAC has signed a conciliation agreement admitting to these and other violations. With regard to the excessive contributions from Brown PAC, on February 24, 1983, in the context of RAD Referral 83L-5, the Commission voted to decline to open a MUR concerning the Californians for Better Government PAC's (formerly Brown PAC) excessive contributions to the Brown for U.S. Senate committee.

$9,000 had been refunded to "Brown PAC" on April 6, 1982, and $8,000 had been refunded to the Armenian National Committee PAC on June 9, 1982.

On June 14, 1982, after it had qualified as a multicandidate committee, the Armenian National Committee PAC recontributed $8,000 to the Brown committee -- $4,000 designated for the primary and $4,000 designated for the general. The $4,000 designated for the primary was excessive, however, because it was received after the primary, at a time when the Brown committee had no primary debts. An RFAI regarding this issue was sent to the committee on January 14, 1983. A Second Notice indicating no response from the committee was sent on February 4, 1983. 4/

On October 7, 1983, an RFAI was sent to the committee regarding a possible excessive contribution from the Retail Political Action Committee. The contribution was made on June 5, 1982. The committee responded by stating that it was not aware that Retail PAC had not qualified as a multicandidate committee and that, on October 11, 1983, the excess amount ($1,000) was refunded. See Attachment 3.

B. Corporate Contributions

The committee's 1981 Mid-Year Report disclosed forty-six (46) receipts totalling $25,094.41 that appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts. The committee's 1981 Year End Report disclosed an additional forty-nine (49) receipts totalling $29,250 that appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts. RFAIs addressing both reports and noting the committee's possible receipt of funds prohibited under the Act were sent on May 4, 1982. The committee's May 11, 1982 response noted that the itemized receipts questioned by the RFAI were either "sole proprietorship or non-corporate partnership contributions acceptable under the law."

On June 9, 1982, RAD sent a letter to the Secretary of State of California, Corporation Filing Division/Status & Records ("Secretary of State") requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status and date of incorporation, if applicable, of these entities. The request dealt with entities disclosed on the 1981 Mid-Year, 1981 Year End and 1982 April Quarterly Reports. A response was received from the Secretary of State on June 17, 1982.

The response indicated that only nine (9) of the entities in question on the Mid-Year Report and only six (6) of the entities in question on the Year End Report were incorporated. Contributions from these entities totalled $10,100. Consequently, a Second Notice was sent to the committee on June 25, 1982, noting receipt of these fifteen (15) corporate contributions. See Attachment 4.

On July 7, 1982, the committee responded. As to the nine contributions questioned in the Mid-Year Report, the committee stated that six contributions totalling $3,500 had been refunded on August 1, 1982, and one $1,000 contribution had been refunded on June 30, 1982. 5/ The committee explained that it had not returned the two remaining contributions because the $1,000 disclosed as having been received from Genesis International Trading, Co. was actually a personal contribution from a company employee, 6/ and the $250 check from Amigo Development Co. Ltd. did not constitute a contribution because it was drawn against an account containing insufficient funds to cover the check.

As to the six contributions disclosed on the Year End Report, the response stated that one $400 contribution had been refunded on June 30, 1982, one $500 contribution reported as being from Consolidated Land Co. Inc., was actually a personal contribution from its owner, Bobbie Cornelius, each of three $1,000 contributions were from a "Private Co. Not Corp." and the remaining $400 contribution was in the form of "earmarked funds" from the Rockwell International Corporation. The response referenced an "attached letter" concerning the earmarked funds from the Rockwell International Corporation, however, the letter was not attached to the response. It is assumed that the

5/ The Committee stated that the $1,000 had been refunded to CD Investments, Inc., however, no such refund appears in the committee's reports.

6/ While it was not noted in the RAD Referral, the committee also amended its report to show that this was a contribution from William Burke, President of Genesis International Trading Co. and stated that it was made with a personal check. See Attachment 5.

committee meant that certain individuals who contributed to the Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee had earmarked those funds for the Brown Committee. 7/ See Attachment 6.

A RAD staff member contacted the committee regarding the response. The committee was asked to explain what it meant by "Private Co. v. Private Corp." and to clarify whether the "personal" contributions were drawn from personal accounts, repayable corporate accounts, or non-repayable corporate accounts. No response was received.

The committee's 1982 April Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-Primary, 1982 July Quarterly, 1982 October Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-General, and 1982 30 Day Post-General Reports disclosed the receipt of sixteen (16) apparent corporate contributions totalling $6,900, during the period from February 12, 1982, through November 22, 1982. 8/ See Attachment 7. RFAIs concerning the apparent receipt of corporate contributions shown on these reports were sent on December 7, 1982 and January 14, 1983.

7/ The Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee's reports substantiate the committee's claim that the $400 contribution reported as coming from Rockwell Corp. was actually earmarked funds from two individuals. The Brown committee has still not identified the individuals in its reports.

8/ This number is based on the Secretary of State's responses to letters from RAD dated August 24, December 8, and December 23, 1982, requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status of numerous entities appearing in the aforementioned reports. It is noted, however, that there are discrepancies in the responses received from the Secretary of State.

On December 14, 1982, the committee sent a letter stating that its 1982 July Quarterly Report should be amended to indicate that two of these contributions, Adray's CBS Premiums and Sol Schwartz Jewelry Co., had been refunded as of December 14, 1982. However, these refunds were not reported on the committee's 1982 Year End Report. In addition, the committee stated that the R&S Associates that contributed to their committee is located in San Francisco while the the R&S Associates listed as a corporation with the Secretary of State is located in Los Angeles. See Attachment 8.

On February 4, 1983, the committee was sent a Second Notice for failure to respond to the January 14, 1983, RFAI. While the committee did not respond to the RFAI, on its 1983 Mid-Year Report, it did report refunding nine of the contributions in question on January 28, 1983. However, we have no explanation as to why the other contributions were not refunded.

It is noted that the committee consistently reported corporate and non-corporate contributions as being either "transmitted for" or "transmitted by" particular individuals. Many of the above discussed contributions were reported in that manner. See example at Attachment 9. When questioned by RAD, the committee stated that those terms indicated the reporting of contributions through an intermediary and that in all cases they meant transmitted "for." See Attachment 10. However, it appears that the committee is confused and does not mean that these contributions were collected by an intermediary. Rather, it seems that they are reporting the business name appearing on the contribution check along with the individual to whom they feel the contribution should be attributed.

C. Labor Union Contribution

On June 18, 1981, the committee received a $500 contribution from the Federated Fire Fighters. See Attachment 11. It appears that this contribution may be from a labor organization, however, the committee was not requested by RAD to provide more information regarding the contributor's possible labor union status.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), a committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution in violation of the limitations set forth in section 441a.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a), a political committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation and/or a labor organization.

Contributions which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign depository and reported. If deposited, the treasurer shall make and retain a written record noting the basis for the appearance of illegality. A statement noting that the legality of the contribution is in question should be included in the report. The treasurer shall make his or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution. 11 C.F.R.

§ 103.3(b)(1). When a contribution cannot be determined to be legal, refunds shall be made within a reasonable time, and the treasurer shall note the refund by amending the current report or noting the change on the committee's next required report.

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2).

The reports filed by the Brown committee indicate that the committee accepted excessive contributions from at least 5 individuals and 3 political action committees as well as, at least 30 corporate contributions and possibly one union contribution. As approximately $40,000 in prohibited contributions appear to be involved, and as the committee has not yet completely rectified or adequately explained all of the prohibited contributions at issue, it is recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b.

With respect to the Armenian National Committee PAC and Californians for Better Government PAC (Brown PAC), in light of the Commission's actions taken in MUR 1461 and RAD Referral 83L-5, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission take no action against these committees. With respect to all other contributors, as the Committee appears to have relevant information/documentation concerning some contributions or, in some cases, merely needs to amend its reports, the General Counsel will make further recommendations concerning the contributors at a later date, pursuant to the committee's response.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) and 441b.
2. Take no action against the Armenian National Committee PAC.
3. Take no action against the Californians for Better Government PAC.
4. Approve the attached letter and analysis.

Dear Sirs:

In reply to your letter dated March 23, 1982 regarding the FEC report dated 1/1/81 through 6/30/81, we submit the following information:

- 1 - " Transmitted for" and "transmitted by" in all cases means the reporting of a contribution through an intermediary as directed by the Federal Election law. We have probably confused the report by using both "for" and "by". In all cases substitute "for" and the report will be clearer.
- 2 - Contributions received in excess of the legal limit in this period have all been refunded as required by law. We have responded in the refunds as quickly as the excess was discovered.

Very Truly Yours,

TOMI KENNEDY

Brown for U.S. Senate
1125 West 6th Street
3rd Floor
Los Angeles, California 90017

Re: MUR 1601

Dear Mr. Pines:

On , 198 , the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and you, as treasurer of the committee, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b, provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") by accepting excessive contributions and corporate and labor union contributions. The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you and the committee. Please submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter within ten days of your receipt of this letter.

In the absence of any additional information demonstrating that no further action should be taken against you and the committee, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if you so desire. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d).

If you and the committee intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and a statement authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Marybeth Tarrant, the staff member assigned to this matter, at 202/523-4057.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

It is alleged that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, accepted excessive, corporate, and labor union contributions in violation of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Excessive Contributions

The Brown for U.S. Senate committee's 1981 Mid-Year Report disclosed the receipt of $4,100 in excessive contributions designated for the primary election from the following five (5) individuals: Jaswan-Singh Bains, Daniel Berke, Esmeralda Contreras, Chanchal Rai and Florence Smerling. See Attachment 1. Two of the contributions exceeded the limitation by $500 (Bains and Rai), two exceeded the limitation by $800 (Contreras and Smerling) and one contribution exceeded the limitation by $1,500 (Berke). During July and August 1981, the committee made refunds

to all of the individuals except Chanchal Rai. As of this date, no refund has been made to Chanchal Rai. 1/

A Request for Additional Information (RFAI) was sent on March 23, 1982 by RAD. The RFAI acknowledged the refunds and noted the possibility of Commission action regarding the acceptance of the excessive contributions.

In its 1981 Year End Report, the committee reported receiving $5,000 and $4,000, designated for the primary and general elections, respectively, from the Armenian National Committee PAC (C00146969) on December 16, 1981. The committee also reported receiving $4,000 on December 28, 1981, designated for the primary election, and $5,000 on December 22, 1981, designated for the general election, from the Californians for Better Government Political Action Committee - formerly known as Brown PAC - (C00140434). These PACs had not qualified as multicandidate committees when the contributions were received. 2/

1/ It appears that the committee may have inadvertently itemized the same contribution twice on the 1981 Mid-Year Report. One page of the report shows two contributions from Rai, one for $500 on June 13, 1981 and one for $1,000 on June 24, 1981, both designated for the primary. The report also shows another $500 contribution on June 13, 1981, designated for the general. In both instances, however, the committee reported an aggregate of $1,500 from Rai.

2/ The Armenian National Committee PAC qualified as a multicandidate committee on May 19, 1982. Brown PAC qualified on April 14, 1982.

In addition, the committee's 1982 April Quarterly Report disclosed the receipt of an additional $1,000, designated for the primary election, from the Armenian National Committee PAC on February 15, 1982. Thus, the total amount of excessive funds received from these non-qualified committees was $15,000. See Attachment 2.

On July 6, 1982, an RFAI was sent to the Brown committee regarding the possible acceptance of excessive contributions from the two PACs. The July 14, 1982, response to the RFAI noted that $9,000 had been refunded to "Brown PAC" on April 6, 1982, and $8,000 had been refunded to the Armenian National Committee PAC on June 9, 1982.

On June 14, 1982, after it had qualified as a multicandidate committee, the Armenian National Committee PAC recontributed $8,000 to the Brown committee -- $4,000 designated for the primary and $4,000 designated for the general. The $4,000 designated for the primary was excessive, however, because it was received after the primary, at a time when the Brown committee had no primary debts. An RFAI regarding this issue was sent to the committee on January 14, 1983. A Second Notice indicating no response from the committee was sent on February 4, 1983. 3/

3/ While the RAD Referral indicates the committee did not respond, on its 1982 October Quarterly Report, the Brown committee reported refunding an additional $4,000 to the Armenian National Committee PAC.

On October 7, 1983, an RFAI was sent to the committee regarding a possible excessive contribution from the Retail Political Action Committee. The contribution was made on June 5, 1982. The committee responded by stating that it was not aware that Retail PAC had not qualified as a multicandidate committee and that, on October 11, 1983, the excess amount ($1,000) was refunded. See Attachment 3.

B. Corporate Contributions

The committee's 1981 Mid-Year Report disclosed forty-six (46) receipts totalling $25,094.41 that appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts. The committee's 1981 Year End Report disclosed an additional forty-nine (49) receipts totalling $29,250 that appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts. RFAIs addressing both reports and noting the committee's possible receipt of funds prohibited under the Act were sent on May 4, 1982. The committee's May 11, 1982 response noted that the itemized receipts questioned by the RFAI were either "sole proprietorship or non-corporate partnership contributions acceptable under the law."

On June 9, 1982, RAD sent a letter to the Secretary of State of California, Corporation Filing Division/Status & Records ("Secretary of State") requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status and date of incorporation, if applicable, of these entities. The request dealt with entities disclosed on the

1981 Mid-Year, 1981 Year End and 1982 April Quarterly Reports. A response was received from the Secretary of State on June 17, 1982.

The response indicated that only nine (9) of the entities in question on the Mid-Year Report and only six (6) of the entities in question on the Year End Report were incorporated. Contributions from these entities totalled $10,100. Consequently, a Second Notice was sent to the committee on June 25, 1982, noting receipt of these fifteen (15) corporate contributions. See Attachment 4.

On July 7, 1982, the committee responded. As to the nine contributions questioned in the Mid-Year Report, the committee stated that six contributions totalling $3,500 had been refunded on August 1, 1982, and one $1,000 contribution had been refunded on June 30, 1982. 4/ The committee explained that it had not returned the two remaining contributions because the $1,000 disclosed as having been received from Genesis International Trading, Co. was actually a personal contribution from a company employee, 5/ and the $250 check from Amigo Development Co. Ltd. did not constitute a contribution because it was drawn against an account containing insufficient funds to cover the check.

4/ The Committee stated that the $1,000 had been refunded to CD Investments, Inc., however, no such refund appears in the committee's reports.

5/ While it was not noted in the RAD Referral, the committee also amended its report to show that this was a contribution from William Burke, President of Genesis International Trading Co. and stated that it was made with a personal check. See Attachment 5.

As to the six contributions disclosed on the Year End Report, the response stated that one $400 contribution had been refunded on June 30, 1982, one $500 contribution reported as being from Consolidated Land Co. Inc., was actually a personal contribution from its owner, Bobbie Cornelius, each of three $1,000 contributions were from a "Private Co. Not Corp." and the remaining $400 contribution was in the form of "earmarked funds" from the Rockwell International Corporation. The response referenced an "attached letter" concerning the earmarked funds from the Rockwell International Corporation, however, the letter was not attached to the response. It is assumed that the committee meant that certain individuals who contributed to the Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee had earmarked those funds for the Brown Committee. 6/ See Attachment 6.

A RAD staff member contacted the committee regarding the response. The committee was asked to explain what it meant by "Private Co. v. Private Corp." and to clarify whether the "personal" contributions were drawn from personal accounts, repayable corporate accounts, or non-repayable corporate accounts. No response was received.

6/ The Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee's reports substantiate the committee's claim that the $400 contribution reported as coming from Rockwell Corp. was actually earmarked funds from two individuals. The Brown committee has still not identified the individuals in its reports.

The committee's 1982 April Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-Primary, 1982 July Quarterly, 1982 October Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-General, and 1982 30 Day Post-General Reports disclosed the receipt of sixteen (16) apparent corporate contributions totalling $6,900, during the period from February 12, 1982, through November 22, 1982. 7/ See Attachment 7. RFAIs concerning the apparent receipt of corporate contributions shown on these reports were sent on December 7, 1982 and January 14, 1983.

On December 14, 1982, the committee sent a letter stating that its 1982 July Quarterly Report should be amended to indicate that two of these contributions, Adray's CBS Premiums and Sol Schwartz Jewelry Co., had been refunded as of December 14, 1982. However, these refunds were not reported on the committee's 1982 Year End Report. In addition, the committee stated that the R&S Associates that contributed to their committee is located in San Francisco while the the R&S Associates listed as a corporation with the Secretary of State is located in Los Angeles. See Attachment 8.

On February 4, 1983, the committee was sent a Second Notice for failure to respond to the January 14, 1983, RFAI. While the committee did not respond to the RFAI, on its 1983 Mid-Year Report, it did report refunding nine of the contributions in question on January 28, 1983. However, we have no explanation as to why the other contributions were not refunded.

7/ This number is based on the Secretary of State's responses to letters from RAD dated August 24, December 8, and December 23, 1982, requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status of numerous entities appearing in the aforementioned reports. It is noted, however, that there are discrepancies in the responses received from the Secretary of State.

It is noted that the committee consistently reported corporate and non-corporate contributions as being either "transmitted for" or "transmitted by" particular individuals. Many of the above discussed contributions were reported in that manner. See example at Attachment 9. When questioned by RAD, the committee stated that those terms indicated the reporting of contributions through an intermediary and that in all cases they meant transmitted "for." See Attachment 10. However, it appears that the committee is confused and does not mean that these contributions were collected by an intermediary. Rather, it seems that they are reporting the business name appearing on the contribution check along with the individual to whom they feel the contribution should be attributed.

C. Labor Union Contribution

On June 18, 1981, the committee received a $500 contribution from the Federated Fire Fighters. See Attachment 11. It appears that this contribution may be from a labor organization, however, the committee was not requested by RAD to provide more information regarding the contributor's possible labor union status.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), a committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution in violation of the limitations set forth in section 441a.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a), a political committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation and/or a labor organization.

Contributions which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign depository and reported. If deposited, the treasurer shall make and retain a written record noting the basis for the appearance of illegality. A statement noting that the legality of the contribution is in question should be included in the report. The treasurer shall make his or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution. 11 C.F.R.

§ 103.3(b)(1). When a contribution cannot be determined to be legal, refunds shall be made within a reasonable time, and the treasurer shall note the refund by amending the current report or noting the change on the committee's next required report.

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2).

The reports filed by the Brown committee indicate that the committee accepted excessive contributions from at least 5 individuals and 3 political action committees as well as, at least 30 corporate contributions and possibly one union

85040561866

contribution. As approximately $40,000 in prohibited contributions appear to be involved, and as the committee has not yet completely rectified or adequately explained all of the prohibited contributions at issue, it is recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b.

SUMMARY OF RAD ACTIONS

A. Referral category 3 (receipt of excessive contributions in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f))

The Brown for U.S. Senate committee's 1981 Mid-Year Report disclosed the receipt of $4,100 in excessive contributions designated for the primary election from five (5) individuals Jaswan-Singh Bains, Daniel Berke, Esmeralda Contreras, Chanchal Rai and Florence Smerling. See Attachment 3. Two of the contributions exceeded the limitation by $500 (Bains and Rai), two exceeded the limitation by $800 (Contreras and Smerling) and one contribution exceeded the limitation by $1,500 (Berke). During July and August 1981, the committee made refunds to all of the individuals except Chanchal Rai. As of this date, no refund has been made to Chanchal Rai. 1/

A Request for Additional Information (RFAI) was sent on March 23, 1982. The RFAI acknowledged the refunds and noted the possibility of Commission action regarding the acceptance of the excessive contributions.

In its 1981 Year End Report, the committee reported receiving $5,000 and $4,000, designated for the primary and general elections, respectively, from the Armenian National Committee PAC (C00146969) on December 16, 1981. The committee also reported receiving $4,000 on December 28, 1981, designated for the primary election, and $5,000 on December 22, 1981, designated for the general election, from the Californians for Better Government Political Action Committee - formerly known as Brown PAC - (C00140434). These PACs had not qualified as multicandidate committees when the contributions were received. 2/

In addition, the committee's 1982 April Quarterly Report disclosed the receipt of an additional $1,000 designated for the primary election, from the Armenian National Committee PAC on

1/ It appears that the committee may have inadvertently itemized the same contribution twice on the 1981 Mid-Year Report. One page of the report shows two contributions from Rai, one for $500 on June 13, 1981 and one for $1,000 on June 24, 1981, both designated for the primary. February 15, 1982. Thus, the total amount of excessive funds received from these non-qualified committees was $15,000. 3/ See Attachment 4.

On July 6, 1982, an RFAI was sent to the Brown committee regarding the possible acceptance of excessive contributions from the two PACs. The July 14, 1982, response to the RFAI noted that $9,000 had been refunded to "Brown PAC" (sic) on April 6, 1982, and $8,000 had been refunded to the Armenian National Committee PAC on June 9, 1982. See Attachments 5 and 6.

On June 14, 1982, the Armenian National Committee PAC recontributed $8,000 to the Brown committee -- $4,000 designated for the primary and $4,000 designated for the general. The $4,000 designated for the primary was excessive, however, because it was received after the primary, at a time when the Brown committee had no primary debts. An RFAI regarding this issue was sent to the committee on January 14, 1983. A Second Notice indicating no response from the committee was sent on February 4, 1983. 4/

3/ With regard to the excessive contributions from the Armenian National PAC, on January 18, 1983, in the context of MUR 1461, the Commission voted to find reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions from the PAC, but to take no further action against the Brown Committee. With regard to the excessive contributions from Brown PAC, on February 24, 1983, in the context of RAD Referral 83L-5, the Commission voted to decline to open a MUR concerning the Californians for Better Government PAC's (formerly Brown PAC) excessive contributions to the Brown for U.S. Senate committee.

4/ While the RAD Referral indicates the committee did not respond, the $4,000 that was recontributed to the committee for the primary election was refunded on September 15, 1982.

8 5 0 4 0 5 6 1 8 7 2

B. Referral category 4 (receipt of corporate contributions in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441b)

The committee's 1981 Mid-Year Report disclosed forty-six (46) receipts totalling $25,094.41 that appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts. The committee's 1981 Year End Report disclosed an additional forty-nine (49) receipts totalling $29,250 that appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts. RFAIs addressing both reports and noting the committee's possible receipt of funds prohibited under the Act were sent on May 4, 1982. The committee's May 11, 1982 response noted that the itemized receipts questioned by the RFAI were either "sole proprietorship or non-corporate partnership contributions acceptable under the law." See Attachment 7.

On June 9, 1982, a letter was sent to the Secretary of State of California, Corporation Filing Division/Status & Records ("Secretary of State") requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status and date of incorporation, if applicable, of these entities. 5/ The request dealt with entities disclosed on the 1981 Mid-Year, 1981 Year End and 1982 April Quarterly Reports. A response was received from the Secretary of State on June 17, 1982.

5/ While the RAD Review and Referral Procedures for Authorized Committees state that the RAD analyst will check with the Secretary of State when the contributor's name is followed by a word such as Corp., Inc., Co., Limited, etc. (see p. 30 of the procedures), several entities whose names had no such designation were questioned. See Attachment 13. As it turns out, many of the questioned entities were found not to be incorporated.

The response indicated that only nine (9) of the entities in question on the Mid-Year Report and only six (6) of the entities in question on the Year End Report were incorporated. Contributions from these entities totalled $10,100. Consequently, a Second Notice was sent to the committee on June 25, 1982, noting receipt of these fifteen (15) corporate contributions. See Attachment 8.

On July 7, 1982, the committee responded. As to the nine contributions questioned in the Mid-Year Report, the committee stated that six contributions totalling $3,500 had been refunded on August 1, 1982, and one $1,000 contribution had been refunded on June 30, 1982. 6/ The committee explained that it had not returned the two remaining contributions because the $1,000 disclosed as being received from Genesis International Trading, Co. was actually a personal contribution from a company employee, and the $250 check from Amigo Development Co. Ltd. did not constitute a contribution because it was drawn against an account containing insufficient funds to cover the check.

As to the six contributions disclosed on the Year End Report, the response stated that one $400 contribution had been refunded on June 30, 1982, one $500 contribution reported as being from Consolidated Land Co. Inc., was actually a personal contribution from its owner, Bobbie Cornelius, each of three

$1,000 contributions were from a "Private Co. Not Corp." (sic) and the remaining $400 contribution was in the form of "earmarked funds" from the Rockwell International Corporation. The response referenced an "attached letter" concerning the earmarked funds from the Rockwell International Corporation, however, the letter was not attached to the response. It is assumed that the committee meant that certain individuals who contributed to the Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee had earmarked those funds for the Brown Committee. 7/

A RAD staff member contacted the committee regarding the response. The committee was asked to explain what it meant by "Private Co. v. Private Corp." and to clarify whether the "personal" contributions were drawn from personal accounts, repayable corporate accounts, or non-repayable corporate accounts. See Attachment 10. No response was received.

The committee's 1982 April Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-Primary, 1982 July Quarterly, 1982 October Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-General, and 1982 30 Day Post-General Reports disclosed the receipt of sixteen (16) apparent corporate contributions totalling $6,900, during the period from February 12, 1982, through November 22, 1982. 8/ See Attachment 11. RFAIs

7/ The Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee's reports substantiate the committee's claim that the $400 contribution reported as coming from Rockwell Corp. was actually earmarked funds from two individuals. The committee has still not identified the individuals.

8/ This number is based on the Secretary of State's responses to letters from RAD dated August 24, December 8, and December 23, 1982, requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status of numerous entities appearing in the aforementioned reports. It is noted, however, that there are discrepancies in the responses received from the Secretary of State.

concerning the apparent receipt of corporate contributions shown on these reports were sent on December 7, 1982 and January 14, 1983. On February 4, 1983, the committee was sent a Second Notice for failure to respond to the January 14, 1983, RFAI. While the committee did not respond to the RFAIs, on its 1983 Mid-Year Report, it did report refunding nine of the contributions in question on January 28, 1983. See Attachment 12. However, we have no explanation as to why the other contributions were not refunded.

OGC ANALYSIS

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), a committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution in violation of the limitations set forth in section 441a.

Contributions which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign depository and reported. If deposited, the treasurer shall make and retain a written record noting the basis for the appearance of illegality. A statement noting that the legality of the contribution is in question should be included in the report. The treasurer shall make his or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution. 11 C.F.R.

§ 103.3(b)(1). When a contribution cannot be determined to be legal, refunds shall be made within a reasonable time, and the treasurer shall note the refund by amending the current report or noting the change on the committee's next required report.

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2).

The reports filed by the Brown committee indicate that the committee accepted excessive contributions from at least 5 individuals and 2 political action committees and at least 31 corporate contributions. As over $40,000 in prohibited contributions appear to be involved, and as the committee has not yet completely rectified or adequately explained all of the prohibited contributions at issue, it is recommended that a Matter Under Review be opened.

MEMORANDUM

TO: CHARLES N. STEELE
GENERAL COUNSEL

THROUGH: JOHN C. SURINA
STAFF DIRECTOR

FROM: JOHN D. GIBSON
ASSISTANT STAFF DIRECTOR, RAD

SUBJECT: REFERRAL OF THE BROWN FOR U.S. SENATE COMMITTEE

This is a referral of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee (the "Committee"), FEC ID# C00141283. The Committee has received, and partially refunded, excessive contributions from persons and political committees during 1981 and 1982 which, according to the Review and Referral Procedures (Chart #3), require further examination by your office. The Committee was not sent a Request for Additional Information concerning the contribution from the Armenian National Committee on the 1982 April Quarterly Report, because it did not exceed the threshold for the 1982 calendar year.

Additionally, the Committee has received and partially refunded, contributions from incorporated entities for both the 1981 and 1982 calendar years which, according to the Review and Referral Procedures (Chart #4), require further examination by your office. The Committee contends that not all of the contributions are from incorporated entities.

The Committee was referred for a possible audit on March 4, 1983. On March 22, 1983, the Commission voted not to audit the committee.

The Committee was a respondent in MUR 1461, concerning the receipt of contributions from the Armenian National Committee in 1981 and 1982.

If you have any questions or need additional information on this matter, please contact Roberto Garcia at 523-4048.

III. BACKGROUND:

A. Receipt of Excessive Contributions - 2 U.S.C. 441a(f);
11 CFR 110.9(a)

The Brown for U.S. Senate Committee's (the "Committee") 1981 Mid-Year Report, covering from January 1, 1981 through June 30, 1981, disclosed the receipt of excessive contributions totalling $4,100, designated for the primary election from five (5) individuals. Two of the contributions exceeded the limitation by $500, two exceeded the limitation by $800, and one contribution exceeded the limitation by $1,500 (Attachment #2).^{1/} The Committee reported refunding the excessive portion of three of these contributions on August 1, 1981, for $500, $800, and $1,500 respectively, as well as refunding the excessive portion of a fourth contribution for $800, on July 15, 1981, all of which were reported on the 1981 Year End Report (Attachment #3).^{2/} The Committee did not disclose a refund of the remaining excessive contribution of $500.

^{1/} The attachment discloses other contributions that appear to be in excess of the limitation. This is because the Committee itemizes contributions designated to the Primary and General Elections separately, but discloses the full aggregate year-to-date totals.

^{2/} The report discloses additional contribution refunds described as "refund of unacceptable cont." The reason the Committee considered these contributions "unacceptable" is not known.

A Request for Additional Information (RFAI) was sent on March 23, 1982. The RFAI noted the refunds of the excessive amounts by the Committee to the individuals and also noted the possibility of Commission action regarding the acceptance of the excessive contributions (Attachment #4).

The Committee's 1981 Year End Report disclosed the receipts of $5,000 and $4,000, designated for the primary and general elections respectively, on December 16, 1981, from the Armenian National Committee PAC (C00146969).^{3/} The Committee also disclosed receipts of $4,000, on December 28, 1981, designated for the primary election, and $5,000, on December 22, 1981, designated for the general election from the Californians for Better Government Political Action Committee - formerly known as Brown PAC - (C00140434). These committees had not qualified as multi-candidate committees when the contributions were received. The total amount of excessive funds received from these non-qualified committees was $14,000 (Attachment #5).

The 1982 April Quarterly Report disclosed the receipt of an additional $1,000 from the Armenian National Committee on February 15, 1982 (Attachment #6). This contribution was designated for the primary election.

An RFAI was sent to the Committee on July 6, 1982, regarding the possible acceptance of excessive contributions from the two committees (Attachment #7). The response to the RFAI, dated July 14, 1982, noted that $9,000 had been refunded to the "Brown PAC" (sic) and reported on the 12 Day Pre-Primary Report, covering from April 1, 1982 through May 19, 1982, as well as $8,000 having been refunded to the Armenian National Committee PAC and reported on the July Quarterly Report, covering from May 20, 1982 through June 30, 1982 (Attachment #8).^{4/}

^{3/} The Armenian National Committee attained multi-candidate status on May 19, 1982.

^{4/} The original reports confirm the Committee's letter of July 14, 1982 (Attachments #9 & #10).

The Armenian National Committee's contribution of $4,000 after qualification for the primary election on June 14, 1982, was also excessive because it was received after the primary and the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee had no primary debts (Attachment #11). Another $4,000 had been received for the general election the same day. An RFAI was sent to the Committee on January 14, 1983 (Attachment #12). A no response Second Notice was sent on February 4, 1983 (Attachment #13). No response has been received.

B. Receipt of Prohibited Contributions - 2 U.S.C. 441b(a); 11 CFR 114.2(c)

The Committee's 1981 Mid-Year Report, covering from January 1, 1981, through June 30, 1981, disclosed forty-six (46) receipts totalling $25,094.41 which appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts (Attachment #14). The Committee's 1981 Year End Report, covering from July 1, 1981 through December 31, 1981, disclosed forty-nine (49) receipts totalling $29,250 which appeared to have been drawn on corporate and/or unregistered accounts (Attachment #15). RFAIs were sent on May 4, 1982, addressing both reports noting the possibility of receipts which were prohibited under the Act (Attachments #16 & #17). The response from the Committee, dated May 11, 1982, noted that the itemized receipts questioned by the RFAI were either "sole proprietorship or non-corporate partnership contributions acceptable under the law" (Attachment #18).

A letter was sent to the Secretary of State of California, Corporation Filing Division/Status & Records (Secretary of State), on June 9, 1982, requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status and date of incorporation if applicable of these entities (Attachment #19). The request dealt with entities disclosed on the 1981 Mid-Year, 1981 Year End and 1982 April Quarterly Reports. A response was received from the Secretary of State of California on June 17, 1982 (Attachment #20).

After contact with the Secretary of State of California, a Second Notice was sent to the Committee on June 25, 1982, noting that the May 11, 1982, response was incomplete. The notice listed nine (9) specific receipts totalling $5,800 in the 1981 Mid-Year Report from entities which the Secretary of State of California verified as being incorporated, as well as six (6) specific receipts totalling $4,300 in the Year End Report from entities which also were verified by the Secretary as being incorporated (Attachment #21).

The Committee's response dated July 7, 1982, stated that six (6) of the questioned contributions, totalling $3,550, from the Mid-Year Report had been refunded on August 1, 1981, while a single contribution, totalling $1,000, had been refunded on June 30, 1982 (Attachment #22). The response also noted that the $250 check received from the Amigo Development Co., Ltd., was drawn on insufficient funds. The Committee, therefore, maintained that no contribution had been received. In addition, the response noted that the $1,000 disclosed as being received from the Genesis International Trading Co. was in effect a personal contribution from Bill Burke, an employee of the company. As to the contributions disclosed on the Year End Report, the Committee noted that $400 had been refunded on June 30, 1982, $500 was a personal contribution from Bobbie Cornelius, owner of the Consolidated Land Co., Inc., each of three $1,000 contributions were from a "Private Co. Not Corp." (sic) and the remaining $400 was in the form of "earmarked funds" from the Rockwell International Corporation. The response references an "attached letter" concerning the earmarked funds from the Rockwell International Corporation, however, the letter was not enclosed in the response. The response makes no reference to the Rockwell International Corporation Good Government Committee (C00038471) nor does it identify the person(s) earmarking the contribution(s).^{5/}

A Commission staff member contacted and talked to the Committee regarding the discrepancies between what it believed to be a "Private Co." versus an entity which the Secretary of State of California had identified as being incorporated (Attachment 25). The Committee was asked to clarify if the contributions were being drawn from personal accounts, repayable corporate accounts, or non-repayable corporate accounts.

^{5/} The 1981 Year End and 1982 July Quarterly Reports confirm the Committee's letter of July 7, 1982 with two exceptions: 1) the refund to United Acupuncturists of California is disclosed as $500, not $400, on the 1981 Year End Report rather than the 1982 July Quarterly Report; and the Committee's reports do not disclose a refund of $1,000 to C D Investments, Inc. (Attachments 23 & 24). The 1981 Year End Report discloses additional contribution refunds described as "refund of unacceptable cont." The reason the committee considered these contributions "unacceptable" is not known.

The Committee's 1982 April Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-Primary, 1982 July Quarterly, 1982 October Quarterly, 1982 12 Day Pre-General, and 1982 30 Day Post-General Reports disclosed the receipt of sixteen (16) apparent corporate contributions totalling $6,900, during the period from February 12, 1982, through November 22, 1982 (Attachments 26 through 31).

A letter was sent to the Secretary of State on August 24, 1982, requesting aid in ascertaining the corporate status and date of incorporation, if applicable, of several entities (Attachment #32). This request dealt with the 12 Day Pre-Primary and the July Quarterly Reports. As no reply was received from the Secretary of State, a second request was sent on October 18, 1982 (Attachment #33). A response was received on October 29, 1982 (Attachment #34).

The Committee was informationally advised, in an RFAI dated December 7, 1982, that the 12 Day Pre-Primary Report disclosed the receipt of an apparent prohibited contribution (Attachment #35). An RFAI was also sent on December 7, 1982, concerning the receipt of apparent prohibited contributions on the July Quarterly Report (Attachment #36).

On December 8, 1982, a letter was sent to the Secretary of State requesting verification of the possible corporate status of several entities (Attachment #37). This request dealt with the October Quarterly and 12 Day Pre-General Reports. A response was received from the Secretary of State on December 14, 1983 (Attachment #38).

On December 23, 1982, a letter was sent to the Secretary of State requesting verification of the possible corporate status of several contributing entities disclosed on the 30 Day Post-General Report (Attachment #39). A response was received on January 3, 1983 (Attachment #40). As the response did not provide the dates of incorporation, a second request was sent on January 12, 1983 (Attachment #41).

The Committee was informationally advised, in RFAIs dated January 14, 1983, that the April Quarterly, October Quarterly and 12 Day Pre-General Reports disclosed the receipt of apparent prohibited contributions (Attachments #42, 43 & 44). An RFAI was also sent on January 14, 1983, concerning the apparent receipt of prohibited contributions on the 30 Day Post-General Report (Attachment #45).

On January 21, 1983, a response was received from the Secretary of State in response to the request dated January 12, 1983 (Attachment #46).^{6/}

On February 4, 1983, the Committee was sent a Second Notice for failure to respond to the RFAI regarding the 30 Day Post-General Report (Attachment #13).^{7/} No response has been received to date.

IV. OTHER PENDING MATTERS INITIATED BY RAD:

None

85040561885

^{6/} There are discrepancies in the responses received from the Secretary of State on January 3, 1983 and January 21, 1983. The initial response indicated "California In Good Standing" for D.W. & C Ltd. and that the Filipino Accountants Association was "California suspended December 1, 1982." The second response indicated "no record" of either entity.

^{7/} The Second Notice refers to other matters present in the 1982 October Quarterly and the 1982 July Quarterly Reports, as well as the prohibited contributions of the 1982 30 Day Post-General Report.

It appears that the closing cash-on-hand should be $ 116,945.08. Mathematical discrepancies in carrying the closing cash-on-hand of one report to the beginning cash-on-hand of the next report, involving the 1982 12 Day Pre-Primary and the 1982 July Quarterly Reports, and the 1982 October Quarterly Report, account for the discrepancy.

Dear Sirs:

In reply to your letter dated May 4, 1982 regarding FEC report dated 7/1/81- 12/31/81, we submit the following information:

The itemized receipts which you question as illegal corporate contributions are either sole proprietorship or non-corporate partnership contributions acceptable under the law.

Our procedure when sole proprietorship, or partnership contributions are received is as follows:

The Secretary of State's office is contacted to determine if the donor is a existing California corporation. Next the owners, partners are contacted to determine that the business is not a Delaware,
New York corporation etc. All itemized receipts have been put through this process, as to verify that all contributions accepted by the committee are legal.

Sincerely,

Toni Kendall

Dear Mr. Pines:

On May 4, 1982, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced reports(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your May 11, 1982 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

Your reports disclose contributions which may have been drawn on corporate accounts (attached is a list of corporations whose corporate status has been verified by the California Secretary of State). You are advised that contributions from corporations are prohibited by the Act, unless made from separate segregated funds established by the corporations. (2 U.S.C. 441b) If you have received corporate contributions, the Commission recommends that you refund the full amounts to the donors. The Commission should be notified, in writing, if such refunds are necessary. In addition, refunds should be itemized on Schedule B for Line 20(a) on your next report.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of prohibited contributions, prompt action on your part to refund any such prohibited contributions will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

If you find, however, that the contributions in question were not drawn from prohibited corporate accounts, and there is another suitable explanation regarding the manner in which such entries have been disclosed, please clarify this matter for the public record.

MEMORANDUM FOR FILES

RE: RFAI on possible 441b violations

DATE: 1/25/83 ; 5:15 pm

NAME OF COMMITTEE: Brown for U.S. Senate (C00144283)

Attachment 10

8 5 0 4 0 5 6 1 9 1 2

The Commission contacted the committee to remind it that any record or information for the disputed contributions--that is, those which the Commission had questioned and which the committee had claimed not to be corporate contributions--should be sent to the Commission to support that. The committee should also clarify if the contributions were being drawn from personal accounts, repayable corporate accounts, or non-repayable corporate accounts. The Commission further reminded the committee that the Act specifically places the responsibility on the treasurer of the committee to verify the acceptability of receipts.

Mr. Glazer noted that he was well aware of this and further admitted that some of the receipts by the committee had been corporate and were being refunded. However, some were not and that they did not simply accept statements over telephone line but received written support from those contributors. Those for which they had the written statements they were not going to refund.

Mr. Glazer also noted that statements which the committee had previously noted as private companies or private corporations ment that the business was not incorporated under state law but was simply a private business, a proprietorship, or a partnership. He stated that they would send those letters supporting the the acceptability of those funds to the Commission.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

6 July 1982

Burt Pines, Treasurer
Brown for U.S. Senate
1125 W. Sixth Street, 3rd Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90017

Identification Number: C00141283

Reference: Year End Report (7/1/81-12/31/81)

Dear Mr. Pines:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Schedule A of your report (pertinent portion attached) discloses a contribution(s) which appears to exceed the limits set forth in the Act. An individual or a political committee, other than a multicandidate committee may not make contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If you have received a contribution(s) which exceeds the limits, the Commission recommends that you refund to the donor(s) the amount in excess of $1,000. The Commission should be notified in writing if a refund is necessary. In addition, any refund should appear on Line 21(a) of the Detailed Summary Page of your next report. (2 U.S.C. 441a(a) and (f))

The term "contribution" includes any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office.

If you find the contribution(s) in question was disclosed incompletely or incorrectly, please amend your original report with the clarifying information.

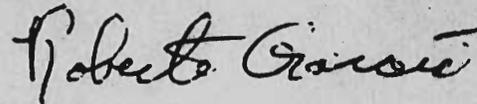

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of an excessive contribution(s), prompt action by you to refund the excessive amount will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

An amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Secretary of the Senate, 119 D Street, N.E., Room 623, Washington, DC 20510 within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 523-4048.

Dear Mr. Pines:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

An individual or a political committee, other than a multicandidate committee may not make contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. (2 U.S.C. 441a(a) and (f)) Because your committee received this contribution after the primary election and your committee did not have any outstanding primary debts, it is excessive.

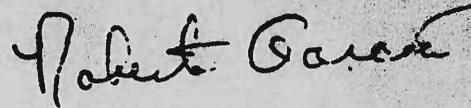

The Commission notes your apparent refund of this excessive contribution, which should be itemized on your October Quarterly Report. Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of an excessive contribution, your prompt action in refunding the excessive amount(s) will be taken into consideration.

An amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Secretary of the Senate, 119 D Street, N.E., Room 623, Washington, DC 20510 within fifteen (15)

Reference: 12 Day Pre-Primary Report (4/1/82-5/19/82) 12P

Dear Mr. Pines:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Your report discloses a contribution(s) which may have been drawn on corporate accounts (pertinent portion attached of corporations whose corporate status has been verified by the California Secretary of State). You are advised that a contribution from a corporation is prohibited by the Act, unless they are made from a separate segregated fund established by the corporation. If you have received a corporate contribution(s), the Commission recommends that you refund the full amount to the donor(s). The Commission should be notified in writing if a refund is necessary. In addition, any refund should appear on Line 20(a) of the Detailed Summary Page of your next report. (2 U.S.C. 441b(a))

If you find the contribution(s) in question was disclosed incompletely or incorrectly, please amend your original report with the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of a prohibited contribution, prompt action by you to refund the full amount will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

-On Schedule A of this report, you have disclosed contributions from political committees for which you have failed to include the aggregate year-to-date totals. Please amend your report to include the missing information for each of these entries. (11 CFR 104.3(a)(4)(ii))

Reference: July Quarterly Report (5/20/82-6/30/82) Q2

Dear Mr. Pines:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Schedule A of your report (pertinent portion attached) discloses a contribution(s) which appears to exceed the limits set forth in the Act. An individual or a political committee, other than a multicandidate committee may not make contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If you have received a contribution(s) which exceeds the limits, the Commission recommends that you refund to the donor(s) the amount in excess of $1,000. The Commission should be notified in writing if a refund is necessary. In addition, any refund should appear on Line 20(a) of the Detailed Summary Page of your next report. (2 U.S.C. 441a(a) and (f))

The term "contribution" includes any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office.

If you find the contribution(s) in question was disclosed incompletely or incorrectly, please amend your original report with the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of an excessive contribution(s), prompt action by you to refund the excessive amount will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

-Your report discloses a contribution(s) which may have been drawn on corporate accounts (pertinent portion attached of corporations whose corporate status has been verified by the California Secretary of State). You are advised that a contribution from a corporation is prohibited by the Act, unless they are made from a separate segregated fund established by the corporation. If you have received a corporate contribution(s), the Commission recommends that you refund the full amount to the donor(s). The Commission should be notified in writing if a refund is necessary. In addition, any refund should appear on Line 20(a) of the Detailed Summary Page of your next report. (2 U.S.C. 441b(a))

If you find the contribution(s) in question was disclosed incompletely or incorrectly, please amend your original report with the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of a prohibited contribution, prompt action by you to refund the full amount will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

-On Schedule A of this report, you have disclosed contributions from political committees for which you have failed to include the aggregate year-to-date totals. Please amend your report to include the missing information for each of these entries. (11 CFR 104.3(a)(4)(ii))

An amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Secretary of the Senate, 119 D Street, N.E., Room 623, Washington, DC 20510 within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 523-4048.

Attention: Marybeth Tarrant

Re: MUR 1601/Brown for U.S. Senate Committee

Gentlemen:

By its letter dated January 4, 1984 to Burt Pines, Treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee (the "Committee"), the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") informed the Committee and Mr. Pines that it determined that there is reason to believe the Committee and Mr. Pines violated Sections 441a(f) and 441b of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") by accepting contributions in excess of the statutory limits and prohibited contributions from corporations and labor unions. The Commission enclosed with that letter the General Counsel's Factual and Legal Analysis (MUR No. 1601) (the "Report"), including Exhibits thereto.

Fewer than 20 contributions, totaling less than $40,000, are in dispute. During the years covered by the Report, 1981 and 1982, we understand that the Committee received more than 25,000 checks, representing total contributions of approximately $5.5 million, and, in accordance with the Act, voluntarily and promptly refunded in the regular course of its business hundreds of checks, totaling approximately $100,000, representing questionable contributions under the Act.

In connection with the positions expressed herein, although we have not made any independent review or investigation of factual matters, we have relied upon statements, representations, declarations and communications of officers, employees and members of the staff of the Committee.

The Report concluded that there is reason to believe the Committee and Mr. Pines violated the Act on the basis of the following alleged acts:

Federal Election Commission
March 6, 1984

- (1) Knowing acceptance of contributions from individuals in excess of $1,000 for a single election (2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A));
- (2) Knowing acceptance of contributions from a corporation or a labor organization (2 U.S.C. § 441b(a)); and
- (3) Knowing acceptance of contributions in violation of § 441a. (2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).)

The Act requires that the Committee knowingly receive a prohibited contribution to establish the violations cited above. For the reasons set forth below, the Report fails to demonstrate that either the Committee or Mr. Pines knowingly received contributions in violation of the Act.

Mr. Pines was City Attorney of Los Angeles prior to his service as Treasurer of the Committee. In that position, he prosecuted cases involving violations of California's state election campaign contribution laws and was familiar with state campaign reporting and contribution laws. Shortly after Mr. Pines became the Committee's Treasurer on August 1, 1981, an internal memorandum (attached hereto as Exhibit A) was prepared to establish Committee procedures to prevent violations of federal and state campaign contribution laws. Mr. Pines and the Committee set up a comprehensive internal checking system to ensure compliance with the Act. Since July 13, 1982, the Committee retained the services of an outside accountant and auditor, Jules Glazer, an expert on state and federal campaign reporting laws, and a full time internal bookkeeper, Toni Kendall, who is familiar with the Act's restrictions on campaign contributions.

The procedural safeguards practiced by the Committee in the regular course of its business indicate that the Committee lacked the requisite statutory intent to accept improper contributions under the Act. The Report demonstrates the Committee's good faith by citing the Committee's many refunds, prior to notice from the Commission of impermissible contributions under the Act.

The Committee maintained, during the period in question, a card system in which each contributor's name was listed alphabetically along with the amount contributed. Each time a contribution was received, a staff member compared the name on the check with names in the card file for possible excessive contributions. If there was no card on file under the name, a card with the amount of the check was recorded and filed. When

Federal Election Commission

any name other than an individual's name was printed on a check representing a contribution, a telephone inquiry was made directly by the Committee to the party named on the check as to whether it was a corporation, a partnership or a sole proprietorship. If the inquiries indicated that the party was a corporation, the contribution was immediately refunded in accordance with the Act and regulations thereunder. If the inquiry indicated that the business was not incorporated, the Committee then checked by telephone with the California Secretary of State as to whether that party was a corporation. If so, the contribution was refunded immediately. Records of inquiries were kept by the Committee by notations on the face of the checks in question. In the case of a contribution received from another Political Action Committee ("PAC"), the Committee telephoned the PAC to inquire as to whether the PAC was qualified under the Act to make the contribution. Donations from any PAC found by the Committee to have failed to qualify were refunded immediately.

The Committee believes that during the period of the alleged violations, it acted in good faith to avoid violations of the Act and had no incentive to accept excessive or illegal contributions. The Committee believes its periodic reports filed with the Commission demonstrate that it never had a cash flow problem during the period covered by the Report or thereafter. Its solvency and relative financial stability demonstrate, the Committee believes, that it had no incentive to knowingly receive improper contributions to solve a cash flow problem. Moreover, the Committee had every incentive to avoid even the appearance of impropriety under the Act and made substantial efforts to do so.

As stated in the Report, most of the alleged improper contributions described in the Report had been corrected by the date of issuance of the Report. The Committee believes, as described below, that those few contributions which were not corrected as of the date of the Report either did not constitute violations of the Act or were clerical errors in reports previously filed with the Commission, which have already been corrected by amendments to those reports filed with the Commission or are corrected by amendments filed herewith. Each contribution referred to in the Report is discussed below.

A. Excessive Individual Contributions.

The first paragraph of the Report alleges the receipt by the Committee of $4,100 in excessive individual contributions (all of which preceded Mr. Pines' tenure as Treasurer). The Report notes that before the Committee received notice from the FEC, it "made refunds to all of the individuals except Chanchal [sic] Rai" (at pp. 1-2). At footnote 1, the Report notes that the Chanchal Rai contribution may have been a clerical error. The Committee has informed us that a clerical error was made in the use of the term "primary" instead of "general." What should have been reported as three contributions reading "$500 for general, $1,000 for primary and $500 for general," which were permitted by the Act, was reported as "$500 for primary, $1000 for primary and $500 for general," not permitted by the Act. Therefore, it is the Committee's position that there was no violation of the Act in connection with the contribution of Chanchal Rai; there was merely a clerical error which was subsequently corrected by amendment to reports filed with the Commission. See Attachment 1, attached hereto as Exhibit B. See also Amendment to Report, attached hereto as Exhibit C.

As indicated in the Report, with respect to the other four individual contributions, documents currently on file with the Commission demonstrate that the Committee made timely refunds of those contributions in accordance with the Act prior to any request from the Commission. See Documentation of Refund of Excessive Individual Contributions, attached hereto as Exhibit D. A total of $3,600 in individual excessive contributions described in the Report had been refunded prior to any notice from the Commission, as indicated in the last column in Attachment 1 to the Report. Pursuant to the Act and regulations thereunder, the Committee is required to cash all checks within 10 days of receipt. 11 C.F.R. 103.3(a). The Committee, therefore, promptly cashes all checks at the time of receipt, then makes a check of its card catalogue for previous contributions on the part of the contributor and immediately thereafter refunds any excessive contributions. In all five cases of excessive individual contributions mentioned in the Report (except for Chanchal Rai's, which involved a typographical error, as discussed above), the Committee made the required refunds in the regular course of its business without notice from the Commission. It is the position of the Committee that it retained no part of the improper contributions and did not knowingly receive any of the improper contributions.

- B. Armenian National Committee PAC, Californians for Better Government PAC and Retail PAC.

The Report states that a violation of the Act may have occurred when the Committee accepted contributions from three PACs, the Armenian National Committee PAC, Californians for Better Government PAC and the Retail PAC, before they were qualified as multi-candidate committees, as required by 2 U.S.C. Section 441a(4).

The Report observes that the Committee had corrected, by refund, each of the two improper contributions from the non-qualified Armenian National Committee and Californians for Better Government PACs as of mid-1982. See Report at page 3, paragraph 2. See also Documentation of PAC Refunds, attached hereto as Exhibit E. Each of the refunds, except the Retail PAC refund, was made prior to notification from the Commission, as indicated in Attachment 2 to the Report. The Retail PAC refund was made the same day, October 11, 1983, that the Committee received notice from the Commission that the Retail PAC was not qualified. The refund was reported to the Commission in a letter from the Committee on the same date. See Documentation of Refunds, attached hereto as Exhibit F. With regard to the timeliness of the refund to the Retail PAC, the Committee believes the only method available to the Committee to determine whether a PAC was qualified as a multi-candidate PAC was to inquire of the PAC itself as to whether it was qualified at the time of the contribution. The Committee did so as part of its normal operating procedures. Indeed, even the Commission itself may lack timely information as to when a PAC has qualified. Because timely refunds were made to each of the PACs referred to in the Report, upon the Committee's learning that the contribution was impermissible, and the Committee followed the only available procedure for determining if a PAC was qualified, it is the position of the Committee that it did not knowingly accept any contributions from PACs referred to in the Report in violation of the Act.

C. Armenian PAC's Contribution of $4,000 for Primary Election.

The Report states at page 3, paragraph 3, that the Committee received $4,000 designated for the primary election at a time when the Committee had no primary election debts. However, at footnote 3, the Report states that "[w]hile the RAD referral indicates that the Committee did not respond on its 1982 October quarterly report, the Brown Committee reported refunding an additional $4,000 to the Armenian National Committee Pac." The contribution was refunded in accordance with the Committee's normal procedures well in advance of any action by the Commission. It is the position of the Committee that on the basis of the foregoing, the Report has not demonstrated nor

Federal Election Commission

did the Committee in fact knowingly receive that contribution in violation of the Act.

D. Corporate Contributions.

The Report describes possible improper contributions from corporate donors. However, for the following reasons, it is the position of the Committee that there is no reason to believe any violation of the Act occurred with respect to any corporate contribution. The Report describes in some detail the receipt and refund of corporate contributions by the Committee; however, the Report appears to conclude that a total of only fifteen possible corporate contributions may have represented violations of the Act, of which seven had been refunded in accordance with the Act by the date of issuance of the Report. See Report at page 5. For the Commission's convenience, the documentation for every corporate contribution in question during the period in question is attached as Exhibit I. In addition, the Report notes that the Commission was in error in its classification of Genisis International Trading Company as a corporation since it is actually a sole proprietorship. See Letter, Refunds, Check & Report, attached hereto as Exhibit G. The Committee believes the Amigo Development Company contribution, referred to at page 5, paragraph 1 of the Report, does not constitute a contribution because the Committee ultimately refunded the contribution. The check was initially drawn against insufficient funds, then redeposited in August of 1981, then finally refunded on March 6, 1984. See Notice of Insufficient Funds & Refund Check, attached hereto as Exhibit H. As to the remaining six contributions, the Report notes that all six were adequately explained. See Report at page 6, paragraph 1.

The Committee has informed us that two of the possible impermissible corporate contributions referred to in the Report's attachments, from Commerce Realty and Superior Communications Company, were not in fact made by corporations. We understand the Committee contacted Sharon Aron at Commerce Realty by telephone, as part of its regular contribution check program, and Ms. Aron informed the Committee that Commerce Realty is a sole proprietorship, not a corporation. We also understand that Superior Communications Company was also contacted by the Committee by telephone as part of its regular course of business, and that Pat Eguskia of Superior Communications Company informed the Committee that it is a partnership, not a corporation. See Exhibit I.

The Report, at footnote 6, page 6, states that the Committee had not identified the individual contributors who were employees of Rockwell International Corporation ("Rockwell") Good Government Committee. The names of those employees are contained in the amended report attached hereto as Exhibit C and filed herewith; see also Photocopy of Rockwell Check and Schedule A for Rockwell, attached hereto as Exhibit J.

Additionally, the Report states that the Committee did not adequately respond in its correspondence with the Commission regarding the use of the term "private companies versus private corporations." However, the Committee notes that Jules Glazer, the Committee's accountant, did indeed respond to the Commission by telephone with regard to this issue. The Committee explained through Mr. Glazer that by the term "private company," the Committee intended "sole proprietorship."

It is the position of the Committee that for the reasons described above, each of the possible prohibited corporate contributions referred to in the Report has been refunded or was permissible under the Act at the time received and that no impermissible corporate contribution was knowingly received by the Committee in violation of the Act.

E. "Transmitted for" Versus "Transmitted by."

The Commission objects to the Committee's use of the term "transmitted for" instead of "transmitted by," in connection with reporting corporate and non-corporate contributions. See Report, page 8, paragraph 1. The Committee agrees with the Commission's objection. The proper term is "transmitted by," but because of clerical errors, the term "transmitted for" was inadvertently used, as previously explained by the Committee in an amendment filed with the Commission, dated April 21, 1982. See Amendment, attached hereto as Exhibit K.

F. Labor Union Contributions.

The Report states that a $500 donation from the Federated Fire Fighters may be an illegal contribution from a labor organization. See Report at page 8, paragraph 2. The Committee agrees with the Commission's finding and refunded the contribution as of March 8, 1984. The Committee originally mistakenly believed that the contribution was proper because it was transmitted by a labor organization for its president and therefore a permissible individual contribution under the Act.

85040562108

Federal Election Commission

See Committee's Report to Commission, attached hereto as Exhibit L. However, after further examination, the Committee determined that the contribution should be refunded.

In summary, the Committee and Mr. Pines believe that they have adequately explained each contribution questioned by the Commission in the Report; that although a very small percentage of the more than 25,000 contributions processed by the Committee during the period covered by the Report exceeded the statutory limits or were made by entities not permitted to do so, no violation of the Act by the Committee or Burt Pines occurred because all prohibited contributions were refunded in accordance with the Act and none were knowingly received; the Committee's good faith and lack of any intent to evade the Act was demonstrated on hundreds of occasions by its thorough internal screening procedures and prompt refunds of improper contributions. Further, the Committee had ample cash flow during the period in question and was under no financial pressure to evade the statute.

The Committee and Mr. Pines submit that on the basis of the facts set forth in this letter, the Committee and Mr. Pines have demonstrated that no further action should be taken by the Commission against the Committee pursuant to the Act and respectfully request that the Commission find that no probable cause exists to believe that a violation of the Act has been committed.

Please call Cynthia Thornton of this office or the undersigned if you have any questions regarding the foregoing.

Very truly yours,

Roger D. Loomis, Jr.

Secretary of the House
Senate Public Records
115 D. Street, S.E.
Washington, D.C. 20540

Gentlemen:

COMMISSION
re: Brown for U.S. Senate

Please accept the enclosed as an addendum to our report filed 6/21/82.

The corrections are as follows:

William Burke- This was a personal contribution made with a personal check, not a ~~unofficial~~ as previously reported. pg. 22 of 192

Lucy Frank Derrall- This contribution was originally attributed as a primary contribution of $1,000. from Lucy and Frank Derrall. pg. 39 of 192

It should be amended to reflect a $1,000. contribution to the primary and general campaign from Frank Derrall

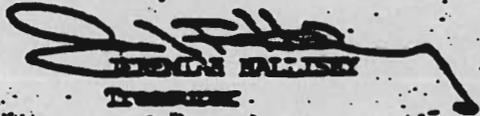

George Wright
John Brooker
William Willichup
James Turpin
Steven Ross

These are all $1,000. contributions to the general campaign that we not reported.

Dr. Ellis Ring

This was originally reported as a $1,200. contribution. It should be amended to $200.00. pg. 124, 183 of 192

OFFICE OF THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
for U.S. SENATE

copy

April 21, 1962

Secretary of the Senate
119 D Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Sirs:

In reply to your letter dated March 23, 1962 regarding the FEC report dated 1/1/61 through 6/30/61, we submit the following information:

- 1 - "Transmitted for" and "transmitted by" in all cases mean
the reporting of a contribution through an intermediary as directed by the Federal Election Law. We have probably confused the report by using both "for" and "by". In all cases substitute "for" and the report will be clearer.
- 2 - Contributions received in excess of the legal limit in this period have all been refunded as required by law. We have responded in the refunds as quickly as the excess was discovered.

Very Truly Yours,

TOM KESSEL

SUBJECT: Request for Extension - MUR 1601
Brown for U.S. Senate and
Burt Pines, Treasurer

On January 3, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b. On January 23, 1984, this office received a call from Burt Pines who explained that he had just received the Commission's letter as it had to be forwarded to him. Subsequently, on January 30, 1984, Mr. Pines requested an extension until February 23, 1984, in order to respond to the Commission's findings. The General Counsel's Office granted this request.

On February 21, 1984, this office received a call from Respondents' counsel requesting a further extension as his law firm had only recently been engaged as counsel. Counsel's written request for an extension until March 6, 1984, was received on February 27, 1984. See Attachment 1.

As this request for an extension is for a relatively short period of time, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission grant the request.

Recommendation

Grant counsel's request for an extension until March 6, 1984, and approve the attached letter.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed is a Statement of Designation of Counsel in connection with this matter, executed by Burt Pines, individually and on behalf of Brown For U.S. Senate. The Statement of Designation of Counsel designates Reavis & McGrath as counsel to Brown For U.S. Senate and Burt Pines in accordance with its terms.

Pursuant to my telephone conversation with Marybeth Tarrant today, on behalf of Brown For U.S. Senate and Mr. Pines, we respectfully request that the Commission extend the deadline for response to its January 4, 1984 letter to Mr. Pines from Thursday, February 23, 1984 until Tuesday, March 6, 1984.

As stated in my telephone conversation with Ms. Tarrant, we were engaged by Mr. Pines and Brown For U.S. Senate only recently. We have been requested by our clients to prepare a comprehensive response to the Commission's Summary of Allegations attached to its January 4, 1984 letter to Mr. Pines. The additional time for response requested hereby will allow us to review in detail the documentation underlying the Commission's Summary of Allegations and prepare a detailed letter addressing the Commission's concerns.

Re: MUR 1601 - Respondents, Brown for U.S. Senate
Committee and Mr. Burt Pines, Treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee - Motion to Reconsider Reason-to-Believe Determination

RECEIVED
GENERAL COUNSEL
34 NOV 1 1984

Dear Mr. Steele:

The Brown for U.S. Senate Committee ("the Committee") and Mr. Burt Pines, Treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee, (collectively referred to as "the Respondents"), respectfully request the Commission to reconsider its reason-to-believe determination in M.U.R. 1601. For the reasons set forth in Respondent's Reply to General Counsel's Brief of July 27, 1984 ("the Reply Brief") (attached hereto as Exhibit A) and the additional reasons discussed below, Respondents believe that upon reconsideration the Commission will properly determine that the complaint should be dismissed forthwith.

- I. THE GENERAL COUNSEL'S ALLEGATIONS REGARDING THE ACCEPTANCE OF CORPORATE CONTRIBUTIONS ARE MERITLESS; THE CONTRIBUTIONS IN DISPUTE WERE EITHER REFUNDED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REGULATIONS OR LEGALLY ACCEPTABLE.

A significant portion of this complaint involves the alleged acceptance by the Respondents of twenty-six corporate contributions, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441(b)(a). As set forth in the Reply Brief, seven of the cited contributions were refunded by the Committee of its own volition, prior to any notification by the Commission, when the legality of the instant contributions could not be adequately demonstrated to the Respondents. (Reply Brief at p. 6). As the Committee refunded these seven contributions within a reasonable time in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2), it is axiomatic that no violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") occurred with respect to the acceptance and the subsequent refunding of these contributions.

As to the remaining nineteen contributions, fourteen of the entities referred to as corporations by the Commission are not incorporated in the State of California according to the Corporate Status Division of the Office of the Secretary of State of California. (See Affidavits of Suzanne Lyon and Leslie J. Kerman, attached hereto as Exhibits B and C respectively; see also Reply Brief at pp. 3-5 and the Commission's Reason-to-Believe Notification of June 20, 1984, Attachment 1). Accordingly, the General Counsel's allegations regarding contributions from Sol Schwartz Jewelry Co., Pasta Bella, Ramsey Ltd., The Clifton Company, Record One, Steinberg & Associates, D.W. & C. Ltd., the Filipino Accountant Association, C.C.P. Company, Western Electric Company, S.K. Management Company, Commerce Realty Company, R & R Company, and Superior Communications are meritless and should be dismissed.

Further, within a reasonable time after the Committee received information indicating that the remaining five contributions may have been made by corporate entities, all the contributions were refunded in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2). Again, there was no violation of either the spirit or the letter of the Act.

Note that despite the extraordinary precautions taken by the Committee to assure that all of the approximately $5,500,000 in contributions it accepted were legally permissible (Reply Brief at pp. 8-16; see also Procedures from Brown for Senate Deposits, attached hereto as Exhibit D), it is neither surprising nor indicative of a violation of the Act that, in some instances, there was a delay between the receipt of a contribution by the Committee and the receipt of information indicating that the contributor may have been a corporate entity. The fact that many of the disputed contributions in this complaint were erroneously characterized by the General Counsel as corporate contribution underscores the difficulty of determining whether a contribution from an entity, which on its face does not appear to be corporate, is actually a corporate contribution. The General Counsel has consistently conceded that the Commission on several occasions was erroneously informed by the California Secretary of State's office that contributors were incorporated (See General Counsel's Brief on MUR 1601 at p. 5); similarly, it is highly probably that the Committee also received inaccurate responses to several of its inquiries.

It is undisputed, however, that all contributions which were determined to be made from corporate entities were refunded by the Committee within a reasonable time after Respondents became aware of this information. Thus, Respondents have satisfied their obligations under the Act, and the allegations regarding the remaining five corporate contributions should be dismissed.

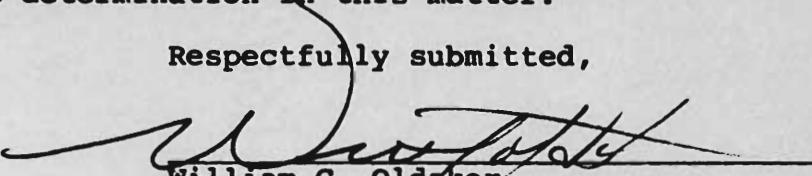

II. ALL OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS IN DISPUTE WERE
REFUNDED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REGULATIONS.

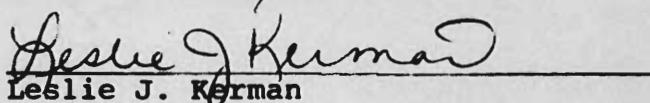

As set forth in detail in the Reply Brief, the individual, political action committee and labor union contributions to the Committee in dispute were refunded within a reasonable time in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2). Accordingly, no violation of the Act occurred, and these allegations should be dismissed.

III. CONCLUSION

As demonstrated above, Respondents have rectified, rebutted or adequately explained each and every allegation made by the General Counsel in this complaint. Accordingly, we urge the Commission to reconsider and subsequently rescind its reason-to-believe determination in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

William C. Oldaker

17 I.

18 INTRODUCTION

19 By its letter dated January 4, 1984, to Burt Pines,
20 treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee (the "Com-
21 mittee"), the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission")
22 informed the Committee and Mr. Pines that it had determined
23 there was reason to believe the Committee and Mr. Pines violated
24 Sections 441a(f) and 441b(a) of the Federal Election Campaign
25 Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"), by accepting contributions
26 in excess of the statutory limits and accepting prohibited con-
27 tributions from corporations and a labor union.

28 The Commission enclosed the General Counsel's Factual
and Legal Analysis (the "Report") with its letter.

On March 6, 1984, the Committee, through its counsel,
Reavis & McGrath, filed a response to the Report, including

85040562285

1 exhibits (the "Response"), stating the Committee's position and
2 detailing the reasons that no violation of the Act occurred.
3 Subsequent to the filing of the Response, the Committee con-
4 tinued to cooperate fully with the Commission, providing every
5 piece of information requested by the General Counsel's office.

6 Despite this cooperation from the Committee, the
7 obvious lack of intent to violate the Act, and the very small
8 amount of impermissible contributions not refunded prior to 9 notice from the Commission (approximately $7,000 out of 10 $5,500,000 million), the General Counsel recommended that the 11 Commission find probable cause to believe that Mr. Pines and the 12 Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a). The General
13 Counsel sent its brief dated June 20, 1984 (the "Brief"), to the 14 Committee wherein the General Counsel's position on the legal 15 and factual issues was stated.

16 II.

17 FACTS

18 During the period encompassing the alleged violations,
19 the Committee received more than 25,000 checks representing 20 total contributions of approximately $5,500,000 and, in the 21 regular course of its business, voluntarily and promptly
22 refunded hundreds of checks totalling approximately $100,000 in 23 questionable or illegal contributions. The General Counsel, in 24 its Brief, states that the Committee accepted only $33,800 in 25 excessive or illegal contributions out of $5,500,000 in total
26 contributions. The Brief further concedes that the Committee
27 refunded $26,550 before notification from the Commission. (See
28 Brief of General Counsel, pp. 4-5, attached hereto as Exhibit

1 A.) Thus, out of $5,500,000 in total contributions, the
2 Committee detected and refunded all but $7,250 in excessive or
3 illegal contributions before the Commission was even aware that
4 these contributions had been made.

5 Immediately upon notice from the Commission that
6 $7,250 out of a total of $5,500,000 in contributions might be
7 improper, the Committee rechecked the sources of these
8 contributions. As reported at page 5 of the General Counsel's
9 Brief, some of these contributions were refunded by the 10 Committee subsequent to notification from the Commission, some 11 were determined to be legal contributions (e.g., non-corporate),
12 and four contributions totalling $3,500 are still in dispute.

13 III.

14 EVERY CONTRIBUTION CITED BY THE GENERAL
15 COUNSEL AS DISPUTED IS EITHER LEGAL
16 OR HAS BEEN REFUNDED.

17 A. The Four Contributions That The General Counsel Claims Are
18 in Dispute Do Not Constitute Violations of the Act.

19 The Committee has not refunded the following four 20 contributions. It is the position of the Committee that these 21 four contributions are proper because the contributors are not
22 corporations.

23 1. C.C.P. Company ($1,000):

24 This company is not a corporation. (See Exhibits B
25 and C.) Even if C.C.P. Company were a corporation, it was 26 merely acting as a conduit for the personal contribution of
27 Hee-Won Chai. (See Exhibits D and E.)

2. Western Electric Company ($1,000):

The only corporation doing business in California under the name of Western Electric Company is a New York corporation, now AT&T Technologies. (See Exhibit F.) This is not the Western Electric Company that made the contribution. The Western Electric Company that made the contribution to the Committee is located at 12347 Felson Place, Cerritos, California 90701 and is a sole proprietorship. Even if the contributing Western Electric Company were a corporation, it was merely acting as a conduit for the personal contribution of Byung Keon. (See Exhibit G.)

3. S.K. Management Company ($500):

The only corporation doing business in California under the name of S.K. Management is located at 8335-1/4 Blackburn, Los Angeles, California 90048. (See Exhibit H.) This is not the S.K. Management Company that made the contribution. The S.K. Management Company that made the contribution to the Committee is located at 6330 San Vicente Boulevard, Suite 100, Los Angeles, California 90048 and is a sole proprietorship. Even if the contributing S.K. Management Company were a corporation, it was merely acting as a conduit for the personal contribution of Jerry Steinbaum. (See Exhibits I and J.)

4. Commerce Realty Company ($1,000):

The only corporation doing business in California under the name of Commerce Realty is located at 300 Capitol Mall, Sacramento, California 95814. (See Exhibit K.) This is not the Commerce Realty Company that made the contribution. The Commerce Realty Company that made the contribution to the

1 Committee has a mailing address of P.O. Box 92959, Los Angeles,
2 California 90009, is located at 9920 La Cienega Boulevard,
3 Inglewood, California (per telephone conversation with Cindy
4 Ortiz, (213) 649-3850, July 10, 1984), and is a sole proprietor-
5 ship. Even if the contributing Commerce Realty Company were a
6 corporation, it was merely acting as a conduit for the personal
7 contribution of George Gruziado. (See Exhibit L.)

8 The General Counsel further alleges that the Committee
9 violated the Federal Election Campaign Act by failing to refund
10 the contributions discussed below within a reasonable time or by 11 failing to properly designate the contributions.

12 B. The Committee Did Not Knowingly Accept Excessive Individual
13 Contributions.

14 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) prohibits a political committee
15 from knowingly accepting any contribution from an individual in 16 excess of $1,000 with regard to a single election. The General
17 Counsel alleges that the Committee violated § 441a(f) by 18 accepting contributions from four individuals in excess of the
19 $1,000 limit. These contributions, made by Jaswant Singh-Bains,
20 Daniel Berke, Esmeralda Contreras and Florence Smerling, were
21 all refunded within a reasonable time in accordance with 11
22 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2) prior to any notice from the Commission.

23 C. The Committee Did Not Knowingly Accept Contributions From
24 Unqualified PAC's.

25 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) also prohibits a political com-
26 mittee from knowingly accepting a contribution in excess of
27 $1,000 with regard to a single election from a Political Action
28 Committee ("PAC") which has not qualified as a multicandidate

8 5 0 4 0 5 6 2 2 8 9

1 committee in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 100.5(e)(3). The
2 General Counsel alleges that the Committee violated § 441a(f) by
3 accepting contributions from three PAC's in excess of $1,000
4 prior to the date on which the PAC's qualified as multicandidate
5 committees.

6 The excess contributions of $12,000 from the Armenian
7 National Committee PAC and $9,000 from the Brown PAC were
8 refunded as soon as it was possible to determine that they had
9 not yet qualified as multicandidate committees. These refunds
10 were made prior to any notice from the Commission. The $1,000
11 excess contribution from the Retail PAC was refunded the day the 12 Committee received notice from the Commission that this PAC had 13 not qualified as a multicandidate committee. Because it is 14 impossible for the Committee to determine on its own whether a
15 PAC has qualified as a multicandidate committee, the Committee
16 must rely on the PAC's themselves for this information. The 17 Committee refunded the excess contributions as soon as it could 18 determine that these contributions were improper.

19 D. The Committee Did Not Knowingly Accept Corporate
20 Contributions.

21 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) prohibits a political committee
22 from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation. The 23 General Counsel alleges that the Committee violated § 441b(a) by 24 accepting twenty corporate contributions. All of the cited con-
25 tributions were refunded as soon as the Committee became aware
26 that they were corporate contributions. Seven of the contribu-
27 tions were refunded prior to any notice from the Commission.
28 Two of the remaining thirteen contributions were refunded within

85040562290

1 seven days of the Commission's notice to the Committee, and nine
2 additional contributions were refunded within fourteen days of
3 notice. As to the two remaining contributions, the $1,000
4 contribution from C.D. Investments, Incorporated, was mistakenly
5 reported as refunded prior to notice from the Commission, and
6 the $250 contribution from Amigo Development Company, Ltd., was 7 initially drawn against insufficient funds. Both of those
8 contributions were also refunded.

9 Thus, all of the above corporate contributions were
10 refunded as soon as the Committee became aware that they were 11 contributions made by corporations.

12 E. Labor Union Contribution.

13 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) also prohibits a political 14 committee from knowingly accepting a contribution from a
15 labor organization. The General Counsel alleges that the
16 Committee violated § 441b(a) by accepting a $500 contribu-
17 tion from the Federated Fire Fighters, a labor union. The 18 Committee originally believed that the contribution was proper
19 because it was transmitted by a labor organization for its
20 president. Upon further examination, however, the Committee
21 determined that the contribution should be refunded and 22 thereupon refunded the contribution.

1 IV.

2 THE COMMITTEE AND BURT PINES, AS TREASURER,
3 DID NOT POSSESS THE REQUISITE INTENT
4 TO VIOLATE 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) AND 441b(a).

5 A. The General Counsel's Interpretation of "Knowingly"
6 Conflicts with Case Law.

7 Subsections 441a(f) and 441b(a) require that the
8 accused knowingly accept contributions in violation of the Act.
9 The Commission has stated that "knowingly" means the act must be
10 intentional. Therefore, the Committee must have intended to
11 accept contributions in violation of the Act. The Commission
12 further contends that §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a) require knowledge
13 of acceptance but do not require knowledge that the contribu-
14 tions are illegal under the Act. This interpretation of 15 "knowingly" is in direct conflict with district court cases and 16 Congress' intentions.

17 In Re Federal Election Campaign Act Litigation (D.D.C.
18 1979) 474 F.Supp. 1044, 1047, which involved alleged acceptance
19 of excessive campaign contributions in violation of 2 U.S.C.
20 § 441a(f), held that as part of a violation of 2 U.S.C.
21 § 441a(f) "the [party accepting the contribution] must have been 22 aware of the illegal nature of the contributions." See also
23 Federal Election Commission v. California Medical Association
24 (N.D. Cal. 1980) 502 F.Supp. 196 [knowledge of the facts which
25 render conduct unlawful to create civil liability under 2 U.S.C.
26 § 441a(f)]. These requirements of knowledge apply to 2 U.S.C.
27 § 441b(a) as well as § 441a(f).

In the present matter, the General Counsel does not even allege such knowledge on the part of the Committee or Mr. Pines. Indeed, but for the recitation of the Act itself, the word "knowledge" would not even be mentioned in the General Counsel's brief. In Re Federal Election Campaign Act Litigation, supra, held that this absence of evidence or allegations of knowledge, standing alone, justified the Commission's refusal to take any further action. Likewise, the absence of allegations of knowledge on the part of the Committee or Mr. Pines warrants dismissal of any further action.

Further, the General Counsel does not even allege that the Committee should have known that the contributions were improper. Indeed, such an allegation would be facially absurd because less than 1% of the total contributions are involved.

Respondent's position is further supported by 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(1), which requires that contributions which appear to be illegal be refunded within 10 days or deposited and noted on a written record. (Emphasis added.) Nowhere in its brief does the General Counsel provide any evidence that the contributions in controversy appeared to be illegal. Subsection 103.3(b)(1) further provides that the treasurer shall make his or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution. Through its use of procedural safeguards (see Exhibits M and N), the Committee used its best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution and, if the legality could not be demonstrated, the Committee made refunds within a reasonable time in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2). These provisions are further evidence that knowledge of illegality is

1 required before there is a violation of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and
2 441b(a).

3 The General Counsel presents its interpretation of 2
4 U.S.C. § 441a(f) succinctly in its report to MUR 515. In MUR
5 515, the General Counsel states:

6 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) states:

7 No candidate or political committee shall knowingly
8 accept any contribution . . . in violation of the 9 provisions of this section . . . " (emphasis added).

10 We must therefore consider whether the term "knowingly
11 accepted" implies knowledge that the contributions
12 were illegal or merely knowledge of the facts of the 13 situation which bring the contribution within the 14 prohibitions of the statute.

15 Broadly speaking, we believe the latter
16 interpretation to be that generally used in 17 interpreting civil statutes and regulations. In 18 support of this position we note a 1971 opinion of
19 the U.S. District for Oregon interpreting an Oregon
20 usury statute: "The word 'knowingly' ordinarily
21 means that the act or omission was intentional. It
22 is not necessary that the actor intended to break
23 the law. It is enough that he intended the act.
24 One may be ignorant of the law, and yet be found to 25 have violated its demands.

26 American Timber & Trading Co. v. First Nat. Bank of Oregon, 334
27 F.Supp. 888, at 890 (1971), citing United States v.

8 5 0 4 0 5 6 2 2 9 4

1 International Minerals & Chem. Corp., 402 U.S. 558,
2 563, 91 S.Ct. 1697, 1701 (1971).

3 In addition to the dubious legitimacy of citing a 4 district court's interpretation of an Oregon usury statute as 5 the controlling authority in the interpretation of the Federal 6 Election Campaign Act, the General Counsel is mistaken in its 7 definition of the "act" which must be intended under this inter-
8 pretation of "knowingly". The act which constitutes a violation
9 of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a) and "bring[s] the contribu-
10 tion within the prohibitions of the statute" is not the mere 11 acceptance of contributions but the acceptance of excessive or 12 illegal contributions. To violate §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a), a 13 political committee must therefore intend to accept excessive or 14 illegal contributions. In the present matter, because the 15 Committee did not know that the contributions were excessive or 16 illegal, the Committee could not have intended to accept them as 17 such. Therefore, the Committee did not violate 2 U.S.C.
18 §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a).

19 Further proof of a lack of intent to violate the Act
20 is evidenced by the manner in which the Committee and Mr. Pines
21 handled questionable contributions.

22 The Committee and Mr. Pines have continuously demon-
23 strated their openness and honesty in their attempts to comply
24 with the Act. Any questionable contributions were immediately
25 investigated and, if their legality could not be demonstrated, 26 this fact was acknowledged and the contributions refunded. (See 27 Affidavit of Burt Pines, p. 3, attached hereto as Exhibit M.)
28 In United States v. Finance Committee to Re-Elect The President,

85040562295

1 507 F.2d 1194, 1197 (D.C. Cir. 1974), also involving the Federal
2 Election Campaign Act, the court held that "secrecy or openness
3 in involved transactions are clear indications of guilty intent
4 or its absence." By openly acknowledging and refunding ques-
5 tionable contributions, Mr. Pines and the Brown For U.S. Senate
6 Committee clearly demonstrated the absence of any intent to
7 violate the Act.

8 B. The General Counsel's Interpretation of "Knowingly" Is
9 Inconsistent With 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b).

10 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(1) states that "[c]ontributions
11 which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either
12 returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign
13 depository, and reported." 11 C.F.P. § 103.3(b)(2) provides 14 that when a contribution cannot be determined to be legal,
15 refunds should be made within a reasonable time.

16 Under the General Counsel's interpretation of
17 "knowingly", which requires only knowledge of acceptance, a
18 violation of §§ 441a(f) or 441b(a) occurs at the time of 19 acceptance of the contribution. Therefore, under the General
20 Counsel's interpretation, 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) is irrelevant.
21 The violation occurs when the contribution is accepted,
22 regardless of whether the contribution is later refunded.
23 Because the Commission could not have intended to promulgate an 24 irrelevant rule, the General Counsel's interpretation of 25 "knowingly" must be inaccurate.

27
28

85040562296

1 C. The General Counsel's Interpretation of "Knowingly" Is
2 Contrary to Legislative Intent.

3 The General Counsel's interpretation of §§ 441a(f) and
4 441b(a) is contrary to legislative intent. The use of the word
5 "knowingly" in the context of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a) is
6 convincing evidence that the legislature sought to require
7 knowledge of the nature of the contribution. The General
8 Counsel's interpretation of the cited sections, which requires
9 only knowledge of acceptance, renders the word "knowingly"
10 superfluous. Knowledge of acceptance is always present.
11 Therefore, the only logical explanation for the inclusion of the 12 word "knowingly" by the legislature is that it sought to require
13 knowledge that the contribution was excessive or illegal.

14 D. The General Counsel's Interpretation of "Knowingly" Is 15 Contrary to Notions of Fair Play.

16 The requirement of knowledge of illegality or
17 impropriety of the contribution before a violation of the Act
18 will be found is consistent with common notions of justice and 19 fairness. It is grossly unfair to penalize the Committee or 20 Mr. Pines for accepting contributions which they have no way of 21 knowing might be excessive. Simply knowing that a contribution
22 was accepted, without any indication that the contribution was 23 excessive or illegal, should not be sufficient to constitute a
24 violation of the Act. If it were sufficient, any committee or 25 candidate accepting a contribution would be violating the Act if 26 that contribution should later be found to be illegal, despite 27 the fact that there was no way of knowing the contribution was 28 illegal at the time the contribution was accepted. In the

1 present matter, as demonstrated above and, indeed, as evidenced
2 by the General Counsel's recitation of the facts, the Committee
3 made a determination of legality as quickly as possible and 4 refunded any questionable contributions.

5 V.

6 NO VIOLATION OF THE ACT EXISTS BECAUSE
7 THE COMMITTEE AND ITS TREASURER AT ALL TIMES
8 DEMONSTRATED GOOD FAITH AND UTILIZED
9 THEIR BEST EFFORTS TO COMPLY WITH THE ACT.

10 2 U.S.C. § 432(h)(2)(i) states that "[w]hen the trea-
11 surer of a political committee shows that best efforts have been 12 used . . . any report of records of such committee shall be con-
13 sidered in compliance with this Act" The actions of the 14 Committee, detailed below, evidence such "best efforts," and
15 although 2 U.S.C. § 432(h)(2)(i) deals with reports and records,
16 respondents believe that their "best effort" attempts to comply
17 with the Act should weigh heavily in their favor in the present
18 matter. In fact, nowhere in its Brief does the General
19 Counsel's Office set forth what steps the Committee should have 20 taken in addition to the precautions actually taken.

21 A. Less Than a One Percent Error is a Prima Facie Showing of 22 Good Faith And Best Efforts.

23 The volume of contributions processed by the Committee
24 during the period encompassing the alleged violations was
25 enormous. More than 25,000 checks, representing contributions
26 of approximately $5,500,000, were received during this period.
27 Despite this tremendous volume, fewer than thirty contributions, 28 representing less than $35,000, are currently in dispute. Of

1 that $35,000, $28,000 was voluntarily refunded by the Committee
2 prior to any notice from the Commission. These figures alone
3 are evidence of the efforts expended by the Committee to comply
4 with the Act.

5 B. The Committee's Conduct Shows Good Faith Compliance.

6 Mr. Pines became Treasurer of the Committee on
7 August 1, 1981. Shortly thereafter, a memorandum was prepared
8 to establish Committee procedures to ensure compliance with 9 federal and state laws (see Exhibit N). This was especially 10 significant because, in keeping with the spirit of the Act, the 11 Committee was staffed primarily with volunteers who were not
12 experts in this area. Through the use of the procedures
13 prepared by Mr. Pines, hundreds of contributions, including the 14 majority of those cited in the General Counsel's brief, were 15 determined to be questionable under the Act and refunded prior
16 to notice from the Commission.

17 Moreover, to further ensure compliance with the Act,
18 the Committee retained the services of an outside accountant and 19 auditor, Jules Glazer, who is an expert on state and federal 20 campaign reporting laws, and a full-time internal bookkeeper,
21 Toni Kendall, who is familiar with the Act's restrictions on 22 campaign contributions. Furthermore, Mr. Pines himself, in his
23 tenure as City Attorney of Los Angeles, became quite familiar
24 with the campaign reporting and contributions laws. The reten-
25 tion of these specialists is further evidence of the good faith
26 and best efforts used by the Committee to ensure compliance with 27 the Act. (See Exhibit M.) Indeed, the procedures were so 28 thorough and the experts so qualified that there is not even an

85040562298

1 argument that the Committee should have discovered the excessive
2 or illegal contributions any sooner than it did. The Committee
3 was more than reasonable in its attempts to detect and refund
4 excessive or illegal contributions.

5 C. The Committee Had No Reason to Commit a Violation of the 6 Act.

7 The Committee and Mr. Pines had no reason to accept
8 illegal or excessive contributions. The Committee's periodic 9 reports filed with the Commission clearly demonstrate that the 10 Committee never had a cash flow problem. Therefore, the 11 committee had no reason to accept excessive contributions.
12 Indeed, the Committee had every reason to avoid even the 13 appearance of impropriety under the Act and made every effort to 14 do so.

15 VI.

16 CONCLUSION

17 The Brown for U.S. Senate Committee and Burt Pines as 18 Treasurer for the Committee have continually demonstrated their
19 good faith and best efforts to comply with the Federal Election
20 Campaign Act. Furthermore, although the Commission charges
21 knowing acceptance of contributions in violation of the Act, the 22 General Counsel for the Commission has failed to demonstrate or 23 even allege that the Committee or Mr. Pines possessed the 24 requisite knowledge for such a violation. Every contribution
25 alleged to be improper has been either refunded or explained to 26 the satisfaction of the General Counsel. The vast majority of 27 the alleged violations were corrected prior to any notice from 28 the Commission.

Re: MUR 1601
Brown for U.S. Senate and
Burt Pines, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Loomis:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, and information supplied by your clients, the Federal Election Commission, on January 3, 1984, found reason to believe that your clients had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a), and instituted an investigation in this matter.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of the General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred.

Submitted for your review is a brief stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

If you are unable to file a responsive brief within 15 days, you may submit a written request to the Commission for an extension of time in which to file a brief. The Commission will not grant any extensions beyond 20 days.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety, days to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of)
Brown for U.S. Senate) MUR 1601
Burt Pines, Treasurer)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Background

On January 3, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b. On January 23, 1984, this office received a call from Burt Pines explaining that he had just received the Commission's letter as it had to be forwarded to him. Subsequently, on January 30, 1984, Mr. Pines requested an extension until February 23, 1984, in order to respond to the Commission's findings. The General Counsel's office granted this request.

On February 21, 1984, this office received a call from Respondents' counsel requesting another extension as his law firm had only recently been engaged as counsel. Counsel's written request for an extension until March 6, 1984, was received on February 27, 1984. On March 2, 1984, the Commission voted to grant counsel's request.

A response to the Commission's findings was received on March 13, 1984. See Attachment 5. (Counsel had called to say the response would be delayed due to illness.) Although the response was quite voluminous, it was determined by this office that more information was needed and on March 29, 1984, counsel was informed by telephone that further documentation was required.

On April 3, 1984, counsel called to say that letters were being sent out to certain contributors (individuals and businesses) to clarify the status of their contributions. A partial response was received from the Brown committee on April 23, 1984, which explained that they had yet to receive replies to all their letters.

This office called counsel on May 3, 1984, to ascertain the status of the remaining contributions in question. It was explained that some additional information had been received which would be forwarded to this office and that second letters had been sent to those contributors who had not responded. On May 18, 1984, this office received more information from the Brown committee, including amendments for numerous reports. See Attachment 24.

II. Factual and Legal Analysis

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), a committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution in violation of the limitations set forth in section 441a.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a), a political committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation and/or a labor union.

Contributions which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign depository and reported. If deposited, the treasurer shall make and retain a written record noting the basis for the appearance of illegality. A statement noting that the legality of the contribution is in question should be included in the report. The treasurer shall make his or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution. 11 C.F.R.

§ 103.3(b)(1). When a contribution cannot be determined to be legal, refunds shall be made within a reasonable time, and the treasurer shall note the refund by amending the current report or noting the change on the committee's next required report.

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2).

The reports filed by the Brown committee indicate that the committee accepted excessive contributions from 4 individuals and 2 political action committees as well as, at least 20 corporate contributions and one union contribution. See Attachments 1-4.

According to Respondents' counsel, the following procedural safeguards were practiced in order to avoid the acceptance of illegal contributions (see Attachments 5 & 6):

The Committee maintained, during the period in question, a card system in which each contributor's name was listed alphabetically along with the amount contributed. Each time a contribution was received, a staff member compared the name on the check with names in the card file for possible excessive contributions. If there was no card file under the name, a card with the amount of the check was recorded and filed. When any name other than an individual's name was printed on a check representing a contribution, a telephone inquiry was made directly by the Committee to the party named on the check as to whether it was a corporation, a partnership or a sole proprietorship. If the inquiries indicated that the party was a corporation, the contribution was immediately refunded in accordance with the Act and regulations thereunder. If the inquiry indicated that the business was not incorporated, the Committee then checked by telephone with the California Secretary of State as to whether that party was a corporation. If so, the contribution was refunded immediately. Records of inquiries were kept by the Committee by notations on the face of the checks in question. In the case of a contribution received from another Political Action Committee ("PAC"), the Committee telephoned the PAC to inquire as to whether the PAC was qualified under the Act to make the contribution. Donations from any PAC found by the Committee to have failed to qualify were refunded immediately.

According to the Brown committee's reports, the committee had receipts totalling approximately $5.5 million for calendar years 1981/1982. Out of that sum, it appears the Brown committee accepted $23,600 in excessive contributions, $9,700 in corporate contributions */ and a $500 labor union contribution. See

*/ It is noted, however, that there are 4 contributions which still remain in question and which have not been included in this figure. According to the Brown committee, the following contributions are not from corporate entities although written verification from either the contributor and/or the California Secretary of State's office has not been provided: C.C.P. CO. ($1,000), Western Electric Co. ($1,000), S.K. Management Co. ($500), and Commerce Realty ($1,000).

Attachments 1-4. All of the excessive, corporate and labor union contributions have been refunded by the committee except for those contributions mentioned in the footnote. Out of the $33,800 prohibited funds accepted, (not including those contributions mentioned in the footnote), $26,550 was refunded by the Brown committee before notification from the Commission.

Regarding the alleged corporate contributions which have not been refunded by the committee, the committee has provided documentation and/or contacted the contributor directly in an attempt to demonstrate that the contributors were not incorporated. In some cases, the Commission was erroneously informed by the California Secretary of State's office that contributors were incorporated. This was due to that office's failure to check addresses. In other instances, the committee erroneously reported contributions as coming from an entity and being transmitted for an individual contributor, however, the contributions involved originated from the individual's personal funds within the entity and the entity was not incorporated.

In light of the fact that the Brown committee accepted excessive, corporate and labor union contributions, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a).

Senate campaign. As a public service, and because I was committed to his candidacy, I agreed to take the position, commencing August 1, 1981.

5. My term as City Attorney ended on June 30, 1981. After a month's vacation with my family, I began work with my new law firm on August 1, 1981. On that date I also assumed the treasurer position of the Brown campaign. I served as treasurer until the end of the Senate campaign.

6. Throughout the period I was treasurer, I endeavored to make sure that the Committee complied with federal election laws. I know Governor Brown shared the same commitment. (No doubt this is one of the reasons why he wanted me as treasurer, given my law enforcement background.) I also believe that Jodie Krajewski and her campaign staff felt the same way, and that they took all reasonable measures to avoid election law violations.

7. Shortly after becoming treasurer, I reviewed with the staff the various procedural safeguards they had established to assure compliance with the election laws and I made some revisions of those procedures as needed. Those procedures are summarized in Mr. Loomis' March 6, 1984 memorandum to the Commission.

8. As an additional safeguard, I endeavored to review all campaign contributions received by the Committee -- subject to the demands of my private law practice. I was able to review almost all of the checks. If I saw a check which came from a business and there was no notation on the check that the Secretary of State or owner had been called to verify whether it was a corporation, I would review the contribution with a staff person and cause the necessary verification to be made, if it had not already been done.

9. I also reviewed campaign reports before signing them. If I noticed that a contributor may have exceeded his or her legal limit, I would call the campaign staff. If an excessive contribution had actually been received, I had the staff refund it.

10. At my insistence, the Committee retained the services of Jules Glazer, an outside accountant and expert on campaign reporting laws. Among other things, Mr. Glazer's role was to independently audit the campaign, review and install internal bookkeeping procedures, and approve the campaign reports before I signed them.

11. I have reviewed the attachments to the General Counsel's June 20, 1984 letter. At no time did I knowingly accept any contributions in excess of the legal limitations from any of the individuals listed in Attachment 1 to his letter or from anyone else in excess of the legal limit. In fact, I was not even treasurer when the contributions listed in Attachment 1 were received.

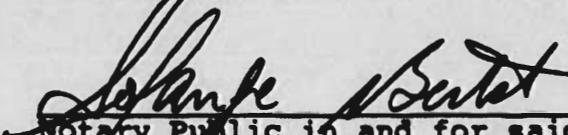

12. At no time did I knowingly accept excessive contributions from the PACs identified on Attachment 2 to the letter. I did not know that the PACs mentioned in the letter were not qualified when their contributions were made. At no time did I knowingly accept excessive contributions from any PAC or cause the Brown Committee to knowingly accept or retain illegal or excessive contributions from any individual or PAC.

13. At no time did I knowingly receive or accept any contribution from any corporation or labor organization listed in Attachments 3 and 4 to the General Counsel's letter, nor did I ever knowingly receive or accept any illegal corporate or labor contribution, or cause the campaign or Brown Committee to receive or retain such contributions, while I was treasurer. I did not know the businesses listed on Attachments 3 and 4 were corporations when the contributions were received.

14. As a result of the Committee's internal safeguards, thousands of dollars were voluntarily returned to contributors over the course of the campaign because they were found to be in excess of the legal limits or from corporations. I believe the staff exercised due diligence with respect to the items listed in the attachments to the General Counsel's letter and that none of the listed contributions was accepted with knowledge that it was illegal.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

June 25, 1982

Burt Pines, Treasurer
Brown for U.S. Senate
1125 West 6th Street
3rd Floor, Suite 2535
Los Angeles, CA 90017

Identification Number: C00141283

Reference: Year End Report (7/1/81-12/31/81) and Mid-Year Report
(1/1/81-6/30/81)

Dear Mr. Pines:

On May 4, 1982, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced reports(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your May 11, 1982 response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

Your reports disclose contributions which may have been drawn on corporate accounts (attached is a list of corporations whose corporate status has been verified by the California Secretary of State). You are advised that contributions from corporations are prohibited by the Act, unless made from separate segregated funds established by the corporations. (2 U.S.C. 441b) If you have received corporate contributions, the Commission recommends that you refund the full amounts to the donors. The Commission should be notified, in writing, if such refunds are necessary. In addition, refunds should be itemized on Schedule B for Line 20(a) on your next report.

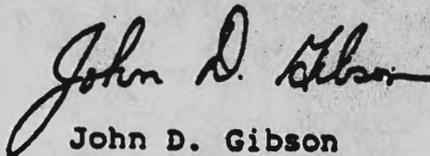

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of prohibited contributions, prompt action on your part to refund any such prohibited contributions will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

If you find, however, that the contributions in question were not drawn from prohibited corporate accounts, and there is another suitable explanation regarding the manner in which such entries have been disclosed, please clarify this matter for the public record.

Re: MUR 1601, Brown For U.S. Senate and
Burt Pines, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Steele:

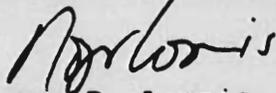

On June 22, 1984, we received from your office a letter informing us of your decision to recommend that the Federal Election Commission find probable cause to believe that our clients violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a). We also received a copy of the brief outlining your position on the legal and factual issues of the case.

Concurrently with this letter, we are filing a reply to the Commission's brief in this matter.

Please call either Cynthia Thornton or me at this office if you have any questions.

This letter is in no way an admission of any liability or wrongdoing.

Very truly yours,

Roger D. Loomis, Jr.

16) COUNSEL'S BRIEF

17 I.

18 INTRODUCTION

19 By its letter dated January 4, 1984, to Burt Pines,
20 treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee (the "Com-
21 mittee"), the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission")
22 informed the Committee and Mr. Pines that it had determined
23 there was reason to believe the Committee and Mr. Pines violated
24 Sections 441a(f) and 441b(a) of the Federal Election Campaign
25 Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"), by accepting contributions
26 in excess of the statutory limits and accepting prohibited con-
27 tributions from corporations and a labor union.

28 The Commission enclosed the General Counsel's Factual
and Legal Analysis (the "Report") with its letter.

On March 6, 1984, the Committee, through its counsel,
Reavis & McGrath, filed a response to the Report, including

85040562392

1 exhibits (the "Response"), stating the Committee's position and
2 detailing the reasons that no violation of the Act occurred.
3 Subsequent to the filing of the Response, the Committee con-
4 tinued to cooperate fully with the Commission, providing every
5 piece of information requested by the General Counsel's office.

6 Despite this cooperation from the Committee, the
7 obvious lack of intent to violate the Act, and the very small
8 amount of impermissible contributions not refunded prior to
9 notice from the Commission (approximately $7,000 out of 10 $5,500,000 million), the General Counsel recommended that the
11 Commission find probable cause to believe that Mr. Pines and the 12 Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a). The General
13 Counsel sent its brief dated June 20, 1984 (the "Brief"), to the 14 Committee wherein the General Counsel's position on the legal 15 and factual issues was stated.

16 II.

17 FACTS

18 During the period encompassing the alleged violations,
19 the Committee received more than 25,000 checks representing 20 total contributions of approximately $5,500,000 and, in the
21 regular course of its business, voluntarily and promptly
22 refunded hundreds of checks totalling approximately $100,000 in 23 questionable or illegal contributions. The General Counsel, in 24 its Brief, states that the Committee accepted only $33,800 in 25 excessive or illegal contributions out of $5,500,000 in total
26 contributions. The Brief further concedes that the Committee
27 refunded $26,550 before notification from the Commission. (See
28 Brief of General Counsel, pp. 4-5, attached hereto as Exhibit

1 A.) Thus, out of $5,500,000 in total contributions, the
2 Committee detected and refunded all but $7,250 in excessive or
3 illegal contributions before the Commission was even aware that
4 these contributions had been made.

5 Immediately upon notice from the Commission that
6 $7,250 out of a total of $5,500,000 in contributions might be
7 improper, the Committee rechecked the sources of these
8 contributions. As reported at page 5 of the General Counsel's
9 Brief, some of these contributions were refunded by the
10 Committee subsequent to notification from the Commission, some 11 were determined to be legal contributions (e.g., non-corporate),
12 and four contributions totalling $3,500 are still in dispute.

13 III.

14 EVERY CONTRIBUTION CITED BY THE GENERAL
16 OR HAS BEEN REFUNDED.

17 A. The Four Contributions That The General Counsel Claims Are
18 in Dispute Do Not Constitute Violations of the Act.

19 The Committee has not refunded the following four 20 contributions. It is the position of the Committee that these 21 four contributions are proper because the contributors are not
22 corporations.

23 1. C.C.P. Company ($1,000):

24 This company is not a corporation. (See Exhibits B
25 and C.) Even if C.C.P. Company were a corporation, it was
27 Hee-Won Chai. (See Exhibits D and E.)

2. Western Electric Company ($1,000):

The only corporation doing business in California under the name of Western Electric Company is a New York corporation, now AT&T Technologies. (See Exhibit F.) This is not the Western Electric Company that made the contribution. The Western Electric Company that made the contribution to the Committee is located at 12347 Felson Place, Cerritos, California 90701 and is a sole proprietorship. Even if the contributing Western Electric Company were a corporation, it was merely acting as a conduit for the personal contribution of Byung Keon. (See Exhibit G.)

3. S.K. Management Company ($500):

The only corporation doing business in California under the name of S.K. Management is located at 8335-1/4 Blackburn, Los Angeles, California 90048. (See Exhibit H.) This is not the S.K. Management Company that made the contribution. The S.K. Management Company that made the contribution to the Committee is located at 6330 San Vicente Boulevard, Suite 100, Los Angeles, California 90048 and is a sole proprietorship. Even if the contributing S.K. Management Company were a corporation, it was merely acting as a conduit for the personal contribution of Jerry Steinbaum. (See Exhibits I and J.)

4. Commerce Realty Company ($1,000):

The only corporation doing business in California under the name of Commerce Realty is located at 300 Capitol Mall, Sacramento, California 95814. (See Exhibit K.) This is not the Commerce Realty Company that made the contribution. The Commerce Realty Company that made the contribution to the

1 Committee has a mailing address of P.O. Box 92959, Los Angeles,
2 California 90009, is located at 9920 La Cienega Boulevard,
3 Inglewood, California (per telephone conversation with Cindy
4 Ortiz, (213) 649-3850, July 10, 1984), and is a sole proprietor-
5 ship. Even if the contributing Commerce Realty Company were a
6 corporation, it was merely acting as a conduit for the personal
7 contribution of George Gruziado. (See Exhibit L.)

8 The General Counsel further alleges that the Committee
9 violated the Federal Election Campaign Act by failing to refund
10 the contributions discussed below within a reasonable time or by 11 failing to properly designate the contributions.

12 B. The Committee Did Not Knowingly Accept Excessive Individual
13 Contributions.

14 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) prohibits a political committee
15 from knowingly accepting any contribution from an individual in 16 excess of $1,000 with regard to a single election. The General
17 Counsel alleges that the Committee violated § 441a(f) by 18 accepting contributions from four individuals in excess of the
19 $1,000 limit. These contributions, made by Jaswant Singh-Bains,
20 Daniel Berke, Esmeralda Contreras and Florence Smerling, were
21 all refunded within a reasonable time in accordance with 11
22 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2) prior to any notice from the Commission.

24 Unqualified PAC's.

25 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) also prohibits a political com-
26 mittee from knowingly accepting a contribution in excess of
27 $1,000 with regard to a single election from a Political Action
28 Committee ("PAC") which has not qualified as a multicandidate

1 committee in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 100.5(e)(3). The
2 General Counsel alleges that the Committee violated § 441a(f) by
3 accepting contributions from three PAC's in excess of $1,000
4 prior to the date on which the PAC's qualified as multicandidate
5 committees.

6 The excess contributions of $12,000 from the Armenian
7 National Committee PAC and $9,000 from the Brown PAC were
8 refunded as soon as it was possible to determine that they had
9 not yet qualified as multicandidate committees. These refunds
10 were made prior to any notice from the Commission. The $1,000
11 excess contribution from the Retail PAC was refunded the day the 12 Committee received notice from the Commission that this PAC had 13 not qualified as a multicandidate committee. Because it is
14 impossible for the Committee to determine on its own whether a
15 PAC has qualified as a multicandidate committee, the Committee
16 must rely on the PAC's themselves for this information. The
17 Committee refunded the excess contributions as soon as it could 18 determine that these contributions were improper.

19 D. The Committee Did Not Knowingly Accept Corporate
20 Contributions.

21 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) prohibits a political committee
22 from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation. The 23 General Counsel alleges that the Committee violated § 441b(a) by 24 accepting twenty corporate contributions. All of the cited con-
25 tributions were refunded as soon as the Committee became aware
26 that they were corporate contributions. Seven of the contribu-
27 tions were refunded prior to any notice from the Commission.
28 Two of the remaining thirteen contributions were refunded within

1 seven days of the Commission's notice to the Committee, and nine
2 additional contributions were refunded within fourteen days of
3 notice. As to the two remaining contributions, the $1,000
4 contribution from C.D. Investments, Incorporated, was mistakenly
5 reported as refunded prior to notice from the Commission, and
6 the $250 contribution from Amigo Development Company, Ltd., was
7 initially drawn against insufficient funds. Both of those
8 contributions were also refunded.

9 Thus, all of the above corporate contributions were
10 refunded as soon as the Committee became aware that they were 11 contributions made by corporations.

12 E. Labor Union Contribution.

13 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) also prohibits a political
14 committee from knowingly accepting a contribution from a
15 labor organization. The General Counsel alleges that the
16 Committee violated § 441b(a) by accepting a $500 contribu-
17 tion from the Federated Fire Fighters, a labor union. The 18 Committee originally believed that the contribution was proper
19 because it was transmitted by a labor organization for its
20 president. Upon further examination, however, the Committee
21 determined that the contribution should be refunded and
22 thereupon refunded the contribution.

1 IV.

2 THE COMMITTEE AND BURT PINES, AS TREASURER,
3 DID NOT POSSESS THE REQUISITE INTENT
4 TO VIOLATE 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) AND 441b(a).

5 A. The General Counsel's Interpretation of "Knowingly"
6 Conflicts with Case Law.

7 Subsections 441a(f) and 441b(a) require that the
8 accused knowingly accept contributions in violation of the Act.
9 The Commission has stated that "knowingly" means the act must be
10 intentional. Therefore, the Committee must have intended to
11 accept contributions in violation of the Act. The Commission
12 further contends that §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a) require knowledge
13 of acceptance but do not require knowledge that the contribu-
14 tions are illegal under the Act. This interpretation of 15 "knowingly" is in direct conflict with district court cases and 16 Congress' intentions.

17 In Re Federal Election Campaign Act Litigation (D.D.C.
18 1979) 474 F.Supp. 1044, 1047, which involved alleged acceptance
19 of excessive campaign contributions in violation of 2 U.S.C.
20 § 441a(f), held that as part of a violation of 2 U.S.C.
21 § 441a(f) "the [party accepting the contribution] must have been 22 aware of the illegal nature of the contributions." See also
23 Federal Election Commission v. California Medical Association
24 (N.D. Cal. 1980) 502 F.Supp. 196 [knowledge of the facts which
25 render conduct unlawful to create civil liability under 2 U.S.C.
26 § 441a(f)]. These requirements of knowledge apply to 2 U.S.C.
27 § 441b(a) as well as § 441a(f).
28

1 In the present matter, the General Counsel does not
2 even allege such knowledge on the part of the Committee or 3 Mr. Pines. Indeed, but for the recitation of the Act itself,
4 the word "knowledge" would not even be mentioned in the General
5 Counsel's brief. In Re Federal Election Campaign Act Litiga-
6 tion, supra, held that this absence of evidence or allegations
7 of knowledge, standing alone, justified the Commission's refusal
8 to take any further action. Likewise, the absence of allega-
9 tions of knowledge on the part of the Committee or Mr. Pines
10 warrants dismissal of any further action.

11 Further, the General Counsel does not even allege that 12 the Committee should have known that the contributions were 13 improper. Indeed, such an allegation would be facially absurd
14 because less than 1% of the total contributions are involved.

15 Respondent's position is further supported by 11
16 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(1), which requires that contributions which 17 appear to be illegal be refunded within 10 days or deposited and 18 noted on a written record. (Emphasis added.) Nowhere in its 19 brief does the General Counsel provide any evidence that the 20 contributions in controversy appeared to be illegal. Subsection 21 103.3(b)(1) further provides that the treasurer shall make his 22 or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contrib-
23 ution. Through its use of procedural safeguards (see Exhibits M 24 and N), the Committee used its best efforts to determine the 25 legality of the contribution and, if the legality could not be 26 demonstrated, the Committee made refunds within a reasonable
27 time in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2). These pro-28 visions are further evidence that knowledge of illegality is 85040562399

1 required before there is a violation of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and
2 441b(a).

3 The General Counsel presents its interpretation of 2
4 U.S.C. § 441a(f) succinctly in its report to MUR 515. In MUR
5 515, the General Counsel states:

6 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) states:

7 No candidate or political committee shall knowingly
8 accept any contribution . . . in violation of the 9 provisions of this section . . . " (emphasis added).

10 We must therefore consider whether the term "knowingly
11 accepted" implies knowledge that the contributions
12 were illegal or merely knowledge of the facts of the 13 situation which bring the contribution within the 14 prohibitions of the statute.

15 Broadly speaking, we believe the latter
16 interpretation to be that generally used in 17 interpreting civil statutes and regulations. In 18 support of this position we note a 1971 opinion of
19 the U.S. District for Oregon interpreting an Oregon
20 usury statute: "The word 'knowingly' ordinarily
21 means that the act or omission was intentional. It
22 is not necessary that the actor intended to break
23 the law. It is enough that he intended the act.
24 One may be ignorant of the law, and yet be found to 25 have violated its demands.

International Minerals & Chem. Corp., 402 U.S. 558,
563, 91 S.Ct. 1697, 1701 (1971).

In addition to the dubious legitimacy of citing a district court's interpretation of an Oregon usury statute as the controlling authority in the interpretation of the Federal Election Campaign Act, the General Counsel is mistaken in its definition of the "act" which must be intended under this interpretation of "knowingly". The act which constitutes a violation of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a) and "bring[s] the contribution within the prohibitions of the statute" is not the mere acceptance of contributions but the acceptance of excessive or illegal contributions. To violate §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a), a political committee must therefore intend to accept excessive or illegal contributions. In the present matter, because the Committee did not know that the contributions were excessive or illegal, the Committee could not have intended to accept them as such. Therefore, the Committee did not violate 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a).

Further proof of a lack of intent to violate the Act is evidenced by the manner in which the Committee and Mr. Pines handled questionable contributions.

The Committee and Mr. Pines have continuously demonstrated their openness and honesty in their attempts to comply with the Act. Any questionable contributions were immediately investigated and, if their legality could not be demonstrated, this fact was acknowledged and the contributions refunded. (See Affidavit of Burt Pines, p. 3, attached hereto as Exhibit M.)
In United States v. Finance Committee to Re-Elect The President,

1 507 F.2d 1194, 1197 (D.C. Cir. 1974), also involving the Federal
2 Election Campaign Act, the court held that "secrecy or openness
3 in involved transactions are clear indications of guilty intent
4 or its absence." By openly acknowledging and refunding ques-
5 tionable contributions, Mr. Pines and the Brown For U.S. Senate
6 Committee clearly demonstrated the absence of any intent to
7 violate the Act.

8 B. The General Counsel's Interpretation of "Knowingly" Is
9 Inconsistent With 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b).

10 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(1) states that "[c]ontributions
11 which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either
12 returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign
13 depository, and reported." 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2) provides 14 that when a contribution cannot be determined to be legal,
15 refunds should be made within a reasonable time.

16 Under the General Counsel's interpretation of
17 "knowingly", which requires only knowledge of acceptance, a
18 violation of §§ 441a(f) or 441b(a) occurs at the time of
19 acceptance of the contribution. Therefore, under the General
20 Counsel's interpretation, 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) is irrelevant.
21 The violation occurs when the contribution is accepted,
22 regardless of whether the contribution is later refunded.
23 Because the Commission could not have intended to promulgate an 24 irrelevant rule, the General Counsel's interpretation of 25 "knowingly" must be inaccurate.

1 C. The General Counsel's Interpretation of "Knowingly" Is
2 Contrary to Legislative Intent.

3 The General Counsel's interpretation of §§ 441a(f) and
4 441b(a) is contrary to legislative intent. The use of the word
5 "knowingly" in the context of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a) is
6 convincing evidence that the legislature sought to require
7 knowledge of the nature of the contribution. The General
8 Counsel's interpretation of the cited sections, which requires
9 only knowledge of acceptance, renders the word "knowingly"
10 superfluous. Knowledge of acceptance is always present.
11 Therefore, the only logical explanation for the inclusion of the 12 word "knowingly" by the legislature is that it sought to require
13 knowledge that the contribution was excessive or illegal.

14 D. The General Counsel's Interpretation of "Knowingly" Is 15 Contrary to Notions of Fair Play.

16 The requirement of knowledge of illegality or
17 impropriety of the contribution before a violation of the Act
18 will be found is consistent with common notions of justice and 19 fairness. It is grossly unfair to penalize the Committee or 20 Mr. Pines for accepting contributions which they have no way of 21 knowing might be excessive. Simply knowing that a contribution
22 was accepted, without any indication that the contribution was 23 excessive or illegal, should not be sufficient to constitute a
24 violation of the Act. If it were sufficient, any committee or 25 candidate accepting a contribution would be violating the Act if 26 that contribution should later be found to be illegal, despite 27 the fact that there was no way of knowing the contribution was 28 illegal at the time the contribution was accepted. In the

1 present matter, as demonstrated above and, indeed, as evidenced
2 by the General Counsel's recitation of the facts, the Committee
3 made a determination of legality as quickly as possible and 4 refunded any questionable contributions.

5 V.

6 NO VIOLATION OF THE ACT EXISTS BECAUSE
7 THE COMMITTEE AND ITS TREASURER AT ALL TIMES
9 THEIR BEST EFFORTS TO COMPLY WITH THE ACT.

10 2 U.S.C. § 432(h)(2)(i) states that "[w]hen the trea-
11 surer of a political committee shows that best efforts have been 12 used . . . any report of records of such committee shall be con-
13 sidered in compliance with this Act" The actions of the 14 Committee, detailed below, evidence such "best efforts," and
15 although 2 U.S.C. § 432(h)(2)(i) deals with reports and records,
16 respondents believe that their "best effort" attempts to comply
17 with the Act should weigh heavily in their favor in the present
18 matter. In fact, nowhere in its Brief does the General
19 Counsel's Office set forth what steps the Committee should have 20 taken in addition to the precautions actually taken.

21 A. Less Than a One Percent Error is a Prima Facie Showing of 22 Good Faith And Best Efforts.

23 The volume of contributions processed by the Committee
24 during the period encompassing the alleged violations was
25 enormous. More than 25,000 checks, representing contributions
26 of approximately $5,500,000, were received during this period.
27 Despite this tremendous volume, fewer than thirty contributions,
28 representing less than $35,000, are currently in dispute. Of

1 that $35,000, $28,000 was voluntarily refunded by the Committee
2 prior to any notice from the Commission. These figures alone
3 are evidence of the efforts expended by the Committee to comply
4 with the Act.

5 B. The Committee's Conduct Shows Good Faith Compliance.

6 Mr. Pines became Treasurer of the Committee on
7 August 1, 1981. Shortly thereafter, a memorandum was prepared
8 to establish Committee procedures to ensure compliance with
9 federal and state laws (see Exhibit N). This was especially 10 significant because, in keeping with the spirit of the Act, the 11 Committee was staffed primarily with volunteers who were not
12 experts in this area. Through the use of the procedures
13 prepared by Mr. Pines, hundreds of contributions, including the 14 majority of those cited in the General Counsel's brief, were 15 determined to be questionable under the Act and refunded prior
16 to notice from the Commission.

17 Moreover, to further ensure compliance with the Act,
18 the Committee retained the services of an outside accountant and 19 auditor, Jules Glazer, who is an expert on state and federal
20 campaign reporting laws, and a full-time internal bookkeeper,
21 Toni Kendall, who is familiar with the Act's restrictions on 22 campaign contributions. Furthermore, Mr. Pines himself, in his
23 tenure as City Attorney of Los Angeles, became quite familiar
24 with the campaign reporting and contributions laws. The reten-
25 tion of these specialists is further evidence of the good faith
26 and best efforts used by the Committee to ensure compliance with 27 the Act. (See Exhibit M.) Indeed, the procedures were so
28 thorough and the experts so qualified that there is not even an

85040562406

1 argument that the Committee should have discovered the excessive
2 or illegal contributions any sooner than it did. The Committee
3 was more than reasonable in its attempts to detect and refund
4 excessive or illegal contributions.

5 C. The Committee Had No Reason to Commit a Violation of the 6 Act.

7 The Committee and Mr. Pines had no reason to accept
8 illegal or excessive contributions. The Committee's periodic
9 reports filed with the Commission clearly demonstrate that the 10 Committee never had a cash flow problem. Therefore, the 11 committee had no reason to accept excessive contributions.
12 Indeed, the Committee had every reason to avoid even the 13 appearance of impropriety under the Act and made every effort to 14 do so.

15 VI.

16 CONCLUSION

17 The Brown for U.S. Senate Committee and Burt Pines as 18 Treasurer for the Committee have continually demonstrated their
19 good faith and best efforts to comply with the Federal Election
20 Campaign Act. Furthermore, although the Commission charges
21 knowing acceptance of contributions in violation of the Act, the 22 General Counsel for the Commission has failed to demonstrate or 23 even allege that the Committee or Mr. Pines possessed the 24 requisite knowledge for such a violation. Every contribution
25 alleged to be improper has been either refunded or explained to 26 the satisfaction of the General Counsel. The vast majority of 27 the alleged violations were corrected prior to any notice from
28 the Commission.

The goals of the Act, to free the political process from the disproportionate influence of large contributions, corporate contributions, and labor contributions, are laudable. The procedures used by the Commission are formulated with these goals in mind. These procedures are well-suited to the enforcement needs of the Commission. They should not be used, however, to punish inadvertent or technical violations of the Act.

While ignorance of the law is no defense, ignorance of the facts, when such ignorance negates the necessary element of knowledge or intent, is a defense.

For the above-stated reasons, the Committee and Burt Pines did not violate the Federal Election Campaign Act and, therefore, respectfully request that the Commission find no probable cause to believe that the Committee and Burt Pines violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a).

DATED: July 27, 1984.

Re: MUR 1601
Brown for U.S. Senate and
Burt Pines, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Loomis:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, and information supplied by your clients, the Federal Election Commission, on January 3, 1984, found reason to believe that your clients had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a), and instituted an investigation in this matter.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of the General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred.

Submitted for your review is a brief stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

If you are unable to file a responsive brief within 15 days, you may submit a written request to the Commission for an extension of time in which to file a brief. The Commission will not grant any extensions beyond 20 days.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety, days to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of)
Brown for U.S. Senate) MUR 1601
Burt Pines, Treasurer)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Background

On January 3, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b. On January 23, 1984, this office received a call from Burt Pines explaining that he had just received the Commission's letter as it had to be forwarded to him. Subsequently, on January 30, 1984, Mr. Pines requested an extension until February 23, 1984, in order to respond to the Commission's findings. The General Counsel's office granted this request.

On February 21, 1984, this office received a call from Respondents' counsel requesting another extension as his law firm had only recently been engaged as counsel. Counsel's written request for an extension until March 6, 1984, was received on February 27, 1984. On March 2, 1984, the Commission voted to grant counsel's request.

A response to the Commission's findings was received on March 13, 1984. See Attachment 5. (Counsel had called to say the response would be delayed due to illness.) Although the response was quite voluminous, it was determined by this office that more information was needed and on March 29, 1984, counsel was informed by telephone that further documentation was required.

On April 3, 1984, counsel called to say that letters were being sent out to certain contributors (individuals and businesses) to clarify the status of their contributions. A partial response was received from the Brown committee on April 23, 1984, which explained that they had yet to receive replies to all their letters.

This office called counsel on May 3, 1984, to ascertain the status of the remaining contributions in question. It was explained that some additional information had been received which would be forwarded to this office and that second letters had been sent to those contributors who had not responded. On May 18, 1984, this office received more information from the Brown committee, including amendments for numerous reports. See Attachment 24.

II. Factual and Legal Analysis

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), a committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution in violation of the limitations set forth in section 441a.

850405624130

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a), a political committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation and/or a labor union.

Contributions which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign depository and reported. If deposited, the treasurer shall make and retain a written record noting the basis for the appearance of illegality. A statement noting that the legality of the contribution is in question should be included in the report. The treasurer shall make his or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution. 11 C.F.R.

§ 103.3(b)(1). When a contribution cannot be determined to be legal, refunds shall be made within a reasonable time, and the treasurer shall note the refund by amending the current report or noting the change on the committee's next required report.

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2).

The reports filed by the Brown committee indicate that the committee accepted excessive contributions from 4 individuals and 2 political action committees as well as, at least 20 corporate contributions and one union contribution. See Attachments 1-4.

According to Respondents' counsel, the following procedural safeguards were practiced in order to avoid the acceptance of illegal contributions (see Attachments 5 & 6):

The Committee maintained, during the period in question, a card system in which each contributor's name was listed alphabetically along with the amount contributed. Each time a contribution was received, a staff member compared the name on the check with names in the card file for possible excessive contributions. If there was no card file under the name, a card with the amount of the check was recorded and filed. When any name other than an individual's name was printed on a check representing a contribution, a telephone inquiry was made directly by the Committee to the party named on the check as to whether it was a corporation, a partnership or a sole proprietorship. If the inquiries indicated that the party was a corporation, the contribution was immediately refunded in accordance with the Act and regulations thereunder. If the inquiry indicated that the business was not incorporated, the Committee then checked by telephone with the California Secretary of State as to whether that party was a corporation. If so, the contribution was refunded immediately. Records of inquiries were kept by the Committee by notations on the face of the checks in question. In the case of a contribution received from another Political Action Committee ("PAC"), the Committee telephoned the PAC to inquire as to whether the PAC was qualified under the Act to make the contribution. Donations from any PAC found by the Committee to have failed to qualify were refunded immediately.

According to the Brown committee's reports, the committee had receipts totalling approximately $5.5 million for calendar years 1981/1982. Out of that sum, it appears the Brown committee accepted $23,600 in excessive contributions, $9,700 in corporate contributions */ and a $500 labor union contribution. See

*/ It is noted, however, that there are 4 contributions which still remain in question and which have not been included in this figure. According to the Brown committee, the following contributions are not from corporate entities although written verification from either the contributor and/or the California Secretary of State's office has not been provided: C.C.P. CO. ($1,000), Western Electric Co. ($1,000), S.K. Management Co. ($500), and Commerce Realty ($1,000).

Attachments 1-4. All of the excessive, corporate and labor union contributions have been refunded by the committee except for those contributions mentioned in the footnote. Out of the $33,800 prohibited funds accepted, (not including those contributions mentioned in the footnote), $26,550 was refunded by the Brown committee before notification from the Commission.

Regarding the alleged corporate contributions which have not been refunded by the committee, the committee has provided documentation and/or contacted the contributor directly in an attempt to demonstrate that the contributors were not incorporated. In some cases, the Commission was erroneously informed by the California Secretary of State's office that contributors were incorporated. This was due to that office's failure to check addresses. In other instances, the committee erroneously reported contributions as coming from an entity and being transmitted for an individual contributor, however, the contributions involved originated from the individual's personal funds within the entity and the entity was not incorporated.

In light of the fact that the Brown committee accepted excessive, corporate and labor union contributions, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a).

III. Recommendation

Find probable cause to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a).

Senate campaign. As a public service, and because I was committed to his candidacy, I agreed to take the position, commencing August 1, 1981.

5. My term as City Attorney ended on June 30, 1981. After a month's vacation with my family, I began work with my new law firm on August 1, 1981. On that date I also assumed the treasurer position of the Brown campaign. I served as treasurer until the end of the Senate campaign.

6. Throughout the period I was treasurer, I endeavored to make sure that the Committee complied with federal election laws. I know Governor Brown shared the same commitment. (No doubt this is one of the reasons why he wanted me as treasurer, given my law enforcement background.) I also believe that Jodie Krajewski and her campaign staff felt the same way, and that they took all reasonable measures to avoid election law violations.

7. Shortly after becoming treasurer, I reviewed with the staff the various procedural safeguards they had established to assure compliance with the election laws and I made some revisions of those procedures as needed. Those procedures are summarized in Mr. Loomis' March 6, 1984 memorandum to the Commission.

8. As an additional safeguard, I endeavored to review all campaign contributions received by the Committee -- subject to the demands of my private law practice. I was able to review almost all of the checks. If I saw a check which came from a business and there was no notation on the check that the Secretary of State or owner had been called to verify whether it was a corporation, I would review the contribution with a staff person and cause the necessary verification to be made, if it had not already been done.

9. I also reviewed campaign reports before signing them. If I noticed that a contributor may have exceeded his or her legal limit, I would call the campaign staff. If an excessive contribution had actually been received, I had the staff refund it.

10. At my insistence, the Committee retained the services of Jules Glazer, an outside accountant and expert on campaign reporting laws. Among other things, Mr. Glazer's role was to independently audit the campaign, review and install internal bookkeeping procedures, and approve the campaign reports before I signed them.

11. I have reviewed the attachments to the General Counsel's June 20, 1984 letter. At no time did I knowingly accept any contributions in excess of the legal limitations from any of the individuals listed in Attachment 1 to his letter or from anyone else in excess of the legal limit. In fact, I was not even treasurer when the contributions listed in Attachment 1 were received.

12. At no time did I knowingly accept excessive contributions from the PACs identified on Attachment 2 to the letter. I did not know that the PACs mentioned in the letter were not qualified when their contributions were made. At no time did I knowingly accept excessive contributions from any PAC or cause the Brown Committee to knowingly accept or retain illegal or excessive contributions from any individual or PAC.

13. At no time did I knowingly receive or accept any contribution from any corporation or labor organization listed in Attachments 3 and 4 to the General Counsel's letter, nor did I ever knowingly receive or accept any illegal corporate or labor contribution, or cause the campaign or Brown Committee to receive or retain such contributions, while I was treasurer. I did not know the businesses listed on Attachments 3 and 4 were corporations when the contributions were received.

14. As a result of the Committee's internal safeguards, thousands of dollars were voluntarily returned to contributors over the course of the campaign because they were found to be in excess of the legal limits or from corporations. I believe the staff exercised due diligence with respect to the items listed in the attachments to the General Counsel's letter and that none of the listed contributions was accepted with knowledge that it was illegal.

The Brown for U.S. Senate Committee (the "Committee") and its treasurer, Mr. Burt Pines, hereby formally request an extension of time to respond to the General Counsel's recommendation to the Commission that probable cause be found to July 29, 1984. In our telephone conversation yesterday, you indicated that this extension of time should not be a problem.

Your cooperation in this matter is appreciated.

Re: MUR 1601
Brown for U.S. Senate and
Burt Pines, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Loomis:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, and information supplied by your clients, the Federal Election Commission, on January 3, 1984, found reason to believe that your clients had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a), and instituted an investigation in this matter.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of the General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred.

Submitted for your review is a brief stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

If you are unable to file a responsive brief within 15 days, you may submit a written request to the Commission for an extension of time in which to file a brief. The Commission will not grant any extensions beyond 20 days.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety, days to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement.

Should you have any questions, please contact Marybeth Tarrant, the staff member assigned to handle this matter, at (202)523-4000.

Brown for U.S. Senate) MUR 1601
Burt Pines, Treasurer)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Background

On January 3, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b. On January 23, 1984, this office received a call from Burt Pines explaining that he had just received the Commission's letter as it had to be forwarded to him. Subsequently, on January 30, 1984, Mr. Pines requested an extension until February 23, 1984, in order to respond to the Commission's findings. The General Counsel's office granted this request.

On February 21, 1984, this office received a call from Respondents' counsel requesting another extension as his law firm had only recently been engaged as counsel. Counsel's written request for an extension until March 6, 1984, was received on February 27, 1984. On March 2, 1984, the Commission voted to grant counsel's request.

A response to the Commission's findings was received on March 13, 1984. See Attachment 5. (Counsel had called to say the response would be delayed due to illness.) Although the response was quite voluminous, it was determined by this office that more information was needed and on March 29, 1984, counsel was informed by telephone that further documentation was required.

On April 3, 1984, counsel called to say that letters were being sent out to certain contributors (individuals and businesses) to clarify the status of their contributions. A partial response was received from the Brown committee on April 23, 1984, which explained that they had yet to receive replies to all their letters.

This office called counsel on May 3, 1984, to ascertain the status of the remaining contributions in question. It was explained that some additional information had been received which would be forwarded to this office and that second letters had been sent to those contributors who had not responded. On May 18, 1984, this office received more information from the Brown committee, including amendments for numerous reports. See Attachment 24.

II. Factual and Legal Analysis

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), a committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution in violation of the limitations set forth in section 441a.

850440562454

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a), a political committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation and/or a labor union.

Contributions which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign depository and reported. If deposited, the treasurer shall make and retain a written record noting the basis for the appearance of illegality. A statement noting that the legality of the contribution is in question should be included in the report. The treasurer shall make his or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution. 11 C.F.R.

§ 103.3(b)(1). When a contribution cannot be determined to be legal, refunds shall be made within a reasonable time, and the treasurer shall note the refund by amending the current report or noting the change on the committee's next required report.

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2).

The reports filed by the Brown committee indicate that the committee accepted excessive contributions from 4 individuals and 2 political action committees as well as, at least 20 corporate contributions and one union contribution. See Attachments 1-4.

According to Respondents' counsel, the following procedural safeguards were practiced in order to avoid the acceptance of illegal contributions (see Attachments 5 & 6):

The Committee maintained, during the period in question, a card system in which each contributor's name was listed alphabetically along with the amount contributed. Each time a contribution was received, a staff member compared the name on the check with names in the card file for possible excessive contributions. If there was no card file under the name, a card with the amount of the check was recorded and filed. When any name other than an individual's name was printed on a check representing a contribution, a telephone inquiry was made directly by the Committee to the party named on the check as to whether it was a corporation, a partnership or a sole proprietorship. If the inquiries indicated that the party was a corporation, the contribution was immediately refunded in accordance with the Act and regulations thereunder. If the inquiry indicated that the business was not incorporated, the Committee then checked by telephone with the California Secretary of State as to whether that party was a corporation. If so, the contribution was refunded immediately. Records of inquiries were kept by the Committee by notations on the face of the checks in question. In the case of a contribution received from another Political Action Committee ("PAC"), the Committee telephoned the PAC to inquire as to whether the PAC was qualified under the Act to make the contribution. Donations from any PAC found by the Committee to have failed to qualify were refunded immediately.

According to the Brown committee's reports, the committee had receipts totalling approximately $5.5 million for calendar years 1981/1982. Out of that sum, it appears the Brown committee accepted $23,600 in excessive contributions, $9,700 in corporate contributions */ and a $500 labor union contribution. See

*/ It is noted, however, that there are 4 contributions which still remain in question and which have not been included in this figure. According to the Brown committee, the following contributions are not from corporate entities although written verification from either the contributor and/or the California Secretary of State's office has not been provided: C.C.P. CO. ($1,000), Western Electric Co. ($1,000), S.K. Management Co. ($500), and Commerce Realty ($1,000).

Attachments 1-4. All of the excessive, corporate and labor union contributions have been refunded by the committee except for those contributions mentioned in the footnote. Out of the $33,800 prohibited funds accepted, (not including those contributions mentioned in the footnote), $26,550 was refunded by the Brown committee before notification from the Commission.

Regarding the alleged corporate contributions which have not been refunded by the committee, the committee has provided documentation and/or contacted the contributor directly in an attempt to demonstrate that the contributors were not incorporated. In some cases, the Commission was erroneously informed by the California Secretary of State's office that contributors were incorporated. This was due to that office's failure to check addresses. In other instances, the committee erroneously reported contributions as coming from an entity and being transmitted for an individual contributor, however, the contributions involved originated from the individual's personal funds within the entity and the entity was not incorporated.

In light of the fact that the Brown committee accepted excessive, corporate and labor union contributions, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a).

III. Recommendation

Find probable cause to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b(a).

Re: MUR 1601/Brown for U.S. Senate Committee

Gentlemen:

By its letter dated January 4, 1984 to Burt Pines, Treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee (the "Committee"), the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") informed the Committee and Mr. Pines that it determined that there is reason to believe the Committee and Mr. Pines violated Sections 441a(f) and 441b of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") by accepting contributions in excess of the statutory limits and prohibited contributions from corporations and labor unions. The Commission enclosed with that letter the General Counsel's Factual and Legal Analysis (MUR No. 1601) (the "Report"), including Exhibits thereto.

Fewer than 20 contributions, totaling less than $40,000, are in dispute. During the years covered by the Report, 1981 and 1982, we understand that the Committee received more than 25,000 checks, representing total contributions of approximately $5.5 million, and, in accordance with the Act, voluntarily and promptly refunded in the regular course of its business hundreds of checks, totaling approximately $100,000, representing questionable contributions under the Act.

In connection with the positions expressed herein, although we have not made any independent review or investigation of factual matters, we have relied upon statements, representations, declarations and communications of officers, employees and members of the staff of the Committee.

The Report concluded that there is reason to believe the Committee and Mr. Pines violated the Act on the basis of the following alleged acts:

MAR 13 10:07

Federal Election Commission
Page 2

- (1) Knowing acceptance of contributions from individuals in excess of $1,000 for a single election (2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A));
- (2) Knowing acceptance of contributions from a corporation or a labor organization (2 U.S.C. § 441b(a)); and
- (3) Knowing acceptance of contributions in violation of § 441a. (2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).)

The Act requires that the Committee knowingly receive a prohibited contribution to establish the violations cited above. For the reasons set forth below, the Report fails to demonstrate that either the Committee or Mr. Pines knowingly received contributions in violation of the Act.

Mr. Pines was City Attorney of Los Angeles prior to his service as Treasurer of the Committee. In that position, he prosecuted cases involving violations of California's state election campaign contribution laws and was familiar with state campaign reporting and contribution laws. Shortly after Mr. Pines became the Committee's Treasurer on August 1, 1981, an internal memorandum (attached hereto as Exhibit A) was prepared to establish Committee procedures to prevent violations of federal and state campaign contribution laws. Mr. Pines and the Committee set up a comprehensive internal checking system to ensure compliance with the Act. Since July 13, 1982, the Committee retained the services of an outside accountant and auditor, Jules Glazer, an expert on state and federal campaign reporting laws, and a full time internal bookkeeper, Toni Kendall, who is familiar with the Act's restrictions on campaign contributions.

The procedural safeguards practiced by the Committee in the regular course of its business indicate that the Committee lacked the requisite statutory intent to accept improper contributions under the Act. The Report demonstrates the Committee's good faith by citing the Committee's many refunds, prior to notice from the Commission of impermissible contributions under the Act.

The Committee maintained, during the period in question, a card system in which each contributor's name was listed alphabetically along with the amount contributed. Each time a contribution was received, a staff member compared the name on the check with names in the card file for possible excessive contributions. If there was no card on file under the name, a card with the amount of the check was recorded and filed. When any name other than an individual's name was printed on a check representing a contribution, a telephone inquiry was made directly by the Committee to the party named on the check as to whether it was a corporation, a partnership or a sole proprietorship. If the inquiries indicated that the party was a corporation, the contribution was immediately refunded in accordance with the Act and regulations thereunder. If the inquiry indicated that the business was not incorporated, the Committee then checked by telephone with the California Secretary of State as to whether that party was a corporation. If so, the contribution was refunded immediately. Records of inquiries were kept by the Committee by notations on the face of the checks in question. In the case of a contribution received from another Political Action Committee ("PAC"), the Committee telephoned the PAC to inquire as to whether the PAC was qualified under the Act to make the contribution. Donations from any PAC found by the Committee to have failed to qualify were refunded immediately.

The Committee believes that during the period of the alleged violations, it acted in good faith to avoid violations of the Act and had no incentive to accept excessive or illegal contributions. The Committee believes its periodic reports filed with the Commission demonstrate that it never had a cash flow problem during the period covered by the Report or thereafter. Its solvency and relative financial stability demonstrate, the Committee believes, that it had no incentive to knowingly receive improper contributions to solve a cash flow problem. Moreover, the Committee had every incentive to avoid even the appearance of impropriety under the Act and made substantial efforts to do so.

As stated in the Report, most of the alleged improper contributions described in the Report had been corrected by the date of issuance of the Report. The Committee believes, as described below, that those few contributions which were not corrected as of the date of the Report either did not constitute violations of the Act or were clerical errors in reports previously filed with the Commission, which have already been corrected by amendments to those reports filed with the Commission or are corrected by amendments filed herewith. Each contribution referred to in the Report is discussed below.

A. Excessive Individual Contributions.

The first paragraph of the Report alleges the receipt by the Committee of $4,100 in excessive individual contributions (all of which preceded Mr. Pines' tenure as Treasurer). The Report notes that before the Committee received notice from the FEC, it "made refunds to all of the individuals except Chanchal [sic] Rai" (at pp. 1-2). At footnote 1, the Report notes that the Chanchal Rai contribution may have been a clerical error. The Committee has informed us that a clerical error was made in the use of the term "primary" instead of "general." What should have been reported as three contributions reading "$500 for general, $1,000 for primary and $500 for general," which were permitted by the Act, was reported as "$500 for primary, $1000 for primary and $500 for general," not permitted by the Act. Therefore, it is the Committee's position that there was no violation of the Act in connection with the contribution of Chanchal Rai; there was merely a clerical error which was subsequently corrected by amendment to reports filed with the Commission. See Attachment 1, attached hereto as Exhibit B. See also Amendment to Report, attached hereto as Exhibit C.

8 5 0 4 0 5 6 2 4 6 8

As indicated in the Report, with respect to the other four individual contributions, documents currently on file with the Commission demonstrate that the Committee made timely refunds of those contributions in accordance with the Act prior to any request from the Commission. See Documentation of Refund of Excessive Individual Contributions, attached hereto as Exhibit D. A total of $3,600 in individual excessive contributions described in the Report had been refunded prior to any notice from the Commission, as indicated in the last column in Attachment 1 to the Report. Pursuant to the Act and regulations thereunder, the Committee is required to cash all checks within 10 days of receipt. 11 C.F.R. 103.3(a). The Committee, therefore, promptly cashes all checks at the time of receipt, then makes a check of its card catalogue for previous contributions on the part of the contributor and immediately thereafter refunds any excessive contributions. In all five cases of excessive individual contributions mentioned in the Report (except for Chanchal Rai's, which involved a typographical error, as discussed above), the Committee made the required refunds in the regular course of its business without notice from the Commission. It is the position of the Committee that it retained no part of the improper contributions and did not knowingly receive any of the improper contributions.

- B. Armenian National Committee PAC, Californians for Better Government PAC and Retail PAC.

The Report states that a violation of the Act may have occurred when the Committee accepted contributions from three PACs, the Armenian National Committee PAC, Californians for Better Government PAC and the Retail PAC, before they were qualified as multi-candidate committees, as required by 2 U.S.C. Section 441a(4).

The Report observes that the Committee had corrected, by refund, each of the two improper contributions from the non-qualified Armenian National Committee and Californians for Better Government PACs as of mid-1982. See Report at page 3, paragraph 2. See also Documentation of PAC Refunds, attached hereto as Exhibit E. Each of the refunds, except the Retail PAC refund, was made prior to notification from the Commission, as indicated in Attachment 2 to the Report. The Retail PAC refund was made the same day, October 11, 1983, that the Committee received notice from the Commission that the Retail PAC was not qualified. The refund was reported to the Commission in a letter from the Committee on the same date. See Documentation of Refunds, attached hereto as Exhibit F. With regard to the timeliness of the refund to the Retail PAC, the Committee believes the only method available to the Committee to determine whether a PAC was qualified as a multi-candidate PAC was to inquire of the PAC itself as to whether it was qualified at the time of the contribution. The Committee did so as part of its normal operating procedures. Indeed, even the Commission itself may lack timely information as to when a PAC has qualified. Because timely refunds were made to each of the PACs referred to in the Report, upon the Committee's learning that the contribution was impermissible, and the Committee followed the only available procedure for determining if a PAC was qualified, it is the position of the Committee that it did not knowingly accept any contributions from PACs referred to in the Report in violation of the Act.

C. Armenian PAC's Contribution of $4,000 for Primary Election.

The Report states at page 3, paragraph 3, that the Committee received $4,000 designated for the primary election at a time when the Committee had no primary election debts. However, at footnote 3, the Report states that "[w]hile the RAD referral indicates that the Committee did not respond on its 1982 October quarterly report, the Brown Committee reported refunding an additional $4,000 to the Armenian National Committee Pac." The contribution was refunded in accordance with the Committee's normal procedures well in advance of any action by the Commission. It is the position of the Committee that on the basis of the foregoing, the Report has not demonstrated nor

Federal Election Commission

did the Committee in fact knowingly receive that contribution in violation of the Act.

D. Corporate Contributions.

The Report describes possible improper contributions from corporate donors. However, for the following reasons, it is the position of the Committee that there is no reason to believe any violation of the Act occurred with respect to any corporate contribution. The Report describes in some detail the receipt and refund of corporate contributions by the Committee; however, the Report appears to conclude that a total of only fifteen possible corporate contributions may have represented violations of the Act, of which seven had been refunded in accordance with the Act by the date of issuance of the Report. See Report at page 5. For the Commission's convenience, the documentation for every corporate contribution in question during the period in question is attached as Exhibit I. In addition, the Report notes that the Commission was in error in its classification of Genesis International Trading Company as a corporation since it is actually a sole proprietorship. See Letter, Refunds, Check & Report, attached hereto as Exhibit G. The Committee believes the Amigo Development Company contribution, referred to at page 5, paragraph 1 of the Report, does not constitute a contribution because the Committee ultimately refunded the contribution. The check was initially drawn against insufficient funds, then redeposited in August of 1981, then finally refunded on March 6, 1984. See Notice of Insufficient Funds & Refund Check, attached hereto as Exhibit H. As to the remaining six contributions, the Report notes that all six were adequately explained. See Report at page 6, paragraph 1.

The Committee has informed us that two of the possible impermissible corporate contributions referred to in the Report's attachments, from Commerce Realty and Superior Communications Company, were not in fact made by corporations. We understand the Committee contacted Sharon Aron at Commerce Realty by telephone, as part of its regular contribution check program, and Ms. Aron informed the Committee that Commerce Realty is a sole proprietorship, not a corporation. We also understand that Superior Communications Company was also contacted by the Committee by telephone as part of its regular course of business, and that Pat Eguskia of Superior Communications Company informed the Committee that it is a partnership, not a corporation. See Exhibit I.

The Report, at footnote 6, page 6, states that the Committee had not identified the individual contributors who were employees of Rockwell International Corporation ("Rockwell") Good Government Committee. The names of those employees are contained in the amended report attached hereto as Exhibit C and filed herewith; see also Photocopy of Rockwell Check and Schedule A for Rockwell, attached hereto as Exhibit J.

Additionally, the Report states that the Committee did not adequately respond in its correspondence with the Commission regarding the use of the term "private companies versus private corporations." However, the Committee notes that Jules Glazer, the Committee's accountant, did indeed respond to the Commission by telephone with regard to this issue. The Committee explained through Mr. Glazer that by the term "private company," the Committee intended "sole proprietorship."

It is the position of the Committee that for the reasons described above, each of the possible prohibited corporate contributions referred to in the Report has been refunded or was permissible under the Act at the time received and that no impermissible corporate contribution was knowingly received by the Committee in violation of the Act.

E. "Transmitted for" Versus "Transmitted by."

The Commission objects to the Committee's use of the term "transmitted for" instead of "transmitted by," in connection with reporting corporate and non-corporate contributions. See Report, page 8, paragraph 1. The Committee agrees with the Commission's objection. The proper term is "transmitted by," but because of clerical errors, the term "transmitted for" was inadvertently used, as previously explained by the Committee in an amendment filed with the Commission, dated April 21, 1982. See Amendment, attached hereto as Exhibit K.

F. Labor Union Contributions.

The Report states that a $500 donation from the Federated Fire Fighters may be an illegal contribution from a labor organization. See Report at page 8, paragraph 2. The Committee agrees with the Commission's finding and refunded the contribution as of March 8, 1984. The Committee originally mistakenly believed that the contribution was proper because it was transmitted by a labor organization for its president and therefore a permissible individual contribution under the Act.

85040562471

Federal Election Commission

See Committee's Report to Commission, attached hereto as Exhibit L. However, after further examination, the Committee determined that the contribution should be refunded.

In summary, the Committee and Mr. Pines believe that they have adequately explained each contribution questioned by the Commission in the Report; that although a very small percentage of the more than 25,000 contributions processed by the Committee during the period covered by the Report exceeded the statutory limits or were made by entities not permitted to do so, no violation of the Act by the Committee or Burt Pines occurred because all prohibited contributions were refunded in accordance with the Act and none were knowingly received; the Committee's good faith and lack of any intent to evade the Act was demonstrated on hundreds of occasions by its thorough internal screening procedures and prompt refunds of improper contributions. Further, the Committee had ample cash flow during the period in question and was under no financial pressure to evade the statute.

The Committee and Mr. Pines submit that on the basis of the facts set forth in this letter, the Committee and Mr. Pines have demonstrated that no further action should be taken by the Commission against the Committee pursuant to the Act and respectfully request that the Commission find that no probable cause exists to believe that a violation of the Act has been committed.

Please call Cynthia Thornton of this office or the undersigned if you have any questions regarding the foregoing.

Very truly yours,

Roger D. Loomis, Jr.

COMM-218
Re: BROU for U.S. Senate

Please accept the enclosed as an amendment to our report filed 4/21/50.

The corrections are as follows:

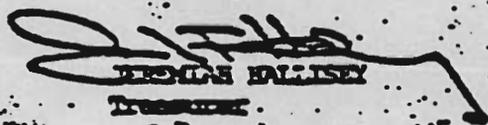

William Burke - This was a personal contribution made with a personal check, not a nominal as previously reported. pg. 22 of 192

Lucy Frank Durrell - Frank Durrell - This contribution was originally attributed as a primary contribution of $1,000. from Lucy and Frank Durrell. pg. 39 of 192
It should be amended to reflect a $1,000. contribution to the primary and general campaign from Frank Durrell.

George Veight
John Brock
William Williams
James Pope
Steven Ross - These are all $1,000. contributions to the general campaign that we not reported.

Dr. Ellis King - This was originally reported as a $1,200. contribution. It should be amended to $200.00. pg. 124, 183 of 192

Sincerely,

THOMAS HALLISEY
TREASURER

EXECUTIVE SESSION

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

FEB 20 1985

I. BACKGROUND

On June 20, 1984, a General Counsel's Brief notifying the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, of the General Counsel's intention to recommend to the Commission a finding of probable cause to believe was sent to Respondents' counsel. The brief recommended that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Respondents had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions from 4 individuals and 3 political action committees and 2 U.S.C. § 441b by accepting contributions from 20 corporations and 1 labor union. Refunds of these prohibited funds have been made.

On July 2, 1984, counsel filed a request for an extension until July 29, 1984, to file a response brief. On July 30, 1984, counsel filed a response brief recommending a finding of no probable cause to believe.

On August 28, 1984, this Office was informed that new counsel would be representing the Respondents and on August 30, 1984, the staff met with new counsel regarding the status of this matter.

On October 9, 1984, counsel called to say that despite the fact that the Respondents had refunded the contributions, his office had checked with the California Secretary of State's office and some of the contributions in question did not appear to have been made by corporate entities. Counsel was informed by this Office that the factual issues should have been raised earlier and that the Respondents had had ample opportunity to refute the allegations. Counsel stated that he would have to talk to his clients about the situation and would then contact this Office.

On October 19, 1984, this Office called counsel who stated that he had not yet been able to contact his clients. Counsel stated that he would get in touch with this Office the following week. Counsel was informed at that time that this Office would and information refuting the corporate status of the contributors in question and that if such evidence was provided,

On October 29, 1984, this Office called counsel's office .

On
 October 31, 1984, counsel called this Office indicating that the status of this matter was still unclear. In addition, on that same date Governor Brown called this Office to discuss the status of this matter. On November 1, 1984, counsel filed a Motion to Reconsider Reason to Believe Determination ("Motion to Reconsider"). The Motion to Reconsider, among other points, challenged the corporate status of 10 contributors. See Attachment 1.

On December 7, 1984, the Commission denied the Motion to Reconsider and authorized orders to submit written answers to be sent to eleven contributors to the Brown for U.S. Senate committee in order to obtain additional information concerning their corporate status. The orders were mailed on December 12, 1984. In addition, this Office sent a letter to the California Secretary of State's Office requesting verification of the corporate status of the contributors in question. 1/

As of this date, this Office has received responses from 5 entities (see Attachments 2-6), with one order having been returned as the addressee, The Clifton Company, had moved and left no forwarding address. On January 7, 1985, this Office received a response from the Secretary of State's Office. See Attachment 7.

1/ The letter to the Secretary of State's Office requested information on all of the alleged corporate contributors involved in this MUR, not just those questioned by counsel.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

In the response brief, previous counsel for the Respondents acknowledged the receipt of excessive contributions from 4 individuals and 3 political action committees as well as the receipt of 1 labor union contribution and what appeared to be 20 corporate contributions. While acknowledging receipt of these contributions, counsel claimed that the Respondents did not violate 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b which prohibit political committees from knowingly accepting excessive, corporate and labor union contributions. Counsel argued that knowingly should be interpreted to mean that one has knowledge that the contribution is illegal under the Act as opposed to the Commission's interpretation that sections 441a(f) and 441b merely require knowledge of the facts surrounding the acceptance of the improper contributions. Accordingly, counsel argues that the requisite intent is not present in this matter as neither Mr. Pines nor the Brown committee knew the contributions in question were excessive or illegal at the time of acceptance. Counsel further claimed that a determination of legality was made as quickly as possible and any questionable contributions were refunded. In addition, counsel stressed that the Respondents set up elaborate procedures to ensure compliance with the Act.

As stated in the General Counsel's Report, dated September 10, 1984, it is the Commission's position that the term "knowingly accepted" as used in 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b merely implies knowledge of the facts of the situation which brings the contribution within the prohibitions of the statute. See also Memorandum to the Commission dated December 5, 1984, regarding interpretation of the word "knowingly".

Present counsel in his Motion to Reconsider made several arguments regarding Respondents' refunds of the contributions within a reasonable time and compliance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3 which this office refuted in its General Counsel's Report dated December 4, 1984.

Out of the 10 contributions questioned by counsel, it appears that 6 were not from corporate sources, thus reducing the number of corporate contributions received to 14. This determination is based in part on information received from the contributors themselves and in part on information received from the Secretary of State's Office. As of this writing, this Office has received responses from 5 contributors, 4 of whom were part of the group questioned by counsel.

Two contributors, Sol Schwartz Jewelry Co. 2/ and Pasta Bella, responded by confirming their corporate status. See Attachments 4 and 5. Another contributor, Record One, 3/ responded by stating that Record One is a joint venture adding, however, that one of the joint venturers in Record One

2/ Although Mr. Schwartz indicated in his response that a refund of the contribution had not been received, copies of the front and back of the refund check furnished by the Respondents indicate otherwise. See Attachment 4.

3/ In his response the President of Record One also indicated that a refund may not have been made of this contribution. However, a copy of the refund check indicates otherwise. See Attachment 6.

is Record One, Inc. See Attachment 6. (This was confirmed by telephone with an agent of Record One.) Therefore, as the contribution from Record One contained corporate funds it was in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441b. A fourth response was received from D. W. & C., Ltd. which stated that it was not incorporated. See Attachment 2. In addition, this Office received a response from S. K. Management Co., which confirmed in writing its noncorporate status. See Attachment 3. As this fact had already been determined by this Office, this contribution was not included in the alleged 20 corporate contributions.

Based on information from the Secretary of State's Office (see Attachment 7), it appears that 3 of the questioned contributors, Ramsey Ltd., The Clifton Company and Steinberg & Associates are not the same as the entities with similar names which are listed as incorporated. This is based on the fact that these entities have different presidents and addresses from the contributors in question. Two other questioned contributors, Filipino Accountants Association and C. D. Investment Co., have no matching record with the Secretary of State's Office and, therefore, it will be assumed that these entities are not incorporated. The last remaining questioned contributor, Amigo Development Co., Ltd., had its corporate status suspended on February 1, 1983, however, it was incorporated at the time the contribution was made (April 25, 1981), therefore, the contribution was in violation of section 441b.

Although both the Respondents and the Commission have received conflicting information on the corporate status of certain contributors from the Secretary of State's Office throughout the course of this matter, 4/ this Office will base its determination on the most recent information received from that office. 5/ The recent information from the California Secretary of State's Office coupled with the information supplied by the Respondents and certain contributors forms a sufficient basis for a Commission finding. Therefore, based on this information and information contained in the General Counsel's Brief dated June 20, 1984, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions from 4 individuals and 3 political action committees and 2 U.S.C. § 441b by accepting contributions from 14 corporations and 1 labor union.

4/ The Secretary of State's Office claims to have no matching record of Sol Schwartz Jewelry Co. even though we have a response from that company stating that it is a corporation. In addition, that office shows the Napa Valley Disposal Service as incorporated, while the Respondents have supplied documentation from the contributor claiming it is not. See Attachment 8. In these two cases this Office is basing its determination on the information supplied by the contributor.

5/ Although the Commission has not received responses to six of its Orders, it does not appear that a subpoena enforcement action is warranted. The Commission has evidence from the Secretary of State concerning those parties.

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS

- 1.
2. Find probable cause to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b.

Re: MUR 1601 - Respondents, Brown for U.S. Senate
Committee and Mr. Burt Pines, Treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee - Motion to Reconsider Reason-to-Believe Determination

Dear Mr. Steele:

The Brown for U.S. Senate Committee ("the Committee")
and Mr. Burt Pines, Treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee, (collectively referred to as "the Respondents"), respectfully request the Commission to reconsider its reason-to-believe determination in M.U.R. 1601. For the reasons set forth in Respondent's Reply to General Counsel's Brief of July 27, 1984 ("the Reply Brief") (attached hereto as Exhibit
A) and the additional reasons discussed below, Respondents believe that upon reconsideration the Commission will properly determine that the complaint should be dismissed forthwith.

- I. THE GENERAL COUNSEL'S ALLEGATIONS REGARDING
THE ACCEPTANCE OF CORPORATE CONTRIBUTIONS ARE
MERITLESS; THE CONTRIBUTIONS IN DISPUTE WERE EITHER REFUNDED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REGULA-TIONS OR LEGALLY ACCEPTABLE.

A significant portion of this complaint involves
the alleged acceptance by the Respondents of twenty-six corporate contributions, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441(b)(a).
As set forth in the Reply Brief, seven of the cited contributions were refunded by the Committee of its own volition,
prior to any notification by the Commission, when the legality

of the instant contributions could not be adequately demonstrated to the Respondents. (Reply Brief at p. 6). As the Committee refunded these seven contributions within a reasonable time in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2), it is axiomatic that no violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") occurred with respect to the acceptance and the subsequent refunding of these contributions.

As to the remaining nineteen contributions, fourteen of the entities referred to as corporations by the Commission are not incorporated in the State of California according to the Corporate Status Division of the Office of the Secretary of State of California. (See Affidavits of Suzanne Lyon and Leslie J. Kerman, attached hereto as Exhibits B and C respectively; see also Reply Brief at pp. 3-5 and the Commission's Reason-to-Believe Notification of June 20, 1984, Attachment 1). Accordingly, the General Counsel's allegations regarding contributions from Sol Schwartz Jewelry Co., Pasta Bella, Ramsey Ltd., The Clifton Company, Record One, Steinberg & Associates, D.W. & C. Ltd., the Filipino Accountant Association, C.C.P. Company, Western Electric Company, S.K. Management Company, Commerce Realty Company, R & R Company, and Superior Communications are meritless and should be dismissed.

Further, within a reasonable time after the Committee received information indicating that the remaining five contributions may have been made by corporate entities, all the contributions were refunded in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2). Again, there was no violation of either the spirit or the letter of the Act.

Note that despite the extraordinary precautions taken by the Committee to assure that all of the approximately $5,500,000 in contributions it accepted were legally permissible (Reply Brief at pp. 8-16; see also Procedures from Brown for Senate Deposits, attached hereto as Exhibit D), it is neither surprising nor indicative of a violation of the Act that, in some instances, there was a delay between the receipt of a contribution by the Committee and the receipt of information indicating that the contributor may have been a corporate entity. The fact that many of the disputed contributions in this complaint were erroneously characterized by the General Counsel as corporate contribution underscores the difficulty of determining whether a contribution from an entity, which on its face does not appear to be corporate, is actually a corporate contribution. The General Counsel has consistently conceded that the Commission on several occasions was erroneously informed by the California Secretary of State's office that contributors were incorporated (See General Counsel's Brief on MUR 1601 at p. 5); similarly, it is highly probably that the Committee also received inaccurate responses to several of its inquiries.

It is undisputed, however, that all contributions which were determined to be made from corporate entities were refunded by the Committee within a reasonable time after Respondents became aware of this information. Thus, Respondents have satisfied their obligations under the Act, and the allegations regarding the remaining five corporate contributions should be dismissed.

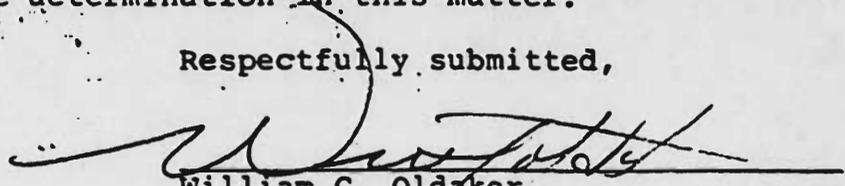

II. ALL OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS IN DISPUTE WERE
REFUNDED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REGULATIONS.

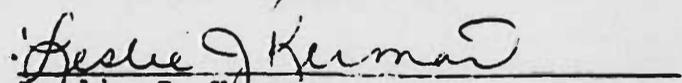

As set forth in detail in the Reply Brief, the individual, political action committee and labor union contributions to the Committee in dispute were refunded within a reasonable time in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2). Accordingly, no violation of the Act occurred, and these allegations should be dismissed.

III. CONCLUSION

As demonstrated above, Respondents have rectified, rebutted or adequately explained each and every allegation made by the General Counsel in this complaint. Accordingly, we urge the Commission to reconsider and subsequently rescind its reason-to-believe determination in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

William C. Oldaker

RE: MUR 1601

Dear Ms. Tarrant:

Respectfully submitted,

Re: MUR 1601

Dear Sir/Madam:

The Federal Election Commission, established in April, 1975, has the statutory duty of enforcing the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. In connection with an investigation being conducted by the Commission, the attached order which requires you provide certain information has been issued. The Commission does not consider you a respondent in this matter; but rather a witness only.

Since this information is being sought as part of an investigation being conducted by the Commission, the confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12)(A) apply. That section of the Act prohibits the making public of any investigation conducted by the Commission without the express written consent of the person with respect to whom the investigation is made. You are advised that no such consent has been given in this case.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. Background

This matter was referred to the Office of General Counsel by the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD"). On January 3, 1984, the Commission found reason to believe that the Brown for U.S. Senate committee and Burt Pines, as its treasurer, had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 441b. On January 23, 1984, this Office received a call from Burt Pines explaining that he had just received the Commission's letter as it had to be forwarded to him. Subsequently, on January 30, 1984, Mr. Pines requested an extension until February 23, 1984, in order to respond to the Commission's findings. The General Counsel's Office granted this request.

On February 21, 1984, this Office received a call from Respondents' counsel requesting another extension as his law firm had only recently been engaged as counsel. Counsel's written request for an extension until March 6, 1984, was received on February 27, 1984. On March 2, 1984, the Commission voted to grant counsel's request.

A response to the Commission's findings was received on March 13, 1984. (Counsel had called to say the response would be delayed due to illness.) Although the response was quite voluminous, this Office determined that more information was needed and on March 29, 1984, counsel was informed by telephone that further documentation was required.

On April 3, 1984, counsel called to say that letters were being sent out to certain contributors (individuals and businesses) to clarify the status of their contributions. A partial response was received from the Brown committee on April 23, 1984, which explained that they had yet to receive replies to all their letters.

This office called counsel on May 3, 1984, to ascertain the status of the remaining contributions in question. It was explained that some additional information had been received which would be forwarded to this Office and that second letters had been sent to those contributors who had not responded. On May 18, 1984, this Office received more information from the Brown committee, including amendments for numerous reports.

On June 20, 1984, a General Counsel's Brief notifying the Respondents of the General Counsel's intention to recommend to the Commission a finding of probable cause to believe was sent to Respondents' counsel. On July 2, 1984, counsel filed a request for extension until July 29, 1984, to file a response brief. On July 30, 1984, counsel filed a response brief recommending a finding of no probable cause to believe.

On August 28, 1984, this Office was informed that new counsel would be representing the Respondents and on August 30, 1984, the staff met with new counsel regarding the status of this matter.

8 5 0 4 0 5 6 2 7 1 1
On October 9, 1984, counsel called to say that his office had checked with the California Secretary of State's office and that some of the contributions in question did not appear to have been made by corporate entities. In addition, it was pointed out that the contributions had been refunded. Counsel was informed by this Office that the factual issues should have been raised earlier and that the Respondents had had ample opportunity to refute the allegations. Counsel stated that he would have to talk to his clients about the situation and would then contact this Office.

On October 19, 1984, this Office called counsel who stated that he had not yet been able to contact his clients. Counsel stated that he would get in touch with this Office the following week.

be expe

On October 29, 1984, this Office called counsel's office and informed him that

On October 31, 1984, counsel called this Office indicating that the status of this matter was still unclear. In addition, on that same date Governor Brown called this Office to discuss the status of this matter. On November 1, 1984, counsel filed a Motion to Reconsider Reason to Believe Determination ("Motion to Reconsider"). See Attachment 1.

II. Factual and Legal Analysis

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) (1) (A), no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), a committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution in violation of the limitations set forth in section 441a.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a), a political committee is prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation.

Contributions which appear to be illegal shall be, within 10 days, either returned to the contributor or deposited into the campaign depository and reported. If deposited, the treasurer shall make and retain a written record noting the basis for the appearance of illegality. A statement noting that the legality of the contribution is in question should be included in the report. The treasurer shall make his or her best efforts to determine the legality of the contribution. 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(1). When a contribution cannot be determined to be legal, refunds shall be made within a reasonable time, and the treasurer shall note the refund by amending the current report or noting the change on the committee's next required report. 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2).

The reports filed by the Brown committee indicate that the committee accepted excessive contributions from 4 individuals and 3 political action committees, as well as at least 20 corporate contributions and one union contribution. See Attachments 2-5. Counsel is now asking the Commission to reconsider and subsequently rescind its reason to believe determination in this matter. Counsel bases this request on claims that certain contributions in question were either not corporate in nature or refunded in a reasonable time. It is the recommendation of this Office that the Commission deny counsel's Motion to Reconsider and proceed with this matter. This recommendation is based on several factors.

First, the motion to reconsider the reason to believe finding reflects counsel's misunderstanding of the procedural stages of an investigation conducted pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g. There is no provision in the Act for the filing of a motion to reconsider a reason to believe finding by the Commission. The absence of such a provision reflects in part that reason to believe is a preliminary threshold for investigation.

Second, the Respondents in this matter have had ample opportunity to refute the allegations through responses to RAD's requests for additional information, the Commission's reason to believe findings and the General Counsel's Brief. At none of those stages did the Respondents present evidence to refute the corporate status of the contributors.

Third, the Commission in making its reason to believe finding was well aware of and took into account the time it took to refund the contributions. The refund time for those corporate contributions which counsel is not contesting ranges between 31 days and nearly 3 years. The refund time for the excessive contributions from both the individuals and political action committees ranges between 17 days and 1 year, 4 months. As for the labor union contribution, it was over 2 years, 8 months before the contribution was refunded. The Commission does not consider the refunds made by the Brown committee to be within a reasonable time regardless of whether or not it was before notification from RAD.

Fourth, counsel incorrectly implies that the Respondents were in compliance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3. The Brown committee and Mr. Pines never noted in the reports that the legality of certain contributions was in question even though, in the case of the corporate contributions, it was clear that the contributions were written on business checks some of which included "Inc." in the business name.

Fifth, as it clear that the Respondents accepted corporate, labor union and excessive contributions, there is no basis to rescind the reason to believe findings.

Due to some discrepancies regarding the name and address of certain corporations, and because of questions raised regarding the status of certain contributors, this Office is further recommending that the Commission authorize the attached orders which are addressed to the contributors in question. These orders attempt to ascertain the corporate status of these contributors because information provided by counsel does not prove that the entities in question were not incorporated at the time the contributions were made. */

III. Recommendations

1. Deny the Motion to Reconsider Reason to Believe Determination.
2. Authorize the attached orders.
3. Approve the attached letters.
4. Approve the attached questions.

Re: MUR 1601 - Respondents, Brown for U.S. Senate
Committee and Mr. Burt Pines, Treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee - Motion to Reconsider Reason-to-Believe Determination

Dear Mr. Steele:

The Brown for U.S. Senate Committee ("the Committee")
and Mr. Burt Pines, Treasurer of the Brown for U.S. Senate Committee, (collectively referred to as "the Respondents"), respectfully request the Commission to reconsider its reason-to-believe determination in M.U.R. 1601. For the reasons set forth in Respondent's Reply to General Counsel's Brief of July 27, 1984 ("the Reply Brief") (attached hereto as Exhibit
A) and the additional reasons discussed below, Respondents
believe that upon reconsideration the Commission will properly determine that the complaint should be dismissed forthwith.

- I. THE GENERAL COUNSEL'S ALLEGATIONS REGARDING
MERITLESS; THE CONTRIBUTIONS IN DISPUTE WERE
TIONS OR LEGALLY ACCEPTABLE.

A significant portion of this complaint involves the alleged acceptance by the Respondents of twenty-six corporate contributions, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441(b)(a).
As set forth in the Reply Brief, seven of the cited contributions were refunded by the Committee of its own volition,
prior to any notification by the Commission, when the legality

of the instant contributions could not be adequately demonstrated to the Respondents. (Reply Brief at p. 6). As the Committee refunded these seven contributions within a reasonable time in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2), it is axiomatic that no violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("the Act") occurred with respect to the acceptance and the subsequent refunding of these contributions.

As to the remaining nineteen contributions, fourteen of the entities referred to as corporations by the Commission are not incorporated in the State of California according to the Corporate Status Division of the Office of the Secretary of State of California. (See Affidavits of Suzanne Lyon and Leslie J. Kerman, attached hereto as Exhibits B and C respectively; see also Reply Brief at pp. 3-5 and the Commission's Reason-to-Believe Notification of June 20, 1984, Attachment 1). Accordingly, the General Counsel's allegations regarding contributions from Sol Schwartz Jewelry Co., Pasta Bella, Ramsey Ltd., The Clifton Company, Record One, Steinberg & Associates, D.W. & C. Ltd., the Filipino Accountant Association, C.C.P. Company, Western Electric Company, S.K. Management Company, Commerce Realty Company, R & R Company, and Superior Communications are meritless and should be dismissed.

Further, within a reasonable time after the Committee received information indicating that the remaining five contributions may have been made by corporate entities, all the contributions were refunded in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2). Again, there was no violation of either the spirit or the letter of the Act.

Note that despite the extraordinary precautions taken by the Committee to assure that all of the approximately $5,500,000 in contributions it accepted were legally permissible (Reply Brief at pp. 8-16; see also Procedures from Brown for Senate Deposits, attached hereto as Exhibit D), it is neither surprising nor indicative of a violation of the Act that, in some instances, there was a delay between the receipt of a contribution by the Committee and the receipt of information indicating that the contributor may have been a corporate entity. The fact that many of the disputed contributions in this complaint were erroneously characterized by the General Counsel as corporate contribution underscores the difficulty of determining whether a contribution from an entity, which on its face does not appear to be corporate, is actually a corporate contribution. The General Counsel has consistently conceded that the Commission on several occasions was erroneously informed by the California Secretary of State's office that contributors were incorporated (See General Counsel's Brief on MUR 1601 at p. 5); similarly, it is highly probably that the Committee also received inaccurate responses to several of its inquiries.

It is undisputed, however, that all contributions which were determined to be made from corporate entities were refunded by the Committee within a reasonable time after Respondents became aware of this information. Thus, Respondents have satisfied their obligations under the Act, and the allegations regarding the remaining five corporate contributions should be dismissed.

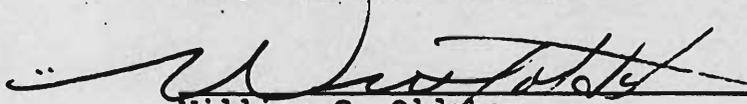

II. ALL OTHER CONTRIBUTIONS IN DISPUTE WERE
REFUNDED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REGULATIONS.

As set forth in detail in the Reply Brief, the individual, political action committee and labor union contributions to the Committee in dispute were refunded within a reasonable time in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(2). Accordingly, no violation of the Act occurred, and these allegations should be dismissed.

III. CONCLUSION

As demonstrated above, Respondents have rectified, rebutted or adequately explained each and every allegation made by the General Counsel in this complaint. Accordingly, we urge the Commission to reconsider and subsequently rescind its reason-to-believe determination in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

William C. Oldaker

Leslie J. Kerman

Committee and Mr. Burt Pines,
