RE: MUR 2218
The Dixon Committee and Stuart Bently, as treasurer

Dear Mr. Myerson:

On August 15, 1986, the Commission notified your clients of complaints alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. Additionally, on October 1, 1986, the Commission notified you of a supplement to these complaints.

The Commission, on December 18, 1986, determined that on the basis of the information in the complaints and supplement, and information provided by your clients, there is no reason to believe that a violation of any statute within its jurisdiction has been committed. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter. This matter will become a part of the public record within 30 days.

Re: MUR 2218

Dear Sir:

The Federal Election Commission has reviewed the allegations of your complaints and supplement to your complaints dated July 29, August 7, and September 23, 1986, and on December 18, 1986, determined that on the basis of the information provided by you and information provided by the Respondents there is no reason to believe that a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") has been committed by the Illinois Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp; the Dixon Committee and Stuart Bently, as treasurer; and the Stevenson Committee.

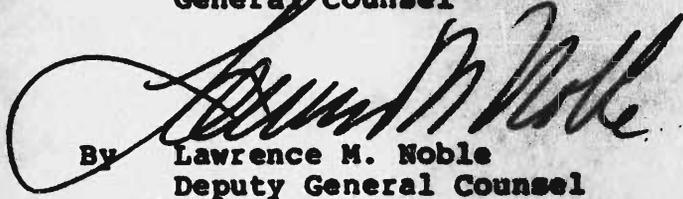

Accordingly, the Commission has decided to close the file in this matter. The Federal Election Campaign Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Should additional information come to your attention which you believe establishes a violation of the Act, you may file a complaint pursuant to the requirements set forth in 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) and 11 C.F.R. § 111.4.

 FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

The Office of the General Counsel received a two-part complaint on August 8 and 11, 1986 from the Friends of Judy Koehler for Senate Committee. On September 29, 1986 this Office received a supplement to this complaint. This matter arises from the March, 1986 Illinois primary where persons associated with Lyndon LaRouche won the Democratic nominations for lieutenant governor and secretary of state. Rather than share a ticket with these nominees, Democratic gubernatorial candidate Adlai Stevenson organized an alternative ticket under the banner of the Illinois Solidarity Party ("the Solidarity Party"). The Solidarity Party's ticket includes candidates for the 10 state and federal races in Illinois, however, according to the complaint, seven of these candidates are nominal candidates selected solely to round out the Solidarity Party's Ticket.^{1/} According to news reports attached to the complaint, these nominal candidates were selected by Adlai Stevenson, Democratic

^{1/} According to the attached news accounts, Mr. Stevenson sought to run as an independent candidate, but could not file for such status within the time constraints of state law. Thus, Mr. Stevenson was required to form a new party and fill all slots for both state and federal offices. See Supplemental Complaint at 2. This Office requested the reports of the Stevenson Committee and the Solidarity Party from the Illinois State Board of Elections. These reports do not appear to reveal any expenditures on behalf of federal candidates made by the Solidarity Party.

Senate candidate Alan Dixon and the other Non-LaRouche Democratic candidates. Moreover, these seven nominal candidates, including the nominal Senate candidate Einer Dyhrkopp, will actively campaign for persons on the Democratic slate not associated with Lyndon LaRouche.

The complaint makes three general allegations that are discussed below. It alleges that expenditures made by the Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp are made with the purpose of promoting the candidacy of Democratic Senate nominee Alan Dixon and thus are coordinated expenditures that are required to be reported by the Dixon for Senate Committee ("the Dixon Committee").^{2/} Additionally, because Illinois permits contributions of funds impermissible under the Act, the complaint alleges that the Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp accepted excessive and prohibited funds on behalf of the Dixon Committee. Finally, the second part of the complaint encloses a Stevenson for Governor Committee mailer that endorses a number of candidates including Senator Dixon. The complaint alleges this mailer constitutes a contribution (paid for with prohibited and excessive funds) by the Stevenson Committee to the Dixon Committee that has not been reported to the Commission.

All respondents were sent copies of the complaint and the supplement. This Office received requests for extensions of time in which to respond from all respondents. The last of these responses was timely filed on September 29, 1986.

^{2/} The complaint names Mr. Dyhrkopp only in the context of his association with the Solidarity Party. Accordingly, our recommendations refer to the "Illinois Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp."

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Alleged Expenditures Made by the Solidarity Party on Behalf of the Dixon Committee

The complaint alleges that the Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp support the candidacy of Senator Dixon and, therefore, the Solidarity Party is affiliated with the Dixon Committee. See August 11 Complaint at 1. Additionally, this complaint states the Solidarity Party has made expenditures "solely" to promote the candidacy of Alan Dixon, and that as an affiliated committee, the Dixon Committee is required to report the expenditures of the Solidarity Party. The failure of the Dixon Committee to report expenditures allegedly made by the Solidarity Party on behalf of the Dixon Committee is said to violate the allocation requirements of 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(b).

Responses from both the Dixon Committee and the Solidarity Party assert that the Solidarity Party is a state party presenting a slate of candidates for the Illinois November 4, 1986 election. See Dixon Committee Response at 1-2. Solidarity Party Response at 1. Both responses assert that no expenditures made by the Solidarity Party have been for Alan Dixon or the Dixon Committee. Dixon Committee Response at 2. Solidarity Party Response at 2. Both responses specifically deny that in-kind contributions were made by the Solidarity Party on behalf of the Dixon Committee, and deny that the committees have failed to comply with the Act's reporting requirements. Both responses also deny that Einer Dyrkopp accepted excessive contributions on behalf of the Dixon Committee. Dixon Response at 3. Solidarity Party Response at 3.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a) (5) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(a) (1), all committees established, financed, maintained or controlled by the same persons or group of persons are affiliated, and share a common contribution limitation. Contributions made by affiliated committees are viewed as being made by a single political committee. 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(a) (1). Furthermore, such committees may make unlimited expenditures and transfers on behalf of each other. 11 C.F.R. § 102.6(a) (1). Such transfers must be reported by the committees. See 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b) (3) (D) and 434(b) (5) (C). Political committees that are not affiliated may make contributions to one another subject to the limitations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a). An organization that is not a political committee may contribute up to $1,000 to a candidate's authorized committee, provided it can demonstrate it has sufficient permissible funds on hand to make such a contribution. 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(b). See also 2 U.S.C. §§ 431(4) and 441a(a). In the event such an organization contributes or expends more than $1,000 for the purpose of influencing a federal election, it qualifies as a political committee and must register with, and report to, the Commission. 2 U.S.C. §§ 433(a) and 434(a). Political committees are prohibited from accepting contributions exceeding the Act's limitations. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). Political committees must report all contributions and expenditures. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) (3) and 434(b) (4).

In the instant case, both committees have denied that they were commonly established or are commonly controlled. In light of these denials and the facts that the Solidarity Party was established to promote Adlai Stevenson's name on the Illinois ballot in a state election, and the Dixon Committee was established for the purpose of promoting the senatorial candidacy of Senator Dixon in a federal election, it does not appear that there is evidence that these committees are affiliated for purposes of the Act. Thus, any contributions between the two are subject to the limitations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).

The two committees also deny that the Solidarity Party has made unreported in-kind contributions and excessive contributions to the Dixon Committee, and have provided sworn affidavits to this effect. As the complaint presents no specific evidence in support of these allegations of unreported in-kind and excessive contributions, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe the Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making excessive in-kind contributions. Furthermore, because there is no evidence that the Solidarity Party became a political committee by virtue of contributions to the Dixon Committee, and because there is no evidence that the Solidarity Party made contributions to any other political committees, this Office recommends the Commission find no reason to believe the Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433(a) and 434(a) by failing to register and report. Finally, because there is no evidence that the Dixon Committee accepted either excessive or in-kind contributions from the Solidarity Party, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that the Dixon Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 434(b)(3)(A).

B. Prohibited Contributions By Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp to the Dixon Committee

The complaint further alleges that Einer Dyhrkopp and the Solidarity Party accepted prohibited contributions on behalf of Alan Dixon and passed these corporate contributions to the Dixon Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a). The complaint does not specifically identify any such prohibited contributions allegedly made by the Solidarity Party to the Dixon Committee. In this instance, the Solidarity Party, Mr. Dyhrkopp, and the Dixon Committee deny that corporate contributions were made to the Dixon Committee by the Solidarity Party, and have submitted sworn affidavits to that affect. See Dixon Response at Bently, Dyhrkopp, Filan and Sirott Affidavits. Furthermore, a review of the reports of both entities by this Office failed to reveal any contributions from the Solidarity Party to the Dixon Committee. Accordingly, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe the Illinois Solidarity Party, and Einer Dyhrkopp, and the Dixon Committee and its treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a).

C. Campaign Leaflet Expenditures Made by the Stevenson Committee

Attached to the second part of the complaint at Exhibit A is a campaign leaflet distributed by the Stevenson Committee that notes the candidacy of Senator Dixon. Apparently, because Illinois law permits contributions to state committees that are prohibited and excessive under the Act, the complainant alleges the Stevenson Committee made excessive and prohibited contributions to the Dixon Committee by including references to Senator Dixon on the leaflet.

The leaflet is constructed of two doubled-sided sections connected by a perforation. The first section is a solicitation of contributions for the governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of state, and includes a return card for contributions addressed to the Stevenson Committee. This section measures 5 1/2 inches by 3 1/2 inches. The second section measures 7 inches by 3 1/2 inches. Side one of this second section contains brief biographies of the Solidarity Party's nominees for governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of state. Side two of the second section is divided into two segments. The largest of these segments (approximately 2/3 of the total area) contains a picture of Adlai Stevenson and notes the candidate's name in bold print, followed by the slogan, "A GOVERNOR WE CAN TRUST - FOR A CHANGE." The remaining segment lists seven candidates of both the Solidarity Party and the Democrats. This listing appears under the heading "Illinois' Ticket To A Brighter Future." Heading this listing is "Alan J. Dixon" in bold print with "U.S. Senator" listed in regular type directly underneath. The names of the other state candidates and offices sought are similarly listed. Senator Dixon is the only candidate for federal office whose name appears anywhere on the entire leaflet. The leaflet does not include information regarding who paid for or authorized the leaflet, but includes a return card for the solicitation material to the Stevenson Committee.

Respondents do not deny that this leaflet was printed by the Stevenson Committee as alleged in the complaint. Rather, they assert that the leaflet was printed without the cooperation, prior consent, in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of the Dixon Committee. Solidarity Party Response at 2. Dixon Committee Response at 3. Respondents have provided affidavits to this effect. See Id. Moreover, Respondents argue that the leaflet is not subject to the Act because the purpose of this publication was to influence state elections and not a federal election. In support of this argument, Respondents state this material is campaign literature for a state election and does not promote Senator Dixon's candidacy or solicit funds for him. The Dixon Committee Response notes that the leaflet contains pictures and biographical data regarding the candidates for state offices, but does not contain a picture or information regarding Senator Dixon. Finally, this response notes that the leaflet only solicits funds and volunteers for these three candidates, but not for Senator Dixon. Dixon Committee Response at 3-4.

Additionally, citing 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a), the Dixon Committee argues that even if the "costs for this leaflet are within the scope of the Act, the Committee would not have been required to report these costs since Senator Dixon could not reasonably be expected to derive any benefit whatsoever from the leaflet's passing reference to his name." Dixon Committee Response at 4.

It is the opinion of this Office that the payment by the Stevenson Committee for this leaflet falls within the "coattails exception" of the Commission's Regulations. 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(16) and 100.8(17). These sections provide that the payment by a candidate for any public office (including state or local office), or by such candidate's authorized committee, of the costs of that candidate's campaign materials which include information on or any reference to a candidate for federal office and which are used in connection with volunteer activities (such as handbills and brochures) is not a contribution to or expenditure on behalf of such candidate for federal office, provided that the payment is not for the use of general public communication or political advertising. The payment of the portion of the cost of such materials allocable to federal candidates shall be made from contributions subject to the Act's limitations and prohibitions.

In the instant case, the Stevenson Committee printed leaflets that included a two line reference to the candidacy of Senator Dixon. The leaflets were hand delivered, and according to respondents' counsel, were primarily distributed at shopping malls. Thus, it appears the leaflets, as volunteer activity, fall within the exceptions of the definitions of contribution and expenditure. Thus, the Stevenson Committee could lawfully include references to Senator Dixon in the leaflet provided it had sufficient permissible funds on hand to pay for the costs of the leaflet referring to the Senator.

It appears the Stevenson Committee is able to demonstrate it had sufficient permissible funds to pay for references to Senator Dixon. It incurred a cost of $2,775 for the printing the leaflet. See Solidarity Party Supplemental affidavit at 1. The Dixon Committee received a two line reference in this leaflet. This reference identifies the candidate by name and states the office for which he is a candidate under the heading of "Illinois' Ticket For A Brighter Future." Based on the portion of the leaflet discussing Senator Dixon, it appears that the Stevenson Committee spent $33 on references to Senator Dixon.^{3/} As demonstrated by Exhibit B to the second complaint, the Stevenson Committee contained a mixture of permissible and impermissible funds. A review by this Office reveals the Stevenson Committee held more than $33 in permissible funds.

Although not clearly stated, Respondents appear to argue that the payment for the leaflets were independent expenditures made by the Stevenson Committee. If independent expenditures, the leaflets would require a disclaimer pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441d. That section requires a disclaimer whenever an expenditure is made for a communication expressly advocating the election or defeat of a candidate or soliciting contributions. As demonstrated above, the Regulations exempt payments of the sort involved here from the definition of expenditure. Thus, as the Stevenson Committee's payments on behalf of Senator Dixon are exempted from the definition of expenditure, no disclaimer was required and no violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441d occurred.

^{3/} We reach this figure by dividing the total cost of the leaflet ($2,775) by the number of pages in the leaflet (4), for a total of $694. Two thirds of the page on which Senator Dixon's name appears is devoted to Adlai Stevenson, with the remaining one third devoted to seven candidates, including Senator Dixon. Therefore, we divided $694 by one third, for a total of $231 expended for the portion naming the seven candidates. We divided that by seven for a total of $33 expended for the portion discussing Senator Dixon.

In light of the foregoing, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that the Dixon Committee and Stuart Bently, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441b(a) and 441a(f) in connection with this leaflet. Moreover, because the Stevenson Committee contained a mixture of permissible and impermissible funds and had at least enough permissible funds on hand to pay for the segment of the leaflet referring to Senator Dixon, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe the Stevenson Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441b(a), 441a(a)(1)(A) and 441d in connection with this leaflet.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find no reason to believe the Illinois Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433(a), 434(a) and 441a(a)(1)(A).

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of :

Dixon for Senate Committee :

SEP 25 9 3: 30

ANSWER

COMES NOW THE Dixon for Senate Committee ("the Committee"), by undersigned counsel, and hereby files its Answer to the Complaint(s)¹ in the above-referenced matter.

1. ALLEGATION: "It appears that Alan Dixon has directed the activities of Einer Dyhrkopp in his announced intention to seek a seat in the United States Senate....In that these expenditures in phones, travel, office rental, staffing etc. of Illinois Solidarity and Einer Dyhrkopp have been made for the sole purpose of promoting the candidacy of Alan Dixon they are coordinated expenditures subject to Federal Election Commission Regulations." (July 29, 1986 Letter, Para 2.).

ANSWER: The Committee denies that Alan Dixon controls the activities of Einer Dyhrkopp and submits that there is no credible evidence to support this allegation. Upon information and belief, any funds raised and expended by the Illinois Solidarity Party have been exclusively used for the purpose of obtaining access to the ballot for Adlai Stevenson as a candidate for

Governor of Illinois.² Accordingly, these disbursements are not "coordinated expenditures" under the Act.

2. ALLEGATION: "From shortly after March 18, 1986 to date it is clear that Illinois Solidarity has, under the direction and control of Alan Dixon, received and expended large sums of money which has not been reported, to our knowledge, to the F.E.C. or other appropriate federal agency. Such reporting is the obligation of Alan Dixon and his affiliated committees." (July 29, 1986 Letter, Para 3).

ANSWER: The Committee denies that Illinois Solidarity is under the direction and control of Alan Dixon, and specifically denies that it has received any in-kind contributions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission pursuant to Federal election law. Affidavit of Stuart D. Bentley, paras. 2 and 4. Further, the Complainant has provided no factual basis whatsoever to support this blanket allegation.

3. ALLEGATION: "Based upon the information available it appears that three separate violations may have occurred or are occurring with regard to Alan Dixon, and they are: 1. Failure to report certain in-kind contributions; 2. Receipt of corporate contributions by Einer Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon; and 3. Receipt of individual contributions in excess of limits by Einer Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon." (July 29, 1986 Letter Para 4).

ANSWER: The Committee denies the foregoing generalized allegations and notes the failure of the Complainant to furnish the referenced "information available" upon which it relies. The Committee further specifically responds as follows:

a. The Committee denies that it has received any in-kind contribu-

²It is a matter of public knowledge that the Illinois primary was held on March 18, 1986, that Mr. Adlai Stevenson won the primary for the Democratic nomination for Governor, and that Mr. Stevenson subsequently declined to appear on the Democratic ticket for state office when two supporters of Lyndon LaRouche won the Democratic Party's nomination for Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State. Thereafter, in order to comply with a court decision, Mr. Stevenson formed the Illinois Solidarity Party with a slate of candidates for statewide offices. Mr. Einer Dyhrkopp was selected to appear on the ballot as Illinois Solidarity's candidate for United States Senate.

tions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission in accordance with federal election law. See Bentley Affidavit at para. 2.

b. Neither Illinois Solidarity nor Einer Dyrkopp were authorized to receive nor have they received or retained any corporate contributions on behalf of Senator Dixon or the Dixon for Senate Committee. See Affidavit of William M. Filan, para. 2; Affidavit of Einer Dyrkopp, para. 3; Bentley Affidavit, para. 4.

c. Neither the Illinois Solidarity Party nor Einer Dyrkopp were authorized to receive nor have they received and retained any contributions on behalf of Senator Dixon or the Committee from individuals in excess of limits established by the Act. See Affidavit of William M. Filan, para. 3; Affidavit of Dyrkopp, para. 3; Affidavit of Bentley, para.4

4. ALLEGATION: Illinois Solidarity and Adlai Stevenson have distributed literature "calling for the election of Alan Dixon....[This] contribution of Adlai Stevenson to the campaign of Alan Dixon, has not been reported on any Federal Election Commission reports of Alan Dixon and contributions to the Adlai Stevenson campaign are not qualified as federal election contributions so that the inkind contribution of printing and distribution of the enclosed pamphlet is improper." (August 7, 1986 letter, at Para 2).

ANSWER: The Committee denies that the pamphlet in question is a contribution from Mr. Stevenson to Senator Dixon. The pamphlet was not prepared with the cooperation or with the prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, Senator Dixon, the Committee or any agent of Senator Dixon or the Committee (Filan Affidavit, Para. 5). In addition, the Committee makes the following basic observations:

a) The pamphlet does not promote Senator Dixon's candidacy in any way and does not solicit votes, funds or labor on his behalf;

b) The pamphlet plainly represents itself as campaign literature for Adlai Stevenson, Michael Howlett, and Jane Spirgel;

c) The pamphlet contains photographs clearly identifying Adlai Stevenson, Michael Howlett, and Jane Spirgal, and does not contain a photograph of Senator Dixon;

d) The pamphlet provides biographical information only as to Adlai Stevenson, Michael Howlett, and Jan Spirgal and does not provide biographical information as to Senator Dixon; and

e) The pamphlet solicits funds and volunteers solely to help "Adlai, Mike Howlett, and Jane Spirgal" but does not solicit funds or volunteers for Senator Dixon.

Based upon the foregoing, it is clear that the sole purpose for distributing this "literature" was to encourage the election of candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Secretary of State, and not to influence Senator Dixon's election. Given that the purpose of this leaflet was to influence state rather than federal elections, any disbursements therefor would not be within the scope of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("Act") (11 C.F.R. sec. 100.7(a), 100.8(a), 114.1(a)).

Even if the Commission were to conclude that the costs for this leaflet are within the scope of the Act, the Committee would not have been required to report these costs since Senator Dixon could not reasonably be expected to derive any benefit whatsoever from the leaflet's passing reference to his name (see 11 C.F.R. sec. 106.1(a)).

5. ALLEGATION: The "attached" Stevenson for Governor report "contains at a minimum 122 separate non-qualified contributions under federal election law, being personal contributions in excess of $1,000 or corporate contributions. In addition, labor/union contributions and state PAC contributions also would not be qualified under federal election laws for contributions to a federal election campaign." (August 7, 1986 Letter at Para 3).

ANSWER: The Committee does not understand the relevancy of this allegation. Mr. Stevenson is not a candidate for Federal office. To the extent the allegation implies that the Stevenson for Governor Committee has made a contribution to the Committee, the allegation is denied.

6. ALLEGATION: The August 7, 1986 "complaint" generally alleges that "[b]ased upon the information available to us it appears that substantial in-kind contributions have been and continue to be made [to Senator Dixon], without reporting."

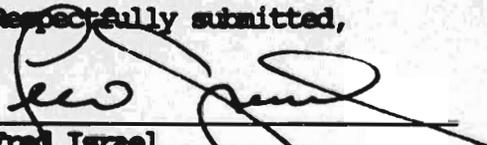

ANSWER: The Committee notes that the August 7, 1986 letter relies on a generalized allegation rather than setting forth the basis for the allegation with particularity as required by the Commission's regulations. The Committee once again denies that it has received any in-kind contributions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission pursuant to Federal Election law.

CONCLUSION

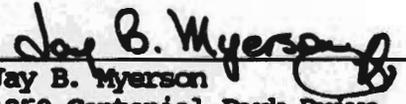

The Committee having demonstrated that there is no factual basis for a determination that Senator Dixon or the Committee violated the law, the Committee requests that the Commission determine that there is no reason to believe Senator Dixon or the Committee violated the law and requests that this matter be closed.

Re: MUR 2218

Dear Sirs:

As counsel for the Illinois Solidarity Party and Messrs. Adlai E. Stevenson and Einar V. Dyhrkopp (the "Respondents"), we are writing to respond to the Complaint of Ms. Judy Koehler, MUR 2218 (the "Complaint"). As explained below, the Complaint has no basis in fact. Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Commission determine that there is no reason to believe that a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act ("FECA") has been committed and that this matter be closed.

Respondent the Illinois Solidarity Party is a statewide Illinois party presenting a slate of candidates for statewide offices to be filled at the November 4, 1986 general election. Respondent Adlai Stevenson is its candidate for Governor and Respondent Einar V. Dyhrkopp is its candidate for United States Senator.

In essence, the Complaint seems to allege that Respondents have used their campaign funds to promote the senatorial candidacy of Mr. Dixon; that such expenditures may be considered "in-kind contributions" to the Alan Dixon campaign; and that the FECA has been violated because these "contributions" were not reported to the Commission. The Complaint also alleges that Respondents have received, "on behalf of Alan Dixon," corporate contributions and individual contributions in excess of federal limits.

The allegations of the Complaint are wholly unsubstantiated and are refuted by the sworn statements of Stuart D. Bentley, Treasurer of the Dixon for Senate Committee, William M. Filan, Treasurer of the Illinois Solidarity Party, Herbert N. Sirott, Treasurer of Stevenson for Governor, Inc., and Respondent Einar V. Dyhrkopp.*/

With respect to the allegations of "in kind contributions," the Treasurers of both the Illinois Solidarity Party and Stevenson for Governor, Inc. have stated under oath that these two campaign organizations have not made expenditures on behalf of Alan Dixon or the Dixon for Senate Committee. Sirott Aff., ¶ 2; Filan Aff., ¶ 2. Representatives for all Respondents have stated that they have not made in-kind contributions on behalf of Alan Dixon or the Dixon for Senate Committee. Filan Aff., ¶ 4; Dyhrkopp Aff., ¶ 3; Sirott Aff., ¶ 4. In addition, the Treasurer of the Dixon for Senate Committee has stated under oath that the Committee has not received any in-kind contributions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission pursuant to federal law. Bentley Aff., ¶¶ 2,4.

The Complaint contains no specific allegations of purported in-kind contributions, other than the one-page pamphlet attached to the August 7, 1986 supplemental complaint letter. This pamphlet clearly cannot be considered an in-kind contribution to the campaign of Alan Dixon. First, it was not prepared with the cooperation or with the prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, Senator Dixon or the Dixon for Senate Committee. Filan Aff., ¶ 5; Sirott Aff., ¶ 5.

*/ The affidavits of Messrs. Bentley, Filan and Dyhrkopp were filed with the Commission contemporaneously with the filing of the Answer of the Dixon for Senate Committee. Respondents hereby adopt that Answer and the accompanying affidavits. The affidavit of Mr. Sirott is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

MAYER, BROWN & PLATT

Charles N. Steele
Lawrence M. Noble
September 26, 1986
Page 3

Moreover, the pamphlet, on its face, does not promote the candidacy of Senator Dixon or solicit funds or votes on his behalf. Rather, it focuses solely on the candidacies of Adlai E. Stevenson, Michael J. Howlett, candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Illinois, and Jane Spirgel, candidate for Secretary of State of Illinois. The pamphlet contains photographs of and biographical information on only those three candidates. There is neither a photograph of, nor any information on, Alan Dixon. Accordingly, since the sole purpose for this pamphlet was to promote candidates in state, rather than federal elections, the costs of the pamphlet fall outside the scope of the FECA.

With respect to the allegations of "non-qualified contributions," the Complaint contains no evidence that such contributions have occurred. Indeed, representatives for all three Respondents and the Dixon campaign have affirmatively stated under oath that they were not authorized to receive, nor have they received or retained, any personal contributions in excess of federal limits or corporate contributions on behalf of Alan Dixon or his campaign. Filan Aff., ¶¶ 2-3; Dyhrkopp Aff., ¶ 3; Sirott Aff., ¶¶ 2-3; Bentley Aff., ¶¶ 3-4.

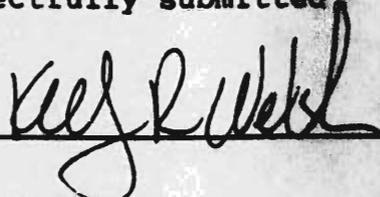

The August 7, 1986 supplemental complaint letter includes an attached state report on campaign contributions to the Stevenson for Governor campaign. It is alleged that this report "contains at a minimum 122 separate unqualified contributions under federal law . . ." Of course, Adlai Stevenson is not a candidate for federal office and the federal campaign contribution limitations do not apply to his campaign. Moreover, as has been demonstrated above, Stevenson for Governor, Inc. has not made contributions to the Dixon campaign. See Sirott Aff., ¶ 4. Accordingly, the information contained in this report is completely irrelevant to the issue of whether the FECA has or has not been violated.

MAYER, BROWN & PLATT

Charles N. Steele
Lawrence M. Noble
September 26, 1986

For all of the foregoing reasons, Respondents respectfully request that the Commission determine that there is no reason to believe Respondents violated the FECA and that this matter be closed.

Re: MUR 2218

Dear Sir:

The Federal Election Commission has reviewed the allegations of your complaints and supplement to your complaints dated July 29, August 7, and September 23, 1986, and on _____, 1986, determined that on the basis of the information provided by you and information provided by the Respondents there is no reason to believe that a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") has been committed by the Illinois Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp, and the Dixon Committee and Stuart Bently, as treasurer. Additionally, on this date, the Commission found reason to believe the Stevenson Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a), but determined to take no further action regarding this violation.

Accordingly, the Commission has decided to close the file in this matter. The Federal Election Campaign Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Should additional information come to your attention which you believe establishes a violation of the Act, you may file a complaint pursuant to the requirements set forth in 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) and 11 C.F.R. § 111.4.

Re: MUR 2218

Dear Sirs:

As counsel for the Illinois Solidarity Party and Messrs. Adlai E. Stevenson and Einar V. Dyhrkopp (the "Respondents"), we are writing to respond to the Complaint of Ms. Judy Koehler, MUR 2218 (the "Complaint"). As explained below, the Complaint has no basis in fact. Accordingly, we respectfully request that the Commission determine that there is no reason to believe that a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act ("FECA") has been committed and that this matter be closed.

Respondent the Illinois Solidarity Party is a statewide Illinois party presenting a slate of candidates for statewide offices to be filled at the November 4, 1986 general election. Respondent Adlai Stevenson is its candidate for Governor and Respondent Einar V. Dyhrkopp is its candidate for United States Senator.

In essence, the Complaint seems to allege that Respondents have used their campaign funds to promote the senatorial candidacy of Mr. Dixon; that such expenditures may be considered "in-kind contributions" to the Alan Dixon campaign; and that the FECA has been violated because these "contributions" were not reported to the Commission. The Complaint also alleges that Respondents have received, "on

Charles N. Steele
Lawrence M. Noble
September 26, 1986

behalf of Alan Dixon," corporate contributions and individual contributions in excess of federal limits.

The allegations of the Complaint are wholly unsubstantiated and are refuted by the sworn statements of Stuart D. Bentley, Treasurer of the Dixon for Senate Committee, William M. Filan, Treasurer of the Illinois Solidarity Party, Herbert N. Sirott, Treasurer of Stevenson for Governor, Inc., and Respondent Einar V. Dyhrkopp.*

With respect to the allegations of "in kind contributions," the Treasurers of both the Illinois Solidarity Party and Stevenson for Governor, Inc. have stated under oath that these two campaign organizations have not made expenditures on behalf of Alan Dixon or the Dixon for Senate Committee. Sirott Aff., ¶ 2; Filan Aff., ¶ 2. Representatives for all Respondents have stated that they have not made in-kind contributions on behalf of Alan Dixon or the Dixon for Senate Committee. Filan Aff., ¶ 4; Dyhrkopp Aff., ¶ 3; Sirott Aff., ¶ 4. In addition, the Treasurer of the Dixon for Senate Committee has stated under oath that the Committee has not received any in-kind contributions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission pursuant to federal law. Bentley Aff., ¶¶ 2,4.

The Complaint contains no specific allegations of purported in-kind contributions, other than the one-page pamphlet attached to the August 7, 1986 supplemental complaint letter. This pamphlet clearly cannot be considered an in-kind contribution to the campaign of Alan Dixon. First, it was not prepared with the cooperation or with the prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, Senator Dixon or the Dixon for Senate Committee. Filan Aff., ¶ 5; Sirott Aff., ¶ 5.

MAYER, BROWN & PLATT

Charles N. Steele
Lawrence M. Noble

Moreover, the pamphlet, on its face, does not promote the candidacy of Senator Dixon or solicit funds or votes on his behalf. Rather, it focuses solely on the candidacies of Adlai E. Stevenson, Michael J. Howlett, candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Illinois, and Jane Spirgel, candidate for Secretary of State of Illinois. The pamphlet contains photographs of and biographical information on only those three candidates. There is neither a photograph of, nor any information on, Alan Dixon. Accordingly, since the sole purpose for this pamphlet was to promote candidates in state, rather than federal, elections, the costs of the pamphlet fall outside the scope of the FECA.

With respect to the allegations of "non-qualified contributions," the Complaint contains no evidence that such contributions have occurred. Indeed, representatives for all three Respondents and the Dixon campaign have affirmatively stated under oath that they were not authorized to receive, nor have they received or retained, any personal contributions in excess of federal limits or corporate contributions on behalf of Alan Dixon or his campaign. Filan Aff., ¶¶ 2-3; Dyhrkopp Aff., ¶ 3; Sirott Aff., ¶¶ 2-3; Bentley Aff., ¶¶ 3-4.

The August 7, 1986 supplemental complaint letter includes an attached state report on campaign contributions to the Stevenson for Governor campaign. It is alleged that this report "contains at a minimum 122 separate unqualified contributions under federal law . . ." Of course, Adlai Stevenson is not a candidate for federal office and the federal campaign contribution limitations do not apply to his campaign. Moreover, as has been demonstrated above, Stevenson for Governor, Inc. has not made contributions to the Dixon campaign. See Sirott Aff., ¶ 4. Accordingly, the information contained in this report is completely irrelevant to the issue of whether the FECA has or has not been violated.

GENERAL

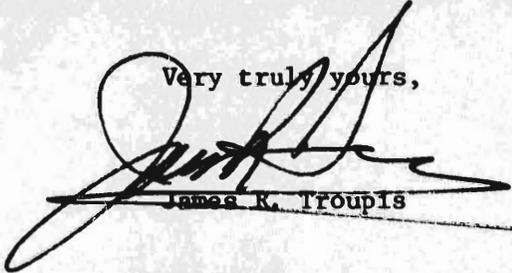

Dear Sirs:

Re: Previously filed complaint
concerning Alan J. Dixon, Illinois.

Please find enclosed the most recent of many published reports concerning the collusion between Alan J. Dixon and Adlai Stevenson as previously alleged in a complaint on behalf of Judy Koehler against Alan J. Dixon. This article, from the September 23, 1986 edition of the Chicago Tribune, once again indicates that the activities of Adlai Stevenson and Einar Dyhrkopp are intended to promote the candidacy of Alan J. Dixon. The expenditures of those persons have not been reported on the Federal Election Commission reports of Alan J. Dixon. It is believed that those reports would indicate a variety of violations of restrictions against corporate contributions, contributions of specific organizations and individual contributions in excess of limits. The laws of Illinois which are used to regulate Adlai Stevenson are significantly different than those of the FEC.

Please consider this letter and attached article as supplements to the previously filed complaint.

Very truly yours,

James R. Troupis

Stevenson running mates keep lowest of profiles

By Mitchell Locin

Imagine, if you can, politicians shying away from television cameras, not kissing babies, avoiding crowds, yet going to the trouble of getting on the election ballot just so they can say: "Don't vote for me."

That is the carefully formulated strategy being followed by seven of Adlai Stevenson's Illinois Solidarity Party running mates.

These candidates for the U.S. Senate, attorney general, state comptroller, state treasurer and the University of Illinois Board of Trustees want no publicity, have printed no campaign literature, make no stump speeches and would just as soon fade away like the good soldiers that they are.

They all signed on to help rescue their distressed Democratic Party after the March 18 primary election debacle, when two disciples of extremist Lyndon LaRouche, Mark Fairchild and Janice Hart, won the Democratic nominations for lieutenant governor and secretary of state, respectively.

Stevenson felt forced to resign his Democratic nomination for governor. At first, he tried to return to the ballot as an independent, accompanied by Micheal Howlett Jr., his new choice for lieutenant governor, and Jane Spigel, for secretary of state. But the courts said it was too late for them to run as independents.

So Stevenson created the Illinois Solidarity Party and filed as a third party. State law, however, required Stevenson to fill out the party slate with candidates who would have to run not only against Republicans but the Democrats remaining on the ballot whom Stevenson supports, including three incumbents, Sen. Alan Dixon [D., Ill.], Atty. Gen. Neil Hartigan and Comptroller Roland Burris.

Dixon, Hartigan, Burris and other Democrats recommended names of people they could trust who held respectable credentials but who had no interest in winning, and Stevenson made the final selections. The slate was unveiled last June, and they since have tried their best to be ignored.

Election '86

Asked what he's done for his campaign, Einar Dyhrkopp, the Solidarity candidate for the U.S. Senate, says, "Absolutely nothing."

Dyhrkopp, 60, a businessman and former mayor in Shawneetown, is a longtime fundraiser for Democrats and was Stevenson's Southern Illinois campaign finance chairman even before the primary. "My whole efforts are towards his election," he said.

He said, however, that he will be proud to see his name on the ballot because of the confidence that Dixon and Stevenson had in him and the role he is playing on behalf of his party.

Dyhrkopp has been to Washington and has gazed down at the august Senate chambers several times but said he hasn't dreamed for even a moment about what it would be like to serve there. "This is too important to let sentiment get in the way," he said.

He's been asked hundreds of times if he's even going to vote for himself, so he's thinking of requesting an absentee ballot and voting in public for Dixon to let everyone know "I'm not serious about winning."

Despite Dyhrkopp's best efforts to remain out of the limelight, his name has been repeatedly mentioned by Dixon's opponent, State Rep. Judy Koehler [R., Henry]. She said that Dixon recommended Dyhrkopp "because he thought it was a funny sounding name," which she said was "an insult to ethnic people."

Thom Serafin, Dixon's spokesman, replied, "We never said that." He added that by alleging that Dixon did, Koehler "has insulted every ethnic individual in Illinois."

Dyhrkopp said the only advantage from his candidacy has been that he's "gotten calls from all over the country, people I haven't heard from in 30 years. I even got a call from a reporter in West Germany. She never understood

why I was not a serious candidate."

William Skedd, 34, of Palos Heights, an official of the Metropolitan Sanitary District and the Solidarity choice for treasurer, has gone as far as considering whether to withdraw from the ballot so as not to injure his friend, former treasurer Jerome Cosentino, who is seeking to return to office. Skedd is president of Cosentino's Palos Township Democratic Organization.

Skedd, however, decided to remain on the ballot when Stevenson asked the Illinois Board of Elections last week to remove the Solidarity name from the ballot and prohibit straight-party votes, further obscuring the no-name candidates. The board will consider the request Tuesday.

Burris recommended Patricia Scott, director of the Bryant and Stratton College in the Merchandise Mart, to run for comptroller. Burris knew that he could trust Scott not to try to take away votes from his re-election campaign; after all, she formerly served as executive director of his political committee, Friends of Roland Burris.

Hartigan and Stevenson turned to John Keith, 38, who is a Springfield attorney, a special assistant attorney general and a former state representative, to do his best to do nothing in the attorney general's spot.

When he sees his name on the ballot come Nov. 4, Keith said he "will have a temptation" to vote for himself "but I will resist it and vote for Neil Hartigan."

For the three U. of I. trustee spots, Stevenson rounded up Philip Martin, 44, a Chicago attorney and Northwestern University law professor; James Spencer, 60, a retired educator from Galesburg; and Elena Mulcahey, director of legislative services for the Chicago public schools.

Of course, just the fact that few people have heard of these nominal candidates doesn't mean they won't get any votes. After all, no one had heard of Mark Fairchild or Janice Hart, either.

She said that Dixon recommended Dyhrkopp "because he thought it was a funny sounding name," which she said was "an insult to ethnic people."

Tom Sarasin, Dixon's opponent, said, "We have said that. He asked that in asking that Dixon got Koehler. That insulted every ethnic individual in Illinois."

Dyhrkopp said the only advantage from his candidacy has been that he's "gotten calls from all over the country, people I haven't heard from in 30 years. I even got a call from a reporter in West Germany. She never understood

why I was not a serious candidate."

William Skedd, 34, of Palos Heights, an official of the Metropolitan Sanitary District and the Solidarity choice for treasurer, has gone as far as considering whether to withdraw from the ballot so as not to injure his friend, former treasurer Jerome Costello, who is seeking to return to office. Skedd is president of Costello's Palos Township Democratic Organization.

Skedd, however, decided to remain on the ballot when Stevenson asked the Illinois Board of Elections last week to remove the Solidarity name from the ballot and prohibit straight-party votes, further obscuring the no-name candidates. The board will consider the request Tuesday.

Burris recommended Patricia Scott, director of the Bryant and Stratton College in the Merchandise Mart, to run for comptroller. Burris knew that he could trust Scott not to try to take away votes from his re-election campaign; after all, she formerly served as executive director of his political committee, Friends of Roland Burris.

Hartigan and Stevenson turned to John Keith, 38, who is a Springfield attorney, a special assistant attorney general and a former state representative, to do his best to do nothing in the attorney general's spot.

When he sees his name on the ballot come Nov. 4, Keith said he "will have a temptation" to vote for himself "but I will resist it and vote for Neil Hartigan."

For the three U.S. Senate trustee spots, Stevenson nominated Phil H. Smith, 44, a Chicago attorney and Northwestern University law professor; James Stiller, 55, a retired educator from Carysburg; and Elton Mulcahy, director of legislative services for the Chicago public schools.

Of course, just the fact that few people have heard of these nominal candidates doesn't mean they won't get any votes. After all, no one had heard of Mark Fairchild or Janice Hart, either.

Dear Sirs:

Re: Previously filed complaint
concerning Alan J. Dixon, Illinois.

Please find enclosed the most recent of many published reports concerning the collusion between Alan J. Dixon and Adlai Stevenson as previously alleged in a complaint on behalf of Judy Koehler against Alan J. Dixon. This article, from the September 23, 1986 edition of the Chicago Tribune, once again indicates that the activities of Adlai Stevenson and Einar Dyhrkopp are intended to promote the candidacy of Alan J. Dixon. The expenditures of those persons have not been reported on the Federal Election Commission reports of Alan J. Dixon. It is believed that those reports would indicate a variety of violations of restrictions against corporate contributions, contributions of specific organizations and individual contributions in excess of limits. The laws of Illinois which are used to regulate Adlai Stevenson are significantly different than those of the FEC.

Please consider this letter and attached article as supplements to the previously filed complaint.

Very truly yours,

JAMES R. TROUPIS

Stevenson running mates keep lowest of profiles

By Mitchell Locin

Imagine, if you can, politicians shying away from television cameras, not kissing babies, avoiding crowds, yet going to the trouble of getting on the election ballot just so they can say: "Don't vote for me."

That is the carefully formulated strategy being followed by seven of Adlai Stevenson's Illinois Solidarity Party running mates.

These candidates for the U.S. Senate, attorney general, state comptroller, state treasurer and the University of Illinois Board of Trustees want no publicity, have printed no campaign literature, make no stump speeches and would just as soon fade away like the good soldiers that they are.

They all signed on to help rescue their distressed Democratic Party after the March 12 primary election debacle, when two disciples of extremist Lyndon LaRouche, Mark Fairchild and Janice Hart, won the Democratic nominations for lieutenant governor and secretary of state, respectively.

Stevenson felt forced to resign his Democratic nomination for governor. At first, he tried to return to the ballot as an independent, accompanied by Micheal Howlett Jr., his new choice for lieutenant governor, and Jane Spiegel, for secretary of state. But the courts said it was too late for them to run as independents.

So Stevenson created the Illinois Solidarity Party and filed as a third party. State law, however, required Stevenson to fill out the party slate with candidates who would have to run not only against Republicans but the Democrats remaining on the ballot whom Stevenson supports, including three incumbents, Sen. Alan Dixon (D., Ill.), Atty. Gen. Neil Hartigan and Comptroller Roland Burris.

Dixon, Hartigan, Burris and other Democrats recommended names of people they could trust who held respectable credentials but who had no interest in winning, and Stevenson made the final selections. The slate was unveiled last June, and they since have tried their best to be ignored.

✓ Election '88

Asked what he's done for his campaign, Einar Dyhrkopp, the Solidarity candidate for the U.S. Senate, says, "Absolutely nothing."

Dyhrkopp, 60, a businessman and former mayor in Shawneetown, is a longtime fundraiser for Democrats and was Stevenson's Southern Illinois campaign finance chairman even before the primary. "My whole efforts are towards his election," he said.

He said, however, that he will be proud to see his name on the ballot because of the confidence that Dixon and Stevenson had in him and the role he is playing on behalf of his party.

Dyhrkopp has been to Washington and has gazed down at the august Senate chambers several times but said he hasn't dreamed for even a moment about what it would be like to serve there. "This is too important to let sentiment get in the way," he said.

He's been asked hundreds of times if he's even going to vote for himself, so he's thinking of requesting an absentee ballot and voting in public for Dixon to let everyone know "I'm not serious about winning."

Despite Dyhrkopp's best efforts to remain out of the limelight, his name has been repeatedly mentioned by Dixon's opponent, State Rep. Judy Kochler (R., Henry). She said that Dixon recommended Dyhrkopp "because he thought it was a funny sounding name," which she said was "an insult to ethnic people."

Thom Serafin, Dixon's spokesman, replied, "We never said that." He added that by alleging that Dixon did Kochler "has insulted every ethnic individual in Illinois."

Dyhrkopp said the only advantage from his candidacy has been that he's "gotten calls from all over the country, people I haven't heard from in 30 years. I even got a call from a reporter in West Germany. She never understood

William Skedd, 34, of Palos Heights, an official of the Metropolitan Sanitary District and the Solidarity choice for treasurer, has gone as far as considering whether to withdraw from the ballot so as not to injure his friend, former treasurer Jerome Cosentino, who is seeking to return to office. Skedd is president of Cosentino's Palos Township Democratic Organization.

Skedd, however, decided to remain on the ballot when Stevenson asked the Illinois Board of Elections last week to remove the Solidarity name from the ballot and prohibit straight-party votes, further obscuring the no-name candidates. The board will consider the request Tuesday.

Burris recommended Patricia Scott, director of the Bryant and Stratton College in the Merchandise Mart, to run for comptroller. Burris knew that he could trust Scott not to try to take away votes from his re-election campaign; after all, she formerly served as executive director of his political committee, Friends of Roland Burris.

Hartigan and Stevenson turned to John Keith, 38, who is a Springfield attorney, a special assistant attorney general and a former state representative, to do his best to do nothing in the attorney general's spot.

When he sees his name on the ballot come Nov. 4, Keith said he "will have a temptation" to vote for himself "but I will resist it and vote for Neil Hartigan."

For the three U. of I. trustee spots, Stevenson rounded up Philip Martin, 44, a Chicago attorney and Northwestern University law professor; James Spencer, 60, a retired educator from Galesburg; and Elena Mulcahey, director of legislative services for the Chicago public schools.

Of course, just the fact that few people have heard of these nominal candidates doesn't mean they won't get any votes. After all, no one had heard of Mark Fairchild or Janice Hart, either.

Governor of Illinois.² Accordingly, these disbursements are not "coordinated expenditures" under the Act.

2. ALLEGATION: "From shortly after March 18, 1986 to date it is clear that Illinois Solidarity has, under the direction and control of Alan Dixon, received and expended large sums of money which has not been reported, to our knowledge, to the F.E.C. or other appropriate federal agency. Such reporting is the obligation of Alan Dixon and his affiliated committees." (July 29, 1986 Letter, Para 3).

ANSWER: The Committee denies that Illinois Solidarity is under the direction and control of Alan Dixon, and specifically denies that it has received any in-kind contributions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission pursuant to Federal election law. Affidavit of Stuart D. Bentley, paras. 2 and 4. Further, the Complainant has provided no factual basis whatsoever to support this blanket allegation.

3. ALLEGATION: "Based upon the information available it appears that three separate violations may have occurred or are occurring with regard to Alan Dixon, and they are: 1. Failure to report certain in-kind contributions; 2. Receipt of corporate contributions by Einer Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon; and 3. Receipt of individual contributions in excess of limits by Einer Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon." (July 29, 1986 Letter Para 4).

ANSWER: The Committee denies the foregoing generalized allegations and notes the failure of the Complainant to furnish the referenced "information available" upon which it relies. The Committee further specifically responds as follows:

- a. The Committee denies that it has received any in-kind contribu-

²It is a matter of public knowledge that the Illinois primary was held on March 18, 1986, that Mr. Adlai Stevenson won the primary for the Democratic nomination for Governor, and that Mr. Stevenson subsequently declined to appear on the Democratic ticket for state office when two supporters of Lyndon LaRouche won the Democratic Party's nomination for Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of State. Thereafter, in order to comply with a court decision, Mr. Stevenson formed the Illinois Solidarity Party with a slate of candidates for statewide offices. Mr. Einer Dyhrkopp was selected to appear on the ballot as Illinois Solidarity's candidate for United States Senate.

tions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission in accordance with federal election law. See Bentley Affidavit at para. 2.

b. Neither Illinois Solidarity nor Einer Dyhrkopp were authorized to receive nor have they received or retained any corporate contributions on behalf of Senator Dixon or the Dixon for Senate Committee. See Affidavit of William M. Filan, para. 2; Affidavit of Einer Dyhrkopp, para. 3; Bentley Affidavit, para. 4.

c. Neither the Illinois Solidarity Party nor Einer Dyhrkopp were authorized to receive nor have they received and retained any contributions on behalf of Senator Dixon or the Committee from individuals in excess of limits established by the Act. See Affidavit of William M. Filan, para. 3; Affidavit of Dyhrkopp, para. 3; Affidavit of Bentley, para.4

4. ALLEGATION: Illinois Solidarity and Adlai Stevenson have distributed literature "calling for the election of Alan Dixon....[This] contribution of Adlai Stevenson to the campaign of Alan Dixon, has not been reported on any Federal Election Commission reports of Alan Dixon and contributions to the Adlai Stevenson campaign are not qualified as federal election contributions so that the inkind contribution of printing and distribution of the enclosed pamphlet is improper." (August 7, 1986 letter, at Para 2).

ANSWER: The Committee denies that the pamphlet in question is a contribution from Mr. Stevenson to Senator Dixon. The pamphlet was not prepared with the cooperation or with the prior consent of, or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, Senator Dixon, the Committee or any agent of Senator Dixon or the Committee (Filan Affidavit, Para. 5). In addition, the Committee makes the following basic observations:

- a) The pamphlet does not promote Senator Dixon's candidacy in any way and does not solicit votes, funds or labor on his behalf;
- b) The pamphlet plainly represents itself as campaign literature for Adlai Stevenson, Michael Howlett, and Jane Spirgel;

c) The pamphlet contains photographs clearly identifying Adlai Stevenson, Michael Howlett, and Jane Spirgel, and does not contain a photograph of Senator Dixon;

d) The pamphlet provides biographical information only as to Adlai Stevenson, Michael Howlett, and Jan Spirgel and does not provide biographical information as to Senator Dixon; and

e) The pamphlet solicits funds and volunteers solely to help "Adalai, Mike Howlett, and Jane Spirgel" but does not solicit funds or volunteers for Senator Dixon.

Based upon the foregoing, it is clear that the sole purpose for distributing this "literature" was to encourage the election of candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Secretary of State, and not to influence Senator Dixon's election. Given that the purpose of this leaflet was to influence state rather than federal elections, any disbursements therefor would not be within the scope of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("Act") (11 C.F.R. sec. 100.7(a), 100.8(a), 114.1(a)).

Even if the Commission were to conclude that the costs for this leaflet are within the scope of the Act, the Committee would not have been required to report these costs since Senator Dixon could not reasonably be expected to derive any benefit whatsoever from the leaflet's passing reference to his name (see 11 C.F.R. sec. 106.1(a)).

5. ALLEGATION: The "attached" Stevenson for Governor report "contains at a minimum 122 separate non-qualified contributions under federal election law, being personal contributions in excess of $1,000 or corporate contributions. In addition, labor/union contributions and state PAC contributions also would not be qualified under federal election laws for contributions to a federal election campaign." (August 7, 1986 Letter at Para 3).

ANSWER: The Committee does not understand the relevancy of this allegation. Mr. Stevenson is not a candidate for Federal office. To the extent the allegation implies that the Stevenson for Governor Committee has made a contribution to the Committee, the allegation is denied.

6. ALLEGATION: The August 7, 1986 "complaint" generally alleges that "[b]ased upon the information available to us it appears that substantial in-kind contributions have been and continue to be made [to Senator Dixon], without reporting."

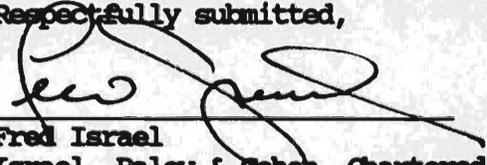

ANSWER: The Committee notes that the August 7, 1986 letter relies on a generalized allegation rather than setting forth the basis for the allegation with particularity as required by the Commission's regulations. The Committee once again denies that it has received any in-kind contributions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission pursuant to Federal Election law.

CONCLUSION

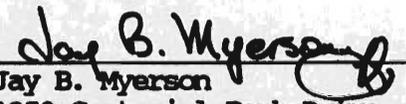

The Committee having demonstrated that there is no factual basis for a determination that Senator Dixon or the Committee violated the law, the Committee requests that the Commission determine that there is no reason to believe Senator Dixon or the Committee violated the law and requests that this matter be closed.

Respectfully submitted,

As a state legislator, Stevenson led the battle against organized crime and corruption.

As state treasurer, he stood up to the politicians and bankers for the public interest. He cut the payroll, increased interest earnings by 40%, and re-quired banks with state deposits to invest in economic development, housing, and student loans.

As a U.S. Senator, he brought billions of dollars home to Illinois and wrote legislation that President Reagan said saved hundreds of thousands of new jobs. He has struggled for sound energy policy, science and technology policy, and the industrial competitiveness of the U.S.

ANSWER

COMES NOW THE Dixon for Senate Committee ("the Committee") by undersigned counsel, and hereby files its Answer to the Complaint(s)¹ in the above-referenced matter.

1. ALLEGATION: "It appears that Alan Dixon has directed the activities of Einer Dyhrkopp in his announced intention to seek a seat in the United States Senate....In that these expenditures in phones, travel, office rental, staffing etc. of Illinois Solidarity and Einer Dyhrkopp have been made for the sole purpose of promoting the candidacy of Alan Dixon they are coordinated expenditures subject to Federal Election Commission Regulations." (July 29, 1986 Letter, Para 2.).

ANSWER: The Committee denies that Alan Dixon controls the activities of Einer Dyhrkopp and submits that there is no credible evidence to support this allegation. Upon information and belief, any funds raised and expended by the Illinois Solidarity Party have been exclusively used for the purpose of obtaining access to the ballot for Adlai Stevenson as a candidate for

ANSWER: The Committee denies that Illinois Solidarity is under the direction and control of Alan Dixon, and specifically denies that it has received any in-kind contributions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission pursuant to Federal election law. Affidavit of Stuart D. Bentley, paras. 2 and 4. Further, the Complainant has provided no factual basis whatsoever to support this blanket allegation.

ANSWER: The Committee does not understand the relevancy of this allegation. Mr. Stevenson is not a candidate for Federal office. To the extent the allegation implies that the Stevenson for Governor Committee has made a contribution to the Committee, the allegation is denied.

6. ALLEGATION: The August 7, 1986 "complaint" generally alleges that "[b]ased upon the information available to us it appears that substantial in-kind contributions have been and continue to be made [to Senator Dixon], without reporting."

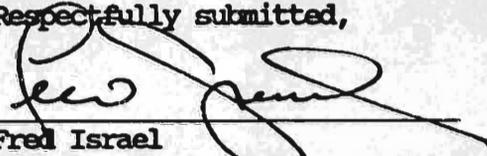

ANSWER: The Committee notes that the August 7, 1986 letter relies on a generalized allegation rather than setting forth the basis for the allegation with particularity as required by the Commission's regulations. The Committee once again denies that it has received any in-kind contributions which have not been reported to the Federal Election Commission pursuant to Federal Election law.

CONCLUSION

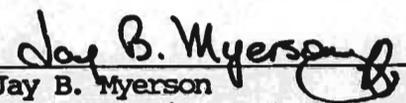

The Committee having demonstrated that there is no factual basis for a determination that Senator Dixon or the Committee violated the law, the Committee requests that the Commission determine that there is no reason to believe Senator Dixon or the Committee violated the law and requests that this matter be closed.

Respectfully submitted,

ADLAI E. STEVENSON for Governor

As a state legislator, Stevenson led the battle against organized crime and corruption.

As state treasurer, he stood up to the politicians and bankers for the public interest. He cut his payroll, increased interest savings by 400%, and required banks with state deposits to invest in economic development, housing, and student loans.

As a U.S. Senator, he brought billions of dollars home to Illinois and wrote legislation that President Reagan said would create hundreds of thousands of new jobs. He led struggles for sound energy policy, science and technology policy, and the industrial competitiveness of the U.S.

MICHAEL J. HOWLETT, JR. for Lt. Governor

JANE SPIRGEL for Secretary of State

For 12 years, Jane Spirgel has been the "conscience" of the DuPage County Board. The only Democrat on the 25-member panel, Spirgel, who teaches public administration at Northern Illinois University, has been the taxpayers' advocate for honest, efficient government.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

The Office of the General Counsel received a two-part complaint on August 8 and 11, 1986 from the Friends of Judy Koehler for Senate Committee. This matter arises from the March, 1986 Illinois primary where persons associated with Lyndon LaRouche won the Democratic nominations for lieutenant governor and secretary of state. Rather than share a ticket with these nominees, Democratic gubernatorial candidate Adlai Stevenson organized an alternative ticket under the banner of the Illinois Solidarity Party ("the Solidarity Party"). The Solidarity Party's ticket includes candidates for the 10 state and federal races in Illinois, however, according to the complaint, seven of these candidates are nominal candidates selected solely to round out the Solidarity Party Ticket. According to news reports attached to the complaint, these nominal candidates were selected by Adali Stevenson, Democratic Senate candidate Alan Dixon and the other Non-LaRouche Democratic candidates. Moreover, these seven nominal candidates, including the nominal Senate candidate Einer Dyhrkopp, will actively campaign for persons on the Democratic slate not associated with Lyndon LaRouche.

The complaint alleges that expenditures made by the Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp are made with the purpose of promoting the candidacy of Senate nominee Alan Dixon, and thus are coordinated expenditures that are required to be reported by the Dixon Committee for Senate ("the Dixon Committee"). Additionally, because Illinois permits contributions of funds impermissible under the Act, the complaint alleges that the Solidarity Party and Einer Dyhrkopp accepted excessive and prohibited funds on behalf of the Dixon Committee. Finally, the complaint encloses a Stevenson for Governor Committee mailer that endorses a number of candidates including Senator Dixon. The complaint alleges this mailer constitutes a contribution (paid for with prohibited and excessive funds) by the Stevenson Committee to the Dixon Committee which has not been reported to the Commission.

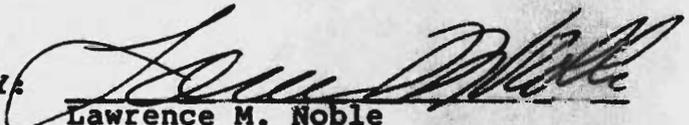

All respondents were notified of the complaint. Subsequently, this Office received requests for extensions of time in which to respond from all respondents. The last of these responses is due on September 29, 1986. After receiving and reviewing these responses, the Office of the General Counsel will report to the Commission with appropriate recommendations.

Re: MUR 2218

Dear Ms. Reilly:

As we discussed in our telephone conversation today, the Stevenson for Governor campaign recently received supplemental complaints against the Illinois Solidarity Party and Mr. Einar Dyhrkopp. These supplemental complaints have been assigned the same number (MUR 2218) as the complaint regarding Senator Stevenson.

As I indicated to you over the phone, my colleague Kelly Welsh, by letter dated August 29, 1986 (attached hereto) formally requested a twenty (20) day extension for our response to the complaint regarding Mr. Stevenson. So that we may respond to all these complaints at once, we hereby request the same twenty (20) day extension (to September 29, 1986) for our responses to the supplemental complaints regarding the Illinois Solidarity Party and Einar Dyhrkopp.

Please call me or Kelly Welsh in our office if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Reilly:

This letter confirms our telephone conversation of earlier today wherein I advised you that Fred Israel and I will be representing the Dixon for Senate Committee in the above-referenced matter and wherein I requested a fifteen day enlargement of time within which to respond to the Complaint. The bases for this request are first, that individuals with whom we wish to meet are back in Illinois due to the Congressional recess and, second, a death in my family.

Thank you, in advance, for your consideration.

Re: MUR 2218
The Illinois Solidarity
Party

Dear Sir:

This letter is to notify the Illinois Solidarity Party that on August 8 and 11, 1986, the Federal Election Commission received a complaint and a supplement to this complaint alleging that Illinois Solidarity Party may have violated sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). Copies of the complaint and supplement are enclosed. We have numbered this matter MUR 2218. Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

The complaint and supplement were not sent to you earlier due to administrative inadvertence. Under the Act, you have the opportunity to demonstrate, in writing, that no action should be taken against the Illinois Solidarity Party in connection with this matter. Your response must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If no response is received within 15 days, the Commission may take further action based on the available information.

Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.

If the Illinois Solidarity Party intends to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and a statement authorizing such counsel to receive any notification and other communications from the Commission.

Re: Alan Dixon
 Supplement to previously filed complaint.

Dear Sirs:

This letter shall act as a supplement to and shall be considered a part of the complaint previously filed by letter over the signature of Judy Koehler against Alan Dixon.

Subsequent to the filing of our original complaint against Alan Dixon for violation of Federal Election campaign laws, certain information has become available supporting the earlier complaint. Specifically, please find attached literature distributed by Illinois Solidarity and Adlai Stevenson, the gubernatorial candidate under that party label, in calling for the election of Alan Dixon. This literature is being distributed by Adlai Stevenson through his campaign headquarters, and appears to have been printed by Adlai Stevenson. As previously noted, the contribution of Adlai Stevenson to the campaign of Alan Dixon, has not been reported on any Federal Election Commission reports of Alan Dixon and contributions to the Adlai Stevenson campaign are not qualified as federal election contributions so that the inkind contribution of printing and distribution of the enclosed pamphlet is improper.

Also attached hereto is the report of Adlai Stevenson filed pursuant to state election laws and made available to the public on Friday, August 1. This report contains at a minimum 122 separate non-qualified contributions under federal election law, being personal contributions in excess of $1000 or corporate contributions. In addition, labor/union contributions and state PAC contributions also would not be qualified under federal election laws for contributions to a federal election campaign.

We once again request that the Federal Election Commission investigate the coordinated campaign of Alan J. Dixon with Illinois Solidarity and its candidates Einar Dyhrkopp and Adlai Stevenson. Based upon the information available to us it appears that substantial inkind contributions have been and continue to be made, without reporting, to Alan Dixon.

Thank you for your consideration. Please contact us should you need any additional information.

Re: Alan Dixon
 Supplement to previously filed
 complaint.

Dear Sirs:

This letter shall act as a supplement to and shall be considered a part of the complaint previously filed by letter over the signature of Judy Koehler against Alan Dixon.

Subsequent to the filing of our original complaint against Alan Dixon for violation of Federal Election campaign laws, certain information has become available supporting the earlier complaint. Specifically, please find attached literature distributed by Illinois Solidarity and Adlai Stevenson, the gubernatorial candidate under that party label, in calling for the election of Alan Dixon. This literature is being distributed by Adlai Stevenson through his campaign headquarters, and appears to have been printed by Adlai Stevenson. As previously noted, the contribution of Adlai Stevenson to the campaign of Alan Dixon, has not been reported on any Federal Election Commission reports of Alan Dixon and contributions to the Adlai Stevenson campaign are not qualified as federal election contributions so that the inkind contribution of printing and distribution of the enclosed pamphlet is improper.

Also attached hereto is the report of Adlai Stevenson filed pursuant to state election laws and made available to the public on Friday, August 1. This report contains at a minimum 122 separate non-qualified contributions under federal election law, being personal contributions in excess of $1000 or corporate contributions. In addition, labor/union contributions and state PAC contributions also would not be qualified under federal election laws for contributions to a federal election campaign.

We once again request that the Federal Election Commission investigate the coordinated campaign of Alan J. Dixon with Illinois Solidarity and its candidates Einar Dyhrkopp and Adlai Stevenson. Based upon the information available to us it appears that substantial inkind contributions have been and continue to be made, without reporting, to Alan Dixon.

Thank you for your consideration. Please contact us should you need any additional information.

Sincerely,

James R. Troupis

ADLAI E. STEVENSON for Governor

As a state legislator, Stevenson led the state against organized crime and corruption.

As state treasurer, he stood up to the politicians and bankers for the public interest. He cut the payroll, increased interest earnings by 400%, and re-quired banks with state deposits to invest in economic development, housing, and student loans.

As a U.S. Senator, he brought billions of dollars home to Illinois and urged legislation that President Reagan said would create hundreds of thousands of new jobs. He led the charge for sound energy policy, science and technology policy, and the industrial competitiveness of the U.S.

HOWLETT, JR. for Lt. Governor

JANE SPIEGEL, for Secretary of State

For 12 years, Jane Spiegel has been the "voice" of the DuPage County Board. The only Democrat on the 28-member panel, Spiegel, who has been public administrator at Northern Illinois University, has been the state's advocate for honest, ethical government.

Dear Sirs: Re: Complaint of F.E.C. Violations
 Alan Dixon.

On behalf of Friends of Judy Koehler for U.S. Senate this letter shall act as a Complaint for violation of certain Federal Election Commission Rules and Regulations by Alan Dixon of Illinois. We hereby request an investigation and determination concerning the activities of Illinois Solidarity and Einar Dyhrkopp in the solicitation of funds and expenditures incurred as they relate to and are coordinated by Alan Dixon and his associated election committees.

Specifically it appears that Alan Dixon has directed the activities of Einar Dyhrkopp in his announced intention to seek a seat in the United States Senate. (See attached exhibits A, B and C--Certain reported statements of Einar Dyhrkopp, Adlai Stevenson and representatives of Alan Dixon.) In that these expenditures in phones, travel, office rental, staffing etc. of Illinois Solidarity and Einar Dyhrkopp have been made for the sole purpose of promoting the candidacy of Alan Dixon they are coordinated expenditures subject to Federal Election Commission Regulations.

As noted in 11 C.F.R. Ch. 1, Section 106.1 (b) "An authorized expenditure made by a candidate or political committee on behalf of another candidate shall be reported as a contribution in-kind (transfer) to the candidate on whose behalf the expenditure was made...." Such rules and regulations apply equally to the receipt of funds, so that regulations concerning amounts and type of contribution are also applicable. From shortly after March 18, 1986 to date it is clear that Illinois Solidarity has, under the direction and control of Alan Dixon, received and expended large sums of money which has not been reported, to our knowledge, to the F.E.C. or other appropriate federal agency. Such reporting is the obligation of Alan Dixon and his affiliated committees.

As a result of the failure to report certain in-kind contributions and expenditures, it is necessary for the Federal Election Commission to investigate the matter independently under the powers granted to the Commission as certain information can only be made available utilizing those powers. Based upon the information available it appears that three separate violations may have occurred or are occurring with regard to Alan Dixon, and they are:

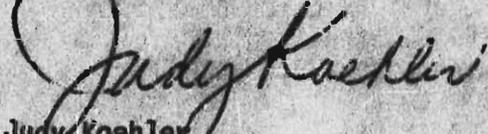

- 1.) Failure to report certain in-kind contributions.
- 2.) Receipt of corporate contributions by Einar Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon.
- 3.) Receipt of individual contributions in excess of limits by Einar Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon.

We hereby request a full investigation and hearing concerning the violations of federal election laws by Alan Dixon. Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

Judy Koehler

Adlai unveils new 'Solidarity Party'

167-5
Telegraph Capital Bureau
SPRINGFIELD — Adlai Stevenson's new "Solidarity Party" announced its full slate of candidates Friday, seven of whom hope to lose.

Stevenson resigned in April as the Democratic candidate for governor rather than run with Mark Fairchild, the Lyndon LaRouche associate who won an upset victory in the March primary to be the official Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor. Another LaRouche disciple, Janice Hart, won the party's nomination for secretary of state.

In order to continue a repeat challenge to incumbent Republican Gov. James Thompson, Stevenson was forced to field a third party ticket with candidates for all state offices, including four now held by Democrats.

U.S. Sen. Alan Dixon, Attorney General Neil Hartigan, treasurer candidate Jerome Cosentino, and Comptroller Roland Burris, all were consulted on the "Solidarity Party" candidates slated to run "against" them "solely to satisfy the legal requirements." The token candidates will work for the election of the four Democrats, Stevenson said.

Picked for the U.S. Senate spot was Einar Dyhrkopp, 60, a businessman and longtime political activist from Shawneetown whose wife is on the Democratic State Central Committee. Stevenson aides have conceded one major reason for picking Dyhrkopp was that his unusual name might discourage voters.

For attorney general, the Solidarity Party candidate is John R. Keith, a 36-year old Springfield attorney who works as a special assistant attorney general for Democratic incumbent Neil Hartigan. Keith was briefly an appointed member of the Illinois House and former legal counsel to the Illinois Senate president.

Bill Shedd, 34, an employee of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago was slated as the Solidarity Party candidate for treasurer. The Democratic candidate, Jerry Cosentino is a former sanitary district commissioner.

Patricia Scott, director of Bryant and Stratton College in Chicago and formerly in charge of Comptroller Roland Burris' campaign committee, is the Solidarity Party candidate slated for comptroller.

Three nominal candidates for University of Illinois trustee were also picked by Stevenson to fill out the slate.

Earlier Michael Howlett Jr., a former Cook County judge, and Jane Sprigel, a DePage County Board member, had agreed to run on Stevenson's slate as serious candidates for lieutenant governor and secretary of state respectively.

Illinois Democrats Picking Their Opponents On Stevenson Slate

By Kathleen Beal
Illinois Political Correspondent

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — The candidates who will join Adlai E. Stevenson's third party to run in November for U.S. Senate, attorney general, comptroller and treasurer are being hand-picked by their Democratic opponents.

The unusual strategy is just the latest move in what has become an unusual statewide election in Illinois.

Stevenson won the Democratic nomination for governor in the March primary but abandoned the ticket because voters had selected Mark Fairchild, a follower of political extremist Lyndon H. LaRouche Jr., as Stevenson's Democratic running mate.

Stevenson decided to form a new, third party to make his bid for the executive mansion. But under Illinois election law, the new party must field a full slate of candidates for statewide offices, including opponents to his former regular Democratic running mates.

Party sources said the strategy of letting the regular Democratic nominees pick their third-party opponents had been mapped out in a meeting last week of Stevenson and the regular Democratic candidates. The new slate is expected to be announced soon.

"Stevenson had really angered some of the Democratic candidates by suggesting some pretty strong candidates to run against them," one party source said.

In retaliation, the source said, party officials floated the suggestion that former Democratic Gov. Dan Walker be appointed as Stevenson's replacement on the Democratic ticket to "wind a wreath in Adlai that it's not too late" for the Democrats to replace him on the party ticket.

The Democratic State Central Committee has the power to fill the vacancy established by Stevenson's departure but has chosen not to do so.

State election laws are ambiguous on the question of whether such a vacancy must be filled, and a court test will likely be required to settle the question.

Jerome Cosentino, the Democratic candidate for treasurer, said the meeting last week seemed to have settled the third-party issue.

"Adlai for some reason thought they should all be well qualified," Cosentino said of the third-party candidates for attorney general, U.S. Senate, treasurer and comptroller.

"But that's not the purpose of the third party," he said. "It's to fulfill the legal obligation to field a full slate."

"The Democratic team in November is Adlai Stevenson for governor, Sprigel, Sprigel and all the rest of us."

Stevenson has already selected Michael Howlett Jr. as his new running mate and has selected Jane Sprigel as his third-party candidate for secretary of state. Sprigel's Democratic opponent is Janice Hart, another LaRouche follower who won an upset nomination in the Democratic primary.

Terry Stephan, a Stevenson spokesman, acknowledged that the regular Democratic candidates were playing a role in the selection of their opponents, but she said it was a "collaborative process."

"We've invited suggestions, we've received suggestions," she said. "But we've also put some names out ourselves."

But the Democratic nominees said they were not giving Stevenson a list of possibilities and letting him choose among them.

Tim McNamery, an aide to U.S. Sen. Alan J. Dixon, D-Ill., said Dixon had already selected the person who will be his nominal opponent on the Stevenson slate in November and has forwarded the name to Stevenson.

"It's our understanding Stevenson will accept our recommendation," McNamery said.

Attorney General Roy Swanson, a Democrat seeking re-election, also has selected his third-party opponent and named along the name, a Horton spokesman, said.

Cosentino said he would give Stevenson his selection within the next few days. He said he wanted to have a final meeting with the man who will oppose him before formally making his recommendation.

State Comptroller Roland Burris could not be reached for comment, but Burris staff members said he, too, had settled on at least one person to run against him on the Stevenson ticket in November.

None of the regular Democrats would reveal who their selections are, but the slate is scheduled to be ready in time for a Democratic Party convention on June 14 in Springfield.

The "stalking horse" third-party candidates, under state election law, apparently can drop off the ballot once they are nominated — a move their regular Democratic opponents favor.

But Cosentino and the others said they had picked their opponents with the possibility in mind that they may have to stay in the race.

All the behind-the-scenes maneuvering could be for nothing. Stevenson is appealing a court decision that barred him from starting an independent campaign for governor, which would not have required him to field a full candidate slate. He has said he will run as an independent if that appeal is successful.

But in the meantime, his aides are preparing for a third-party bid. To get on the ballot, he must collect 25,000 signatures on petitions listing his entire third-party slate.

People who passed petitions for Democratic candidates last year are barred from circulating petitions for Stevenson this year. But Al Zimmer, an elections board official, said people who signed Democratic petitions last year were free to sign the new Stevenson party petitions.

Stevenson names rest of ticket ^{107 E} Dyhrkopp on slate

CHICAGO (UPI) — Shawneetown businessman Einar V. Dyhrkopp was announced today as one of seven nominal candidates who will run with gubernatorial nominee Adlai E. Stevenson under the name "Solidarity Party." Dyhrkopp was named to head the ticket as candidate for United States Senator.

The seven, all of whom joined to fulfill legal requirements, will join lieutenant governor candidate Michael J. Howlett Jr. and secretary of state candidate Jane Spigel on Stevenson's third-party ticket, Stevenson said Friday.

"These seven citizens have agreed to join the ticket solely to satisfy the legal requirements necessary for Stevenson, Howlett and Spigel to appear on the ballot along with the other true Democrats," Stevenson said.

Dyhrkopp, 60, said today, "I have accepted this nomination solely because both Adlai and (Senator) Alan (Dixon) asked me to fill the post. I want everyone to know I am solidly behind the regular Democratic candidates, but I feel this is the only way the legitimate Democrats can disassociate themselves from the radical LaRouchites who only claim to be Democrats." Dyhrkopp is president of the Tecumseh International Corp. coal brokerage firm and is a former mayor of Shawneetown.

Springfield attorney John Keith, 38, is the candidate for attorney general and is a former member of the state House of Representatives.

The candidate for treasurer is Bill Skedd, 34, who is an affirmative action compliance officer at the Metropolitan Sanitary District.

Patricia Scott, former executive director of comptroller Roland Burris' election campaign, is the candidate for comptroller. Scott is director of Bryant and Stratton College in Chicago.

Also named were the three candidates for University of Illinois Trustee. They are Chicago attorney Philip Martin; Elena Mulcahy of Chicago, director of legislative services for the Chicago Public Schools; and James Spencer of Galesburg, former chancellor of Illinois Eastern Community Colleges.

Although the seven are running against Democratic nominee Sen. Alan Dixon, attorney general Neil Hartigan, treasurer Jerome Cosentino, comptroller Roland Burris and the three U. of I. trustees, Stevenson's candidates have given their full support to nominees, Stevenson said.

"These good citizens were chosen in consultation with their Democratic nominee counterparts and other party officials," Stevenson said. "We are grateful for their participation in this effort to present the voters of Illinois with a true Democratic alternative to the Republican and LaRouchite candidates."

Stevenson previously had indicated he would fill the remaining spots on his ticket with nominal candidates so that votes are not drawn away from the regular Democratic candidates nominated in the March 18 primary.

Stevenson withdrew his Democratic nomination for governor after two candidates supported by political extremist Lyndon LaRouche won the nominations for lieutenant governor and secretary of state.

The upset victories originally prompted Stevenson to seek election as an independent, but a U.S. District Court judge in Chicago effectively blocked that strategy by upholding state election laws that set a December deadline for the filing of nominating petitions by independents.

Stevenson has challenged the federal judge's ruling to the U.S. Court of Appeals, but he needs to get his second alternative of running on a third-party ticket on track because of time constraints.

State election law dictates that nominating petitions for third-party candidates must be filed by Aug 4.

Stevenson lost to three-term incumbent Republican Gov. James R. Thompson by a scant 5,074 votes four years ago.

candidate Adlai E. Stevenson III announced the names of seven additional candidates for statewide office Friday and unveiled the name of his new party as the "Solidarity Party."

The seven, all of whom joined to fulfill legal requirements, will join Bentonian governor candidate Michael J. Howlett Jr. and secretary of state candidate Jane Spigal on Stevenson's third-party ticket, Stevenson said.

"These seven citizens have agreed to join the ticket solely to satisfy the legal requirements necessary for Stevenson, Howlett and Spigal to appear on the ballot along with the other true Democrats," Stevenson said.

Einar Dyhrkopp, 66, is the candidate for the United States Senate. Dyhrkopp is president of the Tecumseh International Corp. coal brokerage firm and is a former mayor of Shawneetown.

Springfield attorney John Keith, 36, is the candidate for attorney general and is a former member of the state House of Representatives.

The candidate for treasurer is Bill Shuck, 31, who is an affirmative action compliance officer at the Metropolitan Sanitary District.

Faustina Scott, former executive director of comptroller Roland Burris' election campaign, is the candidate for comptroller. Scott is director of Bryant and Stratton College in Chicago.

Also named were the three candidates for University of Illinois Trustees. They are Chicago attorney Philip Martin; Edna Malachuk of Chicago, director of legislative services for the Chicago Public Schools; and James Spencer of Galesburg, former chancellor of Illinois Eastern Community Colleges.

Although the seven are running against Democratic nominees Sen. Alan Dixon, attorney general Neil Hartigan, treasurer Jerome Conant, comptroller Roland Burris and the three U. of I. trustees, Stevenson's candidates have given their full support to nominees, Stevenson said.

"These good citizens were chosen in

Stevenson withdrew his Democratic nomination for governor after two candidates supported by political entrepreneur Lyndon LaRouche won the nominations for lieutenant governor and secretary of state.

The upset victories originally prompted Stevenson to seek election as an independent, but a U.S. District Court judge in Chicago effectively blocked that strategy by upholding state election laws that set a December deadline for the filing of nominating petitions by independents.

Dear Sirs:

Re: Complaint of F.E.C. Violations
Alan Dixon.

16 AUG 11 AM 1:30
GENERAL COUNSEL
FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

On behalf of Friends of Judy Koehler for U.S. Senate this letter shall act as a Complaint for violation of certain Federal Election Commission Rules and Regulations by Alan Dixon of Illinois. We hereby request an investigation and determination concerning the activities of Illinois Solidarity and Einar Dyhrkopp in the solicitation of funds and expenditures incurred as they relate to and are coordinated by Alan Dixon and his associated election committees.

Specifically it appears that Alan Dixon has directed the activities of Einar Dyhrkopp in his announced intention to seek a seat in the United States Senate. (See attached exhibits A, B and C--Certain reported statements of Einar Dyhrkopp, Adlai Stevenson and representatives of Alan Dixon.) In that these expenditures in phones, travel, office rental, staffing etc. of Illinois Solidarity and Einar Dyhrkopp have been made for the sole purpose of promoting the candidacy of Alan Dixon they are coordinated expenditures subject to Federal Election Commission Regulations.

As noted in 11 C.F.R. Ch. 1, Section 106.1 (b) "An authorized expenditure made by a candidate or political committee on behalf of another candidate shall be reported as a contribution in-kind (transfer) to the candidate on whose behalf the expenditure was made...." Such rules and regulations apply equally to the receipt of funds, so that regulations concerning amounts and type of contribution are also applicable. From shortly after March 18, 1986 to date it is clear that Illinois Solidarity has, under the direction and control of Alan Dixon, received and expended large sums of money which has not been reported, to our knowledge, to the F.E.C. or other appropriate federal agency. Such reporting is the obligation of Alan Dixon and his affiliated committees.

As a result of the failure to report certain in-kind contributions and expenditures, it is necessary for the Federal Election Commission to investigate the matter independently under the powers granted to the Commission as certain information can only be made available utilizing those powers. Based upon the information available it appears that three separate violations may have occurred or are occurring with regard to Alan Dixon, and they are:

- 1.) Failure to report certain in-kind contributions.
- 2.) Receipt of corporate contributions by Einar Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon.
- 3.) Receipt of individual contributions in excess of limits by Einar Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon.

We hereby request a full investigation and hearing concerning the violations of federal election laws by Alan Dixon. Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

Adlai unveils new 'Solidarity Party'

167-5
Telegraph Capital Bureau
SPRINGFIELD — Adlai Stevenson's new "Solidarity Party" announced its full slate of candidates Friday, seven of whom hope to lose.

Stevenson resigned in April as the Democratic candidate for governor rather than run with Mark Fairchild, the Lyndon LaRouche associate who won an upset victory in the March primary to be the official Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor. Another LaRouche disciple, Janice Hart, won the party's nomination for secretary of state.

In order to continue a repeat challenge to incumbent Republican Gov. James Thompson, Stevenson was forced to field a third party ticket with candidates for all state offices, including four now held by Democrats.

U.S. Sen. Alan Dixon, Attorney General Neil Hartigan, treasurer candidate Jerome Cosentino, and Comptroller Roland Burris, all

were consulted on the "Solidarity Party" candidates slated to run "against" them "solely to satisfy the legal requirements." The token candidates will work for the election of the four Democrats, Stevenson said.

Picked for the U.S. Senate spot was Einar Dyhrkopp, 60, a businessman and longtime political activist from Shawneetown whose wife is on the Democratic State Central Committee. Stevenson sides have conceded one major reason for picking Dyhrkopp was that his unusual name might discourage voters.

For attorney general, the Solidarity Party candidate is John R. Keith, a 36-year old Springfield attorney who works as a special assistant attorney general for Democratic incumbent Neil Hartigan. Keith was briefly an appointed member of the Illinois House and former legal counsel to the Illinois Senate president.

Bill Skedd, 34, an employee of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago was slated as the Solidarity Party candidate for treasurer. The Democratic candidate, Jerry Cosentino is a former sanitary district commissioner.

Patricia Scott, director of Bryant and Stratten College in Chicago and formerly in charge of Comptroller Roland Burris' campaign committee, is the Solidarity Party candidate slated for comptroller.

Three nominal candidates for University of Illinois trustee were also picked by Stevenson to fill out the slate.

Earlier Michael Howlett Jr., a former Cook County judge, and Jane Spitzel, a DuPage County Board member, had agreed to run on Stevenson's slate as serious candidates for lieutenant governor and secretary of state respectively.

Illinois Democrats Picking Their Opponents On Stevenson Slate

By Kathleen Reed

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — The candidates who will join Adlai E. Stevenson's third party to run in November for U.S. Senate, attorney general, comptroller and treasurer are being hand-picked by their Democratic opponents.

The unusual strategy is just the latest move in what has become an unusual statewide election in Illinois. Stevenson won the Democratic nomination for governor in the March primary but abandoned the ticket because voters had selected Mark Fairchild, a follower of political extremist Lyndon H. LaRouche Jr., as Stevenson's Democratic running mate.

Stevenson decided to form a new, third party to make his bid for the executive mansion. But under Illinois election law, the new party must field a full slate of candidates for statewide offices, including opponents to his former regular Democratic running mates.

Party sources said the strategy of letting the regular Democratic nominees pick their third-party opponents had been mapped out in a meeting last week of Stevenson and the regular Democratic candidates. The new slate is expected to be announced soon.

"Stevenson had really angered some of the Democratic candidates by engaging some pretty strong candidates to run against them," one party source said.

In retaliation, the source said, some party officials floated the suggestion that former Democratic Gov. Dan Walker be appointed as Stevenson's replacement on the Democratic ticket to "send a message to Adlai not too late" for the Democrats to replace him on the party ticket.

The Democratic State Central Committee has the power to fill the vacancy established by Stevenson's departure but has chosen not to do so.

State election laws are ambiguous on the question of whether such a vacancy must be filled, and a court test will likely be required to settle the question.

Jerome Cosentino, the Democratic candidate for treasurer, said the meeting last week seemed to have settled the third-party issue.

"Adlai for some reason thought they should all be well qualified," Cosentino said of the third-party candidates for attorney general, U.S. Senate, treasurer and comptroller.

The Democratic team in November is Adlai Stevenson for governor, Rowlett, Spigel and all the rest of us."

Stevenson has already selected Michael Howlett Jr. as his new running mate and has selected Jane Spigel as his third-party candidate for secretary of state. Spigel's Democratic opponent is Janice Hart, another LaRouche follower who won an upset nomination in the Democratic primary.

Terry Stephan, a Stevenson spokesman, acknowledged that the regular Democratic candidates were playing a role in the selection of their opponents, but she said it was a "collaborative process."

"We've invited suggestions, we've received suggestions," she said. "But we've also put some names out ourselves."

But the Democratic nominees said they were not giving Stevenson a list of possibilities and letting him choose among them.

Tim McAnarney, an aide to U.S. Sen. Alan J. Dixon, D-Ill., said Dixon had already selected the person who will be his nominal opponent on the Stevenson slate in November and has forwarded the name to Stevenson.

"It's our understanding Stevenson will accept our recommendation," McAnarney said.

Attorney General Neil Hartigan, a Democrat seeking re-election, also has selected his third-party opponent and passed along the name, a Hartigan spokesman, said.

Cosentino said he would give Stevenson his selection within the next few days. He said he wanted to have a final meeting with the man who will oppose him before formally making his recommendation.

State Comptroller Roland Burris could not be reached for comment, but Burris staff members said he, too, had settled on at least one person to run against him on the Stevenson ticket in November.

None of the regular Democrats would reveal who their selections are, but the slate is scheduled to be ready in time for a Democratic Party convention on June 14 in Springfield.

The "stalking horse" third-party candidates, under state election law, apparently can drop off the ballot once they are nominated — a move their regular Democratic opponents favor.

But Cosentino and the others said they had picked their opponents with the possibility in mind that they may have to stay in the race.

All the behind-the-scenes maneuvering could be for nothing. Stevenson is appealing a court decision that barred him from starting an independent campaign for governor, which would not have required him to field a full candidate slate. He has said he will run as an independent if that appeal is successful.

But in the meantime, his aides are preparing for a third-party bid. To get on the ballot, he must collect 25,000 signatures on petitions listing his entire third-party slate.

People who passed petitions for Democratic candidates last year are barred from circulating petitions for Stevenson this year. But Al Zimmer, an elections board official, said people who signed Democratic petitions last year were free to sign the new Stevenson party petitions.

Seven join Stevenson to meet requirements

CHICAGO (UPI) — gubernatorial candidate Adlai E. Stevenson III announced the names of seven nominal candidates for statewide office Friday and unveiled the name of his new party as the "Solidarity Party."

The seven, all of whom joined to fulfill legal requirements, will join lieutenant governor candidate Michael J. Hewlett Jr. and secretary of state candidate Jane Spigal on Stevenson's third-party ticket, Stevenson said.

"These seven citizens have agreed to join the ticket solely to satisfy the legal requirements necessary for Stevenson, Hewlett and Spigal to appear on the ballot along with the other true Democrats," Stevenson said.

Elsar Dyhrhopp, 68, is the candidate for the United States Senate. Dyhrhopp is president of the Tucuman International Corp. coal brokerage firm and is a former mayor of Shawneetown.

Springfield attorney John Keith, 38, is the candidate for attorney general and is a former member of the state House of Representatives.

The candidate for treasurer is Bill Shedd, 51, who is an affirmative action compliance officer at the Metropolitan Sanitary District.

Patricia Scott, former executive director of comptroller Roland Burris' election campaign, is the candidate for comptroller. Scott is director of Bryant and Stratton College in Chicago.

Also named were the three candidates for University of Illinois Trustees. They are Chicago attorney Philip Martin; Elana Malachuk of Chicago, director of legislative services for the Chicago Public Schools; and James Spencer of Galena, former chancellor of Illinois Eastern Community College.

Although the seven are running against Democratic nominee Sen. Alton Sison, attorney general Neil Hartigan, treasurer Jerome Cantelmo, comptroller Roland Burris and the three U. of I. trustees, Stevenson's candidates have given their full support to Sison, Stevenson said.

"These good citizens were chosen in consultation with their Democratic running counterparts and other party officials," Stevenson said. "We are grateful for their participation in this effort to present the voters of Illinois with a true Democratic alternative to the Republican and LaRouche candidates."

Re: Alan Dixon
Supplement to previously filed
complaint.

Dear Sirs:

This letter shall act as a supplement to and shall be considered a part of the complaint previously filed by letter over the signature of Judy Koehler against Alan Dixon.

Subsequent to the filing of our original complaint against Alan Dixon for violation of Federal Election campaign laws, certain information has become available supporting the earlier complaint. Specifically, please find attached literature distributed by Illinois Solidarity and Adlai Stevenson, the gubernatorial candidate under that party label, in calling for the election of Alan Dixon. This literature is being distributed by Adlai Stevenson through his campaign headquarters, and appears to have been printed by Adlai Stevenson. As previously noted, the contribution of Adlai Stevenson to the campaign of Alan Dixon, has not been reported on any Federal Election Commission reports of Alan Dixon and contributions to the Adlai Stevenson campaign are not qualified as federal election contributions so that the inkind contribution of printing and distribution of the enclosed pamphlet is improper.

Also attached hereto is the report of Adlai Stevenson filed pursuant to state election laws and made available to the public on Friday, August 1. This report contains at a minimum 122 separate non-qualified contributions under federal election law, being personal contributions in excess of $1000 or corporate contributions. In addition, labor/union contributions and state PAC contributions also would not be qualified under federal election laws for contributions to a federal election campaign.

We once again request that the Federal Election Commission investigate the coordinated campaign of Alan J. Dixon with Illinois Solidarity and its candidates Einar Dyhrkopp and Adlai Stevenson. Based upon the information available to us

Dear Sirs:

Re: Complaint of F.E.C. Violations
Alan Dixon.

RECEIVED
OFFICE OF THE
GENERAL COUNSEL
86 AUG 11 11:38

On behalf of Friends of Judy Koehler for U.S. Senate this letter shall act as a Complaint for violation of certain Federal Election Commission Rules and Regulations by Alan Dixon of Illinois. We hereby request an investigation and determination concerning the activities of Illinois Solidarity and Einar Dyhrkopp in the solicitation of funds and expenditures incurred as they relate to and are coordinated by Alan Dixon and his associated election committees.

Specifically it appears that Alan Dixon has directed the activities of Einar Dyhrkopp in his announced intention to seek a seat in the United States Senate. (See attached exhibits A, B and C--Certain reported statements of Einar Dyhrkopp, Adlai Stevenson and representatives of Alan Dixon.) In that these expenditures in phones, travel, office rental, staffing etc. of Illinois Solidarity and Einar Dyhrkopp have been made for the sole purpose of promoting the candidacy of Alan Dixon they are coordinated expenditures subject to Federal Election Commission Regulations.

As noted in 11 C.F.R. Ch. 1, Section 106.1 (b) "An authorized expenditure made by a candidate or political committee on behalf of another candidate shall be reported as a contribution in-kind (transfer) to the candidate on whose behalf the expenditure was made..." Such rules and regulations apply equally to the receipt of funds, so that regulations concerning amounts and type of contribution are also applicable. From shortly after March 18, 1986 to date it is clear that Illinois Solidarity has, under the direction and control of Alan Dixon, received and expended large sums of money which has not been reported, to our knowledge, to the F.E.C. or other appropriate federal agency. Such reporting is the obligation of Alan Dixon and his affiliated committees.

As a result of the failure to report certain in-kind contributions and expenditures, it is necessary for the Federal Election Commission to investigate the matter independently under the powers granted to the Commission as certain information can only be made available utilizing those powers. Based upon the information available it appears that three separate violations may have occurred or are occurring with regard to Alan Dixon, and they are:

- 1.) Failure to report certain in-kind contributions.
- 2.) Receipt of corporate contributions by Einar Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon.
- 3.) Receipt of individual contributions in excess of limits by Einar Dyhrkopp and Illinois Solidarity on behalf of Alan Dixon.

We hereby request a full investigation and hearing concerning the violations of federal election laws by Alan Dixon. Thank you for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

Adlai unveils new 'Solidarity Party'

167-5
Telegraph Capital Bureau
SPRINGFIELD — Adlai Stevenson's new "Solidarity Party" announced its full slate of candidates Friday, seven of whom hope to lose.

Stevenson resigned in April as the Democratic candidate for governor rather than run with Mark Fairchild, the Lyndon LaRouche associate who won an upset victory in the March primary to be the official Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor. Another LaRouche disciple, Janice Hart, won the party's nomination for secretary of state.

In order to continue a repeat challenge to incumbent Republican Gov. James Thompson, Stevenson was forced to field a third party ticket with candidates for all state offices, including four now held by Democrats.

U.S. Sen. Alan Dixon, Attorney General Neil Hartigan, treasurer candidate Jerome Cosentino, and Comptroller Roland Burris, all

were consulted on the "Solidarity Party" candidates slated to run "against" them "solely to satisfy the legal requirements." The token candidates will work for the election of the four Democrats, Stevenson said.

Picked for the U.S. Senate spot was Einar Dyhrkopp, 60, a businessman and longtime political activist from Shawneetown whose wife is on the Democratic State Central Committee. Stevenson aides have conceded one major reason for picking Dyhrkopp was that his unusual name might discourage voters.

For attorney general, the Solidarity Party candidate is John R. Keith, a 39-year old Springfield attorney who works as a special assistant attorney general for Democratic incumbent Neil Hartigan. Keith was briefly an appointed member of the Illinois House and former legal counsel to the Illinois Senate president.

Bill Shedd, 34, an employee of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago was slated as the Solidarity Party candidate for treasurer. The Democratic candidate, Jerry Cosentino is a former sanitary district commissioner.

Patricia Scott, director of Bryant and Stratton College in Chicago and formerly in charge of Comptroller Roland Burris' campaign committee, is the Solidarity Party candidate slated for comptroller.

Three nominal candidates for University of Illinois trustees were also picked by Stevenson to fill out the slate.

Earlier Michael Howlett Jr., a former Cook County judge, and Jane Spiegel, a DuPage County Board member, had agreed to run on Stevenson's slate as serious candidates for lieutenant governor and secretary of state respectively.

Illinois Democrats Picking Their Opponents On Stevenson Slate

By Kathleen Beut

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — The candidates who will join Adlai E. Stevenson's third party to run in November for U.S. Senate, attorney general, comptroller and treasurer are being hand-picked by their Democratic opponents.

The unusual strategy is just the latest move in what has become an unusual statewide election in Illinois. Stevenson won the Democratic nomination for governor in the primary but abandoned the race because voters had selected Mark Fairchild, a follower of political extremist Lyndon H. LaRouche Jr., as Stevenson's Democratic running mate.

Stevenson decided to form a new, third party to make his bid for the executive mansion. But under Illinois election law, the new party must field a full slate of candidates for statewide offices, including opponents to his former regular Democratic running mates.

Party sources said the strategy of letting the regular Democratic nominees pick their third-party opponents had been mapped out in a meeting last week of Stevenson and the regular Democratic candidates. The new slate is expected to be announced soon.

"Stevenson had really angered some of the Democratic candidates by engaging some pretty strong candidates to run against them," one party source said.

In retaliation, the source said, party officials floated the suggestion that former Democratic Gov. Dan Walker be appointed as Stevenson's replacement on the Democratic ticket to "send a message to Adlai that it's not too late" for the Democrats to replace him on the party ticket.

The Democratic State Central Committee has the power to fill the vacancy established by Stevenson's departure but has chosen not to do so.

State election laws are ambiguous on the question of whether such a vacancy must be filled, and a court test will likely be required to settle the question.

Jerome Cosentino, the Democratic candidate for treasurer, said the meeting last week seemed to have settled the third-party issue.

"Adlai for some reason thought they should all be well qualified," Cosentino said of the third-party candidates for attorney general, U.S. Senate, treasurer and comptroller.

The Democratic team in November is Adlai Stevenson for governor, Howlett, Spigel and all the rest of us."

Stevenson has already selected Michael Howlett Jr. as his new running mate and has selected Jane Spigel as his third-party candidate for secretary of state. Spigel's Democratic opponent is Justice Hart, another LaRouche follower who won an upset nomination in the Democratic primary.

Terry Stephan, a Stevenson spokesman, acknowledged that the regular Democratic candidates were playing a role in the selection of their opponents, but she said it was a "collaborative process."

"We've invited suggestions, we've received suggestions," she said. "But we've also put some names out ourselves."

But the Democratic nominees said they were not giving Stevenson a list of possibilities and letting him choose among them.

Tim McAnarney, an aide to U.S. Sen. Alan J. Dixon, D-Ill., said Dixon had already selected the person who will be his nominal opponent on the Stevenson slate in November and has forwarded the name to Stevenson.

"It's our understanding Stevenson will accept our recommendation," McAnarney said.

Attorney General Neil Hartigan, a Democrat seeking re-election, also has selected his third-party opponent and passed along the name, a Hartigan spokesman said.

Cosentino said he would give Stevenson his selection within the next few days. He said he wanted to have a final meeting with the man who will oppose him before formally making his recommendation.

State Comptroller Roland Burris could not be reached for comment, but Burris staff members said he, too, had settled on at least one person to run against him on the Stevenson ticket in November.

None of the regular Democrats would reveal who their selections are, but the slate is scheduled to be ready in time for a Democratic Party convention on June 14 in Springfield.

The "stalking horse" third-party candidates, under state election law, apparently can drop off the ballot once they are nominated — a move their regular Democratic opponents favor.

But Cosentino and the others said they had picked their opponents with the possibility in mind that they may have to stay in the race.

All the behind-the-scenes maneuvering could be for nothing. Stevenson is appealing a court decision that barred him from starting an independent campaign for governor, which would not have required him to field a full candidate slate. He has said he will run as an independent if that appeal is successful.

But in the meantime, his aides are preparing for a third-party bid. To get on the ballot, he must collect 25,000 signatures on petitions listing his entire third-party slate.

People who passed petitions for Democratic candidates last year are barred from circulating petitions for Stevenson this year. But Al Zimmer, an elections board official, said people who signed Democratic petitions last year were free to sign the new Stevenson party petitions.

Stevenson names rest of ticket ^{KOT}_E Dyhrkopp on slate

CHICAGO (UPI) — Shawneetown businessman Einar V. Dyhrkopp was announced today as one of seven nominal candidates who will run with gubernatorial nominee Adlai E. Stevenson under the name "Solidarity Party." Dyhrkopp was named to head the ticket as candidate for United States Senator.

The seven, all of whom joined to fulfill legal requirements, will join lieutenant governor candidate Michael J. Howlett Jr. and secretary of state candidate Jane Spigel on Stevenson's third-party ticket, Stevenson said Friday.

"These seven citizens have agreed to join the ticket solely to satisfy the legal requirements necessary for Stevenson, Howlett and Spigel to appear on the ballot along with the other true Democrats," Stevenson said.

Dyhrkopp, 60, said today, "I have accepted this nomination solely because both Adlai and (Senator) Alan (Dixon) asked me to fill the post. I want everyone to know I am solidly behind the regular Democratic candidates, but I feel this is the only way the legitimate Democrats can disassociate themselves from the radical LaRouchites who only claim to be Democrats." Dyhrkopp is president of the Tecumseh International Corp. coal brokerage firm and is a former mayor of Shawneetown.

Springfield attorney John Keith, 38, is the candidate for attorney general and is a former member of the state House of Representatives.

The candidate for treasurer is Bill Skedd, 34, who is an affirmative action compliance officer at the Metropolitan Sanitary District.

Patricia Scott, former executive director of comptroller Roland Burriss' election campaign, is the candidate for comptroller. Scott is director of Bryant and Stratton College in Chicago.

Also named were the three candidates for University of Illinois Trustee. They are Chicago attorney Philip Martin; Elena Mulcahy of Chicago, director of legislative services for the Chicago Public Schools; and James Spencer of Galesburg, former chancellor of Illinois Eastern Community Colleges.

Although the seven are running against Democratic nominee Sen. Alan Dixon, attorney general Neil Hartigan, treasurer Jerome Cosentino, comptroller Roland Burris and the three U. of I. trustees, Stevenson's candidates have given their full support to nominees, Stevenson said.

"These good citizens were chosen in consultation with their Democratic business counterparts and other party officials," Stevenson said. "We are grateful for their participation in this effort to present the voters of Illinois with a true Democratic alternative to the Republican and LaRouche candidates."

Stevenson previously had indicated he would fill the remaining spots on his ticket with nominal candidates so that votes are not drawn away from the regular Democratic candidates nominated in the March 18 primary.

Stevenson withdrew his Democratic nomination for governor after two candidates supported by political extremist Lyndon LaRouche won the nominations for lieutenant governor and secretary of state.

The upset victories originally prompted Stevenson to seek election as an independent, but a U.S. District Court judge in Chicago effectively blocked that strategy by upholding state election laws that set a December deadline for the filing of nominating petitions by independents.

Stevenson has challenged the federal judge's ruling to the U.S. Court of Appeals, but he needs to get his second alternative of running on a third-party ticket on track because of time constraints.

State election law dictates that nominating petitions for third-party candidates must be filed by Aug 4.

Stevenson lost to three-term incumbent Republican Gov. James R. Thompson by a scant 5,074 votes four years ago.

Seven join Stevenson to meet requirements

CHICAGO (UPI) — gubernatorial candidate Adlai E. Stevenson III announced the names of seven nominal candidates for statewide office Friday and unveiled the name of his new party as the "Solidarity Party."

The seven, all of whom failed to fulfill legal requirements, will join Lieutenant governor candidate Michael J. Hewlett Jr. and secretary of state candidate Jane Spirgal on Stevenson's third-party ticket, Stevenson said.

"These seven citizens have agreed to join the ticket solely to satisfy the legal requirements necessary for Stevenson, Hewlett and Spirgal to appear on the ballot along with the other true Democrats," Stevenson said.

Elmer Dyrksopp, 68, is the candidate for the United States Senate. Dyrksopp is president of the Tecumseh International Corp. coal brokerage firm and is a former mayor of Shawneetown.

Springfield attorney John Keith, 28, is the candidate for attorney general and is a former member of the state House of Representatives.

The candidate for treasurer is Bill Shedd, 34, who is an affirmative action compliance officer at the Metropolitan Sanitary District.

Fabrizia Scott, former executive director of comptroller Roland Burris' election campaign, is the candidate for comptroller. Scott is director of Bryant and Stratton College in Chicago.

Also named were the three candidates for University of Illinois Trustees. They are Chicago attorney Philip Martin; Elms McKinley of Chicago, director of legislative services for the Chicago Public Schools; and James Spencer of Galesburg, former chancellor of Illinois Eastern Community College.

Although the seven are running against Democratic nominees Sen. Alan Dixon, attorney general Neil Hartigan, treasurer Jerome Cosentino, comptroller Roland Burris and the three U. of I. trustees, Stevenson's candidates have given their full support to nominees, Stevenson said.

"These good citizens were chosen in consultation with their Democratic nominee counterparts and other party officials," Stevenson said. "We are grateful for their participation in this effort to present the voters of Illinois with a true Democratic alternative to the Republican and LaRouche candidates."

Stevenson previously has indicated he will fill the remaining spots on his ticket with nominal candidates so that votes are not drawn away from the regular Democratic candidates nominated in the March 18 primary.

Stevenson withdrew his Democratic nomination for governor after two candidates supported by political entrepreneur Lyndon LaRouche won the nominations for lieutenant governor and secretary of state.

The upset victories originally prompted Stevenson to seek election as an independent, but a U.S. District Court judge in Chicago effectively blocked that strategy by upholding state election laws that set a December deadline for the filing of nominating petitions by independents.

ADLAI STEVENSON

Stevenson has challenged the federal judge's ruling to the U.S. Court of Appeals, but he needs to get his second alternative of running on a third-party ticket on track because of time constraints.

State election law dictates that nominating petitions for third-party candidates must be filed by Aug 4.

Stevenson lost to three-term incumbent Republican Gov. James R. Thompson by a scant 5,074 votes four years ago.
