STATEMENT OF ROBERT D. RODMAN

I am appalled at your concept of "justice" that permits a U.S. Senator to tell the grossest lies* in order to cajole money from unsuspecting citizens, yet fines an entrepreneur for providing the public with factual information because of trivial violations of reporting technicalities.

It is abundantly clear that you have chosen a weak victim in order to promote yourself as protecting the election process, whereas in reality you are impotent in dealing with true violations of ethical decency.

Anyone of you who participated in this parody of law enforcement should consider yourselves tainted and unfit to practice law in a society that aspires to limit government oppression of the individual. In your conscience you know that if I had the means to bring you before a court of law, you would be chastised for your ridiculous concept of "political committee" and probably laughed out the door.

*Senator Jesse Helms raised money by accusing public school teachers of advocating wife-swapping and cannibalism. This is one example among hundreds.
