Ms. Lois Lerner
Office of the General Counsel
Federal Election Commission
999 E. Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Ms. Lerner:

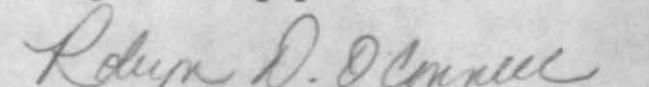

I am writing to you as Chairman of the Massachusetts Republican Party. Under the authority of 2 USC 437(g) any person who believes that a violation of federal election laws may have occurred is requested to file a complaint with your office. Accordingly, by this letter, I ask your office to begin the process of determining whether federal election laws have been violated by U.S. Representative Gary Studds (D-Massachusetts). I understand that upon the receipt of this notarized letter, your office will request a reply from the Congressman who will then have fifteen (15) days to respond, at which time your office will review the issues on their merits.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Leon J. Lombardi
Chairman

This Complaint was sworn to and signed in my presence this 13th day of August, 1991.

Robyn D. O'Connell, Notary Public
My Commission Expires: 1/15/93

I. INTRODUCTION

This is a complaint brought pursuant to 11 CFR 111.4 by the Massachusetts Republican State Committee (the "Complainant"), against the Committee to Reelect Congressman Studds, also known as the Studds for Congress Committee, alleging violations of the provisions of the Regulations (the "Regulations") promulgated by the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission"), first with respect to the registration of campaign committees, and second with respect to the reporting of receipts from donors; more particularly, the Committee alleges violations of 11 CFR 102.2 and 11 CFR 104.8.

II. PARTIES

1. Pursuant to 11 CFR 111.4(a), a complaint may be brought by "any person who believes that a violation of any statute or regulation over which the Commission has jurisdiction has occurred."

2. Pursuant to Section 100.10 of the Regulations, a "person" means an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, labor organization or group of persons.

3. Pursuant to Section 100.15 of the Regulations, a "political party" means an association, committee or organization which nominates or selects a candidate for election to Federal office, whose name appears on an election ballot as the candidate of the association, committee or organization.

4. The complainant in this action is the Massachusetts Republican State Committee.

5. The complainant's address is 9 Galen Street, Watertown, MA, 02172.

III. FACTS AND STATEMENTS MADE UPON INFORMATION AND BELIEF

1. Mr. Gerry Studds, a candidate for Representative in the Tenth Congressional District of Massachusetts, ran for reelection in 1990. Upon information and belief, Mr. Studds had one principal authorized campaign committee, "The Committee to reelect Congressman Studds," duly registered with the Commission under registration number C00018648.

2. Upon information and belief, Mr. Studds also had another candidate committee, "The Studds for Congress Committee." Mailings with this committee printed as the sponsor were made on behalf of Mr. Studds during the 1990 general election campaign. Upon further information and belief, "The Studds for Congress Committee" had no registration on file with the Commission. Further, upon information and belief, "The Studds for Congress Committee" acted as an authorized committee of the candidate. A copy of a mailing made by the unregistered candidate committee called "The Studds for Congress Committee" is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."

3. Upon information and belief, a third campaign committee called "Change '90" distributed thousands of pieces of mail throughout the Tenth Congressional District on behalf of the campaign of Mr. Gerry Studds. These mailings contained the disclaimer, "Paid for and authorized by Change '90." This may have been an affiliated committee of the Studds campaign. Upon further information and belief, this committee also was not registered with the Commission. See Exhibit "B."

4. Upon information and belief, on each report filed by The Committee to Reelect Congressman Studds, a high percentage of individual donors are listed as "itemized," without occupation or employer information provided. For example, in the report on the 30th day following the general election, fully one-third of the individual donors were itemized. Upon further information and belief, best efforts may not have been made to obtain the required information. See Exhibit "C."

IV. COUNT 1

1. The Regulations provide, in 11 CFR 102.2, in pertinent part:

The Statement of Organization shall be filed in accordance with 11 CFR Part 105...and shall include the following information: The name, address, and type of committee; the name, address, relationship, and type of any connected organization or affiliated committee in accordance with 11 CFR 102.2(b)...Any change or correction in the information previously filed in the Statement of Organization shall be reported no later than 10 days following the date of the change or correction by filing an amended Statement of Organization or by filing a letter noting the changes....For purposes of 11 CFR 102.2(a)(1)(ii), political committees shall disclose the names of any connected organizations or affiliated committees....A principal campaign committee is required to disclose the names and addresses of all other authorized committees which have been authorized by its candidate, and all other unauthorized committees that are affiliated with the principal campaign committee.

2. Upon the foregoing information and belief, the Complainant alleges two violations of the provisions of 11 CFR 102.2, with respect to the unregistered "Studds for Congress Committee" and with respect to the unregistered "Change '90" committee.

V. COUNT 2

1. The Regulations provide, in 11 CFR 104.8, in pertinent part:

A reporting committee shall disclose the identification of each individual who contributes an amount in excess of $200 to the committee's federal account(s). The identification shall include the individual's names, mailing address, occupation, the name of his or her employer, if any, and the date of receipt and amount of any such contribution.

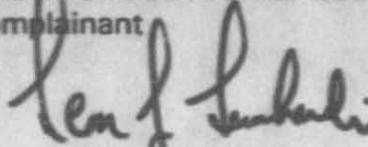

2. Upon the foregoing information and belief, the Complainant alleges a violation of the provisions of 1 CFR 104.8, especially with respect to the report made on the 30th day following the 1990 general election.

CONCLUSION

Based upon the foregoing, the Complainant respectfully requests the Commission to undertake an investigation of these matters, in accordance with the provisions of Part 111 of the CFR, and undertake such proceedings and issue such orders as the Commission, in its discretion, deems appropriate.

The foregoing is submitted upon the pains and penalties of perjury this 2nd day of August, 1991.

RE: MUR 3370

Dear Gentlemen:

The Federal Election Commission received a complaint which alleges that Studds for Congress Committee may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint is enclosed. We have numbered this matter MUR 3370. Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

Under the Act, you have the opportunity to demonstrate in writing that no action should be taken against you in this matter. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath. Your response, which should be addressed to the General Counsel's Office, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If no response is received within 15 days, the Commission may take further action based on the available information.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public. If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

RE: MUR 3370

Dear Mr. Noble:

Yesterday, this office received an envelope addressed to "Change 90/Massachusetts Democratic State Cmte". Enclosed was a letter dated August 20, 1991 addressed to Change 90 at a Scituate, Massachusetts address. The letter states that the Committee has received a complaint that alleges that Change 90 may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971. The enclosed complaint, however, alleges violations by the Committee to Re-Elect Congressman Gerry E. Studds. It does allege certain actions by Change 90 and it alleges that Change 90 "may have been an affiliated committee of the Studds Campaign". There is no allegation of a violation by Change 90 itself.

For your information the Massachusetts Democratic Party on October 23, 1990 duly filed with the City of Boston a business certificate to do business as "Change 90" under the provisions of Chapter 110, Section 5 of the Massachusetts General Laws. Certain activities under the Massachusetts Democratic Party's 441 a.d. authority were carried out under the name "Change 90".

Please let me know if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Martin:

The Federal Election Commission received a complaint that alleges that the Studds for Congress Committee and the Committee to Re-Elect Congressman Studds and you, as treasurer, may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). On August 20, 1991, the Commission mailed copies of the complaint to the above address. You have not responded to the complaint; therefore, another copy is enclosed. We have numbered this matter MUR 3370. Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

Under the Act, you have the opportunity to demonstrate in writing that no action should be taken against you in this matter. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath. Your response, which should be addressed to the General Counsel's Office, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. Dear Ms. McTigue:

Per a conversation had today with Brad Balzer of your office, we are writing to request information pertaining to our investigation of a complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission. At this time we request copies of any and all reports filed with your office by the Massachusetts Democratic Party Committee and their affiliated committee "Change 90" for the period from July 1990 through December 1990.

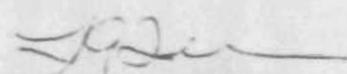

The Federal Election Commission has exclusive power to enforce the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). As such, we request a waiver of any fees. If a waiver is not available, please advise us of the approximate total cost before sending copies of the reports. We would appreciate your assistance in this matter.

If you have any questions, please contact Tonda M. Mott, the staff member assigned to this matter, at (202) 219-3400.

Attention: Office of Mailing Requirements

Dear Sir/Madam;

I spoke with someone in your office on October 30, 1991, with regard to my receiving copies of Forms 3602 Statement of Mailing with Permit Imprints, filed by the Massachusetts Democratic Party. This letter serves as written request for any such documents. I understand that the permit holder will be given ten days to show reason why I should not receive the forms.

The permit number for the Massachusetts Democratic Party is #55893 and I am interested in all records of mailing for the period July through December, 1990. I am also requesting all Forms 3602 for "Change 90" for the same period, although I do not know their permit number.

I have been informed that no fees will be charged for the requested information. Nevertheless, the Federal Election Commission is charged with enforcing Title 2 and 26 of the United States Code and as an agency of the U.S. Federal Government the Commission is requesting a waiver of the aforementioned fees. If you have any questions or need additional information, please call me at (202) 219-3690 or FTS 299-3437.

INSTRUCTIONS TO BANK

1. Color-coded forms have been provided for semi-monthly bank reporting as follows:
 - (a) GENERAL — Contributions and Expenditures CPF-D106 (Yellow) (Bank completes reverse side)
 - (b) FUND-RAISING — Contributions and Expenditures CPF-D107 (Pink) (Bank completes reverse side)
 - (c) SUMMARY SHEETS — To be completed and signed by bank CPF-D105 (White)
2. To prepare the expenditure lists, first separate the checks presented for payment into two groups: (1) General, (2) Fund Raising, as indicated on the face of the check by the maker.
3. On the appropriate form yellow (General) or pink (Fund Raising) list each check alphabetically by payee showing the date check was paid, the payee's name and address, the purpose code number and the specific purpose both as indicated on the face of the check by the maker and the amount. If the code or purpose is omitted from the check indicate this fact by an asterisk * in the appropriate column.
4. The front of this form is to be prepared by candidate or committee treasurer in triplicate and submitted to bank with regular bank deposit slip. Validate and return third copy to depositor. Bank completes the expenditures side; retains 2nd copy for bank's records; files original with Director, Office of Campaign and Political Finance, One Ashburton Place, Boston, MA 02108.

INSTRUCTIONS TO BANK

1. Color-coded forms have been provided for semi-monthly bank reporting as follows:
 - (a) GENERAL — Contributions and Expenditures CPF-D106 (Yellow) (Bank completes reverse side)
 - (b) FUND-RAISING — Contributions and Expenditures CPF-D107 (Pink) (Bank completes reverse side)
 - (c) SUMMARY SHEETS — To be completed and signed by bank CPF-D105 (White)
2. To prepare the expenditure lists, first separate the checks presented for payment into two groups: (1) General, (2) Fund Raising, as indicated on the face of the check by the maker.
3. On the appropriate form yellow (General) or pink (Fund Raising) list each check alphabetically by payee showing the date check was paid, the payee's name and address, the purpose code number and the specific purpose both as indicated on the face of the check by the maker and the amount. If the code or purpose is omitted from the check indicate this fact by an asterisk * in the appropriate column.
4. The front of this form is to be prepared by candidate or committee treasurer in triplicate and submitted to bank with regular bank deposit slip. Validate and return third copy to depositor. Bank completes the expenditures side; retains 2nd copy for bank's records; files original with Director, Office of Campaign and Political Finance, One Ashburton Place, Boston, MA 02108.

RE: WIRING OF FUNDS

On October 30, 1990, the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee wired $16,000 to Ken Swope & Associates for the purposes of buying media time for a generic ad.

Attached is a copy of a letter signed by Kenneth Swope, of Ken Swope & Associates, verifying this transfer of $16,000 which came out of the State Party's State Account.

Encls.

Ken Swope & Associates, Inc.

AMENDED

October 30, 1990

Maureen E. Garde, Executive Director
Massachusetts Democratic Party
45 Bromfield Street, 7th floor
Boston, MA 02108

Dear MS. Garde:

The undersigned affirms under the penalties of perjury that he received from the Massachusetts Democratic Party $16,000, as the authorized officer of Ken Swope & Associates, that the firm performed the services or delivered the goods as indicated below, that the payment was for the sole purpose of paying for such goods or service, and that no person other than the named payee had any interest, direct or indirect, in this payment. The payment was made for buying media.

The emergency use of wire transfer was necessitated by the radio stations requiring certified funds in order for us to be on the air with our radio commercials. Wire transfer was the only means available for providing the funds necessary to obtain certified checks.

Sincerely,

Kenneth M. Swope

Attention: Tonda M. Mott

Re: MUR 3370 - Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin
M. Martin, Jr., as Treasurer

Dear Mr. Noble:

This letter constitutes the response through counsel of the Studds for Congress Committee (the "Committee") and Edwin M. Martin, Jr., as Treasurer (collectively "Respondents"), to the complaint filed by Leon J. Lombardi, Chairman of the Massachusetts Republican Party.* Mr. Lombardi raises three issues related to the Committee's 1990 reporting and election activities.

1. Use of "Studds for Congress Committee". Until October, 1991, The Committee to Re-Elect Congressman Studds was the authorized committee of Congressman Studds. The Committee has been registered under this name since 1974 when Congressman Studds first ran for reelection to the U.S. House of Representatives. The name, "Studds for Congress Committee", has been used on occasion in certain communications as an informal and abbreviated name of the Committee.

* The Committee received a letter from Ms. Lois Lerner dated August 9, 1991 stating that a complaint had been filed against the Committee but, because it had not been notarized, no action would be taken. The next communication the Committee received on this matter was dated October 28, 1991 from Mr. Rishel. He stated that the Commission mailed copies of this complaint to Respondents on August 20. Respondents did not receive a letter from the Commission dated August 20 on this matter. Therefore, no response was prepared or sent to the Commission.

In analogous circumstances, the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") sponsored independent expenditures using alternative project names in the disclaimers. Matter Under Review 1399, May 5, 1982. The Commission held that because the "projects" did not constitute political committees, as defined by the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. §§ 431 et. seq. (the "Act"), and NCPAC clearly authorized, paid for and reported all of the activities, no violation of the Act occurred. Id., General Counsel's Report. Here too, there has never been a separate committee or bank account. All of Congressman Studds' authorized election activities were conducted and reported by the Committee to Re-elect Congressman Studds. Moreover, both names clearly indicate the relationship with Congressman Studds and his election to the U.S. House of Representatives.

It is not clear why the complainant is concerned about this issue. There would appear to be no opportunity for confusion. Although the Committee believes that no confusion has ever arisen by the occasional use of the moniker, it has long favored this name for administrative and political reasons. Therefore, since the 1990 election, the Committee amended its Statement of Organization to designate Studds for Congress Committee as the name of Congressman Studds' authorized committee. Exhibit 2.

2. Change '90. Mr. Lombardi also alleges that "Change '90" may be an authorized committee, affiliated with the Studds Committee. Change '90 is in no way related to the Committee or to Congressman Gerry Studds. During the 1990 election cycle, the Massachusetts Democratic Party conducted some of its activities under the name "Change '90". A certificate to do business as Change '90 was filed with the city government as well as with the United States Postal Service. The Committee has no affiliation with Change '90 and, consequently, Mr. Lombardi's suspicions are entirely unfounded.

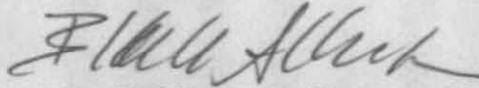

3. "Best Efforts". Finally, Mr. Lombardi is also incorrect in his allegations regarding the Committee's failure to use "best efforts" to obtain contributor information. The Committee's reports have been consistently thorough in providing contributor information. Upon receipt of any contribution over $200 in the aggregate for a calendar year, the Committee sends out a letter to the contributor requesting his or her occupation and employer. See Exhibit 3. Whenever available, this information is provided on the next FEC report. Moreover, the Committee has made a practice, well beyond the requirements of the Federal Election Campaign Act, of attaching copies of the letters to contributors on its FEC reports, including the Thirtieth Day Report following the General Election cited by Mr. Lombardi. Exhibit 4.

The Committee requests that no further action be taken on this matter and that the complaint be dismissed.

Sincerely,

B. Holly Schadler
Counsel

Bellevue, WA 98004

Dear Mr. Eichler:

Thank you very much for your generous contribution to the Studds for Congress Committee. As you may know, federal law requires that each Federal Report submitted by a candidate include the occupation and employer of anyone who contributes over $200.00 in a calendar year. For this reason, I would appreciate it if you would send me this information.

Thank you again for your interest and support.

Sincerely,

Mary Lou Butler

MUR 3439

71 OCT 22 P 2:47

Federal Election Commission
Att: Lois Lerner, Associate
General Council for Enforcement
999 E Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Ms. Lerner:

We are writing in regard to mailings of Gerry E. Studds (MA-10) during the closing days of the 1990 election.

Attached please find a copy of a letter from the United States Postal Service (Exhibit 1), obtained under the Freedom of Information Act, which notes that the Studds' mailings, with a return address and disclaimer of "Change 90" (Exhibit 2), should have been listed as the "Massachusetts Democratic Party."

By virtue of listing Change 90 instead of the Massachusetts Democratic Party, the mailing failed to qualify for non-profit rates (see Section 625.6, Domestic Mail Manual). The Massachusetts Democratic Party requested an exception to Section 625.6, allegedly stating that Change 90 was printed by mistake. We have reason to believe that printing "Change 90" on the mailer was not a mistake. The exception was granted by the U.S.P.S. in New York, which was not familiar with the volatile, anti-incumbent political environment in Massachusetts and thus the potentially surreptitious reasons as to why the party used "Change 90."

We believe that, under the circumstances, the use of taxpayer subsidized non-profit mail for Gerry Studds by the Massachusetts Democratic Party constitutes an unreported, in-kind contribution of approximately $.05 per letter. Thus, this in-kind contribution could amount to more than $20,000 in unreported value, perhaps additionally violating the maximum spending limitations of the Massachusetts Democratic Party.

Although we have been attempting to obtain important documents relating to this matter from the U.S. Postal Service under the Freedom of Information Act since January 1991, we believe that evidence at hand indicates that a violation of the Federal Election Act has occurred. We ask that you investigate, and thank you for your consideration.

I swear the foregoing is true to the best of my knowledge and belief under the pains and penalties of perjury.

Jon L. Bryan: Jon L. Bryan

Signed and sworn to before me this 11th day of October, 1991.

Dear Mr. Bryan:

This responds to your letter requesting information about two mailings by "Change 90."

Postal Service regulations require that mailings sent at special bulk third-class rates must identify the organization to whom the authorization has been granted. In this case, Massachusetts Democratic Party should have been printed on the mail.

The Massachusetts Democratic Party has provided this office with a letter showing that the "Change 90" mailings were prepared, in error, omitting the Massachusetts Democratic Party's name. The letter also states that the mailings were printed and mailed by the Massachusetts Democratic Party.

A letter has been sent to the Massachusetts Democratic Party citing section 625.6, Domestic Mail Manual, which covers the requirement to identify the authorized organization on the mail piece. A copy of that regulation is enclosed for your information.

Sincerely,

Ernest J. Collins

RE: HUR 3439

Dear Ms. Garde:

The Federal Election Commission received a complaint which alleges that the Massachusetts Democratic Party ("Party") may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint is enclosed. We have numbered this matter HUR 3439. Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

Under the Act, you have the opportunity to demonstrate in writing that no action should be taken against the Party in this matter. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath. Your response, which should be addressed to the General Counsel's Office, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If no response is received within 15 days, the Commission may take further action based on the available information.

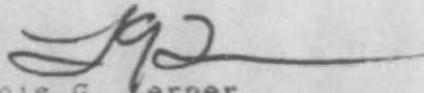

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public. If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

RE: MUR 3439

Dear Mr. Noble:

In accordance with my telephone conversation with your office and subsequent letter, I am pleased to provide the following additional information. I am confident that this clarification will establish that there has been no violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971.

"Change 90" is a duly filed d/b/a of the Massachusetts Democratic Party. A copy of the d/b/a certificate is enclosed for your information. This is a matter of public record. The mailings in question were a component of the Massachusetts Democratic Party's 1990 coordinated campaign program and did not involve solicitation of contributions. The mailings were made within the limits of the State Party's 441 a.d. and in-kind limits and were properly reported thereunder. While, it is true that the d/b/a "Change 90" was printed in error, the United Postal Service properly granted an exception to their rules because the mailings were in fact properly authorized mailings of the Massachusetts Democratic Party. Therefore, we are not aware of any grounds for action against the Party.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Claim of campaign violation falls short

By Brian McGrory
GLOBE STAFF

Republican congressional candidate Jon Bryan called a news conference yesterday to announce a "gotcha dead cold" campaign violation committed by Rep. Gerry Studds (D-Mass.). He accused Studds of collaborating with an independent non-profit group that mailed brochures for Studds throughout the district.

But the accusation turned hollow when it was discovered the group in question was actually the Democratic State Committee, operating under the campaign name of Change '90.

"It is part of the coordinated campaign effort, helping out the whole ticket," said Maureen Garde, the committee's executive director.

Bryan maintained that the Change '90 committee still had to register with the Federal Elections Commission. But a commission spokesman said yesterday that party committees routinely use different names and that separate registrations are not necessary.

The only apparent violation is that Studds used his congressional staff and office to receive facsimiles of the campaign brochure's text. Those facsimiles were mistakenly transmitted to a Republican congressman's office on Oct. 18, and then given to Bryan.

"It should not have been sent there," said Steve Schwadron, a Studds aide. "But this is a fairly appropriate conclusion to the kind of campaign Bryan has run."

Re: MUR 3439 - Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin
M. Martin, Jr., as Treasurer

Dear Mr. Noble:

The Studds for Congress Committee (the "Committee") and Edwin M. Martin, Jr., as Treasurer (collectively "Respondents"), respond through counsel to the complaint filed by Jon Bryan on October 11, 1991. The complaint alleges, based on partial information and speculation, that a Massachusetts Democratic Party mailing may have constituted an in-kind contribution to the Committee and, thus, may have exceeded the contribution limits. While the mailing at issue, Exhibit 2 of the complaint, was not included in the notification from the Commission, Tonda Mott confirmed by telephone that it was a mailing to senior citizens done on behalf of Congressman Studds' re-election campaign. The Party paid for, and reported the costs of, this mailing under its Section 441a(d) expenditure authority.

The sole document Mr. Bryan cites as proof of this alleged violation is a letter from Ernest J. Collings of the United States Postal Service referring Mr. Bryan to a regulation that requires an authorized organization to identify itself on any mailing using bulk third-class rates. In fact, however, after a review by the Postal Service of the appropriateness of the Party's use of the bulk permit for this mailing, the Postal Inspector of Massachusetts notified the Massachusetts Party that this mailing was eligible for the special bulk rate. See Exhibit 6.

Contrary to Mr. Bryan's suggestion, the use of "Change 90" was not even remotely surreptitious. The Democratic Party had not only filed a certificate to do business as "Change 90" with the City Clerk of Boston, but also filed the same notification with the U.S. Postal Service. Moreover, the Party properly reported the mailing costs as section 441a(d) expenditures.

Mr. Bryan's allegations of unreported excessive contributions are entirely unfounded. No violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act has occurred, and Respondents request that this matter be dismissed with no further action.

Sincerely,

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

MUR 3370 was generated by a complaint filed with the Commission on August 15, 1991, by the Massachusetts Republican Party (the "Complainant") against Congressman Gerry E. Studds; the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer (the "Committee"); and Change 90 ("Change 90"), which this Office later learned was a project name used by the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee - Federal Funds Account and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer ("MDSC") (hereinafter, the Committee and MDSC will be collectively referred to as the "Respondents"). MUR 3439 was generated by a complaint filed with the Commission on October 30, 1991, by Jon L. Bryan against the same Respondents. Both MURs contain similar allegations stemming from the same set of circumstances.² Therefore, this report makes recommendations for both MURs 3370 and 3439.

On October 8, 1991, this Office received a letter from the MDSC which stated that it found "no allegation of a violation by Change 90 itself" in the complaint. Attachment 2. On October 28, 1991, this Office contacted MDSC to explain the alleged violation. On December 16, 1991, this Office received a response from MDSC. Attachment 3.

2. In addition to the allegations similar to those presented by Jon L. Bryan, MUR 3370 also contains an allegation pertaining to the Committee's use of a name other than that registered with the Commission. The issue of the Committee's use of different names was also presented by Mr. Bryan in MUR 3438, albeit relating to different circumstances. See, First General Counsel's Report in MUR 3438, dated February 26, 1992.

On November 19, 1991, this Office received a Designation of Counsel for these matters and all other pending MURs against the Committee. Counsel requested an extension of time, which was granted. On December 18, 1991, this Office received the responses by counsel for the Committee.³ Attachments 4 and 5.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Complainant in MUR 3370 sets forth three allegations against the Respondents. The first allegation involves a mailing made by the Committee. The second allegation involves a mailing made by Change 90, as a coordinated expenditure for the Committee. The third allegation involves reporting violations by the Committee. The Complainant in MUR 3439 alleges violations by the Respondents stemming from the Change 90 mailing at issue in MUR 3370.

The issues in these two matters, as well as the parties involved, overlap. Because the complaints are so interrelated, this Office recommends merging MUR 3439 with MUR 3370.

A. The Committee Mailing

The first allegation in MUR 3370 alleges that the Committee violated the Act and Regulations by using a name, other than that name registered with the Commission, in a Committee mailing. The mailing consisted of a picture of the candidate with his name across the top. Under the picture was the word

3. Counsel filed responses for these MURs and other MURs filed by the Jon L. Bryan against the Committee (MURs 3376, 3438). Counsel also requested that the cases be merged "so that the pattern of harassment of these specious allegations is evident." Attachment 6.

"Vote!" and the date of the election. A disclaimer at the bottom stated that the mailing had been "Paid for by Studds for Congress Committee." See, Attachment 7.

The Act requires a disclaimer on all materials which solicit contributions or expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate. 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a). Such materials which are paid for by an authorized political committee of a candidate must "clearly state that the communication has been paid for by such authorized political committee." 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(1). Further, the Act requires a committee to file a Statement of Organization notifying the Commission of certain information regarding the Committee, including the name of the Committee. 2 U.S.C. § 433(a). Any changes in the committee's Statement of Organization, including changes in the name of the Committee, must also be filed with the Commission within 10 days of such change. 2 U.S.C. § 433(c).

The Committee, an authorized political committee of the candidate, had been registered with the Commission as the "Committee to Re-Elect Congressman Studds" since 1974, and was registered as such during the 1990 election. On October 25, 1991, the Commission received the Committee's amendment to their Statement of Organization, thereby formally changing the Committee's name to the "Studds for Congress Committee." Attachment 1.

The Committee does not argue that a disclaimer was not required;⁴ rather, the Committee asserts that they complied with the requirements of 2 U.S.C. § 441d. The Committee argues that the "Studds for Congress Committee" name had been used by the Committee "on occasion in certain communications as an informal and abbreviated name of the Committee." Attachment 4, p. 1. The Committee argues that "no confusion has ever arisen by the occasional use of the moniker." Id. at 2. The Committee states that the Committee "has long favored this [alternate] name for administrative and political reasons." Id.

The advertisement expressly advocated the election of the candidate, and thus required a disclaimer. However, in its disclaimer, the Committee used a name which it favored "for administrative and political reasons" instead of the full and official name of the authorized political committee, as registered with the Commission at the time of the mailing. Ultimately, the name of the Committee was formally changed; however, the Act clearly requires such materials which are paid for by an authorized political committee of a candidate to "clearly state that the communication has been paid for by such authorized political committee." 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(1).

The Commission has stated that "the Act and regulations assume that the name of an authorized committee is to be used in ... any situation where 2 U.S.C. § 441d would require identification of the committee." Advisory Opinion 1980-84.

4. The word "Vote!" below the candidate's picture is a clear indication of express advocacy, thus requiring a disclaimer.

There a committee had changed its name, but wished to use leftover stationery with the old committee name. The Commission determined that such would be permitted as long as any communication requiring a Section 441d disclaimer "include[d] a statement of sponsorship that gives the full official name of the Committee." Id.; see also, Common Cause v. FEC, 842 F.2d 436, 443 n.18 (D.C. Cir. 1988).

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit has accepted the Commission's assessment that committees must use their full and official name, holding that they would be "hard-pressed to label the Commission's determination an unreasonable one." Id. at 443. The court agreed with the Commission's argument that such a requirement is necessary to "ensure ease of access to the disclosure reports of the committee." Id.

Further, the Respondents' contention that "no confusion" resulted from the use of the different name makes no difference in the analysis. Judge Holloway Johnson previously rejected the argument that alternative information can give adequate notice. FEC v. National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC"), No. 85-2898 (D.D.C. April 29, 1987) (slip opinion) (repeated references to NCPAC appearing throughout the materials were not adequate to satisfy the Section 441d disclaimer requirements). In that case, the Judge stated that "the Act and regulations do not provide for disclaimers by inference." Id. at 8.

Thus, the Act requires that a committee use the full and official name of the committee, as registered with the Commission, in disclaimers, rather than some alias or "moniker." In this instance, the Respondents did not use the full and official name of the Committee in the disclaimer, as is required by the Act.⁵

The Committee, arguing that use of an alternate name is allowed, analogizes its use of an alternate name to the situation in MUR 1399. Attachment 4, p. 2. In MUR 1399, the Commission allowed NCPAC to use alternate project names in its advertising. Nevertheless, NCPAC advertisements contained disclaimers which identified the alternate "project name" as a project of NCPAC, and clearly identified NCPAC, in its full and official name, as the committee paying for the advertisement. Thus, while the use of an alternate or project name has been accepted in some instances, such use does not forego the requirement of a disclaimer which clearly states who paid for and authorized the communication.⁶

Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

5. In MUR 3438 the Committee argued that they had complied with the same provision of the Act in regards to a different communication, because the disclaimer read the "Committee to Re-Elect Congressman Studds," even though the checks were to be made to the "Studds for Congress Committee." We conclude that, unlike the situation in MUR 3438, here the disclaimer itself carries a name other than the Committee's registered name.

6. The reason for this requirement is illustrated by the second allegation regarding the "Change 90" mailing.

B. The Change 90 Mailing

The second allegation in MUR 3370 concerns a mailing made by the MDSC on behalf of Congressman Studds. Attachment 8. This mailing is also the subject of the complaint in MUR 3439. Both Complainants allege that the use of the name "Change 90" may be a violation of the Act.⁷ In MUR 3370 it is claimed that the use of "Change 90" violated 11 C.F.R. § 102.2 (2 U.S.C. § 433). Additionally, this allegation raises an issue concerning whether the disclaimer on the mailing was sufficient under the Act. Finally, the Complainant in MUR 3439 also alleges that the mailing could constitute an unreported, in-kind contribution by MDSC to the Committee, and a violation of the spending limits of the MDSC.

1. Statement of Organization

The Act and Regulations require that committees file with the Commission a Statement of Organization which states, among other information, any connected organizations or affiliated committees. 2 U.S.C. § 433(b)(2); 11 C.F.R. § 102.2(b). The Act and Regulations also require that committees report, within 10 days, any changes in their Statement of Organization. 2 U.S.C. § 433(c); 11 C.F.R. § 102.2(a)(1)(ii).

The Committee responded that "Change 90 is in no way related to the Committee or to Congressman Gerry Studds." Attachment 4, p. 2. This statement was further supported by

7. The Complainant in MUR 3370 clearly believed that "Change 90" was an affiliated committee of the Studds committee; however, the Complainant in MUR 3439 indicated that MDSC, rather than the Studds committee, had used the alternate name.

MDSC's response which stated that "Change 90 is a duly filed d/b/a ["doing business as"] of the Massachusetts Democratic Party." Attachment 3, p. 1. MDSC provided a copy of its "d/b/a" certificate filed with the city of Boston. Id., p. 2. This document clearly shows that Change 90 was not a separate entity of MDSC which would constitute a connected organization or affiliated committee, but rather was an alternate project name being used by MDSC.

Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that either the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, or the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 433.

2. Required Disclaimer

The Act requires a disclaimer on all communications which solicit contributions or expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate. 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a). The information contained in the disclaimer depends on who pays for and authorizes the publication. When such materials are paid for by someone other than the authorized committee but are authorized by the candidate or the candidate's committee, the Act requires that the disclaimer "clearly state that the communication is paid for by such other persons and authorized by such authorized political committee." 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(2).

In Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), the Supreme Court concluded that the only expenditures covered by the Act's reporting provisions are those that "expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate."⁸ Id. at 80. The Court stated that the provision must be restricted "to communications containing express words of advocacy of election or defeat, such as 'vote for,' 'support,' 'cast your ballot for,' 'Smith for Congress,' 'vote against,' 'defeat,' 'reject.'" Id. at 44, n.52. The purpose of the standard set by the Court was to protect free speech by limiting the coverage of the disclaimer provision "precisely to that spending that is unambiguously related to the campaign of a particular candidate." Id. at 80. This standard was incorporated into the "express advocacy" language of 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

Subsequently, in finding express advocacy in FEC v. Massachusetts Citizens for Life, Inc. 479 U.S. 238 (1986), the Supreme Court declined to strictly adhere to only those words and phrases in Buckley which it had determined would constitute "express advocacy." The Court stated that "the fact that [the communication's] message is marginally less direct than 'Vote for Smith' does not change its essential nature." Id. at 249.

Further analysis of the "express advocacy" standard was made in FEC v. Furgatch, 807 F.2d 857 (9th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 850 (1987). The court stated that to be

8. The Court's reasoning in Buckley related to the meaning of "for the purpose of...influencing" an election, language contained in the reporting requirements provision of the Act. From this language the Court devised the "expressly advocating" language and standard, which also appear in the disclaimer provision of the Act today. However, the requirement for a disclaimer on communications which solicit contributions stands separately from the requirement for a disclaimer on communications under the "express advocacy" test.

"express advocacy" under the Act, speech must, "when read as a whole and with limited reference to external events, be susceptible of no other reasonable interpretation but an exhortation to vote for or against a specific candidate." Id. at 864. Speech cannot be express advocacy if "reasonable minds could differ as to whether it encourages a vote for or against a candidate or encourages the reader to take some other kind of action." Id.

The court stated that speech is "express advocacy" if three criteria are met. First, a political communication's message is "express" if it is unmistakable and unambiguous, suggestive of only one plausible meaning. Second, its message is "advocacy" if it presents a clear plea for action, and thus is not purely informative. Third, the message is "express advocacy" if it is clear what action is advocated. Id.

The Change 90 mailing was made as a coordinated expenditure by MDSC just prior to the 1990 General Election. The mailings mention both candidates for office. Further, the mailings, which were targeted toward senior citizen voters, indicate that senior citizens should vote for Congressman Studds because "[s]enior citizens have few better friends in Congress than Massachusetts Congressman Gerry Studds," even though "Jon Bryan says seniors need a new Congressman." Attachment 8. Thus, the mailing expressly advocated the re-election of Congressman Studds, thereby requiring a disclaimer meeting the requirements of the Act.

The disclaimer on the mailing states that the mailing was

"[p]aid for and authorized by Change 90." Attachment 8. The disclaimer does not mention MDSC. Although the Commission has allowed use of a project name in campaign materials, it has done so where the disclaimer clearly states that the committee paid for and authorized the communication, apart from the use of the project name. See MUR 1399.⁹

Further, as discussed above, the required disclaimer must clearly state the name of the Committee paying for the communication, as it is registered with the Commission. Discussion at pp. 5-6; see, Advisory Opinion 1980-84; Common Cause v. FEC, 842 F.2d 436, 443 (D.C. Cir. 1988).

In this instance, by stating only the project name in the disclaimer, and not the name registered with the Commission, someone wishing to gain information regarding disbursements for the mailing could not find such information because no Commission files exist for "Change 90." Further, the reports filed by MDSC do not clearly identify any disbursements specifically related to the Change 90 project.

MDSC also argues that, although "Change 90 was printed in error, the United Postal Service properly granted an exception to their rules [requiring MDSC to use its name for bulk

9. In MUR 1399, the National Conservative Political Action Committee used various project names, but in each instance the disclaimer clearly identified NCPAC, in its full and official name, as the committee paying for the advertisement. The disclaimers read, for example, "Paid for by Anyone But Culver Committee, a project of the National Conservative Political Action Committee, and not authorized by any candidate." The Commission allowed the use of project names on communications, but also looked to whether such communications contained a proper disclaimer.

mailings] because the mailings were in fact properly authorized mailings of the Massachusetts Democratic Party." Attachment 3, p. 1; see also, Id., p. 3. The actions by the Postal Service do not, however, absolve MDSC of the necessity of meeting the disclaimer requirements of the Act. Cf., Galliano v. U.S. Postal Service, 836 F.2d 1362 (D.C. 1988).

Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

3. Contribution and Expenditure Limitations

MDSC's response argues that "[t]he mailings were made within the limits of the State Party's 441 a.d. [sic] and in-kind limits and were properly reported thereunder." Attachment 3, p. 1.

The Act limits the contributions made by a multicandidate political committee to a candidate or his authorized committee to an aggregate of $5,000 with respect to any election. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2). For the purposes of this limitation, "contribution" includes "anything of value" and thus includes in-kind contributions. 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i).

The Act further allows both the national and state party committees to make expenditures in connection with the general election campaign of a federal candidate in the state who is affiliated with such party. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d). Such expenditures are in addition to other contribution limits in the Act. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d)(1). Limitations for such expenditures are set by the Secretary of Commerce in accordance with estimated voting age population of the state. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(e). In 1990, the 441a(d) expenditure limits, as to a Massachusetts congressional candidate, were set at $25,140 each for the national and state party committees. FEC Record, Vol. 16, No. 3, March 1990.

The Commission has recognized and the courts have accepted that a national party committee may allocate its Section 441a(d) expenditure limit to a state party committee or subordinate committees for their use. MUR 1234; FEC v. Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, 454 U.S. 27 (1981).

The 1990 reports filed by MDSC with the Commission show a total of $5,000 in in-kind contributions to the Studds Committee, and a total of $42,447 in Section 441a(d) expenditures for the candidate. The E-index shows that the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") spent $3,301 in coordinated expenditures for the 1990 Studds Committee campaign. The Schedule F of both DCCC and MDSC indicate that each committee was designated to make coordinated expenditures by and for the Democratic National Committee. Together the two committees spent $45,748 in Section 441a(d) expenditures for the candidate. The combined amount of 441a(d) expenditures which could have been spent by the national and state party committees for the candidate totals $50,280. Thus, it does not appear that the state party committee spent in excess of the Section 441a(d) limits for itself and those authorized by the national party committee.

Neither the amount of contributions nor the total expenditures exceeds the limits of the Act. Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that the Massachusetts Democratic Party and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

C. Alleged Reporting Violation by the Committee

The third allegation in MUR 3370 alleges that the Committee violated 11 C.F.R. § 104.8 by not providing complete information on itemized contributions listed in the Committee's 1990 Post-General Report. See also, 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). The Complainant states that one-third of the itemized donors were listed without occupation or employer information. The Complainant alleges that "best efforts may not have been made to obtain the required information."

The Act requires that committees report to the Commission the identification of all contributors who contribute an aggregate amount in excess of $200 within the calendar year. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A); 11 C.F.R. § 104.8. The identification information required includes: name, mailing address, employer, occupation, and date and amount of the contribution. 2 U.S.C. § 431(13). The Regulations state that the committee shall be considered in compliance if the treasurer can show that best efforts were made to obtain, maintain and submit such information. 11 C.F.R. § 104.7(a). The Regulations further state that "[t]he treasurer will not be deemed to have exercised best efforts to obtain the required information unless he or she has made at least one effort per solicitation...." 11 C.F.R. § 104.7(b).

The Committee's response denies such allegations. The Committee stated that best efforts were made to obtain the missing information regarding occupation and employer. Attachment 4, p. 3. The Committee provided evidence of such efforts with a sample copy of letters sent to contributors requesting the information. Id., p. 5. The Committee further stated that it has "made a practice, well beyond the requirements of the [Act], of attaching copies of the letters to contributors on its FEC reports." Id., p. 3.

Indeed, the 1990 Post-General Report filed by the Committee has nine such letters attached. However, the occupation and employer information was missing from a total of 26 contributors for that report. Reports Analysis Division confirmed that the supporting material for the other 17 contributors was requested, but the Committee did not respond to the request. Thus, it appears that best efforts may not have been made to obtain the missing information for all contributors.

Therefore, in light of the other recommendation to proceed against the Committee, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Studts for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, also violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A).

III. PROPOSED INVESTIGATION

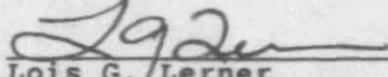

If the Commission approves the recommendations in this report, this Office will further investigate the total number of mailings disseminated and the dollar amounts spent by both Respondents on the two mailings at issue.

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Merge MUR 3439 with MUR 3370.
2. Find reason to believe that the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441d and 434(b)(3)(A).
3. Find reason to believe that the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d.
4. Find no reason to believe that the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 433.
5. Find no reason to believe that the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433 and 441a(f).
6. Approve the attached Factual and Legal Analyses.

Washington, D.C. 20005

RE: MUR 3439

Dear Ms. Corley:

On August 20, 1991, the Federal Election Commission notified your clients, of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint was forwarded to your clients at that time.

Upon further review of the allegations contained in the complaint, and information supplied by your clients, the Commission, on April 21, 1992, found that there is reason to believe the Studds for Congress Committee ("Committee") and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441d and 434(b)(3)(A), provisions of the Act. The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Additionally, after considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission determined to take no further action regarding the violation of Section 441d. Further, the Commission found no reason to believe that Congressman Studds violated any provision of the Act, and closed the file as it pertains to that Respondent.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against your clients. You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Please submit such materials to the General Counsel's Office within 15 days of receipt of this letter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information demonstrating that no further action should be taken against your clients, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation.

If you are interested in pursuing pre-probable cause conciliation, you should so request in writing. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d). Upon receipt of the request, the Office of the General Counsel will make recommendations to the Commission either proposing an agreement in settlement of the matter or recommending declining that pre-probable cause conciliation be pursued. The Office of the General Counsel may recommend that pre-probable cause conciliation not be entered into at this time so that it may complete its investigation of the matter. Further, the Commission will not entertain requests for pre-probable cause conciliation after briefs on probable cause have been mailed to the respondent.

Requests for extensions of time will not be routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing at least five days prior to the due date of the response and specific good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.

If you have any questions, please contact Tonda M. Mott, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 219-3400.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

RESPONDENTS: Congressman Gerry E. Studds; Studds for Congress Committee,¹ and
Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer

MUR: 3439

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

MUR 3370 was generated by a complaint filed with the Commission on August 15, 1991, by the Massachusetts Republican Party (the "Complainant") against Congressman Gerry E. Studds; the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer (the "Committee"); and another Respondent.

MUR 3439 was generated by a complaint filed with the Commission on October 30, 1991, by Jon L. Bryan against the same Respondents. Both MURs contain similar allegations stemming from the same set of circumstances; therefore, MUR 3370 was merged with 3439.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. The Committee Mailing

The first allegation in MUR 3370 alleges that the Committee violated the Act and Regulations by using a name, other than that name registered with the Commission, in a Committee mailing. The mailing consisted of a picture of the candidate with his name across the top. Under the picture was the word "Vote!" and the date of the election. A disclaimer at the

1. On October 25, 1991, the "Committee to Re-Elect Congressman Studds" amended its Statement of Organization, formally changing the Committee's name to "Studds for Congress Committee." Attachment 1.

bottom stated that the mailing had been "Paid for by Studds for Congress Committee."

The Act requires a disclaimer on all materials which solicit contributions or expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate. 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a). Such materials which are paid for by an authorized political committee of a candidate must "clearly state that the communication has been paid for by such authorized political committee." 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(1). Further, the Act requires a committee to file a Statement of Organization notifying the Commission of certain information regarding the Committee, including the name of the Committee. 2 U.S.C. § 433(a). Any changes in the committee's Statement of Organization, including changes in the name of the Committee, must also be filed with the Commission within 10 days of such change. 2 U.S.C. § 433(c).

The Committee, an authorized political committee of the candidate, had been registered with the Commission as the "Committee to Re-Elect Congressman Studds" since 1974, and was registered as such during the 1990 election. On October 25, 1991, the Commission received the Committee's amendment to their Statement of Organization, thereby formally changing the Committee's name to the "Studds for Congress Committee."

The Committee does not argue that a disclaimer was not required;² rather, the Committee asserts that they complied with the requirements of 2 U.S.C. § 441d. The Committee argues that the "Studds for Congress Committee" name had been used by the Committee "on occasion in certain communications as an informal and abbreviated name of the Committee." The Committee argues that "no confusion has ever arisen by the occasional use of the moniker." The Committee states that the Committee "has long favored this [alternate] name for administrative and political reasons."

2. The word "Vote!" below the candidate's picture is a clear indication of express advocacy, thus requiring a disclaimer.

93040951062

The advertisement expressly advocated the election of the candidate, and thus required a disclaimer. However, in its disclaimer, the Committee used a name which it favored "for administrative and political reasons" instead of the full and official name of the authorized political committee, as registered with the Commission at the time of the mailing. Ultimately, the name of the Committee was formally changed; however, the Act clearly requires such materials which are paid for by an authorized political committee of a candidate to "clearly state that the communication has been paid for by such authorized political committee." 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(1).

The Commission has stated that "the Act and regulations assume that the name of an authorized committee is to be used in ... any situation where 2 U.S.C. § 441d would require identification of the committee." Advisory Opinion 1980-84. There a committee had changed its name, but wished to use leftover stationery with the old committee name. The Commission determined that such would be permitted as long as any communication requiring a Section 441d disclaimer "include[d] a statement of sponsorship that gives the full official name of the Committee." Id.; see also, Common Cause v. FEC, 842 F.2d 436, 443 n.18 (D.C. Cir. 1988).

The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit has accepted the Commission's assessment that committees must use their full and official name, holding that they would be "hard-pressed to label the Commission's determination an unreasonable one." Id. at 443. The court agreed with the Commission's argument that such a requirement is necessary to "ensure ease of access to the disclosure reports of the committee." Id.

Further, the Respondents' contention that "no confusion" resulted from the use of the different name makes no difference in the analysis. Judge Holloway Johnson previously rejected the argument that alternative information can give adequate notice. FEC v. National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC"), No. 85-2898 (D.D.C. April 29, 1987) (slip opinion) (repeated references to NCPAC appearing throughout the materials were not adequate to satisfy the Section 441d disclaimer requirements). In that case, the Judge stated that "the Act and regulations do not provide for disclaimers by inference." Id. at 8.

Thus, the Act requires that a committee use the full and official name of the committee, as registered with the Commission, in disclaimers, rather than some alias or "moniker." In this instance, the Respondents did not use the full and official name of the Committee in the disclaimer, as is required by the Act.³

The Committee, arguing that use of an alternate name is allowed, analogizes its use of an alternate name to the situation in MUR 1399, the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC"). In MUR 1399, the Commission allowed NCPAC to use alternate project names in its advertising. Nevertheless, NCPAC advertisements contained disclaimers which identified the alternate "project name" as a project of NCPAC, and clearly identified NCPAC, in its full and official name, as the committee paying for the advertisement. Thus, while the use of an alternate or project name has been accepted in some instances, such use does not forego the requirement of a disclaimer which clearly states who paid for and authorized the communication.

Therefore, there is reason to believe that the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

B. Alleged Reporting Violation by the Committee

Another allegation in MUR 3370 alleges that the Committee violated 11 C.F.R. § 104.8 by not providing complete information on itemized contributions listed in the Committee's 1990

3. In MUR 3438 the Committee argued that they had complied with the same provision of the Act in regards to a different communication, because the disclaimer read the "Committee to Re-Elect Congressman Studds," even though the checks were to be made to the "Studds for Congress Committee." Unlike the situation in MUR 3438, here the disclaimer itself carries a name other than the Committee's registered name.

Post-General Report. See also, 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). The Complainant states that one-third of the itemized donors were listed without occupation or employer information. The Complainant alleges that "best efforts may not have been made to obtain the required information."

The Act requires that committees report to the Commission the identification of all contributors who contribute an aggregate amount in excess of $200 within the calendar year. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A); 11 C.F.R. § 104.8. The identification information required includes: name, mailing address, occupation, employer, and date and amount of the contribution. 2 U.S.C. § 431(13). The Regulations state that the committee shall be considered in compliance if the treasurer can show that best efforts were made to obtain, maintain and submit such information. 11 C.F.R. § 104.7(a). The Regulations further state that "[t]he treasurer will not be deemed to have exercised best efforts to obtain the required information unless he or she has made at least one effort per solicitation...." 11 C.F.R. § 104.7(b).

The Committee's response denies such allegations. The Committee stated that best efforts were made to obtain the missing information regarding occupation and employer. The Committee provided evidence of such efforts with a sample copy of letters sent to contributors requesting the information. The Committee further stated that it has "made a practice, well beyond the requirements of the [Act], of attaching copies of the letters to contributors on its FEC reports."

Indeed, the 1990 Post-General Report filed by the Committee has nine such letters attached. However, the occupation and employer information was missing from a total of 26 contributors for that report. Reports Analysis Division confirmed that the supporting material for the other 17 contributors was requested, but the Committee did not respond to the request. Thus, it appears that best efforts may not have been made to obtain the missing information for all contributors.

Therefore, there is reason to believe that the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A).

RE: MUR 3439

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

On August 20, 1991, the Federal Election Commission notified the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee ("Committee") and you of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint was forwarded at that time.

Upon further review of the allegations contained in the complaint, and information supplied by the Committee, the Commission, on April 21, 1992, found that there is reason to believe the Committee and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d, a provision of the Act. The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer. You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Please submit such materials to the General Counsel's Office, along with answers to the enclosed questions, within 30 days of receipt of this letter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information demonstrating that no further action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation.

If you are interested in pursuing pre-probable cause conciliation, you should so request in writing. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d). Upon receipt of the request, the Office of the General Counsel will make recommendations to the Commission either proposing an agreement in settlement of the matter or recommending declining that pre-probable cause conciliation be pursued. The Office of the General Counsel may recommend that pre-probable cause conciliation not be entered into at this time so that it may complete its investigation of the matter. Further, the Commission will not entertain requests for pre-probable cause conciliation after briefs on probable cause have been mailed to the respondent.

Requests for extensions of time will not be routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing at least five days prior to the due date of the response and specific good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.

Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer

In furtherance of its investigation in the above-captioned matter, the Federal Election Commission hereby requests that you submit answers in writing and under oath to the questions set forth below within 30 days of your receipt of this request.

INSTRUCTIONS

In answering these interrogatories, provide documents and other information, however obtained, including hearsay, in your possession, known by or otherwise available to you, including documents and information appearing in your records.

Each answer is to be given separately and independently, and unless specifically stated in the particular discovery request, no answer shall be given solely by reference either to another answer or to an exhibit attached to your response.

The response to each interrogatory propounded herein shall set forth separately the identification of each person capable of furnishing testimony concerning the response given, denoting separately those individuals who provided informational, documentary or other input, and those who assisted in drafting the interrogatory response.

If you cannot answer the following interrogatories in full after exercising due diligence to secure the full information to do so, answer to the extent possible and indicate your inability to answer the remainder, stating whatever information or knowledge you have concerning the unanswered portion and detailing what you did in attempting to secure the unknown information.

Should you claim a privilege with respect to any documents, communications, or other items about which information is requested by any of the following interrogatories, describe such items in sufficient detail to provide justification for the claim. Each claim of privilege must specify in detail all the grounds on which it rests.

The following interrogatories are continuing in nature so as to require you to file supplementary responses or amendments during the course of this investigation if you obtain further or different information prior to or during the pendency of this matter. Include in any supplemental answers the date upon which and the manner in which such further or different information came to your attention.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

RESPONDENTS: Massachusetts Democratic State Committee - Federal Funds Account, and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer

MUR: 3439

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

MUR 3370 was generated by a complaint filed with the Commission on August 15, 1991, by the Massachusetts Republican Party (the "Complainant") against Change 90 ("Change 90"), which this Office later learned was a project name used by the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee - Federal Funds Account and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer ("MDSC") and another Respondent.

MUR 3439 was generated by a complaint filed with the Commission on October 30, 1991, by Jon L. Bryan against the same Respondents. Both MURs contain similar allegations stemming from the same set of circumstances; therefore, MUR 3370 was merged with 3439.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

Allegations in MUR 3370 concern a mailing made by the MDSC on behalf of Congressman Studts. This mailing is also the subject of the complaint in MUR 3439. Both Complainants allege that the use of the name "Change 90" may be a violation of the Act.

The Act requires a disclaimer on all communications which solicit contributions or expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate. 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a).

The information contained in the disclaimer depends on who pays for and authorizes the publication. When such materials are paid for by someone other than the authorized committee but are authorized by the candidate or the candidate's committee, the Act requires that the disclaimer "clearly state that the communication is paid for by such other persons and authorized by such authorized political committee." 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(2).

In Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976), the Supreme Court concluded that the only expenditures covered by the Act's reporting provisions are those that "expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate."¹ Id. at 80. The Court stated that the provision must be restricted "to communications containing express words of advocacy of election or defeat, such as 'vote for,' 'support,' 'cast your ballot for,' 'Smith for Congress,' 'vote against,' 'defeat,' 'reject.'" Id. at 44, n.52. The purpose of the standard set by the Court was to protect free speech by limiting the coverage of the disclaimer provision "precisely to that spending that is unambiguously related to the campaign of a particular candidate." Id. at 80. This standard was incorporated into the "express advocacy" language of 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

1. The Court's reasoning in Buckley related to the meaning of "for the purpose of...influencing" an election, language contained in the reporting requirements provision of the Act. From this language the Court devised the "expressly advocating" language and standard, which also appear in the disclaimer provision of the Act today. However, the requirement for a disclaimer on communications which solicit contributions stands separately from the requirement for a disclaimer on communications under the "express advocacy" test.

Subsequently, in finding express advocacy in FEC v. Massachusetts Citizens for Life, Inc. 479 U.S. 238 (1986), the Supreme Court declined to strictly adhere to only those words and phrases in Buckley which it had determined would constitute "express advocacy." The Court stated that "the fact that [the communication's] message is marginally less direct than 'Vote for Smith' does not change its essential nature." Id. at 249.

Further analysis of the "express advocacy" standard was made in FEC v. Furgatch, 807 F.2d 857 (9th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 850 (1987). The court stated that to be "express advocacy" under the Act, speech must, "when read as a whole and with limited reference to external events, be susceptible of no other reasonable interpretation but an exhortation to vote for or against a specific candidate." Id. at 864. Speech cannot be express advocacy if "reasonable minds could differ as to whether it encourages a vote for or against a candidate or encourages the reader to take some other kind of action." Id.

Within this context, the court stated that speech is "express advocacy" if three criteria are met. First, a political communication's message is "express" if it is unmistakable and unambiguous, suggestive of only one plausible meaning. Second, its message is "advocacy" if it presents a clear plea for action, and thus is not purely informative. Third, the message is "express advocacy" if it is clear what action is advocated. Id.

The Change 90 mailing was made as a coordinated expenditure by MDSC just prior to the 1990 General Election. The mailings mention both candidates for office. Further, the mailings, which were targeted toward senior citizen voters, indicate that senior citizens should vote for Congressman Studds because "[s]enior citizens have few better friends in Congress than Massachusetts Congressman Gerry Studds," even though "Jon Bryan says seniors need a new Congressman." Thus, the mailing expressly advocated the re-election of Congressman Studds, thereby requiring a disclaimer meeting the requirements of the Act.

The disclaimer on the mailing states that the mailing was "[p]aid for and authorized by Change 90." The disclaimer does not state whether the Studds Committee authorized the communication, as is required by the Act. Nor does the disclaimer state that MDSC actually paid for the communication. The disclaimer does not mention MDSC. Although the Commission has allowed use of a project name in campaign materials, it has done so where the disclaimer clearly states that the committee paid for and authorized the communication, apart from the use of the project name. See MUR 1399.²

2. In MUR 1399, the National Conservative Political Action Committee used various project names, but in each instance the disclaimer clearly identified NCPAC, in its full and official name, as the committee paying for the advertisement. The disclaimers read, for example, "Paid for by Anyone But Culver Committee, a project of the National Conservative Political Action Committee, and not authorized by any candidate." The Commission allowed the use of project names on communications, but also looked to whether such communications contained a proper disclaimer.

The Commission has stated that "the Act and [R]egulations assume that the name of an authorized committee is to be used in ... any situation where 2 U.S.C. § 441d would require identification of the committee." Advisory Opinion 1980-84. There a committee had changed its name, but wished to use leftover stationery with the old committee name. The Commission determined that such would be permitted as long as any communication requiring a Section 441d disclaimer "include[d] a statement of sponsorship that gives the full official name of the Committee." Id.; see also, Common Cause v. FEC, 842 F.2d 436, 443 n.18 (D.C. Cir. 1988).

Further, the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit has accepted the Commission's assessment that committees must use their full and official name, holding that they would be "hard-pressed to label the Commission's determination an unreasonable one." Id. at 443. The court agreed with the Commission's argument that such a requirement is necessary to "ensure ease of access to the disclosure reports of the committee." Id.

In this instance, by stating only the project name in the disclaimer, and not the name registered with the Commission, someone wishing to gain information regarding disbursements for the mailing could not find such information because no Commission files exist for "Change 90." Further, the reports filed by MDSC do not clearly identify any disbursements specifically related to the Change 90 project.

MDSC also argues that, although "Change 90 was printed in error, the United Postal Service properly granted an exception to their rules [requiring MDSC to use its name for bulk mailings] because the mailings were in fact properly authorized mailings of the Massachusetts Democratic Party." The actions by the Postal Service do not, however, absolve MDSC of the necessity of meeting the disclaimer requirements of the Act. Cf., Galliano v. U.S. Postal Service, 836 F.2d 1362 (D.C. 1988).

The disclaimer on the Change 90 mailing did not meet the requirements of the Act because it did not clearly identify who paid for the communication, nor did it contain language stating whether the communication was authorized by the Studts Committee. Therefore, there is reason to believe that the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

Re: MUR 3439

Dear Ms. Mott:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation, I am requesting an extension of time on behalf of the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, to respond to the Commission's notification, dated April 30, 1992, regarding MUR 3439. I have just returned from a three month leave of absence. Therefore, I request an extension until May 22 in order to have an adequate opportunity to prepare a response.

Very truly yours,

B. Holly Schadler

Re: MUR 3439

Dear Ms. Mott:

This letter constitutes the response of the Studds for Congress Committee (the "Committee") and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer^{1/} ("Respondents"), to your letter dated April 30, 1992 informing Respondents that the Commission found reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441d and 434(b)(3)(A).

A. Committee Mailing

The Commission found reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d by using the name "Studds for Congress Committee" in a disclaimer rather than "Committee to Re-Elect Congressman Studds", the precise name under which the Committee was then registered. Section 441d(a)(1) requires that a committee "clearly state" when a communication is paid for by an authorized political committee. The General Counsel's Factual and Legal Analysis states that this section of the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended ("FECA"), requires a committee to use the full and official name of the committee, as registered with the Commission. In support of this position, the General Counsel cites three authorities, each of which are clearly distinguishable from the circumstances presented here and do not support a finding that a disclaimer using a name which slightly deviates from a committee's registered name constitutes a violation of the FECA.

^{1/} As reported on the Committee's amended Statement of Organization filed on April 14, 1992, Margaret D. Xifaras has replaced Edwin M. Martin as treasurer of the Committee.

In FEC v. National Conservative Political Action Committee, the court held that references to the sponsor throughout a communication did not satisfy the Section 441d disclaimer requirement. No. 85-2898 (D.D.C. April 29, 1987 (slip opinion)). Unlike the committee's communication, where the disclaimer was clearly evident throughout the mailing, the sponsor in this case failed to include any disclaimer.

The holdings in the other two cases turn on the presence of the candidate's name in authorized committee communications. But here, Congressman Studds' name appeared conspicuously in the disclaimer. Therefore, there could be no confusion that his authorized committee sponsored the mailing.

In Advisory Opinion 1980-84, the Commission ruled that a Congressional candidate was not permitted to use stationery with the former name of his committee for any purpose requiring a disclaimer under Section 441d unless the current name was also printed on the page. The former name of the Committee, Congressional Club of the Permian Basin, did not include the name of the candidate, as required for all authorized committees. Therefore, the potential for confusion existed for recipients of the communication because they might not be aware that the committee was organized to support a particular candidate. Here, Congressman Studds' name was clearly present in the disclaimer, so no confusion could have resulted.

In Common Cause v. FEC, the issue presented was whether a candidate's name may appear in the name of a fundraising project conducted by an unauthorized committee. 842 F.2d 436 (D.C. Cir. 1988). The court held that the Commission's ruling that an independent committee may use a candidate's name in the name of a fundraising project, so long as the independent committee's name appears in the disclaimer, was not unreasonable. 436 F.2d 436 (D.C.C. 1988). The court did not hold that a disclaimer must state the name of a committee precisely as it appears in the Statement of Organization.

Tonda M. Mott, Esq.

The court reiterated that the purpose of the Section 441d disclaimer is both to put readers and prospective contributors on notice about what committee sponsored the communication and to ensure easy access to the disclosure reports of that committee. See Common Cause, 842 F.2d 436, 442-443; See also 125 Cong. Rec. 37,197 (1979) (Statement of Rep. Thompson) ("The Commission should interpret the new disclaimer requirements in a reasonable manner.").

By using a slightly different name in its disclaimer, the Committee did not in any way undermine the purposes of the disclaimer requirement or cause any potential confusion among recipients. Readers were clearly on notice that the communication was from an authorized committee, organized as the principal campaign committee of Congressman Gerry Studds; and, if a reader were interested, he or she could have readily retrieved a copy of the Committee's reports.

B. Alleged Reporting Violation

The Commission also found reason to believe that the Committee did not provide complete information of 26 itemized contributions listed in the 1990 Post-General Report. In every instance the Committee requested this information in a timely manner if it was not made available upon receipt of the contribution. The Committee's prior response described the Committee's "best efforts" to retrieve the necessary occupation and employer information. Moreover, the Committee responded to the Reports Analysis Division's request for additional information by submitting an amended report dated February 9, 1991 (Attachment A).

The Committee sent letters to every one of the 26 contributors requesting this information. (Attachment B). While there is no requirement to do so, the Committee has made a practice of attaching to its FEC report copies of a letter requesting this information from contributors. The Committee amended its report to reflect all information received from this correspondence to contributors. Moreover, a letter dated

Tonda M. Mott, Esq.

February 9, 1991 attached to the amended report, and signed by the Assistant Treasurer, explained the Committee's procedures. This letter listed all of the individuals who were sent the request and had not yet responded. (Attachment A). The Committee has established procedures that go beyond the "best efforts" requirements under the statute and regulations.

Therefore, we request that the Commission find no probable cause to believe that Respondents violated the Act and take no further action in this Matter. If you have any questions, please call me at (202) 434-1634.

Very truly yours,

B. Holly Schadler

Dear :

Thank you very much for your generous contribution to the Studds for Congress Committee. As you may know, federal law requires that each Federal Report submitted by a candidate include the occupation and employer of anyone who contributes over $200.00 in a calendar year. For this reason, I would appreciate it if you would send me this information.

Thank you again for your interest and support.

Sincerely,

Re: MUR 3439

Dear Mr. Thomas:

I received your letter dated April 30, 1992 on May 6, 1992. I am the Legal Counsel not the Treasurer for the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee (the "Committee"). The Treasurer currently is Ronald M. Shaich. The Treasurer at the time of the subject of the above-captioned matter was Barry Y. Weiner. On behalf of the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee, I hereby request pre-probable cause conciliation.

The Committee believes that it can demonstrate that it acted in good faith in reliance upon advice of the Commission with respect to the matters in question. The Committee's reliance on the advice of a representative of the Commission that use of a properly-filed "doing business as" name was sufficient disclosure as documented by the enclosed contemporaneous report from the Boston Globe. Please note that the disclaimer in question was not merely a project name, but rather a statutorily-authorized d/b/a.

While the Committee is now aware that the disclaimer should have indicated whether or not the mailing was authorized by the Studds Committee, neither the regulation nor the advice from a representative of the Commission made the Committee aware of such a requirement at the time of the mailing. The Committee believes that this matter can be resolved by pre-probable cause conciliation. The Committee further states that in light of the clarification it has now received, there will be no repetition of the alleged behavior.

Claim of campaign violation falls short

By Brian McGrory
GLOBE STAFF

Republican congressional candidate Jon Bryan called a news conference yesterday to announce a "gotcha dead cold" campaign violation committed by Rep. Gerry Studds (D-Mass.). He accused Studds of collaborating with an independent non-profit group that mailed brochures for Studds throughout the district.

But the accusation turned hollow when it was discovered the group in question was actually the Democratic State Committee, operating under the campaign name of Change '90.

"It is part of the coordinated campaign effort, helping out the whole ticket," said Maureen Garda, the committee's executive director.

Bryan maintained that the Change '90 committee still had to register with the Federal Elections Commission. But a commission spokesman said yesterday that party committees routinely use different names and that separate registrations are not necessary.

The only apparent violation is that Studds used his congressional staff and office to receive facsimiles of the campaign brochure's text. Those facsimiles were mistakenly transmitted to a Republican congressman's office on Oct. 18, and then given to Bryan.

"It should not have been sent there," said Steve Schwadron, a Studds aide. "But this is a fairly appropriate conclusion to the kind of campaign Bryan has run."

RE: MUR 3439

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In response to your interrogatories on page 5 included in the letter dated April 30, 1992, we have compiled the following information:

INTERROGATORIES:

1. State the total number of mailings of the communication at issue.

Each of two communications was mailed once.

2. State the dates of each mailing of the communication at issue.

The two communications were mailed out simultaneously during the period of 10/31/90 though 11/03/90. (See attached document C; transactions #90304174534, #90305115353, #90305141058, #90305205830, #90305210121, #90307105832, #90307115651, #90307154207.)

3. State the total number of pieces mailed per each mailing of the communication at issue.

267,934 were mailed in total for the two communications (document C).

4. State the total amount spent for each mailing of the communication at issue.

Document A cost $15,976.24 (see attached document D) for all production including art and design, copy fee, printing, binding, and mailshop. Postage was not included.

Document B cost $9,971.26 (see attached document E) for all production including art and design, copy fee, printing, binding, and mailshop. Postage was not included.

The postage to mail the total of both documents was: $16,052.50 (See attached document C).

5. State the names of all vendors involved in the communication at issue.

Only one vendor was hired by the Democratic State Committee for these communications: The November Group, Inc. 1611 Connecticut Avenue, N.W. Washington D.C. 20009. The Massachusetts Democratic Party hired The November Group to create both flyers. Their bills are noted as documents D & E. Copies of our payments are included as documents F & G.

The contact at the November Group is Amy Simon.

WE NEED GERRY STUDDS

In the battle to save our environment, few Members of Congress are doing more than your Representative, Gerry Studds.

Studds' environmental victories include tougher oil spill legislation, new laws to crack down on ocean pollution and leadership in the battle for clean air.

Here is what a few environmental leaders have to say about why America and the world need Gerry Studds in Congress . . .

"No Member of Congress rates higher than Massachusetts' Gerry Studds. His voting record is 100%. His accomplishments are extraordinary. In the battle to protect our earth, we need Gerry Studds."

Jim Maddy
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
LEAGUE OF CONSERVATION VOTERS

"Gerry Studds has, for years, earned an international reputation as one of the most knowledgeable, committed and influential environmental leaders in Congress. On every question of importance to the national environmental community, Gerry Studds is a champion."

THE SIERRA CLUB

"Thanks to your diligence, Congress has passed a strong oil spill liability and compensation package. We applaud your efforts in developing this critical legislation."

Peter A. A. Berle,
PRESIDENT
NATIONAL AUDUBON SOCIETY

"On behalf of Greenpeace, I would like to thank you for your efforts to pass the Ocean Dumping Act, the... Endangered Species Act, the Plastic Pollution Control Act and the reauthorization of the Marine Mammal Protection Act. The list of things accomplished would have been much shorter without your commitment."

Gerald B. Leape
LEGISLATIVE DIRECTOR
GREENPEACE

"His efforts to stop ocean pollution and protect wildlife place him among the most important environmental leaders in America."

Syd Butler
VICE-PRESIDENT
WILDERNESS SOCIETY

Greenpeace, Wilderness Society and National Audubon Society do not endorse candidates. Statements attributed are made by individuals. These organizations are listed for identification purposes only.

Jon Bryan says seniors need a new Congressman.

Seven Million Senior Citizens Say "We Need Gerry Studds!"

In the race for Congress, we've listened to a lot of wild charges.

According to Jon Bryan, Congressman Gerry Studds doesn't want to help senior citizens and criticizes "Studds' lack of interest in our retirement security."

But the National Committee To Preserve Social Security And Medicare and the National Council of Senior Citizens know better.

That's why these two organizations, representing almost seven million senior citizens, are enthusiastically supporting Gerry Studds.

Studds is more than a supporter of seniors' issues. He is a fighter. Just a few of his battles include:

* Protecting Social Security: Studds co-sponsored legislation to protect the Social Security Trust Fund by moving it off-budget and out of Congressional budget politics.

* Expanding Medicare Benefits: Studds co-sponsored a law to expand Medicare benefits to cover preventive services such as mammograms.

* Protecting Retirement Income: Studds co-sponsored a law to crack down on "pension skimming" by corporations -- a practice which reduces retirement income for workers.

* Limiting Medicare Premiums: Studds co-sponsored a law to limit Medicare Part B premiums.

* Long Term Care: Studds has been a leader in the battle to expand Medicare to cover long-term home and nursing home care.

* National Health Insurance: Gerry Studds is a leading advocate of national health insurance for all Americans.

* Fair Share: Studds voted against budget plans which tried to place an unfair burden on senior citizens.

Massachusetts seniors have no stronger or more effective voice than our Congressman, Gerry Studds. On Tuesday, November 6th, let's support one Congressman who has stood by us. Let's support Gerry Studds.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

On April 21, 1992, the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") found reason to believe the Studds for Congress Committee and its treasurer¹ (the "Studds Committee" or "Committee") violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441d and 434(b)(3)(A) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). However, the Commission voted to take no further action regarding the violation of Section 441d. Further, the Commission found reason to believe the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, ("MDSC") violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d. Respondents were notified of the Commission's action by letters dated April 30, 1992. MDSC was also sent a set of Interrogatories.

Counsel for the Studds Committee requested and was granted an extension of time for a response. On May 26, 1992, this

1. As reported on the Committee's amended Statement of Organization filed on April 14, 1992, Margaret D. Xifaras has replaced Edwin M. Martin as treasurer of the Committee. See, Attachment 1, p. 1 (footnote).

93040951148

Office received the response of the Studds Committee.²

Attachment 1.

On May 29, 1992, this Office received a letter from counsel for MDSC requesting pre-probable cause conciliation.

Attachment 2. MDSC did not, however, submit Answers to Interrogatories; counsel stated that it was his understanding that the request for conciliation suspended the filing of the Answers. Shortly thereafter, staff contacted counsel and informed him that his "understanding" was erroneous, and that Answers were required before the Commission would consider pre-probable cause conciliation. Following additional prompting by staff, MDSC finally submitted Answers, which were received by this Office on July 17, 1992. Attachment 3.

II. ANALYSIS

A. The Studds Committee

The Commission found that the Studds Committee had violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A), by not providing complete information on itemized contributions listed in the Committee's 1990 Post-General Report. The Commission determined that best efforts may not have been made to obtain the required information.

2. The Committee's response also addressed the violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441d. Because the Commission had found reason to believe but took no further action on that violation, the Section 441d issue will not be addressed in this report.

The Committee's response included two attachments, which are not attached to this report; however, they are available in the Office of the General Counsel. Attachment A is a copy of the Committee's amended 1990 Post-General Report. Attachment B consists of letters sent by the Committee to contributors requesting the missing information.

In response to the Commission's finding, the Studds Committee claims that it "sent letters to every one of the 26 contributors [in question] requesting this information." Attachment 1, p. 3. The Committee argues that it "has established procedures that go beyond the 'best efforts' requirements under the statute and regulations" by attaching to its reports filed with the Commission copies of letters requesting missing information or listing individuals to whom letters had been sent. Id., p. 3-4.

The Act requires that committees report to the Commission the identification of all contributors who contribute an aggregate amount in excess of $200 within the calendar year. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). The identification information required includes: name, mailing address, employer, occupation, and date and amount of the contribution. 2 U.S.C. § 431(13). The Regulations state that the committee shall be considered in compliance if the treasurer can show that best efforts were made to obtain, maintain and submit such information. 11 C.F.R. § 104.7(a). The Regulations further state that "[t]he treasurer will not be deemed to have exercised best efforts to obtain the required information unless he or she has made at least one effort per solicitation...." 11 C.F.R. § 104.7(b).

In the original report filed by the Committee, copies of nine letters to the following individuals, requesting the additional information, were attached to the report: Silberman, Pepper, Klose, Harmsworth, R. Genovese, Eskin, Coors, Eichler, and Johnston.

In an amendment to the report (filed on February 9, 1991, before this MUR arose), the Committee attached a blank, sample copy of the request for information letter, and named the following additional individuals to whom the letter was sent: Hall, Lowe, Oliver, G. Shulman, P. Shulman, Swartz, Weiss, Carlen, and Abrams. The Committee did not attach copies of those letters to the amended report at the time it was filed. However, the Committee provided copies of such letters to all individuals except Abrams, with their response to the Commission's finding. The Committee did not provide a copy of any letter to this individual.

The Committee's response also included copies of letters which it maintains were sent to the individuals in November of 1990. The Committee's previous reports neither included copies of such letters nor listed the individuals as having been sent such letters. Those individuals are: Hillhouse, Ingrande, Scoville, Tunney, and VanRiper.

Finally, the Committee has not addressed any attempt to acquire the missing information from three individuals, either in its reports or in its responses to this MUR. These individuals are: Avila, Basile, and I. Genovese. Thus, the three undocumented inquiries to Avila, Basile, and I. Genovese remain as violations of the best efforts regulation.

The Act does not require that the Committee file with its reports the copies of inquiry letters. However, if requested, the Committee does have the burden to show that best efforts were made (11 C.F.R. § 104.7(a)), by showing that "at least one effort per solicitation" was made. 11 C.F.R. § 104.7(b). The Committee has not met this burden.

Further, 2 U.S.C. § 432(i) requires that a treasurer make best efforts to "obtain, maintain, and submit" the required information (emphasis added). In MUR 2674, the Commission found reason to believe that a violation had occurred when a committee obtained and maintained missing information for 96 contributors but failed to amend its reports accordingly. While the Studds Committee sent letters to contributors requesting the unknown information, it appears that the Committee never submitted any information which it may have received by amending its reports. It is not known whether the Committee obtained such information.

Nevertheless, in light of the Commission's decision to take no further action on the other violation by the Committee, this Office believes that the remaining violation is not sufficient enough to pursue. However, this Office also believes that it is appropriate to send an admonishment letter to the Committee clarifying that best efforts must be made to obtain missing information for each and every contribution, and that information obtained from such efforts must be reported to the Commission.

Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission take no further action against the Studds for Congress Committee and Margaret D. Xifaras, as treasurer, in regards to the violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A), and close the file as it pertains to this Respondent.

B. Massachusetts Democratic State Committee

The Commission found that MDSC had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d, by not disclosing statutorily required information in the disclaimer of a coordinated expenditure. The disclaimer which appeared on the advertisement stated only the name "Change 90," and had not disclosed whether the advertisement had been authorized by the candidate or the candidate's committee.

MDSC stated in its earlier response that the Change 90 name was "printed in error." See, First General Counsel's Report, dated April 7, 1992, Attachment 3, p. 1. However, MDSC also argued at that time, and continues to maintain, that Change 90 "was not merely a project name, but rather a statutorily authorized d/b/a." Attachment 2, p. 1. In response to the Commission's finding, MDSC asserts that "it acted in good faith in reliance upon advice of the Commission with respect to the matters in question." Attachment 2, p. 1. MDSC claims that a representative of the Commission, whom they did not identify, advised them that "use of a properly-filed 'doing business as' name ("d/b/a") was sufficient disclosure." Id. As support for this position MDSC's response included a copy of a Boston Globe article concerning this matter which reported that "a commission spokesman said [] that party committees routinely use different names and that separate registrations are not necessary." Id., p. 3.

MDSC's response acknowledges that the disclaimer omitted the information regarding whether the candidate or his committee had authorized the mailing. However, MDSC argues that "neither the regulation nor the advice from a representative of the Commission made the Committee [MDSC] aware of such a requirement at the time of the mailing." Id., p. 1.

MDSC's Answers to the Interrogatories include a copy of the mailing sent by the Complainant in this matter (the "senior citizens mailing"),³ and a copy of an additional mailing (the "environmental mailing"), which MDSC produced and distributed for the benefit of Gerry Studds. Attachment 3, pp. 3-5. The environmental mailing discussed Rep. Studds' involvement in various environmental legislation. "Change 90" and an address appear on the first page. Across the top of pages two and three, large letters read "We need Gerry Studds." The remainder of the mailing quotes praise of Rep. Studds by various individuals, and briefly discusses the "five environmental victories we couldn't have won ... without Gerry Studds." The mailing does not state either who paid for the mailing or whether the Studds Committee authorized the mailing.

MDSC states that both mailings were mailed out at the same time, during the period between October 31, through November 3,

3. The Complainant's copy of the advertisement consisted of only two pages. See, First General Counsel's Report, dated April 7, 1992, Attachment 8. The copy of the advertisement sent to this Office by MDSC in response to Interrogatories shows that the advertisement actually consisted of four pages. Attachment 3, pp. 6-9. Based on the copy received in the complaint, the Commission engaged in considerable debate as to whether the advertisement constituted express advocacy, thus requiring a disclaimer. It should be noted that the four-page copy provided by MDSC clearly establishes that the advertisement constituted express advocacy. On a page which was not originally submitted to the Commission, the text reads: "On Tuesday, November 6th, let's support one Congressman who has stood by us. Let's support Gerry Studds." Attachment 3, p. 7.

1990, and that distribution consisted of a total of 267,934 pieces for both mailings. MDSC also states that it spent a total of $42,000 on both mailings. This figure was arrived at as follows:

$ 9,971.26	(production cost of senior citizens mailing)
15,976.24	(production cost of environmental mailing)
16,052.50	(postage cost for both mailings)
$42,000.00	TOTAL

The Act requires a disclaimer on all materials which solicit contributions or expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate. 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a). The information contained in the disclaimer depends on who pays for and authorizes the publication. When such materials are paid for by someone other than the authorized committee but are authorized by the candidate or the candidate's committee, the Act requires that the disclaimer "clearly state that the communication is paid for by such other persons and authorized by such authorized political committee." 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(2).

The existence of a proper d/b/a certificate is irrelevant to this issue. First, such a certificate is a creature of the laws of the state, and does not serve to notify this agency of an alternate name of the committee. Second, such a certificate in no way substitutes for the requirements for a disclaimer. MDSC's use of the Boston Globe article in support of its argument is not persuasive. The article states that "party committees routinely use different names and that separate registrations are not necessary."⁴ Attachment 2, p. 3.

Nevertheless, a clear disclaimer is still required by the Act.

9 3 0 4 0 9 5 1 1 5 6
Although the Commission has allowed use of a project name in campaign materials, it has done so where the disclaimer clearly states that the committee paid for and authorized the communication, apart from the use of the project name. In MUR 1399, the National Conservative Political Action Committee ("NCPAC") used various project names, but in each instance the disclaimer clearly identified NCPAC, in its full and official name, as the committee paying for the advertisement. The disclaimers read, for example, "Paid for by Anyone But Culver Committee, a project of the National Conservative Political Action Committee, and not authorized by any candidate." The Commission allowed the use of project names, but also looked to whether such communications contained a proper disclaimer.

Finally, MDSC argues that it was unaware of the requirement that the disclaimer state whether the mailing was authorized by the Studts Committee. MDSC states that "neither the regulation nor the advice from a representative of the Commission made the Committee [MDSC] aware of such a requirement at the time of the mailing." Id., p. 1. Contrary to MDSC's argument, both the Act and the regulations clearly state that such language must be included in a disclaimer. 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a); 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(a)(1).

4. This statement was reported as having been made by "a commission spokesman"; the spokesman was not identified.

Both mailings were produced and distributed by MDSC as a coordinated party expenditure made for the benefit of Rep. Studds.⁵ MDSC failed to include proper disclaimers on both mailings. No disclaimer appeared on the environmental mailing. The disclaimer which appeared on the senior citizens mailing was inadequate because it did not state what committee actually paid for the mailing or whether it was authorized by the Studds Committee. See, General Counsel's Report, dated April 7, 1992.

III. DISCUSSION OF CONCILIATION PROVISIONS AND CIVIL PENALTY

MDSC has requested preprobable cause conciliation. Attachment 2. This Office recommends that the Commission enter into conciliation with the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, at this time.

5. MDSC's 1990 reports filed with the Commission show a total of $42,447 in coordinated party expenditures for Gerry Studds. These reported expenditures show payments made to The November Group and for postage. MDSC stated in its Answer to Interrogatories that The November Group was the only vendor hired by MDSC for the two Studds mailings.

RE: MUR 3439

Dear Ms. Schadler:

On April 30, 1992, you were notified that the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe that your client, the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441d and 434(b)(3)(A). Additionally, you were notified that the Commission determined to take no further action regarding the violation of Section 441d.

After considering the circumstances of the matter, the Commission determined on September 15, 1992, to take no further action against your client regarding the violation of Section 434(b)(3)(A), and closed the file as it pertains to your client. The file will be made public within 30 days after this matter has been closed with respect to all other respondents involved.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A) remain in effect until the entire matter is closed. The Commission will notify you when the entire file has been closed. In the event you wish to waive confidentiality under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12)(A), written notice of the waiver must be submitted to the Commission. Receipt of the waiver will be acknowledged in writing by the Commission.

The Commission reminds you that best efforts must be made to obtain missing information for each and every contribution, and that information obtained from such efforts must be reported to the Commission. Failure to do so constitutes a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). Your client should take immediate steps to insure that such activity does not occur in the future.

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

On April 27, 1992, the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe that your client, the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d. At your request, on September 15, 1992, the Commission determined to enter into negotiations directed towards reaching a conciliation agreement in settlement of this matter prior to a finding of probable cause to believe.

Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that the Commission has approved in settlement of this matter. If your client agrees with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please sign and return it, along with the civil penalty, to the Commission. In light of the fact that conciliation negotiations, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, are limited to a maximum of 30 days, you should respond to this notification as soon as possible.

If you have any questions or suggestions for changes in the agreement, or if you wish to arrange a meeting in connection with a mutually satisfactory conciliation agreement, please contact me at (202) 219-3400.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

Attached is a conciliation agreement which has been signed by James Roosevelt, Jr., counsel for the Respondents. A check for the $6,500 civil penalty has also been received.

II. ANALYSIS

On April 21, 1992, the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and its treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d. On September 15, 1992, the Commission entered into pre-probable cause conciliation in this matter. The attached, signed conciliation agreement contains no changes from the terms accepted by the Commission on May 18, 1993, following extended negotiations.

Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission accept the attached, signed agreement with the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Alan D. Solomont, as treasurer. This Office further recommends that the Commission close the file on this matter.

93040951169

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Accept the attached conciliation agreement with the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Alan D. Solomont, as treasurer.
2. Close the file.
3. Approve the appropriate letter.

Dear Mr. Lombardi:

This is in reference to the complaint you filed with the Federal Election Commission on October 22, 1991, concerning the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Alan D. Solomont, as treasurer (referred to in the complaint as "Change 90"); the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, Jr., as treasurer; and the Honorable Gerry E. Studds.

On April 21, 1992, the Commission found that there was no reason to believe that Congressman Gerry E. Studds violated any provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

On April 21, 1992, the Commission found that there was reason to believe that the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d, but took no further action. On the same day, the Commission also found that there was reason to believe that the Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A), and conducted an investigation in this matter. On September 15, 1992, the Commission took no further action regarding the violation of Section 434.

The Act allows a Complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's actions as to the above Respondents. See, 2 U.S.C. § 437a(a)(8). Copies of the General Counsel's Reports regarding these actions are enclosed for your information.

RE: MUR 3439

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

On June 22, 1993, the Federal Election Commission accepted the signed conciliation agreement and civil penalty submitted on your client's behalf in settlement of a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441d, a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. Accordingly, the file has been closed in this matter.

The confidentiality provisions at 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. If you wish to submit any factual or legal materials to appear on the public record, please do so as soon as possible. While the file may be placed on the public record before receiving your additional materials, any permissible submissions will be added to the public record upon receipt.

Please be advised that information derived in connection with any conciliation attempt will not become public without the written consent of the respondent and the Commission. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B). The enclosed conciliation agreement, however, will become a part of the public record.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (202) 219-3400.

Sincerely,

Tonda M. Mott
Attorney

Conciliation Agreement

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of)
)	MUR 3439
Massachusetts Democratic State) Committee and Ronald M. Shaich,) as treasurer)

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter was initiated by a signed, sworn, and notarized complaint by Jon L. Bryan. The Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe that the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee and Ronald M. Shaich, as treasurer, ("Respondent") violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Respondent, having participated in informal methods of conciliation, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondent and the subject matter of this proceeding, and this agreement has the effect of an agreement entered pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i).

II. Respondent has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. Respondent enters voluntarily into this agreement with the Commission.

IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:

93040951178

1. The Massachusetts State Democratic Committee is a political committee within the meaning of 2 U.S.C. § 431(4).

2. Ronald M. Shaich is the treasurer of the Massachusetts State Democratic Committee.

3. Respondent produced and distributed, as a coordinated party expenditure, two mailings for the benefit of the Studds for Congress Committee. These two communications were mailed during the period from October 31, 1990 through November 3, 1990.

4. Respondents spent a total of $42,000 for the production and distribution of the two mailings (267,934 pieces).

5. Each mailing stated that it was "Paid for and authorized by Change '90." Nothing in the communication indicated that "Change '90" was a project name of the Respondent, that the communication was paid for by the Respondent, or whether it was authorized by the Studds for Congress Committee.

6. The Act requires a disclaimer on all materials which solicit contributions or expressly advocate the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate. 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a). When such materials are paid for by someone other than the authorized committee but are authorized by the candidate or the candidate's committee, the Act requires that the disclaimer "clearly state that the communication is paid for by such other persons and authorized by such authorized political committee." 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(2).

7. Respondent contends that it believed, at the time, that a "doing-business-as" filing with the State of Massachusetts was sufficient notice that Change 90 was an alternate name for the Massachusetts Democratic State Committee.

V. Respondent produced and distributed two mailings which did not contain disclaimers as required by the Act, and is therefore in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

VI. Respondent will pay a civil penalty to the Federal Election Commission in the amount of six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500), pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(A).

VII. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

VIII. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

IX. Respondent shall have no more than 30 days from the date this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirement contained in this agreement and to so notify the Commission.

X. This Conciliation Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on the matters raised herein, and no other statement, promise, or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party or by agents of either party, that is not contained in this written agreement shall be enforceable.

Re: MURs 3365, 3370, 3376, 3438, 3439 - Studds for Congress Committee and Edwin M. Martin, Jr., as Treasurer

Dear Mr. Noble:

Enclosed you will find the responses of the Studds for Congress Committee (the "Committee") and Edwin M. Martin, Jr., as Treasurer, to the four complaints most recently filed by Mr. Jon L. Bryan and the Massachusetts Republican Party.^{1/} Bryan was Congressman Studds' Republican opponent in 1988 and 1990. He has also announced his intention to run in 1992. These complaints represent only the most recent attempts by Bryan to harass the Studds Committee and further his own political ambitions, by appealing to the Commission and other federal agencies to investigate spurious allegations.

As a cornerstone of his campaigns, Bryan has repeatedly and redundantly raised issues in complaints filed with the Commission, only some of which relate to federal election laws. His allegations are based on wild speculation with no legal or factual support. In each instance, Bryan or the Republican Party have used the opportunity to hold a press conference -- in some cases scheduling multiple media appearances -- to announce the filing of another complaint.

^{1/} On July 26, 1991, Bryan filed a complaint alleging that the Committee placed two advertisements in the Cape Cod Times for which it never paid; he incorrectly concluded that the cost of the ads constituted an illegal in-kind corporate contribution. The Committee, in a letter dated August 12, 1991 and signed by Congressman Studds, responded to these allegations in MUR 3365.

See Exhibit 1. These groundless attacks constitute an abuse of the Commission's enforcement process, solely for purposes of his own political gain, and should not be condoned.

We request that the five MURs be consolidated for Commission consideration so that the pattern of harassment of these specious allegations is evident. Further, we request that the Commission dismiss these complaints with no further action.

Sincerely,

B. Holly Schadler
Counsel
Studds for Congress Committee
