MUR 3566

Office of General Counsel
Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Sir or Madam,

The purpose of this duly notarized sworn statement is to file a formal complaint with the Federal Election Commission against Judd Alan Gregg, a candidate for the U.S. Senate from the State of New Hampshire.

According to The Judd Gregg Committee report dated July 15, 1992, $219,479.39 was transferred from the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee to the federal campaign account. Of that amount, $38,020., and an estimated $4,249.36 in interest received for the same, is not in accordance with federal election law and therefore illegal.

FEC procedures specifically outline how all the transferred funds must have been legal under federal law and that the "pool of funds" from which a transfer is made is considered to be the funds most recently received.

The discrepancy between Gregg's report and the enclosed analysis can be explained by the fact that Gregg chose to cherry pick. If a contribution was over the federal legal limit or from an unauthorized source, he simply back-tracked to legal contributions until he reached the $219,479.39. That is clearly illegal!

What makes Judd Gregg's actions especially onerous is his obvious awareness of the law. He listed only the legal portion of a given contribution and then intentionally tried to circumvent the law itself. His deliberate distortions clearly reflect his disdain from the law itself as well as the citizens of the state who expect him to comply.

Acknowledgement by the Federal Election Commission of this serious complaint and prompt action in forcing Judd Gregg to comply with the same laws as everyone else is anticipated.

Sincerely,

J. Joseph Grandmaison personally appeared before me on July 27, 1992, County of Rockingham, City of Portsmouth, State of New Hampshire to sign and swear to the validity of this complaint.

BACKGROUND

The Judd Gregg for Governor Committee reported on May 15, 1992 in their "Statement of Receipts and Expenditures" 6-month report filed at the New Hampshire Secretary of State's Office that they have made two financial transfers to The Judd Gregg Committee.

In a letter to the Secretary of the U.S. Senate, copy of which was filed at the New Hampshire Secretary of State's Office, The Judd Gregg Committee was formally identified as having been organized on behalf of Judd Gregg's candidacy for the U.S. Senate and is therefore required as a matter of federal law to comply with all federal laws as to campaign finance.

The two financial transactions officially closing out the state campaign account and transferring the balance of the same to the federal campaign account are as follows:

4-17-92	The Judd Gregg Committee	$218,377.38
5-15-92	The Judd Gregg Committee	1,102.01
		$219,479.39

Federal election laws permit such a transfer only under certain specific conditions. A complete report must be made clearly identifying who made the contributions and all of the contributions must be legal under federal election laws. Regulations specifically state that a "first-in, first-out" formula must be used to determine--in Gregg's case--where the $219,479.39 actually came from.

An analysis of who actually contributed the last $219,479.39 to The Judd Gregg Committee is attached. The analysis reveals a breakdown of the same by percentage is as follows:

Identified and Legal	65%
Unitemized	6%
Interest	11%
Identified and Illegal	18%

The $38,020.00 in contributions transferred from the state to the federal account fall into three distinct categories:

1. State law permits an individual to contribute up to $5,000. in both the primary and general election. Federal law permits only $1,000. in each case. Individual contributions over $1,000. made to the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee after the September 5, 1990 filing are illegal and cannot be used in a federal election. (The attached financial analysis specifically outlines how the receipts beginning with the period covered in the September 21, 1990 report--9-6-90 through 9-21-90--are included in the period over which the $219,479.39 was actually collected.)

93040984534

2. Both federal and state laws permit Political Action Committees to contribute up to $5,000. in each election--primary and general. However, PAC's must be properly and legally registered with the Federal Elections Commission in order to contribute in a federal campaign.
3. Lastly, a state party and/or its affiliates may contribute up to $5,000. per election. Therefore, contributions in excess of the $5,000. legal limit made during the general election cycle and are now part of the $219,,479.39 are considered to be illegal and non-transferrable.

Should in the unlikely case, justification be made that the New Hampshire Republican State Committee's two contributions amounting to a total of $25,000. were actually from the Republican National Committee (the RNC $25,000. contribution originally deposited by the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee on August 2, 1990 was returned to the RNC on September 21, 1990), all of the in the September 21, 1990 report and $19,185. of the receipts of the $45,315. received on September 4, 1990 would fall under the federal laws in order to be transferred into a federal campaign account. $18,855. of the September 4, 1990 receipts would not be legal to transfer as outlined on the attachment.

The NH Republican State Committee did not file a report on their so-called "federal account" for either of the two periods--10-17-90 and 10-31-90--at the NH Secretary of State's Office. The committee's state account only shows a transfer from their federal account and the resulting contribution to the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee. The original $25,000. contribution from the Republican National Committee was returned in that it did not comply with state law. The missing state committee's federal account reports would presumably indicate whether or not the RNC subsequently contributed to the state party itself, presumably on behalf of Gregg.

The federal campaign is not allowed to benefit in any fashion from contributions that are not in accordance with federal law and therefore $4,249.46 in interest included in the transfer should not be permitted.

Dear Sir or Madam,

Re: GREGG, JUDD ALAN

(MUR 3566)

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL

On July 27, 1992, I filed a formal complaint with the Federal Election Commission against Judd Alan Gregg, a candidate for the U.S. Senate from the State of New Hampshire. This letter and the attached copies of public records are hereby submitted as additional information relative to said complaint.

Legal basis for the complaint centered on the illegal transfer of $38,020. of funds from the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee - 1990 to The Judd Gregg Committee (a federal committee having to do with his candidacy for the U.S. Senate) that were raised within the FEC "most recently received" rule but not in compliance with federal law.

As documentation in support of the analysis with the original complaint as to what period is legitimately under "most recently received", I submit copies of receipt portion of the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee that were duly filed under state law with the New Hampshire Secretary of State's office. The "most recently received" period is from September 6, 1990 through May 16, 1992 when the committee's final report was filed.

Additionally, I have attached a copy of the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee - 1990 filing made to the Secretary of the Senate on July 15, 1992 as it applies only to the specific points of concern in the original complaint.

On a case by case basis, the specific fifteen contributions raised in the complaint as being illegal are in some cases changed as to the amount itself and in some case totally eliminated when one compares the reports of the same committee to the two different offices.

- A. The contributions of Daniel E. Hogan, John F. Curley, Donald T. Rondeau, Sylvia Brennick, Jack Brennick and Mark R. Stebbins have been adjusted to comply with the $1,000. limit though the original report to the state would indicate their level of contribution to be in excess of law.
- B. The contributions of ADPAC and Granite State Teamsters--both within the "most recently received" provision--are omitted from the federal report.

- C. The contribution from the New Hampshire Republican State Committee as reported to Washington, DC would appear to be $5,000. rather than the $25,000. as was actually the case. The entire $25,000. fell within the "most recently raised" provision.
- D. The contributions from the N.H. Credit Union League PAC, A. L. Williams PAC and LUPAC are properly reported though, given they are not FEC registered, are presumably not within the provisions called for in a federal election.

The monetary difference between the intentionally misreported level of contribution and those omitted was covered up by going beyond the allowed period of time for the available pool of funds.

You will agree that fabricating numbers on the July 15, 1992 report would clearly suggest Governor Gregg and his staff were obviously aware of what the provisions of law actually call for. I would respectfully suggest to you that rather than simply a "technicality" as they have said, it is a wilful violation of the law.

Sincerely,

Enc: Judd Gregg for Governor Cmt.

(MUR 3566)

Dear Sir of Madam,

The purpose of this duly notarized sworn statement is to file an addition to the complaint of July 27, 1992 against Judd Alan Gregg, a candidate for the U.S. Senate from the State of New Hampshire.

FEC regulations clearly outline how contributions in a state race can be transferred to a federal campaign and specifically how contribution limits must be aggregated. In the specific case of Judd Gregg, all contributions after November 5, 1990 (Election Day) are required to come under the individual and committee federal limit.

A review of the July 15, 1992 filing to the Secretary of the Senate clearly indicates that contributions to the state account received post-election have not been aggregated with contributions to the newly established federal committee. In several cases, the $1,000. limit was therefore been exceeded!

G. W. DeVries 80 Sea Road Rye Beach, NH 03871	10-15-90 08-13-91 05-29-92	$1,000. 1,000. 1,000.	General Primary Primary
James H. Hayes 32 Westbourne Road Concord, NH 03301	09-25-91 06-11-92	1,000. 1,000.
Joseph E. Petrone Dublin, NH 03444	09-25-91 06-04-92	250. 1,000.
Michael D. Dingman 81 Front Street Exeter, NH 03833	08-13-91 05-29-92	250. 1,000.

FEC guidelines are also clear as to when and how a contributor can 'designate' a contribution in excess of the federal limit for a different election. The Judd Gregg Committee has 'designated' $66,049. of the money transferred from his state account to the federal general election. Given that contributors were unaware that Gregg was a candidate for federal office when those specific contributions were made, it would seem somewhat beyond belief that the 'designation' regulation has been met.

93040984590

Two contributions that would exceed federal limit unless 'designation' has properly been met would be:

Kenneth C. Brighton	11-13-90	$1,000.
Valley Road	05-29-92	1,000.
Dublin, NH 03444

Thomas D. Rath	11-15-90	500.
120 Franklin Street	06-25-92	1,000.
Concord, NH 03301

In both cases, the 1990 contribution to Judd Gregg for Governor - 1990 was supposedly in the transfer designated to the November, 1992 general election while the post-announcement contributions are for the federal primary.

Many people believe it is improper for Judd Gregg to have transferred almost $220,000.00 from one race to the other. There are several people who supported him for re-election who do not support him in this current campaign. Hell, there are some people who are now dead but their money lives on. We will have to make certain they don't also vote come November! At the very least, one could have assumed Judd Gregg in making the transfer would have at least only transferred contributions that were raised in compliance with federal law, kept within the limits by properly aggregating and not added insult-to-injury by designating one election rather than another to milk the process even further.

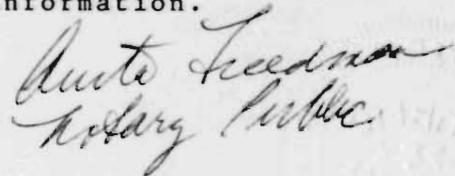

Sincerely,

Enc. 7-15-92 Judd Gregg for Governor Committee - 1990 (cover sheet and appropriate pages)

MUR 3566

92 JUL 30 AM 10:31

Office of General Counsel
Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Sir or Madam,

Re: GREGG, JUDD ALAN

This is an additional follow-up to my complaint of July 27, 1992, in which I allege certain illegal transfers from the Judd Gregg for Governor - 1990 committee to The Judd Gregg Committee, which is the principal campaign committee of Judd Gregg's candidacy for the U.S. Senate.

As you can see from the copies of the Judd Gregg for Governor - 1990 committee that were provided to you on July 30, 1992, Governor Gregg has transferred the total amount that had been in his gubernatorial account into his senate account, $219,437.39, without excluding amounts prohibited under federal election law. Instead, he reallocated amounts that should have been excluded from the federal transfer into earlier receipts, substituting names of contributors and amounts of funds that had been received and expended in the prior period. A quick review of the cover sheets of the State of New Hampshire reports of receipts reveals the following:

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES

REPORT DATED	RECEIPTS FOR PERIOD
05-16-92	$ 14,024.08
11-16-91	28,223.52
05-16-91	25,848.44
11-16-90	28,204.32
10-31-90	61,368.00
10-17-90	61,006.48

Total receipts for period subsequent to the primary election filing, September 21, 1990: $218,674.84

Because under federal law the cash-on-hand balance is composed of those contributions "most recently received", it happens that the cut-off for those contributions is very close to the date of the primary election, which was September 11, 1990 ($218,674.84 having been received since that date). The amount that was transferred from the gubernatorial committee to the U.S. Senate committee thus represents all funds raised and interest earned during the 1990 general election phase plus $804.55 left over from the 1990 primary. To the extent that Judd Gregg attempts to attribute contributions from prior to September 6, 1990, these should be invalid, as that money had already been spent.

The FEC filing dated July 15, 1992, indicating the sources of contributions comprising the $219,479.39 in the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee - 1990, shows that there were 55 individual donors and two PACs whose contributions were made prior to September 6, 1990, totalling $44,750.00. As you can see from the New Hampshire state filings, there were a number of individuals whose contributions to the state campaign exceeded $1,000. On the federal filing, those contributors were reduced to the $1,000. allowable by law and the excess money was reallocated by Gregg to contributors whose money actually had already been spent and was not available to the federal committee.

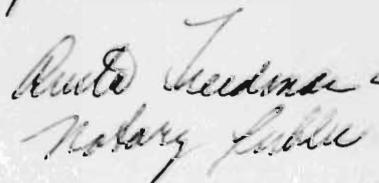

Enclosed is a list of these contributors that Governor Gregg alleges to have been sources of the total amount transferred, but whose money did not, in fact, comprise the "most recently received" by the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee - 1990.

To further clarify this, you can see that there was carried over from the 1990 governor's primary in New Hampshire $291,075.69, which is shown on the October 17, 1990 filing cover sheet as the "amount brought forward from Primary" (Section 1 of Summary of Receipts and Expenditures for General Election). During the 1990 general election and up until the 1992 transfer, the gubernatorial committee received $218,674.84, so that there were total receipts of $509,750.53. Campaign expenditures during that period of time were $290,271.14, resulting in a net cash on hand of $219,479.39, which represents the entire amount that was transferred into the federal account, notwithstanding that there were many sources that are prohibited under federal law.

On their face, the documents prove that illegal transfers took place. I would ask for and appreciate an expeditious review of this matter as the people of New Hampshire have a right to know whether Judd Gregg has broken federal law or not.

Sincerely,

J. Joseph Grandmaison personally appeared before me on July 31, 1992, County of Rockingham, City of Portsmouth, State of New Hampshire to sign and swear to the validity of this information.

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of August 4, 1992 referencing the above-numbered complaint. I write in my capacity as Treasurer of the New Hampshire Republican State Committee.

We are in the process of gathering sufficient information to respond to your inquiry. If errors, technical or otherwise, were made in our actions, we will take such steps as may be necessary to correct the same.

The timing of your request does pose some logistical problems, however. First, we are attempting to assemble the relevant material and documentation. We are hampered by summer schedules including the fact that our staff is currently tied up with details surrounding the Republican National Convention next week. We simply do not have sufficient time to make the August 19 response date.

We represent that we will dedicate our staff to this task upon their return. I request an extension of our reply time until the close of business on August 28. This will enable us to prepare a thorough and complete response which should facilitate your regulatory review.

The Committee will be represented by Attorney Richard A. Hampe of 35 Pleasant Street in Concord. His phone is 603-224-7411. You may direct future correspondence and material related to this matter to Mr. Hampe.

Again, we request your leave to file a response by August 28, taking into consideration the Convention's being scheduled next week. We appreciate your consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

Re: MUR 3566

Dear Mr. Noble:

This will acknowledge receipt of Mr. Rishel's letter of August 4, 1992 and your letter of August 5, 1992. Please consider the following as the response of both the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee (hereafter "the State Committee") and the Judd Gregg Committee (hereafter "the Federal Committee") to the complaints submitted by J. Joseph Grandmaison ("Complainant"). The undersigned is Treasurer and Fiscal Agent for both committees.

The Committees would like to preface this response by noting that Mr. Grandmaison is a New Hampshire Democratic Party Chairman and candidate for Governor who was defeated by Judd Gregg in the 1990 gubernatorial election. Although Mr. Grandmaison appears to be a stickler for detail, he neglected to mention his credentials. The fact that these complaints are politically motivated, however, does not detract from the seriousness with which we consider these allegations.^{1/} Further, we note that Mr. Grandmaison accuses the Committees of being devious. Nothing could be further from the truth. As seen below, all actions were taken in the belief that they complied fully with the law. Finally, the Complainant is apparently upset because any funds were transferred at all. However, such transfers are explicitly permitted by the Federal Election Commission's ("FEC") Regulations.

FACTS

The Commission should be aware of the following undisputed facts:

1. All of the funds transferred by the State Committee were raised in compliance with State law and were within legal limits when obtained, which was at a time when Gov. Gregg was not a candidate for Federal office.

^{1/} In this regard, the Committee has segregated $38,000 (the amount disputed by the Complainant) into a separate account pending the resolution of this matter.

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq.
August 24, 1992

2. New Hampshire prohibits both corporate and labor union contributions.

3. Most of the funds transferred were raised prior to the 1990 State election (very little was raised or spent thereafter) and were not subject to aggregation with contributions subsequently made to the Federal Committee.

THE COMPLAINT

Mr. Grandmason's allegations seem to fall into two primary categories:

1. The assertion that some of the transfers from the State Committee to the Federal Committee violate Federal limitations, either because a contribution made subsequent to the transfer should have been aggregated with a prior contribution, or because the last in/first out (LIFO) restriction was not adhered to with respect to the transferred funds.

2. The assertion that contribution transfers were "intentionally misreported."

RESPONSE

The following response is submitted to each category.

93040984627

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq.

I. The LIFO Restriction

When Governor Gregg announced for the Senate, the State Committee was asked to determine the extent to which it could lawfully transfer funds to the Federal Committee. Based on our research of the Federal Election Campaign Act and Regulations, we determined that a complete transfer of the approximately $219,000.00 cash on hand could be made and the transfer was effected.

The Committees' assessment that the entire cash on hand balance was transferable to the Federal campaign is based on the following:

A. Under Federal law, transfers of funds between committees authorized or established by the same candidate at the Federal, State, or local level are unlimited because the committees are considered affiliated committees. See 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(5); 11 C.F.R. § 100.5(g)(2).

B. With respect to affiliated committee transfers of funds from a candidate's State committee to his Federal committee, 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(c)(6) is controlling. This regulation has the LIFO clause at 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(c)(6)(iii), which provides that, excluding amounts in excess of the contribution limits, "the funds transferred shall be deemed composed of the funds most recently received, until the amount transferred is reached."

93040984628

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq.

(Emphasis added). Starting with the most recent contribution, we allocated for transfer only those contributions, or portions of contributions, which came within the limits set by 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.1 and 110.2, excluding along the way those amounts in excess of the Federal limits, until the amount transferred was reached. Since our review of funding sources, on a LIFO basis, revealed contributions within Federal limits that were well in excess of the cash on hand balance, the entire amount was transferred.

C. With respect to those contributions which Complainant claims should have been "aggregated," reallocation letters have been sent to:

Kenneth C. Brighton
Wesley DeVries
Michael D. Dingman
James Hayes, Sr.
Joseph E. Petrone
Thomas D. Rath

Each of these contributors made contributions in late May and June of this year, after the transfers had been completed. Thus, with regard to these contributions, the Committee was 93040984629

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq.

permitted to deposit these funds and to request redesignations of contributions for a different election pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b). Having now not received redesignations within sixty days, the Committee has refunded the monies in question.

The Committee also notes that all contributors whose contributions, or portions thereof, were transferred from the State Committee to the Federal Committee have been contacted by letter and offered refunds in the event they oppose use of the funds in the Federal Election. No refunds have been requested.

II. Sufficiency of Report of Transfer

The Committees take strong exception to the allegations by Mr. Grandmaison that they "intentionally misreported" or were "fabricating numbers." As the basis for these allegations, Complainant points to the difference between the amount of contribution attributed to a contributor to the State Committee (as reported to the New Hampshire Secretary of State) when compared to the amount attributed to that contributor in the FEC-3 report filed by the State Committee on July 15, 1992. As Mr. Grandmaison well knows, nearly the entire amount transferred was collected when Judd Gregg was a candidate for State office, before he announced for the U.S. Senate. As he also knows, the contributions that made up the amount transferred were all raised legally and fell within State limits. As required by State law, these contributions were completely and accurately reported and are on file with the Secretary of State for anyone to review. However, the FEC-3 report of July 15, 1992, which covers a transfer between affiliated committees, has fundamentally different reporting criteria than do the Reports of Receipts and Expenditures on file with the New Hampshire Secretary of State. While the State reports cover contributions received, the FEC-3 report of transfer covers amounts transferred. As set forth in 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(c)(6)(iii), when a transfer is made the State Committee "shall disclose . . . its cash on hand balance, the source(s) of such funds, and the amount transferred to the federal campaign committee." Because some of the contributors made contributions which, though legal under New Hampshire law, exceeded Federal limits, only the amount of the contributions that fell within Federal limits was transferred. This created situations where there is an obvious discrepancy between the amount of contribution reported to the Secretary of State and the amount of transfer reported to the FEC. For example, if John Q. Public contributed $2000 to the gubernatorial election, the Report of Receipts and Expenditures filed with the Secretary of

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq.

State will show a $2000 contribution. However, when a transfer is made from the candidate's State Committee to his affiliated Federal Committee, only that portion of the contribution within the Federal limit can be transferred. Therefore, the FEC-3 filed by the transferring State Committee will show a transfer of $1000 of John Q. Public's $2000 contribution.

2 3 0 4 0 9 8 4 6 3 2

The Complainant knew that the difference in reporting criteria between the State and Federal laws would create a situation where a comparison of the State report and the Federal report would show different amounts attributed to the same contributor simply because one report must list contributions and the other report must list transfers. In fact, the transfers listed are an accurate reflection of the transfers made. Yet Complainant made slanderous accusations about "fabricating numbers" and held press conferences in which he accused Gov. Gregg of "money laundering." We hope that the Commission will view Mr. Grandmaison's complaints in light of the cynical and politically motivated advantage he has taken of the situation created where a State Committee is expected to apply Federal law retroactively for the purposes of reporting a transfer.

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq.
August 24, 1992

Based on the foregoing, the Committees hereby request that the Commission find no reason to believe any violations occurred and take no further action.

Re: MUR 3566

Dear Sir:

The New Hampshire Republican State Committee contributed a total of $25,000 to the "Judd Gregg for Governor" committee.

The contributions were $15,000 on October 16, 1990 and $10,000 on October 30, 1990 and are detailed in our November 16, 1990 State Report.

The New Hampshire Republican State Committee received $25,000 from the Republican National Committee which was targeted for state races. Of this amount, $15,000 was received on October 12, 1990 and was directly deposited into the state committee's state account. This is reflected in the November 16, 1990 state report. The $10,000 balance of the contribution from the Republican National Committee was received on October 30, 1990 and was deposited in error in the State Committee's Federal Account. This error was discovered the same day of the deposit and was corrected the same day by a transfer to the committee's state account as reflected in the November 16, 1990 state report and in the 10/17/90 - 11/26/90 F.E.C. report.

The New Hampshire Republican State Committee's contributions to the Judd Gregg for Governor Committee were for the New Hampshire Governor's race, a state election, and as such do not fall under a contribution limit according to the N.H. Secretary of State's Office.

Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

Thomas Rath

RE: MUR 3566

Madame Chairman:

This will respond to the Federal Election Commission's (FEC) notification that a complaint has been filed naming the Republican National Committee (RNC) in the above-captioned matter.

The allegation appears to be that the RNC's contributions/transfers to the New Hampshire Republican State Committee (New Hampshire Committee) during the 1990 election cycle are somehow illegal/excessive contributions to the 1992 Judd Gregg for Senate Committee. This is preposterous.

We respectfully request that the complaint be dismissed since the evidence demonstrates there is "no reason to believe" that the RNC violated the Federal Election Campaign Act (Act). 2 U.S.C. §437g and 11 C.F.R. §§111.6 and 111.7.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. §441a(4), the RNC may make unlimited transfers from its federal account to the federal accounts of state and subordinate party committees. That is precisely what the RNC did when it transferred funds from its federal account to the New Hampshire Committee's federal account in October 1990. The RNC made two federal transfers, one on October 10, 1990, and the other on October 29, 1990. These transfers were not earmarked for any candidate (see copies of checks attached). An

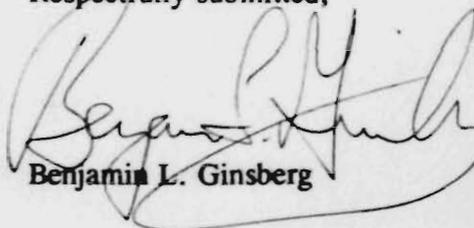

93040984652

RNC contribution to Governor Gregg's re-election effort from the RNC's non-federal account (RNSEC-operating) was sent on July 23, 1990, and was subsequently returned.

There is simply no basis in fact or law to support the complaint's allegation that 1990 transactions by the RNC in the state of New Hampshire should now be viewed as illegal contributions by the RNC to Governor Gregg's 1992 federal campaign. These transfers were made to the New Hampshire Committee for its election activities during 1990. There is not a shred of evidence, and it is irresponsible to allege, that the RNC transfers were somehow earmarked for the 1992 Senate campaign.

To summarize, there is no reason to believe that the RNC violated 2 U.S.C. 441a or any other provision of the Act by making transfers to the New Hampshire Committee in 1990. The Commission should dismiss this complaint against the RNC.

Respectfully submitted,

Benjamin L. Ginsberg

MEMORANDUM

TO: The Commission

FROM: Lawrence M. Noble LMN
General Counsel

SUBJECT: MUR 3566 - Letter from Respondent

On September 14, 1992, the Chairman received the attached letter from the treasurer of the Judd Gregg for U.S. Senate committee, Francis L. Cramer, in which he questioned whether information concerning the timing of the Commission's consideration of a complaint filed against his committee had been supplied to the complainant, in violation of the confidentiality provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act. The complaint at issue has been designated MUR 3566.

Attached is a copy of the letter which this Office has sent to Mr. Cramer in response. This letter acknowledges that the complainant did speak with a member of this Office's staff on August 31, 1992, but states that he was given only theoretical or general responses to his questions about the handling of complaints. He was told that the next Executive Session would not be held until September 15; however, no indication was given that a report in MUR 3566 would be on that agenda. Any statement regarding the possibility of resolving this matter before the election in November was made in a strictly hypothetical context.

JUDD GREGG FOR U.S. SENATE

September 14, 1992

BY FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION

The Honorable Joan D. Aikens, Chairman
Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Chairman Aikens:

Enclosed herewith is a copy of an article which appeared in the September 13, 1992 Boston Sunday Globe indicating that the Commission would be taking action tomorrow on a complaint filed by J. Joseph Grandmaison against The Judd Gregg for Senate Committee and that the Commission expects final action on this complaint before the November election. The information is alleged to have come from a Commission source and thus constitutes a flagrant violation of the confidentiality provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and potentially of the Commission's regulations prohibiting ex parte communications. The Judd Gregg for Senate Committee protest this activity.

The Commission must put an immediate stop to these communications which allow a political complainant to cynically use the press based on inside information from an apparent Commission source. Immediate aggressive steps will ensure that the agency is not compromised and manipulated for partisan purposes. Any action by the Commission now on Mr. Grandmaison's complaint against the Judd Gregg for Senate Committee is going to be viewed in a different partisan light based on the information already available to the public.

We trust that the Commission will take seriously this violation of the Act and act to prevent any further manipulation of the enforcement process.

Sincerely,

Francis D. Cramer
Treasurer

The Weekly Report

GARY GHIOTO

FEC to meet on Gregg case

The Federal Election Committee is reportedly meeting Tuesday on allegations that Gov. Judd Gregg illegally transferred $47,000 in funds from his old gubernatorial account to his US Senate campaign account. Democratic Party activist and political consultant J. Joseph Grandmaison of Rye brought the complaint against Gregg in July.

Grandmaison says that some of the funds exceed federal campaign contribution limits and others came from "unauthorized political action committees." Gregg has said that he has put the disputed cash in escrow until the FEC makes a ruling. If that's so, Grandmaison said he would like to know why the $47,000 transaction hasn't shown up on Gregg's federal campaign reports. And Grandmaison is demanding that Gregg release the text of his response to the FEC to the public.

Gregg has declined to do so, citing FEC policy, despite requests from reporters. An FEC source told Grandmaison that a decision on the complaint could come before the November election. Meanwhile, the Rye Democrat is pressing state newspaper editorialists to take up the charge and force Gregg to cough-up his response to the FEC.

But it's hard getting the scribes motivated, he complained. Journalists are more interested in getting access to the divorce papers of former US Rep. Chuck Douglas (R-NH), he griped.

Machos speechless after Podles query

Seemed like the right idea at the time. Democrat Ben Machos of Manchester spied Republican Sen. Eleanor Podles at the polls Tuesday and decided to introduce himself. After all, Machos thought to himself, he would be facing the veteran Podles in the general election and the pair would be meeting soon enough on the campaign trail.

So Machos walks over to the senator and before he can get out a howdy, Podles reportedly blurts: "Why are you running against me?" Of course, when something like that happens you don't figure out the right response until a couple of days later. Instead of lecturing Podles about the state's unique multiparty political system, the US Constitution and all that neat stuff, Machos was at a loss for words.

He's still trying to figure out what Podles meant.

2 Perot group picks victorious

Well, the Ross Perot Committee saw two of its 10 primary picks march to victory in Tuesday's primary. Libertarian Kate Alexander of Bow won her US Senate primary against Warren K. Ross of Hampton and Democrat Robert Preston won his 1st Congressional District primary against William Verge of Plainfield. Look for the Perot committee to start working on endorsements soon for the general election.

Dr. Terry Bennett, the Democrat US Senate candidate endorsed by the Perot crowd, had high praise for the effort the group made on behalf of the selected candidates. "The Perot group is alive and well. I appreciate what they did. They were out on the streets and I think they did the best they could," he said.

In District 2, a mailing strategy

"We took his best torpede and we didn't leak any water," summed up Republican Glenn Sharp a few days after his Senate District 2 primary win. Sharp, a machinist from Bristol, was referring to Democrat Sen. Wayne King's effort to convince district Republicans to write him in on the primary ballot via a clever mailing campaign. Democrat King scored 1,121 Republican votes.

"That's not much for a guy who probably spent a ton of cash," Sharp said. The 38-year-old machine shop owner garnered 8,908 votes in his primary fight against Francene Parkhurst of Hobson who received 960 votes. Sharp is against abortion, income and sales taxes and an advocate of hydropower.

Primary night brings out the best

It's no secret that House Minority Leader Mary Chambers and Oxford lawmaker Arnie Arnesen have had their differences over the years. But on primary night when Arnesen savored her victory over Ned Helms and Norm D'Amours at the Concord Ramada Inn, Chambers didn't cop an attitude and stay away. The Elms lawmaker, flanked by Democratic Party chairman Chris Spiro, paid her respects to Arnesen and wished Arnesen well.

RE: MUR 3566

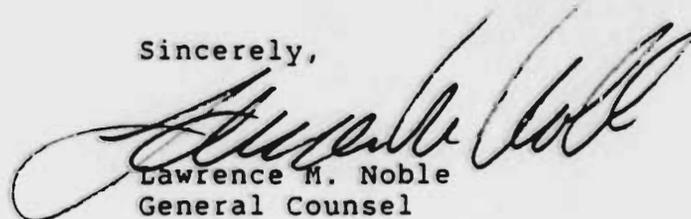

Dear Mr. Cramer:

Your letter of September 14, 1992, addressed to Chairman Joan D. Aikens has been referred to the Office of the General Counsel. Attached to your letter was a copy of a news article which set out certain purported facts about the timing of Commission action in the above-cited matter.

On Monday, August 31, 1992, the complainant in this matter spoke with a staff member in this Office. Only very general information concerning Commission procedures was given, such generalities being necessary because of the confidentiality provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act. During the course of the conversation the caller was informed of the date of the Commission's next executive session, this date of September 15 being on the public record. No statement was made to the effect that MUR 3566 would be on the agenda for that meeting, and in fact it was never scheduled for that session. The staff member does not recall stating that the matter "could be resolved" before the November election, but may have agreed in a theoretical manner that such resolution was possible. Counsel was cautioned several times during the conversation that all statements by the staff member were to be considered theoretical or general.

It appears that the complainant drew from the conversation certain conclusions regarding timing which were his own. If, however, you have other information, you may file a complaint with the Commission pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437(a).

Sincerely,

Lawrence M. Noble

Accordingly, the Commission closed the file in this matter. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

MUR 3566

This matter was generated as a result of a complaint filed by J. Joseph Grandmaison. The complaint alleged that a 7/15/92 transfer of $219,479.39 from the candidate's state account to the federal account contained $38,020 in impermissible funds. Respondents replied that the transfers were done in accordance with the FECA.

This case had little or no impact on the process and there are no significant issues relative to the other issues pending before the Commission. Moreover, it does not appear that respondents had a serious intent to violate the FECA.
