v.	Complainant,
Eugene C. Dinsmore
	Respondent,

COMPLAINT

MUR 3884

3 4 4 0 4 3 0 0 4 2 5 0

COMPLAINT OF CENTER FOR RESPONSIVE POLITICS

1. This complaint charges that the respondent has violated the Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq., as amended ("FECA"), by making aggregate contributions in excess of the limits permitted by the FECA.

PARTIES

2. The complainant, the Center for Responsive Politics, is a nonprofit, nonpartisan research group incorporated in the State of Iowa and headquartered in Washington, D.C., that studies Congress and related issues. Founded in 1983, it was designed to research matters concerning the organization and operation of Congress as an institution and to examine potential reforms that could improve both its internal operation and its responsiveness to the American public. The patterns of contributions of money to federal candidates has been one of its chief areas of study.

3. The respondent is an individual contributor to various candidates and political committees.

APPLICABLE STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

4. The FECA limits contributions by any one individual to an aggregate total of $25,000 per calendar year. Contributions to a candidate or the candidate's authorized committee made in a year other than the calendar year of the election with respect to which the contribution is made are considered to be made during the calendar year in which such election is held. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3); 11 C.F.R. § 110.5.

GROUND S FOR COMPLAINT

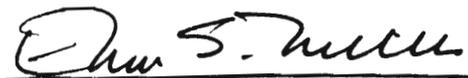

5. According to FEC records, respondent Eugene C. Dinsmore made contributions subject to FECA in the amounts and to the persons identified in the list attached to this complaint as Exhibit 1. Attached as Exhibit 2 are copies of the FEC records for each contribution listed in Exhibit 1. All exhibits reflect the records on file at the FEC as of December 15, 1993.

6. On information and belief, respondent Eugene C. Dinsmore made contributions attributed to the 1992 calendar year in the amount of $32,485. These contributions exceeded by $7,485 the $25,000 contribution limit imposed by the FECA and Commission regulations on all contributions by any individual in a calendar year.

RELIEF

7. The Center for Responsive Politics respectfully urges the Commission to conduct a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations in this Complaint, and to declare that the Respondent has violated the FECA and Commission regulations.

Respectfully submitted,

Ellen S. Miller

COUNTY OF DOUGLAS)

Eugene C. Dinsmore, Respondent, being first duly sworn on oath, deposes and states:

1. That this affidavit is submitted for consideration in connection with Complaint MUR 3884 filed with the Federal Election Commission, a copy of which was delivered to Respondent by United States mail and received by Respondent on February 5, 1994.

2. That Respondent is ninety-eight (98) years of age and is a resident of Immanuel Village, a retirement facility located on the Immanuel Hospital Medical Center property in Omaha, Nebraska.

3. That during all of 1992 and for a number of years prior thereto, Respondent's wife, who died on April 14, 1993 at ninety (90) years of age, was a resident of Immanuel Fontenelle Nursing Home, also located on such property and was in deteriorating health during 1992.

4. That while Respondent has no independent recollection at this time, Respondent feels it quite likely that some of the requests for the contributions that were made in 1992, were addressed to Respondent's wife.

5. That contributions made by Respondent in 1992, were made, without exception according to Respondent's best recollection and belief, by checks signed by Respondent on a checking account in the joint names of Respondent and his wife, and that, during 1992, Respondent considered that a part of the contributions he was making were on behalf of his wife.

6. That Respondent had no intent at any time during 1992, to violate any of the provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act.

7. That Respondent kept no running total of the aggregate contributions made by him during 1992, and that Respondent was not aware of the total contributions made by him in 1992 until he received a letter from Murielle Gamache of the Washington

Dear Mr. Dinsmore

I am currently working on a story which looks at enforcement of federal political contribution limits--or the lack thereof. Specifically, we have identified 141 people who appear to have violated the $25,000-per-year limit on contributions to federally registered political committees. You appear to be one such contributor. I have attached a listing of the contributions attributed to you by the Federal Election Commission.

As you probably know, contributions to political action committees and political party committees are counted in the year they are made. Contributions to federal candidates are counted toward the limits in the year which the candidate stands for election, regardless of when the contribution was made. For example, your $200 contribution to Thomas Barrett on August 30, 1991 is counted toward the 1992 limit.

If you have any other questions or would like to discuss this any further, please call me at 202-861-9295.

In the Matter of

GENERAL COUNSEL'S MONTHLY REPORT

SENSITIVE

I. INTRODUCTION

This report is the second Enforcement Priority System Monthly Report. The purpose of this September Monthly Report is to recommend that the Commission no longer pursue the identified lower priority and stale cases.

II. CASES RECOMMENDED FOR CLOSING

A. Cases Not Warranting Further Pursuit Relative to Other Cases Pending Before the Commission

A critical component of the Priority System is identifying those pending cases that do not warrant the further expenditure of resources. Each incoming matter is evaluated using Commission-approved criteria and cases that, based on their rating, do not warrant pursuit relative to other pending cases are placed in this category. By closing such cases, the Commission is able to use its limited resources to focus on more important cases.

Having evaluated incoming matters, this Office has identified 44 cases which do not warrant further pursuit relative to the other pending cases.¹ A short description of each case and the factors leading to assignment of a relatively low priority and consequent recommendation not to pursue each case is attached to this report. See Attachments 1-44. For the Commission's convenience, the narratives for the externally-generated matters are immediately followed by the complaint and response(s) and the narrative for the internally-generated matter is immediately followed by the referral.

B. Stale Cases

Investigations are severely impeded and require relatively more resources when the activity and evidence are old. Consequently, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission focus its efforts on cases involving more recent activity. Such efforts will also generate more impact on the current electoral process and are a more efficient allocation of our limited resources. To this end, this Office has identified 2 cases that have remained inactive and assigned to the Central Enforcement Docket for one year and which it believes do not warrant further investment of significant Commission resources.² Since the recommendation not to pursue the identified cases is based on staleness, this Office has not prepared separate narratives for these cases. However, the referrals for these internally-generated matters are attached. See Attachments 45-46.

This Office recommends that the Commission exercise its prosecutorial discretion and no longer pursue the cases listed below effective November 14, 1994. By closing the cases effective November 14, 1994, CED and the Legal Review Team will respectively have the additional time necessary for preparing the closing letters and the case files for the public record for this fairly large number of cases.

RE: MUR 3884

Dear Ms. Miller:

On January 21, 1994, the Federal Election Commission received your complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to take no action against the respondents. See attached narrative. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on November 14, 1994. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

MUR 3884
EUGENE DINSMORE

The Center for Responsive Politics filed a complaint alleging that Eugene Dinsmore exceeded his 1992 $25,000 annual limit by $7,485 because his contributions attributable to 1992 total $32,485. The contributions identified in the complaint raised the issue of whether the Bush-Quayle '92 Primary Committee, Inc. accepted contributions which exceeded the $1,000 limit.

In his response, Mr. Dinsmore indicates that he is 98 years old and lives in a retirement facility. He states that he did not keep a running tally of his aggregate contributions and that he has no independent recollection of the contributions made in 1992. However, Mr. Dinsmore states that he believes that the contributions would have been made from both him and his wife, who is since deceased.

The Bush-Quayle '92 Primary Committee, Inc. responds that on February 26, 1992, the Primary Committee received written authorization to redesignate the $250 in question to the Compliance Committee.

This matter involves less significant issues relative to other matters pending before the Commission.

Dear Mr. Schorr:

On January 28, 1994, the Federal Election Commission notified your client, Eugene C. Dinsmore, of a complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was enclosed with that notification.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to take no action against your client. See attached narrative. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on November 14, 1994.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. If you wish to submit any factual or legal materials to appear on the public record, please do so as soon as possible. While the file may be placed on the public record prior to receipt of your additional materials, any permissible submissions will be added to the public record when received.

The Center for Responsive Politics filed a complaint alleging that Eugene Dinsmore exceeded his 1992 $25,000 annual limit by $7,485 because his contributions attributable to 1992 total $32,485. The contributions identified in the complaint raised the issue of whether the Bush-Quayle '92 Primary Committee, Inc. accepted contributions which exceeded the $1,000 limit.

In his response, Mr. Dinsmore indicates that he is 98 years old and lives in a retirement facility. He states that he did not keep a running tally of his aggregate contributions and that he has no independent recollection of the contributions made in 1992. However, Mr. Dinsmore states that he believes that the contributions would have been made from both him and his wife, who is since deceased.

The Bush-Quayle '92 Primary Committee, Inc. responds that on February 26, 1992, the Primary Committee received written authorization to redesignate the $250 in question to the Compliance Committee.

This matter involves less significant issues relative to other matters pending before the Commission.
