MUR 4011

Dear Commission:

Please file and consider this as a formal notice of complaint under 11 C.F.R. 114.2 on Candidate Charles Salvaggio for United States Congress in the August 4th Republican Primary in Tennessee.

Mr. Salvaggio, accompanied by his wife and a campaign aide, attended a volunteer recruitment effort for his campaign on or about March 5th, 1994 at approximately 10:00 a.m. which was held at Columbia Area Mental Health Center, Inc., CAMHC. It is my understanding that CAMHG is a non-profit corporation receiving federal funds for mental health counseling. Mr. Danny King, a CAMHG employee or agent, arranged the campaign event. Mr. King also serves as Maury County Republican Party Chairman.

There were several volunteers present at this meeting. Attached are photographs which were made which fairly and accurately depict Mr. Salvaggio, his wife and aide entering the building, and their campaign vehicle along with Mr. King's vehicle in front of the CAMHC office.

At a regular meeting of the County Party, when it was announced Mr. Salvaggio was coming to Columbia and would be using these offices, I asked Mr. King what he was being charged. Mr. King said there would be no charge.

After a thorough review of Mr. Salvaggio's campaign filings with the Commission, I found no reference to a contribution or disbursement concerning the use of this corporate facility. Therefore, I ask you to investigate this activity since it may involve a deliberate failure to comply with Federal Election Commission regulations.

I also request a thorough review of Mr. Salvaggio's files for possible other questionable activities.

The meeting you refer to in your complaint was in fact held on Saturday March 5th. Mr. Salvaggio, his wife, and a campaign aide was present along with myself and three other people from Maury County. Mr. Salvaggio was introduced to these individuals and approximately an hour was spent by Mr. Salvaggio in explaining who he was and his political position on various issues. There was no solicitation for funds but he did encourage those present to help in his campaign efforts. Mr. Hales also attended this meeting although arriving late.

The Columbia Area Mental Health Center is closed for business on Saturdays therefore the building was not being used for Center purposes. I am in fact an employee of the Center and Chairman of the Maury County Republican Party. My duties as Party Chair are conducted after hours and on my personal time.

Mr. Hales attended a Party meeting also held at this same facility and again after hours. During that meeting the visit by Mr. Salvaggio was announced. Mr. Hales during that same meeting addressed those in attendance and described his campaign in much the same manner as Mr. Salvaggio did on March the 5th. He was not charged for the facility at that time just as Mr. Salvaggio was not charged for the facility on the 5th of March. Mr. Hales ask regarding the availability of the facility at that time and was informed by myself that we did not charge for its use and in fact had encouraged its use by groups in the community.

It certainly was not my intent to involve the Columbia Area Mental Health Center in this matter since the activities in question were all conducted after normal operating hours. The Center in no way officially supports the candidacy of anyone seeking public office. No signs for any candidate are allowed on the property. The corporation does not make political contributions of any type.

Dear Commission Members:

Re: MUR 4011

Please let this letter serve as a response to the complaint filed by Pat Hale by letter dated July 15, 1994, against the Charles Salvaggio for Congress Committee and Mike Edwards, its treasurer. Please consider this letter as a response on behalf of both respondents.

On or about Saturday, March 5, 1994, Charles Salvaggio did have a meeting in Columbia, Tennessee. The meeting lasted less than one hour and was attended by just seven people including Charles Salvaggio, his wife, and campaign manager. The meeting was held in the board room of the Maury County Mental Health Center.

This meeting room, the campaign manager was told, is available to various civic, community and political events at no charge. This facility is of the type covered in the commission's regulation 11 CFR 1412 (b). The committee did not believe this occurrence constituted a reportable event because of the above referenced regulation and the demeanous nature of the event itself.

This complaint was filed on the eve of the election by a primary opponent. In fact, Mr. Hales appeared on a cable channel to publicize the filing of the complaint. For the foregoing reasons, we ask the commission to dismiss this complaint.

Please contact me if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Mike Edwards

GENERAL COUNSEL'S MONTHLY REPORT

I. INTRODUCTION

This report is the first Enforcement Priority System Monthly Report.¹ The purpose of this August Monthly Report is to recommend that the Commission no longer pursue the identified lower priority and stale cases.

II. CASES RECOMMENDED FOR CLOSING

A. Cases Not Warranting Further Pursuit Relative to Other Cases Pending Before the Commission

A critical component of the Priority System is identifying those pending cases that do not warrant the further expenditure of resources. Each incoming matter is evaluated using Commission approved criteria

By closing such cases the Commission is

¹ Prior to this report, Enforcement Priority System reports were done on a quarterly basis. However, on July 19, 1994, the Commission decided to change the reporting frequency from quarterly to monthly. Because this Office needed sufficient time to implement the change in reporting frequency, the August Monthly Report includes cases for July and August. In the future, the Monthly Report will reflect one month's activity.

Additionally, this Office previously indicated to the Commission that at the end of each quarter, we will provide a statistical recap for the activity that occurred during the quarter. Sometime in early October, this Office will provide a report for third quarter activity.

able to use its limited resources to focus on more important cases.

Having evaluated incoming matters, this Office has identified 16 cases which do not warrant further pursuit relative to the other pending cases.² A short description of each case and the factors leading to assignment of a relatively low priority and consequent recommendation not to pursue each case is attached to this report. See Attachments 1-16. For the Commission's convenience, the narratives for externally-generated matters are immediately followed by the complaint and response(s) and the narratives for internally-generated matters are immediately followed by the referral or sua sponte submission.

B. Stale Cases

Investigations are severely impeded and require relatively more resources when the activity and evidence are old. Consequently, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission focus its efforts on cases involving more recent activity. Such efforts will also generate more impact on the current electoral process and are a more efficient allocation of our limited resources. To this end, this Office has identified 5 cases that

RE: MUR 4011

Dear Mr. Hales:

On July 18, 1994, the Federal Election Commission received your complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to take no action against the Charles Salvaggio for Congress Exploratory Committee and Mike Edwards, as treasurer, Charles Salvaggio and Columbia Area Mental Health, Inc. See attached narrative. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

CHARLES SALVAGGIO FOR CONGRESS
EXPLORATORY COMMITTEE

The complainant, Patrick Keith Hales, alleges that the use of the Columbia Area Mental Health Center, Inc. (CAMHC) facilities by the Charles Salvaggio for Congress Exploratory Committee ("Committee") constituted a prohibited in-kind corporate contribution. The complainant states that the Committee has failed to report either an in-kind contribution from the corporation or a disbursement for the cost of renting the facility in its disclosure reports.

In response to the complaint, Danny King, Business Manager of CAMFC and Chairman of the Maurey County Republican Party, states that the meeting in question occurred after business hours on Saturday, March 5, 1994, and was attended by Mr. King, Mr. Salvaggio and his wife, a campaign aide, and four other individuals from Maurey County. Mr. King indicates that at the meeting, Mr. Salvaggio discussed his candidacy but that there was no solicitation of funds involved. Mr. King states that CAMFC makes its facilities available to community groups at no charge after business hours, CAMFC does not support candidates, and no signs for candidates are allowed on the property. According to Mr. King, the CAMFC facilities had been made available to Mr. Hales, another candidate, for a similar meeting on an earlier date and Mr. Hales was not charged for his use of the facilities.

In response to the complaint, the Salvaggio Committee states that the use of CAMFC facility appeared permissible under Commission regulations which allow a corporation, which customarily makes its meeting rooms available to civic and community groups, to make its facilities available to political committees and therefore, the Committee did not believe that it was an event that needed to be reported. The Committee states that the meeting, which lasted one hour, was attended by seven people.

This matter involves a limited amount of money, appears to have had minimal impact on the process, and involves less significant issues relative to the other issues pending before the Commission.

RE: MUR 4011

Dear Mr. Edwards:

On July 22, 1994, the Federal Election Commission notified you of a complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was enclosed with that notification.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to take no action against the Charles Salvaggio for Congress Exploratory Committee and you, as treasurer. See attached narrative. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. If you wish to submit any factual or legal materials to appear on the public record, please do so as soon as possible. While the file may be placed on the public record prior to receipt of your additional materials, any permissible submissions will be added to the public record when received.

If you have any questions, please contact Joan McEnery at (202) 219-3400.

Sincerely,

Mary L. Taksar

HUR 4011
CHARLES SALVAGGIO FOR CONGRESS
EXPLORATORY COMMITTEE

The complainant, Patrick Keith Hales, alleges that the use of the Columbia Area Mental Health Center, Inc. (CAMHC) facilities by the Charles Salvaggio for Congress Exploratory Committee ("Committee") constituted a prohibited in-kind corporate contribution. The complainant states that the Committee has failed to report either an in-kind contribution from the corporation or a disbursement for the cost of renting the facility in its disclosure reports.

In response to the complaint, Danny King, Business Manager of CAMFC and Chairman of the Maurey County Republican Party, states that the meeting in question occurred after business hours on Saturday, March 5, 1994, and was attended by Mr. King, Mr. Salvaggio and his wife, a campaign aide, and four other individuals from Maurey County. Mr. King indicates that at the meeting, Mr. Salvaggio discussed his candidacy but that there was no solicitation of funds involved. Mr. King states that CAMFC makes its facilities available to community groups at no charge after business hours, CAMFC does not support candidates, and no signs for candidates are allowed on the property. According to Mr. King, the CAMFC facilities had been made available to Mr. Hales, another candidate, for a similar meeting on an earlier date and Mr. Hales was not charged for his use of the facilities.

In response to the complaint, the Salvaggio Committee states that the use of CAMFC facility appeared permissible under Commission regulations which allow a corporation, which customarily makes its meeting rooms available to civic and community groups, to make its facilities available to political committees and therefore, the Committee did not believe that it was an event that needed to be reported. The Committee states that the meeting, which lasted one hour, was attended by seven people.

This matter involves a limited amount of money, appears to have had minimal impact on the process, and involves less significant issues relative to the other issues pending before the Commission.
