MUR 4242

Dear Counsel,

I would like to lodge a complaint against US Congressman Charlie Rose regarding information included in his reports to the FEC and also in his financial disclosure statement.

First complaint concerns the enclosed photocopy of disbursements made Oct. 27, 1994 to Nov. 1, 1994. I request that your agency investigate the two contributions entitled "charitable contribution" to determine if "South Lumberton Improvement Assn." and "Faulk Community Center" meet the definition of "charity", and if these disbursements of campaign funds were within the law. Continuing on this page of disbursements, I request that your agency investigate if the remaining 5 disbursements also were made within the law.

Second complaint concerns the report for the period between Jan. 1, 1995 and June 30, 1995. I request that you investigate and see if campaign disbursements made on May 8, 1995 and Jan. 3, 1995 for three separate invoices for flowers were made for personal use or were made within the law.

I also request that you investigate the $ 19,389 disbursed for "computer" and determine if all of these disbursements were within the law.

I also request that you investigate the $ 25,564.58 disbursed to the Southern National Bank of Lumberton, NC between the dates Jan. 23, 1995 and May 31, 1995. It is my understanding of the law that credit card transactions must be itemized on the FEC report by sales slip so the public can see the detail of these expenditures. Since the Congressman was married and went on honeymoon during this time, I request that your agency investigate and determine if any of these campaign funds were used for personal use. In addition to the above credit card entries, I request that your agency investigate the disbursements made on Jan. 5, 1995 for $ 1,475 (US Air air travel), Jan. 23, 1995 for $ 2,673. (Delta air travel) and Jan. 23, 1995 for $ 2,426. (US Air air travel) to determine if these campaign funds were used for personal use. If this air travel is out of this country, I do not see how this can be classified as " campaign expenditure."

My last complaint concerns entries in Charlie Rose's financial disclosure (photo copy enclosed). You will notice that the form states " amount of any payment made by the sponsor of an event to a charitable organization in lieu of an honorarium." I request that your agency investigate to determine if these charitable donations have any reference to the Charlie Rose, and if so , whether Charlie Rose is using these donations, made by other parties, to receive deductions from any federal or state taxes. It is my understanding of the law that Congressmen were not to benefit financially from Honoraria any longer. Are these charitable donations by sponsors in association with Congressmen violations of the law ?

I would appreciate prompt action on these matters, as Charlie Rose will soon be up for reelection and the public is entitled to know before they vote.

Thank you.

RE: MUR - 4242

Dear Mr. Noble:

We have reviewed the complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") by congressional candidate Howard Greenebaum and received by Congressman Charlie Rose on 14 August 1995.¹ Mr. Greenebaum's complaint has no basis in fact or law and fails to set forth any possible violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (hereinafter "the Act"). Therefore, the Commission should dismiss the complaint inasmuch as there is absolutely no reason to believe that any violation of law or regulations has occurred, as more particularly explained hereinbelow.

I.

The complaint is deficient as a matter of law.

The Greenebaum complaint, as a matter of law, is deficient and should be dismissed by the Commission. The allegations therein are too vague, overly broad, and fail to comply with the due process requirements of, inter alia, the Commission's regulations codified at 11 CFR §111.4, et seq.

The regulations mandate that a complaint contain a "clear and concise recitation of the facts which describe a violation of a statute or regulation over which the commission has jurisdiction" [11 CFR §111.4(d)(3)], as well as specify the source of the allegations, whether personal knowledge or otherwise [11 CFR §111.4(d)(3)]. The complaint does neither. It fails to meet these threshold legal requirements and should be dismissed.

More specifically, this complaint clearly fails to comply with the aforesaid requirements of the Commission's regulations [11 CFR §111.4 et seq.] or otherwise allege a violation:

- 9 6 0 4 3 7 4 2 3 8 5
- (1) Allegations 1 and 3 of the complaint simply fail to allege any specific factual or legal basis for any violation.² The allegations are vague, groundless, and fail to allege or refer to a statute or regulation within the Commission's jurisdiction, which has been allegedly violated. The complaint fails to properly describe the factual basis giving rise to a violation or allege any specific statute or regulation which was violated. The respondent cannot adequately respond to what amounts to a "fishing expedition" by an opponent. Merely seeking the Commission's review as to whether a disbursement is "within the law" is not only insufficient for Commission action, it fails to provide respondent enough information to adequately prepare a response.
 - (2) Allegation 5 regarding financial disclosure forms filed internally with the Clerk of the U.S. House of Representatives is not within the jurisdiction of the Commission.³
 - (3) Allegations 2 and 4 of the complaint, while containing a vague reference to alleged "personal use"⁴, fail to allege the source of the allegations, and as such, are, at best, idle speculation. They are without basis in fact or law and Mr. Greenebaum obviously has no factual basis or reasonable belief that these expenditures were for "personal use". The complainant [Greenebaum] has no credible evidence or any reasonable belief to support this calumny. The FEC report, without additional documentation or information, cannot serve as the basis for speculative or vague allegations.

II.

The complaint must be dismissed because all allegations relate to bona fide legitimate campaign expenditures.

- (1) All of the disbursements were legitimate campaign expenditures and were properly reported.
- (2) As to the first allegation, the Report of the Committee for Congressman Rose ("Committee") inadvertently listed the purpose of the disbursement as "charitable contribution" when it should simply have noted "donation" for each. The Committee was solicited by each organization for "get out the vote" ("gotv") purposes and that was the intended purpose of the expenditure. Neither organization is a federal political committee. The Committee has corrected its Schedule B accordingly.

Additionally, pursuant to FEC regulations enacted subsequent to the filing of this report regarding limitations on personal use [11 CFR §113.1(g)(2)], the candidate has not received any compensation from the two subject organizations, nor does the candidate have any relationship with respect to either entity. The Commission should, however, take note of the fact that this regulation was not in effect at the time of the expenditures.

The three additional "gotv" donations referenced on the same page of disbursements were all made by the Committee to local "gotv" organizations pursuant to North Carolina law. These contributions were solicited by the individual organizations for "gotv" purposes, and the Committee made the contributions for that purpose. Again, these were all legitimate campaign expenditures. Neither the ² Allegations 1 and 3 pertain to disbursements made in 1994 for "get out the vote" efforts and for "computer" [sic]. Neither contains a recitation of facts describing a specific violation of a specific statute or regulation within the FEC's jurisdiction.

³ In allegation 5 of Mr. Greenebaum's complaint, which is beyond the Commission's jurisdiction, he not only requests that the FEC concern itself with the internal rules of the House, but also incredulously requests that the Commission exceed its jurisdiction by investigating Mr. Rose's personal federal and state income tax returns.

⁴ Allegations 2 and 4 refer to the "invoice for flowers" and SNB "credit card transactions".

Congressman nor the Committee violated any law or regulation within the Commission's jurisdiction by making these expenditures. In short, these were all legitimate campaign expenditures.

Similarly, with respect to the party committees, contributions were made within the requirements and limitations of the law and regulations - these are not affiliated committees. [See, 11 CFR §110.3(b).] No violation of law or regulations were made with respect to these contributions.

Therefore, as to the first allegation in the complaint, all of these disbursements are permitted by law, and were duly reported as required under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

- 9 6 0 4 3 7 4 2 3 8 6
- (3) The second allegation regarding disbursements by the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose for flowers is also without merit. This was a legitimate campaign expenditure. Pursuant to rules and regulations published in the Federal Register on 09 February 1995, a "committee (may) use campaign funds to send flowers to a constituent's funeral without violating the personal use prohibition." The Committee has reviewed its records and determined that the expenditures for each of the disclosed floral purchases are consistent with these regulations. [See Exhibit "1" for an itemization of each purchase.] The Committee has discovered a mathematical error in the amounts of these purchases, however, and has filed a corrected Schedule B.

Therefore, this allegation is without merit, and the disbursements reported are permitted by law and regulation, and were duly reported as required under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

- (4) With respect to the third allegation, there is no "$19,389 disbursed for 'computer.' [sic]" All of the disbursements contained in the June 30, 1995 report for "computers" and/or "computer software" are permitted by the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and were duly itemized and disclosed as required by 11 CFR §104.3(b)(3). All equipment purchased by the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose is for campaign purposes and remains the property of the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose. Thus, this groundless allegation is also without merit.
- (5) The fourth allegation, wherein complainant opines that the $25,564.58 disbursed to Southern National Bank must be itemized by expenditure, is without merit because the FECA and 11 CFR §104.3(b)(4) only require itemization of expenditures "in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year." The law and regulations further provide that "Schedule E shall also include the total of all such expenditures of $200 or less made during the reporting period." The Committee has fully complied with applicable law and regulations by disclosing all expenditures which aggregate $200 or more in value, and by aggregating the remaining expenditures not totalling $200 or more on Schedule E.

Furthermore, none of the items contained within the $25,564.58 of expenditures were in violation of the Personal Use Regulations published on 09 February 1995. Each expense was for a legitimate campaign purpose, as described in the report, and there is no support for complainant's bald groundless assertion that there may be a connection to the Congressman's wedding. Furthermore, there is no evidence that the Congressman "went on honeymoon" [sic]. Thus, the generic allegation contained in the complaint that items may have been for personal use is without merit.

Each of the disbursements for airplane travel were for campaign-related purposes only, and this travel complied with the requirements of the newly adopted Personal Use Regulations in that none of this travel would have occurred if the candidate were not involved in a campaign. Therefore, this allegation in the complaint is also without merit.

- (6) Finally, the complainant raises issues regarding the tax deductibility of the charitable contributions made in lieu of honoraria. This is not a matter within the jurisdiction of the FEC. In the interests of full disclosure, however, the Congressman assures the Commission that he complies with House Rules and does not receive any tax benefit for the donations in question.

The complainant, a declared candidate for the congressional seat now held by Congressman Rose, is apparently engaging in a self-serving fishing expedition which is an abuse of process and unfairly diverts the resources and time of the Commission. To take any action, save and except immediate dismissal of this complaint, would allow mere speculation, rumor and innuendo to serve as the basis for an enforcement action. This is simply contrary to existing law. It violates fundamental fairness. Therefore, the complaint should be dismissed.

III.

In summary, as noted hereinabove, we respectfully request that the Commission find no reason to believe that any violation of law or regulations occurred and to close this matter. Of course, the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose is pleased to provide the Commission with whatever other assistance or information it may require in establishing that all of the allegations contained in the complaint are without merit. Please feel free to contact Albert M. Edwards, Jr., CPA, Treasurer, Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose, at (910) 483-8101 if you require further information or assistance in this matter.

Thanking you in advance for your review, evaluation and dismissal of this matter, I am

Dear Counsel,

I lodged a complaint against Congressman Charlie Rose on August 7, 1995. The complaint number is MUR 4242.

Mr. Rose is in a primary election on May 7, 1996. I do not believe it is fair to the voters to not give this matter top priority so they will be advised of the results of your investigation before they vote on May 7, 1996. This is what happened in the Senator Packwood situation, and the citizens of Oregon lost a lot of respect for the government because of the delays that allowed Packwood to get elected before the damaging evidence was released.

I hope this does not happen again.

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter was initiated by a complaint received from Howard Greenebaum ("Complainant") against Charles ("Charlie") G. Rose, III, and the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose ("the Committee") and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer (together referred to as "Respondents"). Complainant questions several transactions appearing in disclosure reports of the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose between October of 1994 and May of 1995. First, Complainant requests the FEC to "investigate" two contributions entitled "charitable contribution" on the Committee's 1994 30 Day Post-General Report to determine if the organizations receiving the contributions "meet the definition of 'charity,' and if these disbursements of campaign funds were within the law." Complainant also requests that the FEC "investigate if the remaining 5 disbursements [on Schedule B of the Committee's 1994 30 Day Post-General Report] also were made within the law." Second, Complainant requests that the FEC "investigate and see if campaign disbursements made on Jan. 3, 1995 and May 8, 1995 for three separate invoices for flowers were made for personal use or were made within the law." Third, Complainant requests the FEC to "investigate . . . $19,389 disbursed for 'computer' and determine if all of these disbursements were within the law." Fourth, Complainant requests that the FEC "investigate the $25,564.58 disbursed to the Southern National Bank of Lumberton, NC between the dates of Jan. 23, 1995 and May 31, 1995 . . . to see if any of these campaign funds were used for personal use," especially "since the Congressman was married and went on a honeymoon during this time." With this allegation, Complainant also appears to raise the issue of whether "credit card transactions [reported by the Committee] must be itemized on the FEC report by sales slip so the public can see the detail of these expenditures." In addition to the credit card entries, Complainant requests the FEC to "investigate the disbursements made on Jan. 5, 1995 for $1,475 (US Air air travel), Jan. 23, 1995 for $2,673 (Delta air travel) and Jan. 23, 1995 for $2,426 (US Air air travel) to determine if these campaign funds were used for personal use." Finally, Complainant requests the FEC to "investigate to determine . . . whether Charlie Rose is using [charitable] donations, made by other parties, to receive deductions from any federal or state taxes."¹

9 6 0 4 3 7 4 2 4 5 4

In their response to the complaint, Respondents admit that two transactions reported as "charitable contribution[s]" on the Committee's 1994 30 Day Post-General Report should have been reported simply as "donation[s]." According to the response, the Committee was solicited by each organization for "get out the vote" ("gotv") purposes. The response asserts that "neither organization [erroneously reported as a charity] is a federal political committee." The response further asserts that three of the remaining five disbursements on Schedule B of the Committee's 1994 30 Day Post-General Report that were mentioned in the complaint were disbursements made by the Committee to local "gotv" organizations pursuant to North Carolina law. "These contributions," the response states, "were solicited by the individual organizations for 'gotv' purposes, and the Committee made the contributions for that purpose." With respect to the final two disbursements questioned by Complainant, Respondents claim that the beneficiary organizations were party committees, not affiliated committees, and that the disbursements or contributions were made within the requirements and limitations of the "law and regulations."

Additionally, Respondents assert that the expenditures for the floral purchases mentioned in the complaint are consistent with the regulations which allow "a committee [to] use campaign funds to send flowers to a constituent's funeral without violating the personal use prohibition." Respondents also assert that "[a]ll of the disbursements contained in the June 30, 1995 report for 'computers' and/or 'computer software' are permitted by the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and were duly itemized and disclosed as required by 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(3)." Furthermore, Respondents state that "[a]ll equipment purchased by the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose is for campaign purposes and remains the property of the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose."

In connection with the allegations involving the $25,564.58 disbursed to Southern National Bank, Respondents state that "[t]he Committee has fully complied with applicable law and regulations by disclosing all expenditures which aggregate $200 or more in value"

Respondents also claim that "none of the items contained within the $25,564.58 of expenditures were in violation of the Personal Use Regulations published on 09 February 1995. Each expense was for a legitimate campaign purpose, as described in the report, and there is no support for Complainant's bald groundless assertion that there may be a connection to the Congressman's wedding." Likewise, "the disbursements for airplane travel were for campaign-related purposes only, and . . . complied with the requirements of the newly adopted Personal Use Regulations"

Finally, Respondents point out that the "issue regarding the tax deductibility of the charitable contributions made in lieu of honoraria . . . is not a matter within the jurisdiction of the Commission . . . [but] assures the Commission that [Charlie Rose] complies with House Rules and does not receive any tax benefit for the donations in question."

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Applicable Law

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), and the Commission's regulations establish a number of reporting requirements which must be followed by each treasurer of a political committee filing reports in accordance with the provisions of the Act. 2 U.S.C. § 434 and 11 C.F.R. § 104. Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4), each report shall disclose the total amount of all disbursements, and all disbursements in certain enumerated categories as set forth in 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4)(A) through (H). Also, "[p]olitical committees shall report the full name and mailing address of each person to whom an expenditure in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year is made from the reporting committee's federal account(s), together with the date, amount and purpose of such expenditure" 11 C.F.R. § 104.9(a). See also 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5)(A). Each treasurer of a political committee, and any other person required to file any report or statement under the Commission's regulations and the Act, shall be personally responsible for the timely and complete filing of the report or statement and for the accuracy of any information or statement contained in it. 11 C.F.R. § 104.14(d).

The Act provides that excess campaign funds may be used for a variety of specified purposes that are expressly made lawful, including to defray any ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in connection with a candidate's duties as a holder of federal office, contributions to any organization described in section 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, transfers without limitation to any national, state, or local committee of any political party, and "for any other lawful purpose." 2 U.S.C. § 439a; 11 C.F.R. § 113.2. In addition, the Commission has previously stated that a candidate and his or her campaign committee have wide discretion in making expenditures to influence the candidate's election, under the Act and the Commission's regulations, but may not convert excess funds to the personal use of the candidate or any other person. 2 U.S.C. §§ 431(9) and 439a; 11 C.F.R. §§ 113.1(g) and 113.2(d); see also Advisory Opinions 1996-9, 1995-47, 1995-46, 1995-42 and 1995-26. Thus, even when an entity does not qualify under 26 U.S.C. § 170(c), the Commission has found that a donation by a candidate's committee to that entity may be permissible as a use for "any other lawful purpose" so long as the donation in no way represents a conversion of excess campaign funds to the candidate's personal use. Advisory Opinion 1992-32² and 1986-39.

² Advisory Opinion 1992-32 concerned a congressman's principal campaign committee's proposal to donate $6,500 to a non-profit, public housing residents' council which did not qualify under 26 U.S.C. § 170 (c); the

Prior to April 5, 1995, the Commission found that "expenses which would exist regardless of an individual's election to Federal office are not 'incidental' and may not be paid from campaign funds." See Advisory Opinions 1980-138 and 1981-2. This characterization of personal use is very similar to the definition of personal use which became effective on April 5, 1995, that is, "any use of funds in a campaign account of a present or former candidate to fill a commitment, obligation or expense of any person that would exist irrespective of the candidate's campaign or duties as a Federal officeholder." 11 C.F.R. § 113.1 (g). In fact, the Explanation and Justification for the personal use regulations which became effective in April 1995 specifically states that the current definition of personal use is based on the approach found in Advisory Opinions 1980-138 and 1981-2. See 60 Fed. Reg. 7862, 7863 (1995). The current personal use regulations, however, provide for several exemptions from the definition of personal use. For example, gifts of nominal value and donations of a nominal amount made on special occasions such as a holiday, graduation, marriage, retirement, or death are exempt. 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(4).³

B. Contributions to organizations

Complainant's first allegation of personal use involves contributions made to seven organizations by the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose between October 27, 1994 and November 1, 1994, including two contributions erroneously reported as having gone to charities. In its response, the Committee claims that two of the seven organizations which received Commission concluded that such a donation would not be a conversion of excess campaign funds to personal use provided that the congressman did not hold or derive a personal financial interest in the council.

³ Based on the complaint and response in this matter, there is insufficient evidence to find reason to believe that there was a violation of the personal use regulations. Hence, this report does not further discuss any potential disparity of outcome between personal use allegations analyzed under the new personal use regulations versus allegations analyzed under the approach in advisory opinions prior to April 5, 1995. See also footnote 5.

contributions were party committees. Pursuant to section 439a, contributions of excess campaign funds to national, state, or local committees of any political party are expressly sanctioned by the Act. 2 U.S.C. § 439a. The Committee also claims that the five remaining recipients of contributions had solicited funds for "gotv" purposes. Of the three that the Committee asserts were local "gotv" organizations, two, Cumberland County Voter Project and Minority Voter Drive Committee, have names that suggest an organizational commitment to "gotv." The name of the third organization, Columbus County Civic League, suggests nothing inconsistent with the Committee's claim that the contributions had been solicited and made for "gotv" purposes.

The Committee admits that the contributions for "gotv" activities to the final two organizations, South Lumberton Improvement Association and Faulk Community Center, were erroneously reported as charitable contributions instead of "donation[s]." Such a reporting error constitutes a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b), but does not bear directly on the question of whether the contributions were proper. It was noted earlier that the Commission has taken the position that a candidate and his or her campaign committee have wide discretion, under the Act and the Commission's regulations, in making expenditures to influence the candidate's election, so long as the candidate does not convert excess campaign funds to personal use. See Advisory Opinions 1996-9, 1995-47, 1995-46, 1995-42, and 1995-26.

There is no evidence to show that any of the organizations which received contributions from the Committee were connected with Charlie Rose in such a way to suggest that contributions to them may have been a conversion of excess campaign funds to personal use. Moreover, there is nothing about the apparent nature of these organizations that suggests that the Committee's contributions to them might otherwise be improper. Accordingly, based on the complaint and response in this matter, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that Charles G. Rose, III, and the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a in connection with contributions made by the Committee to the seven organizations at issue. Based on the misreporting of the two donations to the Southern Lumberton Improvement Association and Faulk Community Center, this Office does recommend that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b). However, since the violation involved the misreporting of otherwise legal contributions as "charitable contribution[s]" and the Committee has amended its 1994 30 Day Post-General Report to reflect a correct characterization of the contributions, this Office also recommends that the Commission take no further action against the Committee.⁴ If the Commission approves this recommendation, this Office will send a letter of admonishment to the Committee.

9 6 0 4 3 7 4 2 4 5 9

C. Disbursements for flowers

Complainant also requests that the Commission investigate three disbursements for constituent flowers made by the Committee. Respondents assert that the disbursements for flowers are consistent with the exemption under the new personal use regulations for "gifts of nominal value and donations of a nominal amount made on special occasions such as a holiday, graduation, marriage, retirement, or death" 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(4). Itemized disbursements on the Committee's 1995 Mid-Year Report and materials submitted with the Committee's response suggest that the disbursements made for flowers were in connection with the illness and funerals of constituents. See attachments A - C. The disbursements were in the amounts of $42.40, on January 3, 1995, and $21.20 and $39.10, on May 8, 1995. These small expenditure amounts for flowers in connection with the illness and death of a constituent appear to be within the exception to the definition of personal use.⁵ Thus, based on the complaint and response in this matter, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that Charles G. Rose, III, and the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a in connection with the disbursements for flowers.

D. Disbursement for "computer"

The Committee also reported a number of expenditures on its 1995 Mid-Year Report under the rubric of "campaign computer equipment" or "campaign computer supply." Complainant simply "requests that [we] investigate the [amounts] disbursed for 'computer' and determine if all of these disbursements were made within the law." Complainant does not suggest that the disbursements were made for something other than computers or that there was some other deficiency in the Committee's compliance with the Act. As stated earlier, the Commission has previously concluded that a candidate and his or her campaign committee have

⁵ The January 3, 1995 expenditure for flowers is not analyzed separately here for the following reasons: In the past, the Commission has taken positions that are consistent with the current section 113.1(g)(4) exemption for gifts or donations of nominal dollar value. In Advisory Opinion 1977-11, which predated the 1980 effective date of 2 U.S.C. § 439a, the Commission concluded that a candidate committee could make expenditures in connection with a constituent's funeral. Since 1980, the Commission has concluded, in Advisory Opinion 1981-2, that a candidate may pay the costs of a reception held for constituents on the day of the candidate's swearing-in to office. The Commission said that the costs "relate to celebrating with [the candidate's] constituents an event that commences [his] official status as a holder of Federal office. Thus, they are viewed by the Commission as 'ordinary and necessary expenses' associated with the duties of a Federal officeholder." Arguably, sending flowers to a constituent's funeral in January of 1995, was one of the category of things that could be characterized as "associated with the duties of a Federal officeholder." Thus, given the nominal expenditure at issue ($42.40), the consistency of this expenditure with the current personal use exemption and its apparent consistency with past advisory opinions, this Office does not believe that it is necessary to make a separate recommendation as to the January 3, 1995 disbursement for flowers.

wide discretion in making expenditures to influence the candidate's election (Advisory Opinions 1996-9, 1995-47, 1995-46, 1995-42, and 1995-26) and thus, the disbursements for campaign computer equipment were well within the range of permissible expenditures which Charlie Rose and his campaign committee could make in connection with his campaign for federal office. Nothing in the complaint or the materials submitted with the complaint provide reason to believe that the expenditures were in connection with anything other than what was reported in the Committee's disclosure report. Therefore, based on the complaint and response in this matter, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that Charles G. Rose, III, and the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a in connection with the disbursements for computer equipment and supplies.

E. Disbursements to Southern National Bank of Lumberton

Schedule B of the 1995 Mid-Year Report of the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose lists several disbursements to the Southern National Bank of Lumberton. The disbursements to the bank were apparently payments made against a revolving credit account in connection with credit card purchases of a variety of items. Some of the purchases itemized on the Committee's disclosure report are for such things as travel, lodging, constituent entertainment, and airfare. None of these purchases are inherently inconsistent with an expenditure in connection with the conduct of a federal election campaign. While any of these items might have involved personal use of campaign funds, Complainant does not make a reference to a specific expenditure which may have constituted a violation of the Act and the Commission's regulations. As noted earlier, Respondents state in their response that "none of the items contained within the $25,564.58 of expenditures were in violation of the Personal Use Regulations published on 09 February 1995." Because Complainant fails to provide evidence that any of the expenditures give rise to personal use, this Office makes no further analysis into the personal use allegations involved here. Accordingly, based on the complaint and response in this matter, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that Charles G. Rose, III, and the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a in connection with the disbursements to Southern National Bank of Lumberton.

Moreover, in contrast to the accusations made in the complaint, the evidence does not suggest that the Committee failed to report the full name and address of any person to whom an expenditure was made in excess of $200. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.9(a). Respondents assert that they "fully complied with applicable law and regulations by disclosing all expenditures which aggregate $200 or more in value" An examination of the Committee's 1995 Mid-Year Report supports the accuracy of this assertion. See Attachment D1 et seq. Apparently, the Committee itemized the payments made against its Southern National Bank revolving credit account for credit purchases exceeding $200 both as a payment to the bank and as a memo entry showing the name and address of the actual vendor. Thus, it would appear that the Committee complied with the disclosure requirements under the Act.

Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) in connection with the reporting of disbursements to Southern National Bank of Lumberton on the Committee's 1995 Mid-Year Report.

F. Disbursements for air travel

According to Schedule B of the Committee's 1995 Mid-Year Report, all disbursements for air travel were for campaign-related purposes, except one disbursement for air travel on January 23, 1995, which was an in-kind political contribution to the Cynthia McKinney for Congress Committee. The Act does not prohibit a political contribution from one candidate committee to another, if the contribution or contributions in aggregate do not exceed $1,000 with respect to any election for federal office. Additionally, the Charlie Rose for Congress Committee could certainly use campaign funds to pay for campaign-related travel. In the absence of any evidence to the contrary in the complaint or the materials submitted with it, this Office can find no fault with the Committee's assertion that, "[e]ach of the disbursements for air travel were for campaign-related purposes only," and that, "the air travel complied with the requirements of the newly adopted Personal Use Regulations in that none of this travel would have occurred if the candidate were [sic] not involved in a campaign." Complainant, it seems, would have this Office investigate the air travel expenditures individually to see if they are in compliance with the personal use regulations, but does not provide any reasonable basis for a belief that the air travel expenditures were for other than campaign-related purposes. Accordingly, based on the complaint and response in this matter, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that Charles G. Rose, III, and the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a in connection with the disbursements for air travel.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find reason to believe that the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) in connection with the misreporting of non-charitable contributions as charitable contributions, but take no further action.

RE: MUR 4242

Dear Mr. Greenebaum:

This is in reference to the complaint you filed with the Federal Election Commission on August 9, 1995, concerning possible violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), by Charlie G. Rose, III, and the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose and Albert M. Edwards, Jr., as treasurer ("the Committee").

Based on that complaint, on July 25, 1996, the Commission found that there is no reason to believe that Charlie Rose and the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a of the Act. On that same day, the Commission also found that there is no reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) in connection with the reporting of disbursements to Southern National Bank of Lumberton, and, that there is reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) in connection with the misreporting of non-charitable contributions as charitable contributions. After considering the circumstances of this matter, however, the Commission determined to take no further action against the Committee and sent an admonishment letter. Accordingly, the Commission closed the file in this matter on July 25, 1996.

RE: MUR 4242

Dear Mr. Edwards:

On July 25, 1996, the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe that the Committee for Congressman Charlie Rose (the "Committee") and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, in connection with the misreporting of non-charitable contributions as charitable contributions. However, after considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission also determined to take no further action. Additionally, the Commission found no reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) in connection with the reporting of disbursements to the Southern National Bank of Lumberton, and 2 U.S.C. § 439a. Accordingly, the Commission has closed its file in this matter. The First General Counsel's Report, which formed a basis for the Commission's findings, is attached for your information.

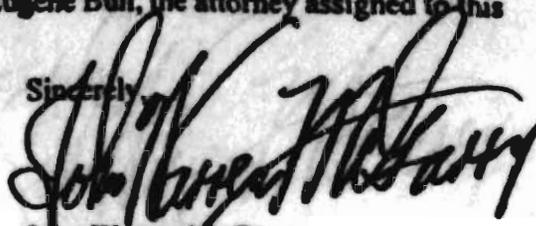

The Commission reminds you that all contributions must be reported accurately on the Committee's disclosure reports to avoid violations of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b). You should take steps to ensure that the Committee's disclosure reports are accurate in the future.

The confidentiality provisions at 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. RE: MUR 4242

Dear Mr. Rose:

On August 11, 1995, the Federal Election Commission notified you of a complaint which indicated that you may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

On July 25, 1996, the Commission found, on the basis of information in the complaint and information provided by you, that there is no reason to believe you violated 2 U.S.C. § 439a. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter.

The confidentiality provisions at 2 U.S.C. § 437g (a) (12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. If you wish to submit any factual or legal materials to appear on the public record, please do so as soon as possible. While the file may be placed on the public record before receiving your additional materials, any permissible submissions will be added to the public record upon receipt.

Sincerely,

Lawrence M. Noble
General Counsel
