Reporting Disbursements

How to Itemize Disbursements

Always Itemize:

- ✓ Transfers to affiliated committees
- ✓ Loan repayments
- ✓ Loans made
- ✓ Contributions to other federal candidates

Itemize all other disbursements when:

- ✓ Aggregate > $200 to the same payee in an election

I. Reporting Disbursements – Operating Expenditures - (11 CFR 104.3(b))

A. How to Itemize (Guide, pp. 99-100)

1. Itemize regardless of amount:

- a) Transfers to affiliated committees;
- b) Loan repayments;
- c) Loans made; and
- d) Contributions made to other federal candidates.

2. All other disbursements:

Itemize once payments to the same payee exceed $200 when aggregated with other payments to same source during an election cycle

3. Itemization Information

Include following information for each payee:

- a) Name and mailing address;
- b) Purpose of disbursement (a brief description of why the disbursement was made);
- c) Date of disbursement; and
- d) Amount of disbursement.

Purpose of Disbursement

Rule of thumb:

Could a reader discern why a payment was made by reading the description?

Non-exhaustive list available online at:

<http://www.fec.gov/law/policy.shtml#purpose>

- B. Purpose of Disbursement (11 CFR 104.3(b)(3) and (4)); (Guide, p. 99)
1. FEC regulations require that the “purpose of disbursement” entry for each disbursement be sufficiently specific, when considered with the identity of the recipient, to provide a clear reason for the payment.
 2. Policy statement includes non-exhaustive lists of acceptable and unacceptable “purpose of disbursement” descriptions intended to provide additional guidance to the regulated community and to foster consistency among filers.
 3. Rule of thumb
The statement suggests that filers consider whether a person unaffiliated with the campaign/committee could discern why a payment was made by reading the description they have provided.
 4. List is updated periodically and made available online at <http://www.fec.gov/law/policy.shtml#purpose>.

SCENARIO #6: *Reporting Disbursements – Operating Expenditures (Guide, pp. 99-100); Credit Card Transactions (Guide, pp. 100-101)

Mr. Newman, Candidate Cosmo Kramer’s Treasurer, decided the smartest way for the campaign committee to pay its expenses was for the campaign to have its own credit card. During the period covered by the April Quarterly Report, the card (issued by Citibank VISA, 301 10th Street, Suite 4500, New York, NY 10001) has been used to pay the following expenses:

- 1. $150 paid to Poppy’s Restaurant (located at Broadway and 112th Street, New York, NY 10025) for food brought in for the January 15, 2014 monthly fundraising strategy luncheon. (The campaign has not used this restaurant before in the current election cycle.)*
- 2. $3,000 paid to Skyway Airlines for a charter flight Candidate Kramer took on February 13, 2014. Skyway is based out of Newark Airport (address: 301 Airport Way, Newark, NJ 07114).*

By not paying the credit card bill for a few months, the campaign has incurred an additional $24.50 in finance charges. On April 29, 2014, the campaign paid off the entire $3,174.50.

1. How should the committee disclose credit card debt?

2. How should the committee properly disclose the credit card payment?

3. Key issues:

SCENARIO #6 – ANSWERS:

1. How should the committee disclose credit card debt?

Debts and obligations (other than loans) are reported on Schedule D according to the following rules:

- A debt of $500 or less is reportable once it has been outstanding 60 days from the date incurred (date of transaction, not date bill is received). The debt is disclosed on the next regularly scheduled report.
- A debt exceeding $500 must be reported in the report covering the date on which the debt was incurred.

Schedule D (outstanding debt): The debt to the credit card company should be disclosed on Schedule D in the same way as any other debts. List the credit card company as the debtor; be sure to reflect the outstanding debt amount at the close of the reporting period. Please note: no memo entries for specific credit card transactions should be listed on Schedule D.

Schedule D, Line 10:

- Report amount owed as debt until reimbursed if >$500 or outstanding >60 days
- Do not use MEMO entries on Schedule D – vendors listed on Schedule B when disclosing payment

Outstanding Balance Beginning This Period 0.00

Schedule B (debt payments): As the committee pays off the debt, report partial or full payments on Schedule B – include MEMO entries to show original transactions making up the amount that is being repaid to the credit card company directly below the entry for payment to the credit card company (or, for electronic filers, link these). See reporting example above.

Note for Electronic Filers: Certain types of electronic filing software may not allow you to include a portion of memo entries underlying each partial payment on a credit card debt on each report where your committee is showing a repayment. For example, your software may only allow you to include all memo entries on the first report where you show a partial payment, but may not allow you to include any memo entries on the next report(s) where you show subsequent repayment(s). In this case, please add a note saying so using Memo Text on each report where this applies to avoid Requests for Additional Information from the Reports Analysis Division of the FEC.

2. How should the committee properly disclose the credit card payment?

The committee needs to disclose the payment of charges on the campaign credit card as an operating expenditure.

How to Report:

- Report credit card payment on Schedule B for Line 17. Campaign should disclose total payment to the credit card with the Date of Disbursement as the date the committee pays credit card bill.
- Report itemization of vendor (Skyway Airlines) on Schedule B for Line 17 as a MEMO entry. The Date of Disbursement is the date of the charter flight; in the Amount of Each Disbursement this Period box, include notation, “Citibank VISA” as a cross-reference to the credit card payment.
- The $150 payment to Poppy’s Restaurant does not require itemization, as the committee’s payments to this vendor did not aggregate over $200 in the election cycle.

Credit Card Payment

July Quarterly Report

Campaign Operations Part 3

3. Key issues:

- Pay attention to the itemization threshold. Take into account previous disbursements to same vendor – keep good records.
- Use MEMO entry for any payee that exceeds the itemization threshold for operating expenses (in excess of $200 for election cycle). Also include a notation that refers back to the credit card payment as cross-reference.
- Debts owed to credit card company are reflected on Schedule D in the period in which the debt was incurred if amount owed is in excess of $500; or once it has been outstanding for 60 days if $500 or less. No MEMO entries on Schedule D.
- When paying credit card debt, disclose payment to credit card company on Schedule B for Line 17, including MEMO entry for any payees making up the amount being repaid to the credit card company.

Travel by Aircraft

Campaign Use of Non-commercial Aircraft:

House Candidates + House Leadership PACs	• Prohibited
Presidential/VP & Senate Candidates	• Only if charter rate paid
Other Leadership PACs	• 1 st class/coach/charter (based on origin/destination cities)

• Exceptions for use of government-operated and candidate/family-owned aircraft.

 Information Division
2013-14 Election Cycle Campaign Operations Part 3

II. Campaign Travel – (11 CFR 100.93) (Guide, pp. 67-71)

A. General Guidelines

1. The rules governing the use of non-commercial aircraft by campaign travelers differ depending on whether an individual is traveling on behalf of:
 - a) House candidate or the Leadership PAC of a House candidate;
 - b) Senate / Presidential / Vice Presidential candidate; or
 - c) Any other political committee (i.e., party committee, separate segregated fund, nonconnected PAC, or Leadership PAC of a Senate or Presidential candidate).
2. Exceptions / Separate Rules for:
 - a) Government operated aircraft; and
 - b) Candidate or immediate family member owns or leases aircraft.
3. Commercial Travel – (11 CFR 100.93(a)(3)(iv))
When usual and normal charge available (i.e., specified fee by route, mileage or date and time of use) travel is generally considered “commercial travel.”
4. Non-Commercial Travel - (11 CFR 100.93(a)(3)(v))
Travel aboard any conveyance that is not “commercial” as defined above.

Travel by Aircraft

House/Leadership PACs

- ☐ Travel on non-commercial aircraft is Prohibited
 - Even if 3rd party pays as in-kind contribution
- ☐ Can pay for air travel only if the aircraft is operated by:
 - A commercial air carrier
 - Federal/state government entity

B. House Candidates/Leadership PACs of House Members (Guide, p. 68)

1. Use of Non-Commercial Aircraft Prohibited

Campaign travelers traveling on behalf of House candidate, their authorized committees and Leadership PACs are prohibited from using non-commercial aircraft.

- a) The campaign traveler may travel only on aircraft operated by a:
 - (1) Commercial air carrier; or
 - (2) Federal or state government entity.
- b) Prohibition cannot be avoided by candidate personal funds payment to the service provider or third-party payments treated as an “in-kind” contribution. (e.g., individual may not pay for House candidate to take campaign-related flight on private aircraft).
- c) House candidates may travel on non-commercial aircraft when traveling on behalf of another committee (i.e. Presidential, Senate, party committees, etc.) but may NOT travel on non-commercial aircraft when traveling on behalf of their own campaigns or Leadership PACs. 74 FR 63956.

2. Use of Government Conveyance (Guide, pp. 69-70)

Campaign travelers traveling on behalf of a candidate, their authorized committee or House Leadership PAC must reimburse a government entity for travel on any government-operated aircraft at either the “Per Candidate Campaign Traveler” or “Private Traveler Reimbursement” rates. (For more information, see January 2010 issue of FEC Record newsletter, pp. 3-4).

Travel by Aircraft

Basic Rule

- ❑ Committee pays service provider full value of travel cost for all individuals travelling on behalf of campaign.
- ❑ Payment must be made within commercially reasonable time, i.e., no later than seven (7) calendar days after the flight began.

Information Division
 2013-14 Election Cycle

Campaign Operations Part 3

C. Use of Non-Commercial Aircraft - (11 CFR 100.93(b)); (Guide, pp. 67-68)

1. Basic Rule

- a) No contribution results if political committee on whose behalf the travel is conducted pays the provider the full value of the travel by all campaign travelers who travel on behalf of that committee.
- b) Reimbursement must be provided no later than seven (7) calendar days after the date the flight began at one of the following rates to avoid the receipt of an in-kind contribution from service provider.

Travel by Aircraft

Presidential/Senate

- ▣ Reimburse non-commercial provider
 - At the usual charter rate for comparable aircraft
 - At the pro rata share per campaign traveler
 - Attribution reflects benefit derived by each candidate
- ▣ Travel with non-campaign traveler:
campaign(s) must pay entire charter fare
(except media/security)

2. Presidential/Senate Candidates – (11 CFR 100.93(c)(1) and 113.5(a)); (Guide, p. 68)
- Campaign travelers using non-commercial aircraft to travel on behalf of Presidential and Senate candidates and their authorized committees (including the candidate) must reimburse the provider of the aircraft at the pro rata share of normal and usual charter fare for comparable aircraft of comparable size.
- a) “Comparable aircraft of comparable size”: An aircraft of similar make and model with similar amenities to the plane actually used.
 - b) Pro rata share: Determine pro rata share by dividing the normal and usual charter rate by the number of campaign travelers who represent candidates or authorized committees.
 - (1) Includes all campaign travelers (including candidate and security).
 - (2) Candidate need not be on flight.
 - (3) If more than one campaign represented on flight, determine how many are traveling on behalf of each.
 - c) Attribution reflects proportion of benefit derived by each candidate (not necessarily equal).
 - d) Travel with non-candidate campaign traveler:
 - (1) Generally, candidate(s) must pay the cost of the entire charter fare. Non-candidate campaign travelers – such as PAC or party committee representatives – may not relieve any of the candidate’s payment obligation.

- (2) News media or government-provided security personnel may pay, but not more than their pro rata share of the travel cost. Reimbursement may be made to service provider or campaign committee and does not result in an in-kind contribution.
- e) Note: these rules do not apply to Presidential/Senate Leadership PACs (see section on “Other Political Committees” below).

Travel by Aircraft

Other Political Committees

(including Presidential/Senate Leadership PACs)

- ☐ For city with regularly scheduled air service
 - Must pay at least lowest unrestricted, non-discounted fare (1st class/coach rate)
- ☐ For city without regularly scheduled air service
 - Must pay at least usual charter rate for comparable aircraft (including media/security)

 Old Rule (2003) **

Campaign Operations Part 3

Information Division
2013-14 Election Cycle

3. Other Political Committees (i.e., Presidential/Senate Leadership PACs)

– 11 CFR 100.93(c)(3); (Guide, p. 68)

- a) No payment is required if campaign travelers are traveling on behalf of a Presidential or Senate candidate’s Leadership PAC, party committee, separate segregated fund or nonconnected PAC if a Presidential or Senate campaign committee pays for flight on non-commercial aircraft. (See Section C.2.d. above)
- b) Otherwise, campaign traveler must pay the service provider no less than the following (formulae determined by travel cities):
- (1) Travel between cities with regularly scheduled first-class air service: Lowest unrestricted and non-discounted first-class air fare.
 - (2) Travel between cities served by regularly schedule coach service but not regularly scheduled first-class airline service: Lowest unrestricted and non-discounted coach airfare.

- (3) Travel between cities not served by regularly scheduled commercial airline service: Usual charter rate for comparable commercial aircraft of sufficient size to accommodate campaign travelers, and security personnel if applicable.
- c) Date of public availability. – 11 CFR 100.93(f)
Payment rate must be the rate available to the general public for the dates traveled or within seven (7) calendar days thereof.

Travel by Aircraft

Candidate/Family-Owned

Exception for House Candidate/Leadership PAC Use:

Wholly owned aircraft:

- Reimburse (or receive in-kind contribution for) pro rata share of costs

Shared ownership, travel WITHIN ownership share:

- Reimburse for cost of travel OR receives in-kind contribution

Shared ownership, travel EXCEEDS share:

- Senate/President: excess treated like other non-commercial travel (reimbursed at pro rata share of usual charter rate)
- House: PROHIBITED

Information Division
2013-14 Election CycleCampaign Operations Part 3

- D. Exception for Aircraft Owned by Candidate or Candidate’s Immediate Family – (11 CFR 100.93(g) and 113.5(c)); (Guide, p. 68)
Prohibitions on expenditures for use of non-commercial aircraft do not apply if candidate or “immediate family member” owns/leases aircraft and candidate’s use is equal to or less than proportionate ownership share.
1. “Immediate Family Member” = husband, wife, father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law of the candidate.
 2. “Proportional Ownership Share” = amount of use to which candidate/family is entitled under ownership/lease agreement.
 3. Reimbursement Rate -- Wholly Owned by Candidate/Family
Reimburse the pro rata share of the costs associated with the trip (or report as in-kind, to extent within individual’s limit).

4. Reimbursement Rates – Shared Ownership Aircraft
- a) If travel use is within candidate/family share: Reimburse at hourly, mileage or other applicable rate charged to the candidate for the costs of the travel.
 - b) If travel use is in excess of candidate/family share:
 - (1) Senate/Presidential candidates: Excess flight time reimbursed at the pro rata share of the charter rate for the flight (like any other non-commercial flight).
 - (2) House candidates: Prohibited.

SCENARIO #7: Staff Advances for Travel Expenses (Guide, pp. 97-98) and Non-Travel Expenses (Guide, pp. 95-96)

Susan Ross, the Communications Manager for Cosmo Kramer's campaign committee, used her personal credit card on April 3, 2014, to purchase a $550 airline ticket to represent the committee at the campaign event on Flag Day (June 14, 2014). The committee will reimburse her, but not for at least 6 months, until more contributions for the primary election are received. (Note: Susan resides at 715 West 79th Street, New York, NY 10024).

Another campaign volunteer, Jackie Chiles (460 West End Avenue, Suite 2500, New York, NY 10024) wrote a personal check for $750 on April 20, 2014, to pay for office supplies at his neighborhood Staples (900 West 79th Street, New York, NY 10024). He submitted the receipt to the committee treasurer that same day. The committee reimbursed him in full with campaign funds on April 30, 2014.

Candidate Kramer is hosting a fundraising breakfast at his apartment on September 22, 2014. He goes to his favorite breakfast spot, Top of the Muffin To You! (210 West 79th Street, New York, NY 10024), and instead of using the campaign credit card, Kramer writes a personal check for $950 to pay for assorted muffin tops, coffee, tea and juice for the event. Candidate Kramer does not wish to be reimbursed for the expense.

- 1. How should the committee disclose the first transaction (airline ticket)? Since the committee has not yet made the reimbursement, what issues must they consider when deciding how to disclose it?
- 2. Any additional disclosure necessary?
- 3. How should the committee disclose the second transaction (office supplies)? Since it has been reimbursed by the end of the reporting period, do they need to disclose the advance and/or the reimbursement?
- 4. Does the advance result in a contribution from Jackie Chiles? If so, does the resulting contribution need to be disclosed?
- 5. How should the committee disclose the third transaction (unreimbursed expense paid by the candidate)?
- 6. Key Issues?

SCENARIO #7 – ANSWERS:

1. How should the committee disclose the first transaction (airline ticket)? Since the committee has not yet made the reimbursement, what issues must they consider when deciding how to disclose it?

When a staff member advances funds in connection with travel expenses, no contribution results when the committee makes the reimbursement either within 30 days of when expenses were incurred (for advances by cash or check); or within 60 days of the closing date on the credit card billing statement (for advances by credit card) – unlike a non-travel advance which is considered an in-kind contribution, regardless if it is reimbursed at a later time.

Susan used a credit card for her travel and since the campaign is not reimbursing her within the 60 day period of the credit card statement closing date, a contribution from Susan results.

- Report the advance as a contribution: show reporting on Schedule A for Line 11(a)(i) as a MEMO entry (since no money went into the campaign account). The Date of Receipt is the date the funds are advanced (the date Susan uses her credit card to purchase the ticket); also, include a notation indicating, “Travel advance to be reimbursed.”

2. Any additional disclosure necessary?

Yes. Until the campaign reimburses Susan, it must disclose the outstanding advance as a debt. When the Committee eventually pays off the advance/debt to the staff member, the payment should be reflected on Schedule D and as an operating expense on Schedule B for Line 17.

3. How should the committee disclose the second transaction (office supplies)? Since it was reimbursed by the end of the reporting period, do they need to disclose the advance and/or the reimbursement?

When a member of the campaign staff advances their own money to pay for a non-travel expense on behalf of the campaign, the advance is considered a contribution and counts against the individual's limit until reimbursed.

When the reimbursement is made in the same reporting period, if the total amount of the advance exceeds $500, and payments to that person are over $200 for the election cycle, then the committee must:

- 1) Report the staff member as payee, and
- 2) Itemize any payment aggregating over $200 to any one vendor.

- Report reimbursement to staff member: show reporting on Schedule B for Line 17. The Date of Disbursement is the date the campaign reimburses the staff member.
- Report itemization to vendor: show reporting on Schedule B for Line 17 as MEMO entry. The Date of Disbursement is the date the staff member pays the vendor (here, it is the date the check was written).

4. Does the advance result in a contribution from Jackie Chiles? If so, does the resulting contribution need to be disclosed?

Yes, until the advance is reimbursed. Any non-travel advance is considered an in-kind contribution at the time it is made – unlike a travel advance which only results in a contribution if it is not reimbursed within the appropriate timeframe. The advance affects contribution limits to the extent that the advance remains outstanding – any reimbursement made will reinstate the individual’s limit accordingly.

For example, if Jackie Chiles had already contributed the full $2,600 to the campaign for the primary, his $750 payment for office supplies would have resulted in an excessive contribution at the moment the funds were advanced, even if the campaign reimbursed him an hour later and thus remedied the excessive contribution.

Austin Regional 2013
Prepared by the Federal Election Commission

On the other hand, if the non-travel advance was the first time Jackie Chiles provided any monetary support to the campaign, the payment to Staples would have resulted in a $750 in-kind contribution – decreasing the amount he could then contribute to, or advance on behalf of, the campaign to $1,850 (while his reimbursement was outstanding). Once Jackie received his full $750 reimbursement from the campaign, he could again contribute or advance up to the $2,600 limit.

No, the original advance is reported as a contribution only if the total advanced from the staff member, minus any reimbursements made as of the end of the reporting period, aggregate over $200 for the election cycle (i.e., previous contributions + the advance – the reimbursement > $200). Since the amount outstanding to Jackie Chiles at the end of the reporting period is $0, the advance is not disclosed as a contribution on Schedule A.

5. How should the committee disclose the third transaction (unreimbursed expense paid by the candidate)?

The Committee to Elect Cosmo Kramer must disclose disbursements from personal funds made by Candidate Kramer on behalf of his committee, just as it would disclose any other disbursement that it makes. Since Candidate Kramer is not seeking reimbursement, paying for the food for the fundraiser results in an in-kind contribution.

Out of pocket spending by the candidate, as an agent of his authorized committee, requires memo entry itemization of the ultimate payee if the aggregate amount of payments to a vendor exceeds $200 for the election cycle. Each memo entry must include the name and address of the vendor to which payment was made and the date, amount and purpose of the payment. See Interpretive Rule on Reporting Ultimate Payees of Political Committee Disbursements (published on July 8, 2013) at http://www.fec.gov/law/cfr/ej_compilation/2013/notice2013-09.pdf

- Report out-of-pocket expense by candidate: show reporting on Schedule A for Line 11(d) “Contributions from the Candidate.”

6. Key Issues:

TRAVEL ADVANCES:

- A travel advance is not considered a contribution if repaid within the appropriate timeframe:
 - Within 30 days from when the expense was incurred (for advances of cash or check); or
 - Within 60 days of the closing date on the credit card billing statement (for advances by credit card).
- When a travel advance remains unpaid by the campaign committee outside the prescribed 30 or 60 day timeframe, it must be reported as BOTH a contribution and as a debt. Report as debt if the amount of the advance exceeds $500, or has been outstanding for more than 60 days.
- Remember to use a MEMO entry for Schedule A (since no money went into the campaign account as a result of the advance).
- Include notations on both Schedules A & D to cross-reference the transactions.

NON-TRAVEL ADVANCES:

- A non-travel advance is considered a contribution at the moment the funds are advanced and counts against the contributor's limits until reimbursed.
- Only report the advance as a contribution, using a MEMO entry on Schedule A, if the amount of advanced funds outstanding (i.e., unreimbursed) for the staff member at the end of the reporting period > $200 for the election cycle.
- When the amount of the advance reimbursement exceeds $500, and payment to any one vendor exceeds $200 for the election cycle, report the staff member as the payee using a disbursement entry on Schedule B for Line 17. In addition, itemize any vendor using a MEMO entry on Schedule B once payments to that vendor aggregate in excess of $200 for the election cycle. Include notations as cross-references.
(Note: if each vendor payment making up the advance aggregates to less than $200 for the election cycle, make a notation on Schedule B to that effect to avoid a Request for Additional Information from the Reports Analysis Division of the FEC.)

Use of Campaign Funds

- ▣ Personal use is prohibited

Contains a solicitation outside the federal amount limits and source prohibitions

In this example, the federal officeholder is impermissibly identified in a role specifically related to fundraising on publicity containing a solicitation for funds outside the federal limits and prohibitions.

This problem cannot be "cured" by including a disclaimer that the impermissible solicitation is not being made by the federal officeholder.
