Seminar/Webinar Information

Who should attend?

- Treasurers and staff of trade associations, membership and labor organizations and their political action committees whose responsibilities include compliance with federal campaign finance laws:
- Attorneys, accountants and consultants who have clients that are these types of organizations
- Anyone who wants to gain in-depth knowledge of federal campaign finance law as it applies to these types of organizations
- Anyone who wants to learn about recent changes resulting from legislation and litigation

What is the difference between the seminar and webinar?
The agenda (included in this document) is exactly the same, except only seminar attendees will meet their campaign finance analyst at the end of the day. Seminar workshops will simply be simulcast for online attendees. While those present at the seminar will have more opportunities to interact with agency staff and other attendees, webinar participants will see workshop slides, hear presentations and be able to ask questions via live chat.

May nonconnected or corporate PAC representatives attend this seminar?
You may attend, but the content of this seminar is not tailored to your type of organization. The Seminar/Webinar for Corporations and their PACs will be held April 20, 2014 (http://www.fec.gov/info/conferences/2014/corporateseminar.shtml). Additionally, the Commission will host roundtables and webinars throughout the year that may be beneficial to these types of organizations. To view the full list of events, please visit our website at http://www.fec.gov/info/outreach.shtml#conferences. For additional information on seminars, please email the FEC at Conferences@fec.gov or call the FEC’s Information Division at 1.800.424.9530 (Press 6).

How do I know if I’m with a Trade Association or a Membership Organization? Which track should I sign up for?
The afternoon workshops are divided into one track for trade associations and another track for membership and labor organizations. It is important to attend the track applicable to your type of organization because some rules are specific to a certain type of organization. Also, attendance in each break-out is limited, so it is imperative to sign up for the correct track.

Your organization is a trade association under FEC regulations if its membership is engaged in a similar or related line of commerce or business and if the organization promotes and tries to improve the business conditions of its membership. If this describes your organization, you should sign up for the trade association track. The track for labor organizations and membership organizations focuses on rules specific to those types of organizations, including labor unions and other types of incorporated membership organizations (e.g., chambers of commerce, 501(c)(4) corporations). If you are still unsure which track to enroll in after reading this description, please email Conferences@fec.gov for assistance.

Are there workshops for beginners?
Yes. The workshop entitled Basics & Best Practices provides an overview of campaign finance law that is particularly beneficial to newcomers. Beginners also benefit from the chance to network with more experienced campaign finance law professionals and share ideas with each other.

How about someone who is a seasoned campaign finance law veteran - Does this seminar fit their needs?
Yes. The advanced workshop covers recent developments in campaign finance law. All of the workshops are updated regularly to ensure that attendees receive the very latest information. Moreover, FEC seminars offer an opportunity for both beginners and advanced attendees to network with one another, to share ideas and to learn from each other.
