JOINT STATUS REPORT AND STIPULATION FOR ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Plaintiff Virginia James instituted this action against defendant Federal Election Commission challenging the Federal Election Campaign Act’s biennial limit on an individual’s total contributions to candidates and the authorized committees of candidates at 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3)(A). In light of the Supreme Court’s decision in McCutcheon v. FEC, __U.S. __, 134 S. Ct. 1434 (2014), which disposed of the issues herein, and of the Supreme Court’s vacatur of this Court’s earlier judgment in this case, no live controversy remains and the parties now agree to entry of the attached proposed order and judgment.

Respectfully submitted,
