UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FOURTH CIRCUIT

No. 00-1252(L)
(CA-99-559)

VIRGINIA SOCIETY FOR HUMAN LIFE,
INCORPORATED,

Plaintiff - Appellee,

versus

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION,

Defendant - Appellant.

O R D E R

Appellee/cross-appellant has filed a bill of costs. Appellant/cross-appellee has filed an untimely objection to the bill of costs. This case was affirmed in part, vacated in part and remanded by published opinion on September 17, 2001. Rule 39(a)(4) states that if a judgment is affirmed in part, reversed in part, modified or vacated, costs are taxed only as the Court orders. It appears appropriate in the circumstances of these cross-appeals that each party bear their own costs.

25042242483

The Court grants appellant/cross-appellee leave to file its objection to bill of costs out of time and denies appellee/cross-appellant's bill of costs.
