

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

48-Hour Notice of Contributions/Loans Received (FEC FORM 6)

Who Must File FEC Form 6

Principal campaign committees must file 48-hour notices of contributions of $1,000 or more received after the 20th day, but more than 48 hours, before 12:01 a.m. of the day of any election in which the candidate participates.

Committees may disclose these contributions on FEC Form 6 or in a letter containing the same information. Note: Principal campaign committees must file reports in an electronic format under 11 CFR 104.18 if they have either received contributions or made expenditures in excess of $50,000, or if they have reason to expect that they will exceed either of those thresholds during the calendar year. See the instructions for Form 3, Report of Receipts and Disbursements, for more information about when committees have reason to expect they will exceed the electronic filing thresholds. If the committee has reached this level of activity, DO NOT FILE THIS FORM ON PAPER. Instead, you must file this form in an electronic format. Contact the FEC for more information on filing electronically.

The 48-hour notice requirement applies to all types of elections—primary, convention, general, runoff and special—and even when a candidate is unopposed in an election.

This requirement applies to all contributions of $1,000 or more, including:

- Monetary and in-kind contributions;
- Guarantees and endorsements of bank loans;
- Loans (other than bank loans);
- Advances;
- Contributions, personal loans, endorsements of bank loans and advances made by the candidate; and
- Candidate draws on personal credit cards.

The 48 Hour Notice requirement does not apply to contributions that have been previously disclosed on reports filed by the committee.

When to File

FEC Form 6 must be received by the federal and state (where required) filing offices within 48 hours after a campaign's receipt of any contribution of $1,000 or more received after the 20th day, but more than 48 hours before, the date of any election in which the candidate participates. A postmark date is not significant for purposes of filing on time. If filed electronically, the form must be received and validated by the Commission's computer system on or before 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the prescribed filing date. Committees that are not required to file electronically may file this form either electronically or via facsimile machine to the numbers listed below.
