INDEPENDENT SECTOR Update

Trust in Nonprofits Remains Strong
IS's new report, "Keeping the Trust: Confidence in Charitable Organizations in an Age of Scrutiny," shows that trust in nonprofit organizations remains strong, despite several months of post-September 11 scrutiny. Download report at www.IndependentSector.org.

Save the date!
The 2002 IS Annual Conference is scheduled for October 27-29 in Cleveland. Reserve your space at what promises to be the premier gathering of the nonprofit and philanthropic community. Register now online at www.IndependentSector.org.

Giving and Volunteering Signature Series
Order the first publication from the new series on giving and volunteering trends. Faith and Philanthropy: The Connection Between Charitable Behavior and Giving to Religion explores the links between faith and charitable giving.

INDEPENDENT SECTOR

August 27, 2002

Mai Dinh
Acting Assistant General Counsel
Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Ms. Dinh:

I am writing per our conversation to request that the National Council of La Raza be added as a signatory to INDEPENDENT SECTOR's comments on the Federal Election Commission's (FEC) proposed electioneering communications rule.

We appreciate your attention to this matter; the National Council of La Raza is the largest Hispanic organization in the nation. National Council of La Raza would like the FEC's official record to reflect their support for INDEPENDENT SECTOR's comments.

Thank you for consideration on this important matter to the nonprofit sector.

Sincerely,

Adrienne Hahn
