FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

11 CFR Parts 100 and 104

[Notice 2004–19]

Filing Documents by Priority Mail, Express Mail, and Overnight Delivery Service

AGENCY: Federal Election Commission.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The Federal Election Commission requests comments on proposed changes to its rules regarding the timely filing of designations, reports, and statements. The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2004 added Priority Mail, Express Mail, and delivery by an overnight delivery service to the section of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, setting forth when a document is “timely filed” so long as the document is deposited: (1) As registered or certified mail in a U.S. Postal Service (“USPS”) postmark date as the date the Commission considers certain documents timely filed, but only if the document was sent by either registered or certified mail. The 2004 Appropriations Act amended 2 U.S.C. 434(a)[2][A][ii], (4[A][ii]), and (5) to allow filers sending these documents via USPS Priority Mail and Express Mail also to rely on the date of the USPS postmark as the date of filing, so long as the mailing has a delivery confirmation. The amendments to 2 U.S.C. 434(a) also allow filers sending these documents with an overnight delivery service to rely on the date of deposit with the overnight delivery service as the date of filing, so long as the overnight delivery service has an online tracking system.

To implement these statutory amendments, the Commission proposes to amend 11 CFR 100.19, which sets forth when a document is “timely filed,” and 11 CFR 104.5, which specifies due dates for reports.

I. 11 CFR 100.19(b), Timely Filed

Under paragraph (b) of current 11 CFR 100.19, certain documents that are not required to be filed electronically are “timely filed” if they are deposited as registered or certified mail in a U.S. Post Office and are postmarked no later than 11:59 p.m. Eastern Standard/Daylight Time on the date the document is due to be filed. One exception in paragraph (b), however, is that pre-election reports filed by political committees must be postmarked at least 15 days before the election to be “timely filed,” which is three days earlier than such report’s due date.

The Commission proposes to divide current paragraph (b) into three subparagraphs: (1) One subparagraph containing the definition of “timely filed” for documents that are sent by registered or certified mail, Priority Mail, Express Mail, or with an overnight delivery service; (2) one subparagraph containing the current requirement that documents sent by first class mail are “timely filed” only upon receipt by the Commission or Secretary of the Senate, as appropriate; and (3) one subparagraph containing new definitions of “overnight delivery service” and “postmark.”

A. Proposed 11 CFR 100.19(b)(1)

Proposed paragraph (b)(1) specifies that any paper document required to be filed under Commission regulations, other than those specified in 11 CFR 100.19(c)–(g), will be considered “timely filed” so long as the document is postmarked by the due date and was deposited: (1) As registered or certified mail in an established U.S. Post Office; or electronic filings are considered filed only when they are received and validated by the Commission’s electronic filing system. See 11 CFR 100.19(c).

Certain types of paper reports are specifically excluded from the definition of “timely filed” at 11 CFR 100.19(b) and have their own particular filing dates specified in section 104. Because 48-hour contribution reports, independent expenditure reports, and 24-hour electioneering communications reports are considered filed only upon receipt by the Commission, the proposed rules would not apply to these types of reports. Additionally, a candidate’s notification of expenditure from personal funds is considered filed only upon receipt of the notification by certain parties, and therefore the proposed rules would not apply to these notifications.

As discussed below, the Commission proposes to define “postmark” to include a USPS postmark and the verifiable date of deposit with an overnight delivery service.
The Commission notes that filers should usehttp://www.usps.com/all/welcome.htm. The Commission notes that filers should use a delivery confirmation in an overnight delivery service because the 2004 Appropriations Act specifies “deliver[y] to an overnight delivery service,” the Commission interprets this to mean that a delivery service used must offer an overnight (i.e., next day) delivery option, even if the sender does not choose that option. 2 U.S.C. 434(a), as amended by 2004 Appropriations Act. The Commission invites comment on this proposed definition. Proposed paragraph (b)(3)(ii) would define “postmark” to include both a USPS postmark, as well as the verifiable date that a document is deposited with an overnight delivery service because filers may now also rely on the date of deposit with an overnight delivery service as the date of filing. This proposed definition recognizes that overnight delivery services may record the date of deposit in different manners and provides flexibility for verification of deposit date. The Commission invites comment on this proposed definition of “postmark.”

II. 11 CFR 104.5. Filing Dates

As discussed above, the Commission’s current rules specify that a filer may rely on the postmark as the date of filing for certain paper documents only if the document is sent by registered or certified mail. Consistent with the amendment to FECA resulting from the 2004 Appropriations Act, however, the proposed revision of section 100.19(b) would expand the Commission’s definition of “timely filed” to allow reliance also on a postmark as the date of filing for these documents sent by Priority Mail, Express Mail, or with an overnight delivery service.

The Commission’s rules at 11 CFR 104.5(a)(2)(i) and (ii), which specify the filing due date for pre-election reports, and at 11 CFR 104.5(e), which specifies the date the Commission considers to be the filing date for certain reports required under section 104.5, also contain several references to reliance on a postmark as the date of filing for documents that are sent by registered or certified mail. Accordingly, the Commission proposes to modify these references within section 104.5 to include Priority Mail, Express Mail, and use of an overnight delivery service, consistent with the proposed changes to section 100.19(b), discussed above. Additionally, the Commission proposes to further amend 11 CFR 104.5(e) to clarify to which reports the proposed rules would apply. The Commission invites comment on these proposed changes.

Certification of No Effect Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 605(b) (Regulatory Flexibility Act)

The attached proposed rules, if promulgated, would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The basis of this certification is that, to whatever limited extent these proposed rules would affect small entities, expanding options for delivering Commission-required reports provides more flexibility to filers in choosing the method of fulfilling their filing requirements and the new methods are permissive, not required. Therefore, the Priority Mail is a two-to-three day delivery option offered by USPS. See http://www.usps.com/shipping/prioritymail.htm.

The Commission notes that filers should continue to retain proof of mailing or other means of transmittal of reports. See 11 CFR 104.5(i).

Internal Revenue Service regulations and Department of Homeland Security regulations also define “postmark” to include private carrier postmarks. See e.g., 26 CFR 301.7502–1(c)(1)(iii)(B) and 8 CFR 245a.12(a)(3) and (4); see also 50 CFR 600.10 (Wildlife and Fisheries regulations defining “postmark” as “independently verifiable evidence of the date of mailing, such as a U.S. Postal Service postmark, or other private carrier postmark, certified mail receipt, overnight mail receipt, or a receipt issued upon hand delivery * * *”).
proposed rules would not increase costs of compliance and may decrease such costs.

[Notice 2004–18]

Payroll Deductions by Member Corporations for Contributions to a Trade Association’s Separate Segregated Fund

AGENCY: Federal Election Commission.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The Federal Election Commission requests comments on proposed amendments to its rules regarding contributions to the separate segregated fund (“SSF”) of a trade association by employee-stockholders and executive and administrative personnel (collectively, “restricted class employees”) of corporations that are members of the trade association. Currently, the Commission’s regulations prohibit any corporate member of a trade association from using a payroll deduction or check-off system for employee contributions to the trade association’s SSF. The Commission proposes to amend its regulations to permit a corporate member of a trade association to provide incidental services to collect and forward contributions from its restricted class employees to the SSF of the trade association, including a payroll.
