FEC CORRECTS NON-FILER LIST FOR KENTUCKY 3rd CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

WASHINGTON - June 6 - The Federal Election Commission said today that it had erroneously cited Kentucky 3rd District Congressional candidate Tommy "Perennial" Klein for failure to file a required report prior to the May 23, 1978 primary election.

On Saturday, May 20, the FEC had published the names of candidates or their committees that had failed to file the pre-election report due May 13. Klein's candidate report was received on Friday May 19, but due to an oversight had not been removed from the list of non-filers and thus was mistakenly cited the next day.

Pre-election reports for the May 23 Kentucky primary were due on Saturday, May 13, 10 days prior to the election date. Under FEC procedures, a notice reminding candidates of the filing obligations is sent three weeks prior to the filing date. If a report is not received by the due date, two mailgrams are sent during the week before the election. Candidates and their campaign committees that still have not filed the required reports by Saturday noon before the election are publicly listed on the FEC non-filer publication.
