

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 20, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON--Coconino County Recorder Helen I. Hudgens has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for her service as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state election administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

Among topics discussed by Mrs. Hudgens at conferences in Chicago, Charleston, S.C., Tulsa, Okla., and Los Angeles, were election budgets, money saving ideas, using computers in elections, working with the Postal Service and managing polls on election day.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mrs. Hudgens and other nationally recognized elections authorities who served as panelists.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Willard Morris, Administrator, Administrative Board of Elections of Maryland, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Morris and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Tom Wilkey, Director, Public Relations, N.Y. Board of Elections, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Wilkey and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. John Countryman, former member of the Illinois State Board of Elections, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Countryman and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Senator Ray Farabee, Chairman, State Affairs Committee, Texas State Senate, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Senator Farabee and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Ron Michaelson, Executive Director, Illinois Board of Elections, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Michaelson and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Ms. Margaret Miller, Clerk of the Kanawha County Commission has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Ms. Miller and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Doug Jernigan, Supervisor of Elections, Montgomery County, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Jernigan and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Ms. Betty Chronic, Director of Elections, Colorado Department of State, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Ms. Chronic and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Jim Hendrix, Director of Training, S.C. Election Commission, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Hendrix and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Robert Montjoy, Office of Public Service and Research, Auburn University, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Montjoy and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

8 3 0 8 0 2 0 2 7 4 4

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Ms. Dorothy Walker, Assistant to the Supervisor of Election, Pinellas County, Fla., has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Ms. Walker and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Jeff Blaine, Assistant City Clerk of Detroit, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Blaine and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SYNDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Clyde Webber, Clerk of the Concordia (La) Parish Court, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Webber and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Edward Mahoney, Commissioner of Elections, Erie County, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Mahoney and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

3 3 0 0 2 0 2 7 1 8

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Stanley T. Kusper, Jr., County Clerk of Cook County, Ill., has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Kusper and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SYNDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Ms. Laurie Binn, Chief, and Ralph Heikkila of Elections Systems and Programming, Office of Los Angeles Registrar and Recorder, have been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Ms. Binn and Mr. Heikkila and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. James Scanlon, General Counsel, Illinois Board of Elections has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Scanlon and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Ray Phelps, Director of Election, Office of Oregon Secretary of State, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Phelps and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.

###

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

Press Office
1325 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463
Phone: Local 523-4065 Toll Free 800-424-9530

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 22, 1983

CONTACT: FRED EILAND
SHARON SNYDER
DEBORAH STUTZ

WASHINGTON-- Mr. Ray Ortiz, Registrar/Recorder of San Diego, has been commended by the Federal Election Commission for serving as a panelist on the FEC's recently completed Regional Conferences on Election Administration and Campaign Financing. The five conferences attracted more than 2,300 local and state elections administrators from throughout the country, as well as candidates, state and local political party officials, representatives from political action committees, state legislators and staff, attorneys, accountants and others interested in the election process.

FEC Chairman Danny L. McDonald said the success of the Commission's second series of regional conferences was directly related to the expertise and efforts of Mr. Ortiz and the other nationally recognized election authorities who served as panelists.
