SOUTH CAROLINA CAMPAIGN FAILS TO FILE PRE-PRIMARY REPORT

WASHINGTON — One South Carolina Congressional Campaign has failed to meet the May 31 deadline for filing 12-day pre-primary reports of receipts and expenditures.

Provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act require that committees supporting candidates seeking U.S. House and Senate seats in the June 12 primary election in South Carolina file a report of all financial activity 12 days prior to the election.

As of 5 p.m. June 7, a report from the following committee had not been filed:

SC/02....Committee to Elect Ken Mosely To Congress..Kenneth Mosely...Democrat

The report was to include financial activity occurring from April 1 through May 23. If sent certified or registered mail, the report should have been postmarked by May 28. Otherwise, the due date was close-of-business May 31.

Some individuals and their committees have no obligation to file reports under federal election law, even though their names may appear on state primary ballots. If an individual and his or her campaign committee raise or spend less than $5,000, the individual is not considered a "candidate" and neither the individual nor the committee has to register.

The Commission notified the committees of all candidates participating in the primary election of their potential filing requirements on May 7. Those committees which did not file on the due date were notified that their reports had not been received and that their names would be published for failure to file if they did not respond within 4 business days.

The Commission publishes only the names of those committees which have been designated by candidates as their principal campaign committees. Under Amendments to the Federal Election Campaign Act, effective January 8, 1980, candidates no longer are required to file personal reports of receipts and expenditures. All such information is reported by authorized committees of the candidates.

Other political committees supporting House and Senate candidates in elections (those which are not authorized units of a candidate's campaign) also are required to file pre-primary and pre-runoff reports unless they report monthly. Those committee names are not published by the FEC.

Further Commission action against non-filers and late filers will be decided on a case-by-case basis. The Federal Election Campaign Act gives the Commission broad authority to initiate enforcement actions, including civil court enforcement and the imposition of civil penalties ($5,000 for "any violation" and $10,000 for any "knowing and willful" violation) for infractions of the law, including failure to file required disclosure reports.

If a runoff election is to be held in South Carolina on June 26, committees involved in the election will be required to file a pre-runoff report on June 14. Otherwise, the next report due for South Carolina candidates will be the July quarterly report, due July 15, covering activity from May 24 through June 30.
