FEC FINDS SLOWER GROWTH OF PAC ACTIVITY DURING 1988 ELECTION CYCLE

WASHINGTON -- A slowdown in growth of political action committee receipts and disbursements during the 1987-88 election cycle was reported today by the Federal Election Commission.

In an interim report on campaign finance activities, the Commission found that non-party political committees raised $369.5 million and spent $349.6 million between January 1, 1987, and December 31, 1988. These represented increases of five percent over receipts of $353.4 million and three percent over the $340 million in disbursements reported by PACs during the 1985-86 election cycle.

By comparison, 1986 PAC receipts were 22% higher, and disbursements 27% higher than in the 1984 election.

FEC figures show that PACs contributed $159.4 million to candidates in 1987-88, up 14% from 1985-86. PAC contributions from 1978 through 1988 are summarized in the following table:

PAC CONTRIBUTIONS	1987-88	1985-86	1983-84	1981-82	1979-80	1977-78
All Federal Candidates	$159.4	$139.8	$113.0	$87.6	$60.2	$35.2
'88 Candidates	$151.3	$132.7	$105.3	$83.6	$55.2	$34.1
Senate	$45.6	$45.3	$29.7	$22.5	$17.3	$9.7
House	$102.3	$87.4	$75.7	$61.1	$37.9	$24.4

(Figures are in millions of dollars)

Other 1987-88 PAC financial activities included:

-- Incumbents received 74% of all PAC contributions, up from 68% in the previous cycle.

-- Contributions to challengers represented 12% of the total, down from 14% in 1986.

- Open seat candidates received 14%, down from 17% in 1986. (Note, however, that there were fewer House open seat races in 1988 than in the previous election.)
 - Democrats received $98.6 million from PACs, representing 62% of all PAC contributions during the period. This was a 25% increase over the $78.9 million given Democrats in 1986. Contributions to Senate Democratic candidates increased from $22.7 million in 1986 to $28.3 million in 1988. Contributions to House Democratic candidates went from $56.1 million in 1986 to $68.6 million in 1988. $1.6 million was given to Democratic Presidential candidates.
 - PAC contributions to Republican candidates totalled $60.8 million, virtually unchanged from the $60.9 million they received in 1985-86. Contributions to Senate Republican candidates actually declined from $27.5 million in 1986 to $23.4 million in 1988. House Republican candidates received $35.6 million in 1987-88 compared with $33.5 million given their 1985-86 counterparts. $1.7 million was contributed to Republican Presidential candidates in 1988.
 - Independent expenditures by PACs totalled $20.2 million, with $13.3 million spent in the Presidential campaign and $6.9 million in Congressional races. By contrast, $9.4 million was spent independently by PACs in the 1986 Congressional campaigns.

Details of PAC activities, and rankings of the 50 largest committees are found in the attached charts. Four new charts have been included listing the 50 committees with the largest growth or decline in receipts and contributions to candidates.

Notes:

1. The number of committees included in the top chart are the number of committees reviewed by the FEC for this study. In the bottom chart, the number of committees includes only those which actually made contributions.
2. Receipts and Disbursements have not been adjusted for transfers between affiliated committees.
3. Cash on Hand is as of December 31, 1988 unless the Committee ceased reporting earlier in the cycle or has not yet filed all reports.
4. Open Seat races are those in which the incumbent never sought re-election.
