FINAL REPORT ON 1989-90 CAMPAIGN FINANCE ACTIVITY RELEASED BY FEC -Study Provides Statistics on all Federal Campaigns-

WASHINGTON -- The Federal Election Commission today released its Final Report on the financial activities of Congressional, Party and PAC committee's for the 1989-90 elections.

The Report, which is divided into five volumes and costs $10 each, is available from the FEC Public Records Office, 999 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20463. Advanced payment is required for this purchase. Three computer tapes of the study are also available for $50 each from the FEC Data Systems Development Division, (202) 219-3730.

Information contained in the final study is based on a compilation of data from disclosure reports filed during the 1989-90 election cycle by all federal candidate, PAC and political party committees. The Report is a useful source for news organizations or other researchers who follow the financial activities of political candidates or groups.

Press releases containing statistical summaries and rankings are available from the FEC Press Office, (202) 219-4155.
