FEC RELEASES ONE INVESTIGATIVE FILE

WASHINGTON -- The Federal Election Commission has made public its final action on one matter it has had under review (MURs). This release contains only summary information. Closed files should be thoroughly read for details, including the FEC's legal analysis of the MUR. Please see footnote at the end of this release. Summary files of closed cases are available in the Public Records Office. It is as follows:

MUR NO.

1. 2804

RESPONDENTS: American Israel Public Affairs Committee (DC)

COMPLAINANT: Paul Findley, James E. Akins, George Ball, Richard Curtiss, Robert Hanks, Andrew I. Killgore, Orin Parker

SUBJECT: Corporate contributions; failure to register and report

DISPOSITION: (1) Probable cause to believe but take no further action* [re: corporate contributions]
(2) No probable cause* [re: register and report]

Note: a portion of this case, involving 31 groups and individuals, was previously closed and publicly released on 12/21/90.

*Following a complaint, the FEC may make a "reason to believe" finding which may trigger an investigation. Subsequently, the FEC may find "probable cause to believe" violation(s) occurred. An affirmative vote of at least four of the six Commissioners is required for any action. At this stage the conciliation process could begin. If conciliation fails the FEC may institute a civil action for relief. The Commission may close a case at any point. For a complete explanation of the enforcement process - contact the FEC Press Office.
