Climbing To Record Heights:

FINANCIAL ACTIVITY OF 1992 CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGNS SOARS

WASHINGTON -- Congressional candidates raised $90 million more and spent $96 million more through June 30, 1992, than in the same 18-month period in the previous election cycle, according to the Federal Election Commission.

An FEC survey of campaign disclosure reports covering activity between January 1, 1991, and June 30, 1992, found that Senate and House candidates raised $369 million, spent $288 million and had cash-on-hand of $162 million.

The following chart illustrates the growth of congressional campaign receipts and disbursements in the 18-month periods for the last seven election cycles:

A breakdown of the activity shows that Senate candidates raised $161 million, spent $123 million and had cash-on-hand of $58 million. House candidates raised $208 million, spent $164 million and had cash-on-hand of $104 million.

Activity increased in all categories of campaigns. For example, in House races receipts increased 27 percent based primarily on challengers and open seat candidates. Median receipts increased for challengers and the smaller class of 1992 incumbents but dropped slightly for open seat candidates. (See table, page 4).

Further examination of FEC statistics shows that the number of House challengers, who reported receipts of at least $50,000 by June 30 of the election year, increased to 184 in 1992 from 113 in 1990; while the number of incumbents dropped to 375 from 409. With twice as many open seat districts, the number of open seat candidates increased to 215 in 1992 from 93 in 1990. (See table, page 4).

Receipts for Senate candidates jumped 40 percent with the bulk of the increase attributable to challengers and open seat candidates. Cycle-to-cycle comparisons of Senate activity are difficult because, unlike House races, different seats in different states are up for election each cycle. During the first 18 months of this cycle the substantial increase in overall financial activity for Senate challengers and open seat candidates is due, in large part, to two Senate races in California and one in New York.

PACs contributed $30.5 million to Senate candidates (72 percent to incumbents; 15 percent to challengers; 12 percent to open seat candidates); and these committees gave $67.7 million to House candidates (85 percent to incumbents; 5 percent to challengers; and 10 percent to open seat candidates).

Information provided in this report includes:

-  Overall summary of Senate and House activity based on political party and candidate status (incumbent, challenger & open seat).
-  18-month comparison of Senate and House activity for 1992, 1990 and 1988 election cycles.
-  Median receipts for House candidates and number of candidates who reported receipts of at least $50,000 by June 30 of the election year, by candidate status.
-  Six-year financial summaries for current Senate candidates.
-  18-month financial summaries of each House race.
-  Rankings of Senate and House candidates for the following categories: receipts, contributions from individuals, contributions from PACs, disbursements, cash-on-hand and debts.

1. Figures in the first two Tables and the detailed listing of candidates cover from January 1, 1991, or whenever the campaign registered during the election cycle, through June 30, 1992, or the last report filed by the campaign, as indicated. (Candidates in Kansas, Michigan, and Missouri may contain information through July 15, the closing date for the pre-primary report in those states.)

2. Net receipt and net disbursement figures are total receipts and total disbursements, as reported by the campaigns, minus any money transferred between committees of the same campaign.

3. Columns entitled "Other Committees" (also "Other Cmte's") are monies received, as reported by the campaigns, that are comprised mostly of PAC funds, but also include contributions by other candidates' committees and some unregistered entities. On the Senate listings, the column "Non Party Contributions" contains PAC contributions for 1988 and 1990, as reported by the PAC's, and "Other Committee" data for 1992.

4. Open seat races are those in which the incumbent did not seek reelection.

5. On the Senate listings, the column titled "Candidate Support" includes contributions by the candidate, as well as loans made or guaranteed by the candidate. The column titled "Trans from other auth" includes monies transferred from House committees of candidates for the Senate, as well as proceeds from joint fundraising activity among several candidates or committees. Contributions from individuals and PAC's made through these joint fundraising efforts are NOT included in the "Individual Contributions" or "Non Party Contributions" columns.

6. Detailed listings of candidates include all those House candidates who reported receipts before June 30, 1992.

7. Some House members who are or were running for the Senate in '92 changed their former House campaign committees into their Senate campaign committees. Financial activity related solely to their Senate campaigns cannot be isolated. (See Aucoin [OR], Levine [CA], Moody [WI]).

8. Several Senate candidates have reported significant roll over of debt, borrowing money to repay earlier loans. See the Senate Six Year listing for Dannemeyer [CA], Cannon [UT], and Moody [WI].

9. Activity of House Other Party candidates primarily reflects the campaign of Bernard Sanders in Vermont.

10. Party abbreviations in the listing of House campaigns are:

DEM - Democrat

DFL - Democrat/Farmer/Labor (Minnesota)

REP - Republican

RTL - Right to Life

LIB - Libertarian

PAF - Peace and Freedom

IND - Independent

LBL - Liberal

11. Much of the Candidate Support for House Republican Challengers is represented by a single campaign. Michael Huffington in California's 22nd district has reported $3,394,565 in contributions from the Candidate.
