FEC EXTENDS PUBLIC HOURS DURING OCTOBER FILING PERIODS

WASHINGTON -- The Public Records Office of the Federal Election Commission has scheduled weekend and extended hours to accommodate press and public wanting to review disclosure reports filed by candidates, PAC's and political party committees.

From October 15 through November 2, the Public Records Office will be open weekdays 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Saturdays 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Sundays noon to 4 p.m.

Filing requirements include:

-- Presidential campaigns, whose financial activity exceeds $100,000, and certain PACs and party committees file disclosure reports on October 20. If sent certified or registered mail, these reports must be postmarked no later than October 20.

-- Congressional candidates and certain PACs and party committees file disclosure reports on October 15. If sent certified or registered mail, these reports must be postmarked no later than October 15.

-- Committees involved in the general election must also file Pre-General election reports by October 22 or by October 19 if sent by certified or registered mail.
