1994 CONGRESSIONAL FUNDRAISING CONTINUES CLIMB

WASHINGTON -- Congressional candidates raised $18 million more through June 30, 1994, than in the same 18-month period in the previous election cycle, according to reports filed with the Federal Election Commission.

The 1994 increase occurred even though 1992 was considered an unusual cycle in that it was the first election following the 1990 census reapportionment, there was a Senate special election in California, and there were many House retirements creating expensive open seats.

An FEC survey of campaign disclosure reports found that Senate and House campaigns raised a total of $387.7 million between January 1, 1993 and June 30, an increase of 5% over the same period in 1992. Spending during this period totaled $270.9 million, a decline of 6% from the 1992 record. The following chart illustrates the trend in Congressional campaign finance activity during the first 18 months of each election cycle since 1979-80:

A breakdown of the activity shows that Senate candidates have raised $163.5 million (nearly unchanged from 1992) and spent $113.5 million (down 8%) so far in 1994. House candidates have raised $224.2 million, up 8% over the previous cycle and spent $157.4 million, down 4% from 1992.

Further examination of FEC statistics shows that fundraising increased for Democratic incumbents and Republican challengers in the Senate, while receipts declined for other types of Senate campaigns. Senate elections are not directly comparable across cycles because, unlike House races, different seats in different states are up for election each cycle. In the House, only Democrats in open seats failed to increase their overall fundraising over 1992. Growth for Republican candidates of all types was most pronounced during this period.

While overall fundraising activity increased, PAC support of 1994 campaigns actually declined 1% from 1992 levels to a total of $97.5 million. Contributions from individuals, however, increased by 9% overall to $224.3 million, while contributions and loans from candidates themselves totaled $52 million, an increase of 8% over the previous cycle.

While the total number of candidates participating in House elections has declined since 1992, the median House campaign, as indicated in the chart on page 4, had greater financial resources in all categories except Republican incumbents whose median receipts declined slightly. Also, the number of nonincumbent House candidates who reported receipts of at least $50,000 by June 30 continued to increase.

Information provided in this report includes:

-  Overall summary of Senate and House activity based on political party and candidate status (Incumbent, challenger and open seat).
-  18-month comparison of Senate and House activity for 1984 through 1994.
-  Median receipts for House candidates and the number of candidates who reported receipts of a least $50,000 by June 30 of the election year, by candidate status.
-  Six-year financial summaries for current Senate candidates.
-  18-month financial summaries of each House race.
-  Rankings of Senate and House candidates for the following categories: receipts, contributions from individuals, contributions from PACs, disbursements, cash-on-hand, and debts.

FOOTNOTES

1. Figures in the first two Tables and the detailed listing of candidates cover from January 1, 1993, or whenever the campaign registered during the election cycle, through June 30, 1994, or the last report filed by the campaign, as indicated.

2. Net receipt and net disbursement figures are total receipts and total disbursements, as reported by the campaigns, minus any money transferred between committees of the same campaign.

3. Columns entitled "Other Committees" (also "Other Cmte's") are monies received, as reported by the campaigns, that are comprised mostly of PAC funds, but also include contributions by other candidates' committees and some unregistered entities. On the Senate listings, the column "Non Party Contributions" contains PAC contributions for 1990 and 1992, as reported by the PAC's, and "Other Committee" data for 1994.

4. Open seat races are those in which the incumbent did not seek reelection.

5. On the Senate listings, the column titled "Candidate Support" includes contributions by the candidate, as well as loans made or guaranteed by the candidate. The column titled "Trans from other auth" includes monies transferred from House committees of candidates for the Senate, as well as proceeds from joint fundraising activity among several candidates or committees. Contributions from individuals and PAC's made through these joint fundraising efforts are NOT included in the "Individual Contributions" or "Non Party Contributions" columns.

6. Detailed listings of candidates include all those House candidates who reported receipts before June 30, 1994.

7. Some House members who are or were running for the Senate in '94 changed their former House campaign committees into their Senate campaign committees. Financial activity related solely to their Senate campaigns cannot be isolated. (See Inhofe (OK) and Wheat (MO)).

8. Several candidates have reported significant candidate loan repayments;

Senate	candidate loan repayment
Mary Boyle, OH	$128,400 (activity appears in summary tables only)
Robert Krueger TX	$141,750
House
John Sonneland WA 5	$700,000
Richard Sybert CA 24	$654,290
Eugene Fontenot TX 25	$600,000
Mike Parker MS 4	$168,000
Sonny Bono CA 44	$110,000

9. Activity of House Other Party candidates primarily reflects the campaign of Bernard Sanders in Vermont.

10. Party abbreviations in the listing of House campaigns are:

DEM - Democrat	LIB - Libertarian
DFL - Democrat/Farmer/Labor (Minnesota)	PAF - Peace and Freedom
REP - Republican	IND - Independent
RTL - Right to Life	LBL - Liberal

11. Debts reported by Senate candidate Frank Lautenberg of New Jersey are carried over from previous elections.
