1994 CONGRESSIONAL SPENDING SETS RECORD

WASHINGTON -- Congressional campaign spending for 1994 surged to $589.5 million, an increase of $87.5 million, or 17%, from 1992 levels, according to a Federal Election Commission review of reports covering financial activity from January 1, 1993, through November 28, 1994. Not included in this record spending is the more than $28 million spent by candidates involved in special elections, and over $76 million spent by candidates who lost in primaries.

Spending by Republican candidates was largely responsible for the increase. Republicans increased their spending by 29%, having spent $227.5 million in 1992, and $293.6 million in 1994. Democratic candidates increased their spending just 8%, from $270 million in 1992, to $292.3 million in 1994. Increased spending was particularly apparent in the following areas:

- Senate Republican challengers (due in large part to the candidacies of Michael Huffington (CA) and Oliver North (VA));
- Senate Democratic incumbents; and
- non-incumbent House Republicans (i.e. challengers and open-seat candidates.)

Overall, Congressional candidates raised $611.5 million, up 23% from the $495.4 million raised in 1992. Contributions by PACs and other committees increased 5% from 1992 levels of $161.9 million, to $169.5 million, while individual contributions increased 24%, from $271.4 million to $335.7 million. Candidates reported debts totalling $70.5 million as of November 28.

Candidate contributions and loans for 1994 totaled $81.9 million, an increase of 113% from 1992. This growth was significantly affected by two Senate campaigns - Michael Huffington (CA), who provided $27.8 million to his campaign, and Herbert Kohl (WI), who gave $6.5 million to his re-election bid. Without those two campaigns, candidate self-financing increased by 24% over 1992.

This release also includes tables showing median amounts spent by House campaigns, comparing different types of campaigns based on the percentage by which candidates won or lost. As was noted for the pre-election period, the largest increases in median spending among House candidates occurred with Republican non-incumbents. House Republican challengers increased median spending by 66% to $132,619, while Republican open-seat candidates increased median spending by 35%, to $533,633. One in four Republican challengers raised at least $400,000 through November 28, 1994, compared to one in 10 during the same period in 1992.

From mid-October through late November, general election candidates raised $89.5 million and spent $139.3 million. In the same period in 1992, candidates raised $80.2 million and spent $119.4 million. The following summarizes Senate and House activity for the period October 20 - November 28, 1994. Comparable figures are provided for the similar period in 1992.

	1994		1992
	Raised	Spent	Raised	Spent
Senate	$37.5	$ 57.6	$24.0	$ 37.8
House	$52.0	$ 81.7	$56.2	$ 81.6
Total	$89.5	$139.3	$80.2	$119.4

These figures show a 12% increase in receipts and a 17% increase in spending from 1992 to 1994. Senate candidates increased fundraising 56%, while spending increased 52% over 1992 levels. House candidates raised 7% less than in 1992, and their spending remained at 1992 levels.

Senate Democratic incumbents, their Republican challengers, and House Republican challengers report the largest increases. A chart on pages 11-12 provides further detail.

Statistics for winning candidates appear below.

Information attached to this release provides overall summary data, candidate rankings, and statistics on each candidate. Comparable financial activity is provided for four election cycles.

FOOTNOTES

1. Figures in the first two Tables and the detailed listing of candidates cover from January 1, 1993, or whenever the campaign registered during the election cycle, through November 28, 1994, or the last report filed by the campaign, as indicated. House candidates with information ending before November 28 are identified with an asterisk in the detailed listing for House campaigns.
2. Net receipt and net disbursement figures are total receipts and total disbursements, as reported by the campaigns, minus any money transferred between committees of the same campaign.
3. Columns entitled "Other Committees" (also "Other Cmte's") are monies received, as reported by the campaigns, that are comprised mostly of PAC funds, but also include contributions by other candidates' committees and some unregistered entities. On the Senate listings, the column "Non Party Contributions" contains PAC contributions for 1990 and 1992, as reported by the PAC's, and "Other Committee" data for 1994.
4. Open seat races are those in which the incumbent did not seek reelection. As such, both general election candidates in the 4 districts where the incumbent was defeated in the primary are classified as challengers. The two general election candidates in the 11th district in New Jersey are also listed as challengers. In this case, the incumbent decided to retire after receiving his parties nomination for reelection. Districts where special elections have been held at times separate from the regular election calendar (CA/17; KY/2; MI/3; MS/2; OH/2; OK/6; WI/1; and TX Senate) have been divided into two races. None of the activity regarding those special elections is included in these tables. Winners of the specials appear here as incumbents, and their activity begins with the first report following the Post Special filing. The district in which a special election is being held in conjunction with the general (TN/Senate; OK/Senate) are classified as open seat and has not been divided.
5. Percentage figures in Tables covering several election cycles represent the percentage of net receipts from each source and will not sum to 100, since not all sources of receipts are listed.
6. On the Senate listings, the column titles "Candidate Support" includes contributions by the candidate, as well as loans made or guaranteed by the candidate. The column titles "Trans from other auth" includes monies transferred from House committees of candidates for the Senate, as well as proceeds from joint fundraising activity among several candidates or committees. Contributions from individuals and PAC's made through these joint fundraising efforts are NOT included in the "Individual Contributions" or "Non Party Contributions" columns.
7. Detailed listings of candidates include all those participating in the November 8th general election who reported any campaign receipts, along with those candidates in Louisiana who received at least 50% of the vote in the primary and were therefore declared the winner of the seat.
8. Some House members who are or were running for the Senate in '94 changed their former House campaign committees into their Senate campaign committees. Financial activity related solely to their Senate campaigns cannot be isolated. (See Inhofe OK and Wheat, MO).
9. The detailed listing for House candidates contains a column labeled "Candidate Support". This includes contributions from the candidate plus any loans made by or guaranteed by the candidate, minus any loan repayments to the candidate during this two year period. This amount will appear as negative, therefore, in cases where loan repayments were made during 1993 or 1994 for loans taken out in an earlier election cycle, if no new loans were made.
10. Incumbent David Levy, who lost the Republican primary in New York's 4th district, appears on the general election ballot as the Conservative party candidate.
