MICHIGAN SECRETARY OF STATE NAMED TO NATIONAL ELECTION ADVISORY PANEL

WASHINGTON -- Michigan Secretary of State Candice S. Miller has been named to the Advisory Panel of the National Clearinghouse on Election Administration.

The National Clearinghouse is an entity of the Federal Election Commission (FEC) and the Advisory Panel is composed of 20 state and local election officials from throughout the nation, nominated by the Director of the Clearinghouse and appointed by the six FEC Commissioners. The Panel advises the Clearinghouse on methods of allocation of resources that will best serve the needs of election officials.

Secretary of State Miller is one of four new appointees to the 20-member Panel. The others are Donetta Davidson, Arapahoe County (CO) Clerk and Recorder; Ron Thornburgh, Kansas Secretary of State; and Alaska Lt. Gov. Fran Ulmer.
