1996 CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES RAISE $185 MILLION

WASHINGTON -- Candidates for 1996 U.S. Senate and House seats raised $184.9 million and spent $96.5 million during 1995 and entered the election year with cash-on-hand of $141.7 million according to reports filed with the Federal Election Commission.

Receipts during 1995 for this year's congressional campaigns increased by $14.3 million, an 8.4% rise, compared to the same period in the 1994 election. House candidates accounted for this increase. Senate candidates reported a decrease of $8.8 million when compared to the same period in the previous cycle.

The following table compares non-election year activities for all Senate and House campaigns in the last five cycles:

Cycle	Receipts	Disbursements	Cash-on-Hand
96	$184.9	$ 96.5	$141.7
94	$170.7	$102.5	$121.4
92	$159.9	$ 89.5	$159.7
90	$128.1	$ 70.8	$129.1
88	$111.5	$ 58.6	$108.9

(in millions of dollars)

Charts on pages four and five of this release separately detail comparison figures for Senate and House campaigns in non-election years from 1987 to 1995.

Candidates for U.S. Senate raised $67.1 million, spent $32.8 million, and had $43.8 million cash-on-hand on December 31, 1995. Comparisons of Senate races between cycles is difficult due to the different nature of the states involved.

Receipts were reported at $117.8 million for House candidates, spending at $63.7 million, and cash-on-hand of $97.8 million.

Receipts of Republican House candidates in 1995 increased $29.6 million, to $70.5 million, over 1993 receipts. The increase in the number of Republican House candidates from 377 in 1993 to 428 in 1995 contributed to this increase while the decrease in Democratic candidates from 382 in 1993 to 330 in 1995, resulted in a decrease of $6.9 million to $46.8 million in total receipts from 1993 figures.

Contributions from individuals continue to be the largest source of campaign funds. In 1995, individual contributions totalled $106.2 million, or 57.4% of monies raised. PAC money accounted for $54.4 million, or 29.4%. Candidate money, either in form of direct contributions or loans, totalled $13.8 million which represented 7.5% of total revenues.

This release contains summary tables on all registered U.S. Senate and House candidates. Comparison summary figures for previous non-election years are also provided. A six-year financial summary is given for each Senate candidate, as well as the 1989 non-election year activity (the last time these seats were contested) in these same states. Each House candidate who raised or spent money during 1995 is listed, followed by rankings of all Senate and House candidates in categories of monies raised and spent, amounts received from individuals and PACs, cash-on-hand, and debts.

FOOTNOTES

1. Figures in the first two tables and the detailed listing of candidates cover from January 1, 1995, or whenever the campaign registered during the year, through December 31, 1995 or the last report filed by the campaign as indicated.
2. Net receipt and net disbursement figures are total receipts and total disbursements, as reported by the campaigns, minus any money transferred between committees of the same campaign.
3. Columns entitled "other Cmte Contributions" are monies contributed to campaigns by PACs and other committees as reported by the campaigns. Other committees include primarily committees of other candidates.
4. On the Senate listings, the column titled "Candidate Support" includes contributions by the candidate as well as loans made or guaranteed by the candidate. The column titled "trans from other auth" includes monies transferred from House committees of candidates for the Senate, as well as proceeds from joint fundraising activity among several candidates or committees. Contributions from individuals and PACs made through these joint fundraising efforts are NOT included in the "Individual Contributions" or "Non Party Contributions" columns.
