PAC ACTIVITY INCREASES IN 1995

WASHINGTON - PAC contributions to candidates in 1995 increased by $10.9 million, or 19.2% when compared to 1993, the last non-election year, according to reports filed with the Federal Election Commission. Two million dollars was contributed to Presidential candidates during 1995, with the remainder of the increase concentrated in House campaigns.

For 1995, PACs reported raising $192.6 million, a 9.2% increase over 1993, and they spent $148.6 million, an 8.5% increase over 1993. Of the total spent, $67.6 million was contributed to federal candidates. PACs ended 1995 with $141.8 million cash-on-hand.

Incumbents continued to receive the largest share of PAC money, $59.2 million; challengers, $3.9 million; open seat candidates, $4.5 million. It is important to note that most challengers and many open-seat candidates do not begin significant fundraising until the election year.

Contributions to Republican candidates increased from $20 million in 1993 to $42 million in 1995, due in part to the increase in Republican incumbents from the 1994 elections. PAC contributions to Democratic candidates decreased from $36.6 million in 1993 to $25.6 million in 1995.

Tables on the succeeding pages detail the summary figures for each of six PAC categories. In addition, the top 50 PACs are ranked for money raised and spent, contributions to candidates, and cash-on-hand.

Notes:

1. The number of committees included in the chart are the number of committees reviewed by the FEC for this study. The Details of Contributions to Candidates counts only those committees who actually made contributions.
2. Receipts and Disbursements have not been adjusted for transfers between affiliated committees.
3. Cash on Hand is as of December 31, 1995 unless the committee ceased reporting earlier in the cycle or has not yet filed all reports.
4. Open Seat races are those in which the incumbent never sought re-election.
