1996 CONGRESSIONAL FUNDRAISING CLIMBS TO NEW HEIGHTS

WASHINGTON -- Congressional candidates raised $60 million more and spent $23 million more through June 30, 1996, than in the same 18-month period in the previous election cycle, according to reports filed with the Federal Election Commission.

An FEC survey of campaign disclosure reports found that Senate and House campaigns raised a total of $447.7 million between January 1, 1995, and June 30, 1996, an increase of 15% over the same period in 1993-94. Spending during this period totaled $293.6 million, an increase of 8%.

The following chart illustrates the growth of congressional campaign receipts and disbursements during the first 18 months of each election cycle since 1979-80:

18 Month Congressional Activity

House candidates were responsible for most of the reported increase. They raised $278.8 million, a jump of more than 24% over the same period in 1993-94, and spent $176.8 million, an increase of over 12%. Activity by Senate candidates showed only a slight increase from 1993-94. They raised $168.9 million and spent $116.9. It is important to note that Senate elections are not directly comparable across cycles because, unlike House races, different seats in different states are up for election each cycle.

Further examination of FEC statistics shows that fundraising by Republican House candidates accounted for much of the increase in House receipts. Republicans raised $152.6 million, an increase of over 50% when compared to the same period in 1993-94. Democratic House candidates raised $125.2 million, only slightly more than in 1993-94.

Contributions from individuals continue to represent the largest single source of funds for Congressional candidates, totaling $261.5 million or 58.4% of all receipts. PACs and other committees have contributed $107.8 million, representing 24.1% of receipts. Candidates themselves provided $59.0 million to their own campaigns, or 13.2% of all receipts.

Information provided in this report includes:

-  Overall summary of Senate and House activity based on political party and candidate status (incumbent, challenger and open seat).
-  18-month comparison of Senate and House activity for 1986 through 1996.
-  Median receipts for House candidates and number of candidates who reported receipts of at least $50,000 by June 30 of the election year, by candidate status.
-  Six-year financial summaries for current Senate candidates.
-  18-month financial summaries of each House race.
-  Rankings of Senate and House candidates for the following categories: receipts, contributions from individuals, contributions from PACs, disbursements, cash-on-hand, and debts.

FOOTNOTES

1. Figures in the first two Tables and the detailed listing of candidates cover from January 1, 1995, or whenever the campaign registered during the election cycle, through June 30, 1996, or the last report filed by the campaign, as indicated.
2. Net receipt and net disbursement figures are total receipts and total disbursements, as reported by the campaigns, minus any money transferred between committees of the same campaign.
3. Columns entitles "Other Committees" (also "Other Cmte's") are monies received, as reported by the campaigns, that are comprised mostly of PAC funds, but also include contributions by other candidates' committees and some unregistered entities. On the Senate listings, the column "Non Party Contributions" contains PAC contributions for 1992 and 1994, as reported by the PACs, and "Other Committee" data for 1996.
4. Open seat races are those in which the incumbent did not seek reelection.
5. On the Senate listings, the column titles "Candidate Support" includes contributions by the candidate, as well as loans made or guaranteed by the candidate. The column titles "Trans from other auth" includes monies transferred from House committees of candidates for the Senate, as well as proceeds from joint fundraising activities among several candidates or committees. Contributions from individuals and PACs made through these joint fundraising efforts are NOT included in the "Individual Contributions" or "Non Party Contributions" columns.
6. Detailed listings of candidates include all those House candidates who reported receipts before June 30, 1996.
7. Some House members who are or were running for the Senate in '96 changes their former House campaign committees into their Senate campaign committees. Financial activity related solely to their Senate campaigns cannot be isolated. (See Craig (ID), Roberts (KS), Durbin (IL), Johnson (SD), Allard (CO), Reed (RI).)
8. Several candidates have reported significant candidate loan repayments. The original loans appear in total receipts and repayments are part of total disbursements.
