

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, DC 20463

November 16, 2021

To Our Virtual Conference Participants,

As Chair of the Federal Election Commission (FEC), it is my pleasure to welcome you to our FEC Virtual Conference. We have prepared two days of training for you, and I hope you will find it helpful in gaining a better understanding the federal campaign finance rules that govern your activities.

Over the next two days, through large group and breakout sessions, members of our FEC team will provide a thorough overview of the rules governing political activity by different types of committees and organizations. We welcome your active participation – your questions and shared experiences will contribute to the learning process and add value to our program.

If you need additional information or have any questions during or after the conference, please let us know. Our toll-free information line (800-424-9530) is available Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Email queries sent to our info@fec.gov address will be answered promptly. Our website (www.fec.gov) also offers a wealth of information. I encourage you to make use of these resources.

Throughout our 45-year history, the Federal Election Commission has devoted considerable resources toward encouraging voluntary compliance with the federal campaign finance laws. Compliance with those laws inspires citizen confidence in our electoral process and in those we elect to represent us in government. We thank you for your commitment to this important effort.

Sincerely,
