To be eligible to receive Federal Matching Funds, a candidate must first raise $100,000 in contributions from individuals: $5,000-plus in 20 different states, in amounts of no more than $250 from any individual contributor. Candidates must also agree to abide by spending limits, to keep certain records, and to submit those records for audit.

Candidates may submit requests for funds on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. The Commission will certify a percentage of the amount requested. Only contributions from individuals in aggregate amounts of no more than $250 are matchable. Although some candidates have been declared ineligible by the Commission, they may still be entitled to receive additional matching funds to assist in winding down the campaign and to retire debts.

In addition, the Commission has previously certified $9,220,000 to the Democratic National Committee and $9,220,000 to the Republican National Committee for a total of $18,440,000 for the 1988 Presidential Nominating Conventions of the 2 major political parties.
