SUBJECT: Reason To Believe Recommendation – 2014 Year-End Report for the Administrative Fine Program

Attached is a list of political committees and their treasurers who failed to file the 2014 Year-End Report in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a). The Year-End Report was due on January 31, 2015.

The committees listed in the attached RTB Circulation Report either failed to file the report, no more than thirty (30) days after the due date (considered a late filed report), or filed the report more than thirty (30) days after the due date (considered a non-filed report). In accordance with the schedule of civil money penalties for reports at 11 C.F.R. 111.43, these committees should be assessed the civil money penalties highlighted on the attached circulation report.

Recommendation

1. Find reason to believe that the political committees and their treasurers listed on the RTB Circulation Report violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and make a preliminary determination that the civil money penalties would be the amounts indicated on the RTB Circulation Report.
2. Send the appropriate letters.

Dear Ms. Thomas:

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), requires that your committee file a Year-End Report of Receipts and Disbursements every calendar year. This report, covering the period November 25, 2014 through December 31, 2014, shall be filed no later than January 31, 2015. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a). Because records at the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") indicate that you did not file this report within thirty (30) days of the due date, the report is considered not filed for the purpose of calculating the civil money penalty.

The Act permits the FEC to impose civil money penalties for violations of the reporting requirements of 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a). 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4). On April 3, 2015, the FEC found that there is reason to believe ("RTB") that Barfield for Congress and you, in your official capacity as treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) by failing to file timely this report on or before January 31, 2015. Based on the FEC's schedules of civil money penalties at 11 CFR § 111.43, the amount of your civil money penalty calculated at the RTB stage is $275. Please see the attached copy of the Commission's administrative fine regulations at 11 CFR §§ 111.30-111.55. Attachment 1. The Commission's website contains further information about how the administrative fine program works and how the fines are calculated. See <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. 11 CFR § 111.34. Your payment of $275 is due within forty (40) days of the finding, or by May 13, 2015, and is based on these factors:

Election Sensitivity of Report: Not Election Sensitive

Level of Activity: $658

Number of Days Late: Not Filed (reports not filed within thirty (30) days of the due date are considered not filed for the purpose of calculating the penalty)

Number of Previous Civil Money Penalties Assessed: 0

At this juncture, the following courses of action are available to you:

1. If You Choose to Challenge the RTB Finding and/or Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to challenge the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, you must submit a written response to the FEC's Office of Administrative Review, 999 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20463. Your response must include the AF# (found at the top of page 1 under your committee's identification number) and be received within forty (40) days of the Commission's RTB finding, or May 13, 2015. 11 CFR § 111.35(a). Your written response must include the reason(s) why you are challenging the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, and must include the factual basis supporting the reason(s) and supporting documentation. The FEC strongly encourages that documents be submitted in the form of affidavits or declarations. 11 CFR § 111.36(c).

The FEC will only consider challenges that are based on at least one of three grounds: (1) a factual error in the RTB finding; (2) miscalculation of the calculated civil money penalty by the FEC; or (3) your demonstrated use of best efforts to file in a timely manner when prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond your control. 11 CFR § 111.35(b). In order for a challenge to be considered on the basis of best efforts, you must have filed the required report no later than 24 hours after the end of these reasonably unforeseen circumstances. Id. Examples of circumstances that will be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to: (1) a failure of Commission computers or Commission-provided software despite your seeking technical assistance from Commission personnel and resources; (2) a widespread disruption of information transmissions over the Internet that is not caused by a failure of the Commission's or your computer systems or Internet service provider; and (3) severe weather or other disaster-related incident. 11 CFR § 111.35(c). Examples of circumstances that will not be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to: (1) negligence; (2) delays caused by vendors or contractors; (3) treasurer and staff illness, inexperience or unavailability; (4) committee computer, software, or Internet service provider failures; (5) failure to know filing dates; and (6) failure to use filing software properly. 11 CFR § 111.35(d).

The "failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver" of your right to present such argument in a petition to the U.S. District Court under 52 U.S.C. § 30109. 11 CFR § 111.38.

If you intend to be represented by counsel, please advise the Office of Administrative Review. You should provide, in writing, the name, address and telephone number of your counsel and authorize counsel to receive notifications and communications relating to this challenge and imposition of the calculated civil money penalty.

2. If You Choose Not to Pay the Civil Money Penalty and Not to Submit a Challenge

If you do not pay the calculated civil money penalty and do not submit a written response, the FEC will assume that the preceding factual allegations are true and make a final determination that Barfield for Congress and you, in your official capacity as treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a civil money penalty.

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA"), as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. The FEC may take any and all appropriate action authorized and required by the DCA, as amended, including transfer to the U.S. Department of the Treasury for collection. 11 CFR § 111.51(a)(2).

3. If You Choose to Pay the Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the calculated civil money penalty, send the enclosed remittance form, along with your payment, to the FEC at the address on page 4. Upon receipt of your payment, the FEC will send you a final determination letter.

NOTICE REGARDING PARTIAL PAYMENTS AND SETTLEMENT OFFERS

4. Partial Payments

If you make a payment in an amount less than the calculated civil money penalty, the amount of your partial payment will be credited towards the full civil money penalty that the Commission assesses upon making a final determination.

5. Settlement Offers

Any offer to settle or compromise a debt owed to the Commission, including a payment in an amount less than the calculated civil money penalty assessed or any restrictive endorsements contained on your check or money order or proposed in correspondence transmitted with your check or money order, will be rejected. Acceptance and deposit or cashing of such a restricted payment does not constitute acceptance of the settlement offer. Payments containing restrictive endorsements will be deposited and treated as a partial payment towards the civil money penalty that the Commission assesses upon making a final determination. All unpaid civil money penalty amounts remaining will be subject to the debt collection procedures set forth in Section 2, above.

This matter was generated based on information ascertained by the FEC in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(2). Unless you notify the FEC in writing that you wish the matter to be made public, it will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(B) and 30109(a)(12)(A) until it is placed on the public record at the conclusion of this matter in accordance with 11 CFR § 111.42.

As noted earlier, you may obtain additional information on the FEC's administrative fine program, including the final regulations, on the FEC's website at <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. RE: Barfield for Congress, FEC#: C00543074, AF#: 2954

To Whom It May Concern:

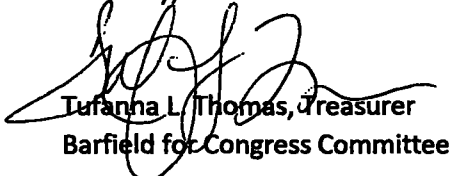

I received your letter regarding my late filing of the Barfield for Congress Year-End Report of Receipts and Disbursements and imposed fine. I was late filing the report but I hope that the Federal Election Commission will waive the civil monetary penalty.

First, I would like to apologize for the tardiness of the Year-End report. Second, I constantly had technical difficulties with filing the reports through FECFILE. I have had to call for assistance on at least three different occasions. I have been told that a technical personnel would call me back but I would never get back with me. So, although I could download the software on to my laptop, even enter the data and close the report, it would never upload. Almost every time I filed reports, there was an issue. In this instance, I called and kept getting voicemail, I could never get anyone of the phone. I am sure the office is extremely busy but I continuously tried on different occasions to file the report with no avail. I do not know if there were issues with the Commission's computers or if weather impacted this but I tried to file the report with my best efforts.

Based on the last quarterly reported filed, the Barfield for Congress Committee has had no more receipts and had made all disbursements with a zero balance. The bank account has been closed and I am making plans to close the committee. We have no funds to be available to pay a civil monetary penalty

If you have any additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me

Sincerely,

REVIEWING OFFICER RECOMMENDATION
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW ("OAR")

AF# 2954 – Barfield for Congress and Tufanna L. Thomas, in her official capacity as Treasurer (C00543074)

Summary of Recommendation

Make a final determination that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a $275 civil money penalty.

Reason-to-Believe Background

The 2014 Year-End Report was due on January 31, 2015. The respondents filed the report on March 5, 2015, 33 days late. The report is not election sensitive and was not filed within 30 days of the due date; therefore, the report is considered not filed. 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.43(d)(1) and (e)(1).

On April 3, 2015, the Commission found reason to believe ("RTB") that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to timely file the 2014 Year-End Report and made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $275 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. A letter was mailed to the respondents' address of record from the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD") on April 6, 2015 to notify them of the Commission's RTB finding and civil money penalty.

Legal Requirements

The Federal Election Campaign Act ("Act") states that the treasurer of a principal campaign committee shall file a report for the quarter ending December 31 no later than January 31 of the following calendar year. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(a)(1)(i). Political committees required to file reports with the Commission must file in an electronic format if they have received contributions or made expenditures or expect to receive contributions or make expenditures in a calendar year aggregating in excess of $50,000. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a)(11) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.18(a). Reports electronically filed must be received and validated at or before 11:59 p.m. Eastern Standard/Daylight Time on the filing date to be timely filed. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.19(c) and 104.5(e). The treasurer shall be personally responsible for the timely filing of reports. 11 C.F.R. § 104.14(d).

Respondents' Challenge

On April 28, 2015, the Commission received the written response ("challenge") from the Treasurer, Ms. Tufanna L. Thomas, requesting that the Commission waive the civil money penalty due to technical difficulties with FECFile. Ms. Thomas states that "[she] does not know if there were issues with the Commission's computers or if weather impacted [the filing of the report,] but [she] tried to file the report with [her] best efforts."

Ms. Thomas explains that "...almost every time [she] filed reports, there was an issue." Ms. Thomas further explains that while she was able download the software and complete reports, she always had issues uploading reports. She has called for technical support on at least three different occasions, and technical support never got back to her.

When attempting to file the 2014 Year-End Report, Ms. Thomas states she "...continuously tried on different occasions to file the report with no avail." She repeatedly called for technical support and each time was sent to voicemail.

Ms. Thomas concludes by explaining the Committee is no longer active, and she intends to terminate the Committee. She also states that neither the Committee or she have the funds to pay the civil money penalty.

Analysis

The Treasurer contends the Committee has always had had issues uploading reports, and the Committee has called for technical assistance on at least three different occasions. The challenge implies that while the Committee has contacted the Commission for support, they have never received assistance. However, according to the Manager of the E-Filing and Disclosure Branch in the Commission's Office of the Chief Information Officer, the Electronic Filing Office ("EFO") has provided technical support to the Committee. On several occasions in January 2014, EFO provided support regarding lost data and a dataset rebuild. Later, in May 2014, EFO helped the Committee resolve upload errors.

The challenge specifically mentions an instance where technical support did not return the Treasurer's call. While the challenge does not provide details, EFO records indicate the respondents may be referring to the Treasurer's request for assistance in October 2014. According to EFO records, the Treasurer contacted EFO via email and requested assistance. EFO responded to the request by calling the Treasurer and leaving a voicemail, but the Treasurer never returned EFO's call.<sup>1</sup>

The challenge also states the Treasurer "kept getting voicemail" when attempting to call for assistance with filing the 2014 Year-End Report. However, the challenge does not specify whether or not she left a message during this period. Both EFO and RAD document all calls and voicemails received, and neither office have any record of any contacts with the Committee regarding the filing of the 2014 Year-End Report. Therefore, there is not enough evidence to suggest the Committee actually left a voicemail requesting assistance, and the Commission subsequently failed to provide assistance to the Committee.

On February 18, 2015, RAD sent a non-filer letter via email to "jbarfield@ec.rr.com," the email address listed on the Committee's Statement of Organization. The notice indicated the Committee may have failed to timely file the 2014 Year-End Report.

<sup>1</sup> Subsequently, the Committee electronically filed the 2014 October Quarterly Report (2 days late), the 2014 Pre-General Report (timely), and the 2014 Post-General Report (one day late). All reports were electronically filed without any assistance from the Commission.

The Committee electronically filed the 2014 Year-End Report on March 5, 2015. The Commission has no record of any contacts with the Committee between October 2014 and this date, indicating the Committee successfully electronically filed the report without any assistance from EFO or RAD.

The challenge implies that FECFile errors and the unavailability of technical support were unforeseen circumstances beyond the respondents' control that prevented them from timely filing the 2014 Year-End Report. The Treasurer also states that "[she] does not know if there were issues with the Commission's computers or if weather impacted [the filing of the report,] and [she] tried to file the report with [her] best efforts." The "best efforts" defense is a two-part test: the respondents used best efforts to file on time but were prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond their control, and they filed the report no later than 24 hours after the end of these circumstances.

According to EFO, there were no issues with the Commission's computers or FECFile that would have prevented the Committee from timely filing the 2014 Year-End Report. As mentioned above, there is also no evidence to suggest that the Commission failed to provide technical support to the Committee. In fact, the Committee's ability to electronically file the report without any assistance from the Commission indicates that the absence of technical support did not prevent the timely filing of the 2014 Year-End Report. There is also no evidence to suggest that severe weather prevented the respondents from filing the report. The respondents' defenses do not qualify as reasonably unforeseen circumstances beyond their control; therefore, their "best efforts" defense does not succeed.

The Committee's untimely filing of the 2014 Year-End Report can be attributed to the failure of the Committee's computer and/or the failure to use filing software properly. These are included at 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(d) as examples of a circumstance that will not be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond the respondents' control. While the Reviewing Officer is sympathetic to the respondents' financial hardships, the Reviewing Officer recommends that the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a $275 civil money penalty.

OAR Recommendations

- 1) Adopt the Reviewing Officer recommendation for AF# 2954 involving Barfield for Congress and Tufanna L. Thomas, in her official capacity as Treasurer, in making the final determination;

Dear Ms. Thomas:

On April 3, 2015, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Barfield for Congress and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer ("respondents"), violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to file the 2014 Year-End Report. The Commission also made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $275 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43.

After reviewing your written response and any supplemental information submitted by you and Commission staff, the Reviewing Officer has recommended that the Commission make a final determination. A copy of the Reviewing Officer's recommendation is attached.

You may file with the Commission Secretary a written response to the recommendation within 10 days of the date of this letter. Your written response should be sent to the Commission Secretary, 999 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20463 or via facsimile (202-208-3333). Please include the AF # in your response. Your response may not raise any arguments not raised in your original written response or not directly responsive to the Reviewing Officer's recommendation. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). The Commission will then make a final determination in this matter.

Please contact me at the toll free number 800-424-9530 (press 0, then press 1660) or 202-694-1660 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Subject: Final Determination Recommendation in AF# 2954 – Barfield for Congress and Tufanna L. Thomas, in her official capacity as Treasurer (C00543074)

On April 3, 2015, the Commission found reason to believe ("RTB") that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to timely file the 2014 Year-End Report and made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $275 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43.

On April 28, 2015, the Commission received their written response ("challenge"). After reviewing the challenge, the Reviewing Officer Recommendation ("ROR") dated June 25, 2015 was forwarded to the Commission, a copy was forwarded to the respondents, and is hereby incorporated by reference. They submitted no evidence that a factual error was made in the RTB finding, that the penalty was miscalculated at RTB, or that they used best efforts to file on time. 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(b). Therefore, the Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a $275 civil money penalty.

Within 10 days of transmittal of the recommendation, they may file a written response with the Commission Secretary which may not raise any arguments not raised in their challenge or not directly responsive to the ROR. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). As of this date, a written response has not been received.

Based on this review, the Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission make a final determination that Barfield for Congress and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a civil money penalty in the amount of $275 in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. A copy of the Reviewing Officer Recommendation was sent to you on June 25, 2015.

On September 14, 2015, the Commission adopted the Reviewing Officer's recommendation and made a final determination that Barfield for Congress and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assessed a civil money penalty in the amount of $275. A copy of the Final Determination Recommendation is attached.

At this juncture, the following courses of action are available to you:

1. If You Choose to Appeal the Final Determination and/or Civil Money Penalty

If you choose to appeal the final determination, you should submit a written petition, within 30 days of receipt of this letter, to the U.S. District Court for the district in which the committee or you reside, or transact business, requesting that the final determination be modified or set aside. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(C)(iii). Your failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver of the respondents' right to present such argument in a petition to the district court under 52 U.S.C. § 30109. 11 CFR § 111.38.

2. If You Choose Not to Pay the Civil Money Penalty and Not to Appeal

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA") as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 ("DCIA"), 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. If you do not pay this debt within 30 days (or file a written petition to a federal district court - see below), the Commission will transfer the debt to the U.S. Department of the Treasury ("Treasury") for collection. Within 5 days of the transfer to Treasury, Treasury will contact you to request payment. Treasury currently charges a fee of 28% of the civil money penalty amount for its collection services. The fee will be added to the amount of the civil money penalty that you owe. Should Treasury's attempts fail, Treasury will refer the debt to a private collection agency ("PCA"). If the debt remains unpaid, Treasury may recommend that the Commission refer the matter to the Department of Justice for litigation.

Actions which may be taken to enforce recovery of a delinquent debt by Treasury may also include: (1) offset of any payments, which the debtor is due, including tax refunds and salary; (2) referral of the debt to agency counsel for litigation; (3) reporting of the debt to a credit bureau; (4) administrative wage garnishment; and (5) reporting of the debt, if discharged, to the IRS as potential taxable income. In addition, under the provisions of DCIA and other statutes applicable to the FEC, the debtor may be subject to the assessment of other statutory interest, penalties, and administrative costs.

In accordance with the DCIA, at your request, the agency will offer you the opportunity to inspect and copy records relating to the debt, the opportunity for a review of the debt, and the opportunity to enter into a written repayment agreement.

3. If You Choose to Pay the Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the civil money penalty, send the enclosed remittance form, along with your payment, to the address on page 4 within 30 days of receipt of this letter.

4. Partial Payments

If you make a payment in an amount less than the civil money penalty, the amount of your partial payment will be credited towards the full civil money penalty that the Commission assessed upon making a final determination.

5. Settlement Offers

Any offer to settle or compromise a debt owed to the Commission, including a payment in an amount less than the civil money penalty assessed or any restrictive endorsements contained on your check or money order or proposed in correspondence transmitted with your check or money order, will be rejected. Acceptance and deposit or cashing of such a restricted payment does not constitute acceptance of the settlement offer. Payments containing restrictive endorsements will be deposited and treated as a partial payment towards the civil money penalty that the Commission assessed upon making a final determination. All unpaid civil money penalty amounts remaining will be subject to the debt collection procedures set forth in Section 2, above.

The confidentiality provisions at 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.42(b) and 111.20(c), the file will be placed on the public record within 30 days from the date of this notification.

If you have any questions regarding the payment of the civil money penalty, please contact Rhiannon Magruder on our toll free number (800) 424-9530 (press 0, then ext. 1660) or (202) 694-1660.
