SUBJECT: Withdrawal and Resubmission of Reason To Believe Recommendation –
2020 April Quarterly Report for the Administrative Fine Program

We are withdrawing the document circulated to the Commission on June 11, 2020 in order to reflect updates disclosed in filings received by the Commission after the initial submission of this recommendation. On June 17, 2020, Committee to Elect Mauro Garza for U.S. Congress (AF 3811) filed a 2020 April Quarterly Report. The circulation report has been updated to reflect this most recent filing.

Attached is a list of political committees and their treasurers who failed to file the 2020 April Quarterly Report in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a). The April Quarterly Report was due on April 15, 2020.

The committees listed in the attached RTB Circulation Report either failed to file the report, filed the report no more than thirty (30) days after the due date (considered a late filed report), or filed the report more than thirty (30) days after the due date (considered a non-filed report). In accordance with the schedule of civil money penalties for reports at 11 C.F.R. 111.43, these committees should be assessed the civil money penalties highlighted on the attached circulation report.

Recommendation

1. Find reason to believe that the political committees and their treasurers, in their official capacity, listed on the RTB Circulation Report violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and make a preliminary determination that the civil money penalties would be the amounts indicated on the RTB Circulation Report.
2. Send the appropriate letters.

Dear Mr. Marston,

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), requires that your committee file an April Quarterly Report of Receipts and Disbursements every calendar year. This report, covering the period January 1, 2020 through March 31, 2020, shall be filed no later than April 15, 2020. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a). Records at the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") indicate that this report was filed on April 21, 2020, 6 days late.

The Act permits the FEC to impose civil money penalties for violations of the reporting requirements of 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a). 52 U.S.C. § 30109g(a)(4). On June 30, 2020, the FEC found that there is reason to believe ("RTB") that Shiva 4 Senate and you, in your official capacity as treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) by failing to file timely this report on or before April 15, 2020. Based on the FEC's schedules of civil money penalties at 11 CFR § 111.43, the amount of your civil money penalty calculated at the RTB stage is $9,007. Please see the attached copy of the Commission's administrative fine regulations at 11 CFR §§ 111.30-111.55. Attachment 1. The Commission's website contains further information about how the administrative fine program works and how the fines are calculated. See <https://www.fec.gov/af/pay.shtml> 11 CFR § 111.34. Your payment of $9,007 is due within forty (40) days of the finding, or by August 9, 2020, and is based on these factors:

Election Sensitivity of Report: Not Election Sensitive

Level of Activity: $2,100,927

Number of Days Late: 6

Number of Previous Civil Money Penalties Assessed: 0

At this juncture, the following courses of action are available to you:

1. If You Choose to Challenge the RTB Finding and/or Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to challenge the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, you must submit a written response to the FEC's Office of Administrative

SHIVA 4 SENATE

Review. Your response must include the AF# (found at the top of page 1 under your committee's identification number) and be received within forty (40) days of the Commission's RTB finding, or August 9, 2020. 11 CFR § 111.35(a). Your written response must include the reason(s) why you are challenging the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, and must include the factual basis supporting the reason(s) and supporting documentation. The FEC strongly encourages that documents be submitted in the form of affidavits or declarations. 11 CFR § 111.36(c).

Please note, on June 18, 2020, the Federal Election Commission began the initial phase (Phase I) of its return to normal operations. At this stage, the agency's offices will remain closed to visitors and most of its employees will continue to telework in an effort to limit the spread of coronavirus (COVID-19). The Commission is processing some documents submitted by mail, though processing will not occur on a daily basis until the agency resumes normal mail operations. Nevertheless, a challenge to an RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty must be received on time. Thus, all written responses and supporting documentation should be converted to PDF (Portable Document Format) and must be emailed to administrativefines@fec.gov. The Commission encourages the use of electronic signatures on electronically submitted documents, but scanned copies of ink signatures will be accepted. Electronically submitted challenges will be deemed received on the date it is electronically received by staff.

The FEC will only consider challenges that are based on at least one of three grounds: (1) a factual error in the RTB finding; (2) miscalculation of the calculated civil money penalty by the FEC; or (3) your demonstrated use of best efforts to file in a timely manner when prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond your control. 11 CFR § 111.35(b). In order for a challenge to be considered on the basis of best efforts, you must have filed the required report no later than 24 hours after the end of these reasonably unforeseen circumstances. Id. Examples of circumstances that will be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to: (1) a failure of Commission computers or Commission-provided software despite your seeking technical assistance from Commission personnel and resources; (2) a widespread disruption of information transmissions over the Internet that is not caused by a failure of the Commission's or your computer systems or Internet service provider; and (3) severe weather or other disaster-related incident. 11 CFR § 111.35(c). Examples of circumstances that will not be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to: (1) negligence; (2) delays caused by vendors or contractors; (3) treasurer and staff illness, inexperience or unavailability; (4) committee computer, software, or Internet service provider failures; (5) failure to know filing dates; and (6) failure to use filing software properly. 11 CFR § 111.35(d).

The "failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver" of your right to present such argument in a petition to the U.S. District Court under 52 U.S.C. § 30109. 11 CFR § 111.38.

If you intend to be represented by counsel, please advise the Office of Administrative Review. You should provide, in writing, the name, address and telephone number of your counsel and authorize counsel to receive notifications and communications relating to this challenge and imposition of the calculated civil money penalty.

2. If You Choose Not to Pay the Civil Money Penalty and Not to Submit a Challenge

If you do not pay the calculated civil money penalty and do not submit a written response, the FEC will assume that the preceding factual allegations are true and make a final determination that Shiva 4 Senate and you, in your official capacity as treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a civil money penalty.

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA"), as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. The FEC may take any and all appropriate action authorized and required by the DCA, as amended, including transfer to the U.S. Department of the Treasury for collection. 11 CFR § 111.51(a)(2).

3. If You Choose to Pay the Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the calculated civil money penalty, follow the payment instructions on page 4 of this letter. Upon receipt of your payment, the FEC will send you a final determination letter.

4. Partial Payments

If you make a payment in an amount less than the calculated civil money penalty, the amount of your partial payment will be credited towards the full civil money penalty that the Commission assesses upon making a final determination.

5. Settlement Offers

Any offer to settle or compromise a debt owed to the Commission, including a payment in an amount less than the calculated civil money penalty assessed or any restrictive endorsements contained on your check or money order or proposed in correspondence transmitted with your check or money order, will be rejected. Acceptance and deposit or cashing of such a restricted payment does not constitute acceptance of the settlement offer. Payments containing restrictive endorsements will be deposited and treated as a partial payment towards the civil money penalty that the Commission assesses upon making a final determination. All unpaid civil money penalty amounts remaining will be subject to the debt collection procedures set forth in Section 2, above.

This matter was generated based on information ascertained by the FEC in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(2). RE: C00638148; AF#: 3827

To whom it may concern:

By this letter, Shiva 4 Senate challenges the Commission's Reason to Believe Finding (RTB) and the calculation of the civil money penalty.

First, the Committee uses the Commission's FECFile software. The Committee receives contributions online through several common payment processors, including PayPal and Stripe. The contributions reported on the 2020 April Quarterly report represented a dramatic increase in the number of the Committee's receipts, including many receipts from international addresses and individuals with names including non-standard characters, such as those with accent marks (The Committee has properly refunded all contributions from foreign sources).

The data from PayPal and Stripe, due to the volume and the non-standard addresses, were very difficult to import into FECFile. In addition to the non-standard addresses, the data included a number of newline characters. Importing a file with newline characters causes FECFile to crash during the import. Data with non-standard addresses causes import errors. While the Committee did not require technical support from the Commission to correct these errors, because of the large size of the file and the repeated crashes from newline imports and correcting non-standard addresses, the Committee was delayed in making its filing. The Committee respectfully requests that the Commission consider that it exercised its best efforts to timely file.

Second, the Committee notes that the "Level of Activity" used to calculate the civil money penalty should not include the substantial in-kind contributions from the candidate, which count twice in the calculation, once as a receipt and once as a disbursement. These in-kind contributions total $995,131.28, including $985,000 of fair market value for use of software, developed and owned by the candidate. Consistent with the Committee's practice, this is an estimate of the value for the annual cost of the licenses, which could have been reported on a per-quarter basis. As such, the Committee believes that, should the Commission hold to its RTB finding, the correct level of activity on which to base the fine should be $130,927, which would lead to a civil money penalty of $1,963.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

DocuSigned by:

REVIEWING OFFICER RECOMMENDATION OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW (“OAR”)

AF# 3827 – Shiva 4 Senate and Serena Scovell, in her official capacity as Treasurer¹ (C00638148)

Summary of Recommendation

Make a final determination that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a $9,007 civil money penalty.

Reason-to-Believe Background

The 2020 April Quarterly Report was due on April 15, 2020. The respondents filed the report on April 21, 2020, 6 days late. The report is not election sensitive and was filed within 30 days of the due date; therefore, the report is considered late. 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.43(d)(1) and (e)(1).

On June 30, 2020, the Commission found reason to believe (“RTB”) that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to timely file the 2020 April Quarterly Report and made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $9,007 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. A letter was sent to the respondents’ email address of record from the Reports Analysis Division (“RAD”) on July 15, 2020 to notify them of the Commission’s RTB finding and civil money penalty.

Legal Requirements

The Federal Election Campaign Act (“Act”) states that the treasurer of a principal campaign committee of a candidate shall file a report for the period ending March 31 no later than April 15. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(a)(1)(i). Reports filed electronically must be received and validated at or before 11:59 pm, Eastern Standard/Daylight Time on April 15 for the April Quarterly Report to be timely filed. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.19(c) and 104.5(e). The treasurer shall be personally responsible for the timely filing of reports. 11 C.F.R. § 104.14(d).

¹ On September 8, 2020, the Committee filed an Amended Statement of Organization to disclose Serena Scovell as the Committee’s new Treasurer. The Reviewing Officer Recommendation reflects this change and refers to the respondents as Shiva 4 Senate and Serena Scovell, in her official capacity as Treasurer.

Summary of Respondents' Challenge

On August 8, 2020, the Commission received the written response (“challenge”) from the respondents. The Committee states that it received a large volume of online contributions through online payment processors, and the data formats caused errors when attempting to import into FECFile. They further explain:

The data from PayPal and Stripe, due to the volume and the non-standard addresses, were very difficult to import into FECFile. In addition to the non-standard addresses, the data included a number of newline characters. Importing a file with newline characters causes FECFile to crash during the import. Data with non-standard addresses causes import errors. While the Committee did not require technical support from the Commission to correct these errors, because of the large size of the file and the repeated crashes from newline imports and correcting non-standard addresses, the Committee was delayed in making its filing. The Committee respectfully requests that the Commission consider that it exercised its best efforts to timely file.

The respondents also state that the level of activity used to calculate the civil money should not include in-kind contributions from the Candidate. The respondents explain:

[The in-kind contributions] count twice in the calculation, once as a receipt and once as a disbursement. These in-kind contributions total $995,131.28, including $985,000 of fair market value for use of software, developed and owned by the candidate. Consistent with the Committee’s practice, this is an estimate of the value for the annual cost of the licenses, which could have been reported on a per-quarter basis. As such, the Committee believes that, should the Commission hold to its RTB finding, the correct level of activity on which to base the fine should be $130,927, which would lead to a civil money penalty of $1,963.

Analysis

The respondents contend they used their best efforts to timely file the 2020 April Quarterly Report but were prevented from doing so due to technical difficulty with importing data into FECFile. The respondents explain non-standard data formats caused errors. The Commission’s Electronic Filing Office (“EFO”) confirms that in order for data to be successfully imported into FECFile, it must meet import format specifications. The Commission’s website provides FECFile import instructions and data converters, and also instructs filers to contact EFO for assistance with importing.² As mentioned by the respondents in the challenge, EFO has no records of the Committee contacting its office for assistance.

In accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.35, the FEC will only consider challenges that are based on at least one of three grounds: (1) a factual error in the RTB finding; (2) miscalculation of the calculated civil money penalty by the FEC; or (3) demonstrated use of best efforts to file in a timely manner when prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond the respondents’ control. The “best efforts” defense is a two-part test: the respondents used best efforts to file on time but were prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond their control, and they filed the report no later than 24 hours after the end of these circumstances.

While the Reviewing Officer recognizes it may have taken the Committee additional time to convert non-standard data formats into an acceptable format, failure to use filing software properly and computer/software failures are specifically included at 11 C.F.R. § 111.35(d) as examples of a circumstance that will not be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond the respondents' control. Therefore, the "best efforts" defense does not succeed, and the Reviewing Officer recommends that the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a).

For the purpose of calculating the civil money penalty, the level of activity for an authorized committee is the total amount of receipts and disbursements for the period covered by the late report. 11 C.F.R. § 111.43(d)(3)(i). The Reviewing Officer confirms that in-kind contributions from the Candidate should be included in the level of activity. In accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 104.13(a), an in-kind contribution should be reported as a contribution and as an expenditure. Therefore, the Commission appropriately calculated the total amount of receipts and disbursements to determine the level of activity and civil money penalty at RTB. The report discloses \$1,090,582 in total receipts and \$1,010,345 in total disbursements. Therefore, the level of activity of the 2020 April Quarterly Report is \$2,100,927. Using the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R § 111.43(a) for the level of activity bracket of \$950,000 or more, the civil money penalty is [$\$7,267 + (\$290 \times 6 \text{ days late})$] $\times [1 + (.25 \times 0 \text{ previous violations})]$ or \$9,007.

Therefore, the Reviewing Officer recommends that the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a $9,007 civil money penalty.

OAR Recommendations

1. Adopt the Reviewing Officer recommendation for AF# 3827 involving Shiva 4 Senate and Serena Scovell, in her official capacity as Treasurer, in making the final determination;
2. Make a final determination in AF# 3827 that Shiva 4 Senate and Serena Scovell, in her official capacity as Treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a $9,007 civil money penalty; and
3. Send the appropriate letter.

Serena Scovell, in her official capacity as Treasurer
Shiva 4 Senate

Cambridge, MA 02138

AF#: 3827

Dear Ms. Scovell:

On June 30, 2020, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Shiva 4 Senate and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer ("respondents"), violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to timely file the 2020 April Quarterly Report. The Commission also made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $9,007 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43.

After reviewing your written response and any supplemental information submitted by you and Commission staff, the Reviewing Officer has recommended that the Commission make a final determination and assess a civil money penalty. A copy of the Reviewing Officer's recommendation is attached.

You may file with the Commission Secretary a written response to the recommendation within 10 days of the date of this letter. Please note, the agency's offices remain closed to visitors and most of its employees will continue to telework in an effort to limit the spread of coronavirus (COVID-19). The Commission is processing some documents submitted by mail, though processing will not occur on a daily basis until the agency resumes normal mail operations. Nevertheless, if you choose to submit a response to the recommendation, it must be received on time. Thus, all written responses and supporting documentation should be converted to PDF (Portable Document Format) and must be emailed to the Commission Secretary at secretary@fec.gov. The Commission encourages the use of electronic signatures on electronically submitted documents, but scanned copies of ink signatures will be accepted. Electronically submitted responses will be deemed received on the date it is electronically received by staff. Please include the AF # in your response. Your response may not raise any arguments not raised in your original written response or not directly responsive to the Reviewing Officer's recommendation. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). The Commission will then make a final determination in this matter.

Please contact me at the toll free number 800-424-9530 (press 0, then press 1660) or 202-694-1158 if you have any questions.

Dear Ms. Scovell:

On June 30, 2020, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Shiva 4 Senate and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer ("respondents"), violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to timely file the 2020 April Quarterly Report. By letter dated July 15, 2020, the Commission sent notification of the RTB finding that included a civil money penalty calculated at RTB of $9,007 in accordance with the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. On August 8, 2020, the Office of Administrative Review received your written response challenging the RTB finding.

The Reviewing Officer reviewed the Commission's RTB finding with its supporting documentation and your written response. Based on this review, the Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission make a final determination that Shiva 4 Senate and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a civil money penalty in the amount of $9,007 in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. The Reviewing Officer Recommendation was sent to you on October 8, 2020.

On February 17, 2021, the Commission adopted the Reviewing Officer's recommendation and made a final determination that Shiva 4 Senate and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assessed a civil money penalty of $9,007. It is based on the same factors used to calculate the civil money penalty at RTB. A copy of the Final Determination Recommendation is attached.

On October 21, 2020, the Commission received your $9,007 payment.

If You Choose to Appeal the Final Determination and/or Civil Money Penalty

If you choose to appeal the final determination, you should submit a written petition, within 30 days of receipt of this letter, to the U.S. District Court for the district in which the committee or you reside, or transact business, requesting that the final determination be modified or set aside. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(C)(iii). Your failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver of the respondents' right to present such argument in a petition to the district court under 52 U.S.C. § 30109. 11 CFR § 111.38.

The confidentiality provisions at 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.42(b) and 111.20(c), the file will be placed on the public record within 30 days from the date of this notification.

If you have any questions regarding the payment of the civil money penalty, please contact Rhiannon Magruder on our toll free number (800) 424-9530 (press 0, then ext. 1158) or (202) 694-1158.
