Dear Mr. Rigney

I am enclosing the agreement we discussed and agreed to on Tuesday, November 7, 2000. The terms of the agreement, specifically, the payment of a civil penalty by FJC Corporation of $850, are in conformity with our discussion at that time and have been incorporated into the enclosed document.

Please return the signed document to my office within the next five days. We would appreciate you faxing a copy of the signed document to us, however, we will need an original signed agreement before we are able to proceed with the processing at this end.

As I mentioned when we spoke on November 7, the terms of the agreement are subject to review by the Commission, as specified in CFR §111.18. Upon approval by the Commission, a signed copy of the agreement will be forwarded you for your files.

If you have any questions about the terms and conditions of the enclosed Negotiated Settlement please be in touch. In the meantime, I appreciate your assistance in resolving this matter and concluding our negotiations in an expeditious manner.

Sincerely,
