Re: MUR 5062

Dear Mr. Noble

This is to advise that we, the undersigned, contributed to the Rich Rodriguez campaign the sum of $2,000.00 ($1,000.00 per spouse) which we realized was the legal limit.

We feel that we did not intentionally violate any campaign contribution acts, as the monies came from a joint personal account.

If redesignation of this contribution was not timely to the primary election, it was not in our cognizance.

This issue has caused us to change our attitude in future support of any candidate. We have, in the past, looked at the candidate and views on issues and not the party, and must add supported many Democratic candidates, as well.

If we can be of any additional assistance please call 559-655-4581.

Thank You,

A. Tom Stefanopoulos
