OFFICE OF
GENERAL COUNSEL

RE: Libertarian National Committee, Inc.: Concerns regarding failure to disclose disbursements on organization credit card

Dear FEC Office of General Counsel:

This correspondence concerns the registered political party committee "Libertarian National Committee, Inc." (C00255695). Based on my review of recent regularly filed monthly reports, signed by treasurer Todd C. Hagopian, the committee is not properly itemizing or disclosing disbursements done via the committee credit card. Accordingly, I respectfully request that the FEC investigate the apparent violation and take any actions it deems appropriate.

I. Recitation of facts that show specific violations:

In the 3 most recently filed reports as of the date of this letter (July 2023, August 2023, September 2023), the committee has reported credit card debt as follows:

July 2023 Report: $10958.00
 August 2023 Report: $3439.58
 September 2023 Report: $23842.58

Per the FEC website, a guide on how political parties report operating expenditures charged on a committee credit card¹, the committee must itemize, as a memo entry, any specific transactions charged on a credit card. The memo entry must include the name and the address of the vendor, the purpose of the disbursement, date the services were received, and the amount of the disbursement on Form 3X.

In each of the three above referenced reports, there is a failure to report any transactions billed to the committee credit card as a memo entry. Prior reports do not contain this behavior, in fact they documented card spending properly by including the appropriate memo entry along with the full payment of the committee credit card.

¹ Credit Card Disbursements, FEC: <https://www.fec.gov/help-candidates-and-committees/filing-political-party-reports/credit-card-disbursements/>

This complaint is not meant to imply mismanagement of funds on the part of the Libertarian National Committee, Inc., but to only bring the attention to the failure of a full disclosure of itemized disbursements made by the committee through the committee's credit card, totaling $38,240.16 at the time of this complaint. The facts alleged in this complaint may apply to future reports, and I ask the Commission to review future reports for a similar behavior in future reports beyond those mentioned in this complaint.

As such, I respectfully request that the Federal Election Commission investigate whether the Libertarian National Committee, Inc. is in violation of federal campaign finance laws.

Respectfully,
Jeremy David Kantorowicz

RE: MUR #8180 (#8170) Libertarian National Committee, Inc. (ID# C00255695) Concerns regarding failure to disclose disbursements organization credit card

Please be advised that the MUR number on the correspondence from the Federal Election Commission signed by Wanda D. Brown dated October 17, 2023 (attached) is listed as 8170 in the subheading; however, in the body of the same letter and on the original filing dated September 27, 2023, the MUR number is listed to be 8180. We will refer to both MUR numbers in this correspondence as we are unclear as to which is correct.

The Libertarian National Committee (LNC) has recently changed its accounting system, resulting in a few transitional difficulties and changes in the manner in which the Committee's disclosures have been presented, but the Committee has always endeavored to disclose its activity clearly and consistently in compliance with the Act.

The complaint is as follows:

"I. Recitation of facts that how specific violations:

In the 3 most recently filed reports as of the date of this letter (July 2023, August 2023, September 2023), the committee has reported credit card debt as follows:

July 2023 Report: $10958.00

August 2023 Report: $3439.58

September 2023 Report: $23842.58

Per the FEC website, a guide on how political parties report operating expenditures charged on a committee credit card¹, the committee must itemize, as a memo entry, any specific transactions charged on a credit card. The memo entry must include the name and the address of the vendor, the purpose of the disbursement, date the services were received, and the amount of the disbursement on Form 3X.

1444 DUKE STREET, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA 22314 · 1-800-ELECT-US · WWW.LP.ORG

In each of the three above referenced reports, there is a failure to report any transactions billed to the committee credit card as a memo entry. Prior reports do not contain this behavior, in fact. They documented card spending properly by including the appropriate memo entry along with the full payment of the committee credit card."

The complainant, Mr. Kantorowicz, is correct in part. The requirements are that if a political committee itemizes disbursements to credit card companies on Schedule B (Itemized Disbursements), it must include a memo entry for any transaction with a single vendor charged on the card that exceeds the $200 itemization threshold. The memo entry must include the name and address of the vendor and the date, amount and purpose of the charge, as shown in reporting examples E and F. (See 11 CFR 102.9)

However, the instances cited by Mr. Kantorowicz are not disbursements, they are disclosures of debt. There is no requirement that a Committee disclose ultimate payees when disclosing debt on Schedule D. It is when the outstanding bills are reported as paid on Schedule B that the ultimate payers are disclosed. Indeed, while the FEC has provided software specifications that facilitate the disclosure of ultimate payees on Schedule B, there is no such mechanism for Schedule D. Disclosure of Ultimate vendors on Schedule D would be complex and confusing.

Contrary to Mr. Kantorowicz's assertion, the LNC has never disclosed ultimate payees on Schedule D when it has reported credit card debt. The ultimate payees were always disclosed on the subsequent reports when the bills were paid. (See attached Forms 3x) It has been the Committee practice to pay credit cards in full each month; therefore, there was often no credit card debt to disclose, but on the rare occasion where there was an outstanding credit card balance at the end of the month, the disclosure on Schedule D did not contain memo entries for ultimate payees. The Committee has never received any communication from the Commission questioning whether this method of disclosure is incorrect or indicating that it is incorrect.

When the outstanding debts are paid, the ultimate payees will be disclosed on Schedule B as the LNC has always disclosed them. In the future, the LNC intends to return to the practice of paying its credit cards in full every month, so there should be no further confusion relating to the disclosure of debt and ultimate payees.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Todd Hagopian
