52 U.S.C. § 30116(a) and (f)
11 C.F.R. § 103.3
11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)

III. BACKGROUND:

Excessive, Prohibited and Other Impermissible Contributions (Failure to Refund, Redesignate, or Reattribute Excessive Contributions within the Permissible Timeframe)

Cheri Beasley for North Carolina (“the Committee”) received excessive contributions totaling $137,320.33 for the 2022 Primary and General Elections from individuals. The Committee refunded all of these excessive contributions outside of the permissible timeframe (Attachment 1).

2022 April Quarterly Report

During the 2022 April Quarterly reporting period, January 1, 2022 to March 31, 2022, the Committee received excessive contributions totaling $4,700.00 from individuals that were not remedied within the permissible timeframe (Attachment 1).

On May 12, 2022, a Request for Additional Information \(RFAI\) was sent to the Committee referencing the 2022 April Quarterly Report. The RFAI noted the Committee’s receipt of apparent excessive contributions and requested that the Committee take corrective action concerning these contributions.

On June 16, 2022, the Committee filed an FEC Form 99 \(Miscellaneous Electronic Submission\) which stated, in part:

“This is in response to your letter dated May 12, 2022 concerning the April Quarterly Report (01/01/2022-03/31/2022) of Cheri Beasley for North Carolina (the ‘Committee’).

...The excess portion of each of the contributions from individuals listed have either been refunded; in which case the refund will appear on the July Quarterly Report (04/28/2022-06/30/2022); or have been redesignated to the General election period. Any redesignated contributions will appear on the Amended April Quarterly Report (01/01/2022-03/31/2022) that is to be filed.”

On October 15, 2022, the Committee filed its 2022 October Quarterly Report, which disclosed refunds for the cited $4,700.00 excessive contributions received during the 2022 April Quarterly reporting period. All of these remedies were made outside of the permissible timeframe.

2022 July Quarterly Report

During the 2022 July Quarterly reporting period, April 28, 2022 to June 30, 2022, the Committee received excessive contributions totaling $4,788.33 from individuals that were not remedied within the permissible timeframe (Attachment 1).

On August 3, 2022, an RFAI was sent to the Committee referencing the 2022 July Quarterly Report. The RFAI noted the Committee’s receipt of apparent excessive contributions and requested that the Committee take corrective action concerning these contributions.

On September 7, 2022, the Committee filed an FEC Form 99 which stated in part,

“This is in response to your letter dated August 3rd, 2022, concerning the July Quarterly Report (04/28/2022-06/30/2022) of Cheri Beasley for North Carolina (the ‘Committee’).

...The excess portion of each of the contributions from individuals listed have either been refunded; in which case the refund will appear on the October Quarterly Report (04/28/2022-06/30/2022); or have been redesignated to the General election period. Any redesignated contributions will appear on the Amended July Quarterly Report (01/01/2022-03/31/2022) that is to be filed.

The referenced excessive contributions from J. Adam Abram & Jonathan Abram have been confirmed as different individuals, no action is required.”

The Committee disclosed refunds totaling $4,788.33 for the excessive contributions received during the 2022 July Quarterly reporting period that were previously cited in the RFAI. All of these refunds were made outside of the permissible timeframe.

2022 October Quarterly Report

During the 2022 October Quarterly reporting period, July 1, 2022 to September 30, 2022, the Committee received excessive contributions totaling $30,474.23 from individuals that were not remedied within the permissible timeframe (Attachment 1).

On November 16, 2022, an RFAI was sent to the Committee referencing the 2022 October Quarterly Report. The RFAI noted the Committee’s receipt of apparent excessive contributions and requested that the Committee take corrective action concerning these contributions.

On December 21, 2022, the Committee filed an FEC Form 99 which stated, in part:

“This is in response to your letter dated November 16, 2022, concerning October Quarterly Report (07/01/2022 – 09/30/2022) for Cheri Beasley for North Carolina (the ‘Committee’).

...The excess portion of each of the contributions from individuals listed have either been refunded; in which case the refund will have appeared on the Post General 2022 Report (10/20/2022-11/28/2022) or will appear on the Year End 2022 Report (11/29/2022-12/31/2022); or have been reattributed to the spouse of the individual originally reported as the contributor. Any reattributed contributions will appear on the Amended October Quarterly Report (07/01/2022 – 09/30/2022) that is to be filed.”

On May 10, 2023, a further review RFAI was sent to the Committee referencing the 2022 October Quarterly Report. The RFAI noted the Committee’s receipt of apparent excessive contributions and requested that the Committee take corrective action concerning these contributions.

On June 14, 2023, the Committee filed an FEC Form 99 which stated:

“This is in response to your letter dated May 10th, 2023 concerning the October Quarterly Report (07/01/2022-09/30/2022) of Cheri Beasley for North Carolina (the ‘Committee’).

...The committee can confirm that the excess portion of each of the contributions listed in section one of your letter have either been refunded and listed on the following reports:

- Pre General 2022 (10/01/2022-10/19/2022)
- Post General 2022 (10/20/2022-11/28/2022)
- April Quarterly Report (01/01/2023-3/31/2023)

Some referenced contributions were not itemized on previously filed reports, but the committee can confirm that all noted contributors have been refunded.”

The Committee disclosed refunds totaling $30,474.23 for the excessive contributions received during the 2022 October Quarterly reporting period that were previously cited in the RFAI. All of these refunds were made outside of the permissible timeframe.

2022 12-Day Pre-General Report

During the 2022 12-Day Pre-General reporting period, October 1, 2022 to October 19, 2022, the Committee received excessive contributions totaling $30,292.00 from individuals that were not remedied within the permissible timeframe (Attachment 1).

On November 16, 2022, an RFAI was sent to the Committee referencing the 2022 12-Day Pre-General Report. The RFAI noted the Committee’s receipt of apparent excessive contributions and requested that the Committee take corrective action concerning these contributions.

On December 21, 2022, the Committee filed an FEC Form 99 which stated:

“This is in response to your letter dated November 16, 2022, concerning the 12 Day Pre-General Report (10/01/2022 – 10/19/2022) for Cheri Beasley for North Carolina (‘the Committee’).

...The excess portion of each of the contributions from individuals listed have either been refunded; in which case the refund will have appeared on the Post General 2022 Report (10/20/2022- 11/28/2022) or will appear on the Year End 2022 Report (11/29/2022-12/31/2022); or have been reattributed to the spouse of the individual originally reported as the contributor. Any reattributed contributions will appear on the Amended Pre-General Report (10/01/2022- 10/19/2022) that is to be filed.

The referenced excessive contributions from Robert Johnson & Bert Johnson have been confirmed as different individuals, so no action is required.”

The Committee disclosed refunds totaling $30,292.00 for the excessive contributions received during the 2022 12-Day Pre-General reporting period that were previously cited in the RFAI. All of these refunds were made outside of the permissible timeframe.

2022 30-Day Post-General Report

During the 2022 30-Day Post-General reporting period, October 20, 2022 to November 28, 2022, the Committee received excessive contributions totaling $67,065.77 from individuals that were not remedied within the permissible timeframe (Attachment 1).

On December 29, 2022, an RFAI was sent to the Committee referencing the 2022 30-Day Post-General Report. The RFAI noted the Committee's receipt of apparent excessive contributions and requested that the Committee take corrective action concerning these contributions.

On February 2, 2023, the Committee filed an FEC Form 99 which stated, in part:

"This is in response to your letter dated December 29, 2022, concerning 30 Day Post-General Report (10/20/2022 – 11/28/2022) for Cheri Beasley for North Carolina ('the Committee').

...The committee has been working through the excessive contributions from the 2022 election cycle with refunds noted on the Year End 2022 Report (11/29/2022- 12/31/2022) and the remaining refunds appearing on the April Quarterly 2023 Report (01/01/2023-03/31/2023)."

On August 27, 2024, the Committee filed another FEC Form 99 which stated, in part:

"Peter Norris' excessive contribution was remedied: it was reattributed to Amy Rugel (spouse) on the Post-General 2022 amendment that the committee filed.

Approximately forty donors named in the Post-General 2022 RFAI were issued refunds that were $200 or below, but are part of the unitemized total on the refund line."

The Committee disclosed refunds totaling $67,065.77 for the excessive contributions received during the 2022 30-Day Post-General period that were previously cited in the RFAI. All of these refunds were made outside of the permissible timeframe.

Since July 22, 2022, RAD logged nine (9) communications with a representative of the Committee which reflect efforts to help the Committee voluntarily comply with the
