Dear Ms. Fraser:

Well, hello again. As you will see, our audit report this go-round proved that we have made great strides in our bookkeeping methods.

I am submitting the following forms as our decision participate in the ADR program.

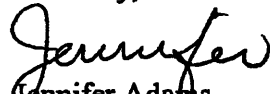

The main issue with this audit concerns a misstatement of COH due to an incorrect beginning COH established from the previous audit. The discrepancy was discovered mid-cycle and numbers were adjusted for subsequent reports while we worked through the problem.

At the beginning of the audit, our campaign notified the auditors of the discrepancy and the steps being taken to correct it. Following the audit, amendments were prepared and mailed as requested.

Having reviewed audit resolutions involving similar issues, we expect that this will be resolved quickly so that we may transfer our bookkeeping system to a CPA in Columbia, SC who will assume all bookkeeping duties involved with the campaign at the close of this audit.

Thanks for your attention to this matter. Please contact me anytime with any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Adams

ADR # 170

COMMITMENT TO SUBMIT MATTER TO ADR PROGRAM

I read the material describing the Federal Election Commission's ("FEC") Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") program and request that my case be considered for it. In the event that my case is accepted and determined to be appropriate for ADR, I agree:

- 1) to engage in the FEC's ADR program as described in the brochure enclosed with the notification letter;
- 2) to participate in negotiations and try to reach a settlement of my case and, if unsuccessful, to engage in mediation with the aim of achieving a mutually acceptable resolution; and
- 3) to waive the Statute of Limitations provisions governing my case as long as it is being processed in the FEC's ADR program.

I understand that I will be advised by the FEC of its determination regarding the appropriateness of my case for ADR and, if selected, given time to prepare for negotiations with a representative of the FEC and to arrange a mutually agreeable time to meet and discuss the case.
