Dear Thay Humes:

We have received your letter on March 8, 2004, regarding the possibility of a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

The 1976 amendments to the Act and Federal Election Commission regulations require that a complaint meet certain specific requirements. Your letter does not meet these requirements. Consequently, the Commission can take no action at this time unless the allegations are refilled meeting the requirements for a properly filed complaint.

If you desire the Commission to look into the matter discussed in your letter to determine if the Act has been violated, a formal complaint as described in 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) must be filed. Requirements of this section of the law, and Commission regulations at 11 C.F.R. § 111.4, which are a prerequisite to Commission action, are detailed below:

- (1) A complaint must be in writing. (2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1)).
- (2) Its contents must be sworn to and signed in the presence of a notary public and shall be notarized. (2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1)). The notary must indicate as part of the jurat that such swearing occurred. The preferred form is "Subscribed and sworn to before me on this _____ day of _____."
- (3) A formal complaint must contain the full name and address of the person making the complaint. (11 C.F.R. § 111.4).
- (4) A formal complaint should clearly identify as a respondent each person or entity who is alleged to have committed a violation. (11 C.F.R. § 111.4).
- (5) A formal complaint should identify the source of information upon which the complaint is based. (11 C.F.R. § 111.4).

(6) A formal complaint should contain a clear and concise recitation of the facts describing the violation of a statute or law over which the Commission has jurisdiction. (11 C.F.R. § 111.4).

(7) A formal complaint should be accompanied by supporting documentation if known and available to the person making the complaint. (11 C.F.R. § 111.4).

Finally, please include your telephone number, as well as the full names and addresses of all respondents. Enclosed is a Commission brochure entitled "Filing a Complaint." I hope this material will be helpful to you should you wish to file a legally sufficient complaint with the Commission.

Please note that this matter will remain confidential for a 15 day period to allow you to correct the defects in your complaint. If the complaint is corrected and refiled within the 15 day period, the respondents will be so informed and provided a copy of the corrected complaint. The respondents will then have an additional 15 days to respond to the complaint on the merits. If the complaint is not corrected, the file will be closed and no additional notification will be provided to the respondents.

If we can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

Retha Dixon
