RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL

Dear Mrs. Smith:

As per our conversation this morning, I am writing to respectfully request a two-week extension from today to respond to a complaint filed with your office.

I received the information from the FEC on Tuesday, June 29th I initially planned to respond on my own, but after discussing the matter, I realized that it would be better to have an attorney review the information I have written, in order to make sure I did so properly.

I initially tried finding an election law attorney in Salt Lake City, but not finding someone who emphasis in this area of the law, I was given a couple names of attorneys in the D.C. area. I am waiting to hear back from them and hope to hire someone by the first of next week.

I will try to make sure to get you my response as soon as possible, but I am hoping to obtain the extension in order to be able to do so in a professional manner.

Please let me know you decision as soon as possible. My contact information is as follows:
