MUR # 5503

RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL

AUG - 3 2004

Dear F.E.C.

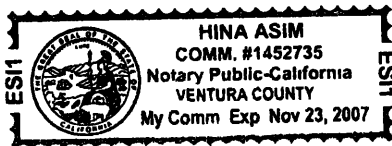

I work for a major supermarket chain in southern California, and for the last four days leading up to the 4th of July holiday we have been subjected to electioneering by our company. The company I work for is Vons and we usually advertise products over our loudspeaker system, however this year we listened to patriotic music and a rebroadcast of President's Bush State of the Union Address. This has Never been done before. The aim was clearly to influence the general shopping public and the employees working there. It is even more disheartening when we know that one of President Bush's biggest campaign fund raisers is our own CEO, Steve Burd.

Please, investigate and please put a stop to this clear violation of campaign law.

Sincerely,

Jaime Vega
