Re: ADR 337 (MUR 5735)

Dear Mr. Meyer:

On April 21, 2006 the Federal Election Commission ("FEC" or "Commission") received your complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to take no action against the Respondents, Giffords for Congress and Laura T. Almquist, Treasurer. In its memorandum to the Commission, dated August 22, 2006, this office stated:

Summary: The Complaint alleges that Respondents failed to file an amended Statement of Organization naming Judy Nagle, the person who has been signing the committee's disclosure reports, as the Committee's new treasurer. Respondents contend that the failure to file the FEC Form 1, was an oversight, as they believed a letter they sent on January 18, 2006 requesting a password for electronic filing and informing the FEC that "Judy Nagle will be filing the reports as assistant treasurer[,]” was sufficient. Upon receiving a copy of the complaint, the Committee filed the appropriate FEC Form 1.

Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on August 28, 2006.

The FEC is obligated by federal regulations to make a finding to terminate its proceedings public, as well as the basis therefore. 11 C.F.R. § 111.20(b). In addition, the Commission will also place on the record copies of the complaint, correspondence exchanged between Respondents and the Commission, and reports prepared for the Commission by this office to assist in its consideration of this matter. Accordingly, copies of documents relative to this matter will be forwarded shortly to the FEC's Public Information Office.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Sincerely,
