MUR # 5762

Mr. Shawn Woodhead Werth
Office of Administrative Review, FEC
999 E Street NW
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Mr. Woodhead Werth:

I am outraged by Frank Gonzalez's (candidate number: H4FL21047) mockery of campaign finance laws and regulations. According to your website, Mr. Gonzalez's committee (C00405282) has existed since August 25, 2004, and has only filed reports with the commission three times since that date.

Mr. Gonzalez boasts about having collected over 5,000 petition cards requesting that his name appear on the state ballot. His website (www.electfrank.org) states that he has contracted a video and editing expert. Clearly, his campaign has conducted significant activities beyond "testing the waters." Why then is the FEC not enforcing its reporting regulations? Mr. Gonzalez has every right to run for Congress, but the public has a right to know how he is financing his campaign activities.

Moreover, Mr. Gonzalez overtly advertises his mortgage business on his campaign website. This is an outrage and a blatant violation of FEC rules. You can find this information in the "About Frank" section of his website.

I ask that your office look into these matters as soon as possible. Mr. Gonzalez is violating the rules and regulations that exist to preserve the public trust, and he should not be allowed to get away with it. If you have any
