SUBJECT: ADR 357 Coronado for Congress and Scott B. MacKenzie, Treasurer
Recommendation to Approve Settlement Agreement

RESOLUTION TERMS: Request consideration of financial hardship, and will work with RAD to terminate the Committee (amount in dispute $104,630.35)

Attached for your review is a signed negotiated ADR Settlement Agreement pertaining to ADR 357 (RAD 06L-27). This case was opened on October 2, 2006, and was assigned to the ADR Office on January 18, 2007.

SUMMARY: RAD referred Coronado for Congress and Scott B. MacKenzie, Treasurer ("Respondents" or the "Committee") for failing to disclose all financial activity for their 2006 April Quarterly Report. Respondents filed their original 2006 April Quarterly Report on April 15, 2006. On April 26, 2006, the Committee filed an amended 2006 April Quarterly Report that disclosed $160,765.91 in outstanding debts (previously reported on the 2005 Year End Report), $95,292.77 in debts incurred for the reporting period, and $151,428.33 in payments made during the reporting period.

Respondents contend that “ ... the committee was in a transition phase from the previous Treasurer to the current, and all of the information regarding debts was not readily available at the time the initial report was filed ”

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. Approve the attached settlement agreement of Coronado for Congress and Scott B. MacKenzie, Treasurer.
2. Approve the appropriate letters.
