Re: ADR 395 (MUR 5893)

Dear Mr. Reiff:

On December 21, 2006, the Federal Election Commission ("FEC" or "Commission") notified Democratic Club of Beaufort County, South of the Broad Club of a complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was enclosed with the notification.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to issue an admonishment, but take no further action against the Respondents Democratic Club of Beaufort County, South of the Broad Club and David Henson, Treasurer. In its memorandum to the Commission, dated June 13, 2007, this office stated:

Summary: In ADR 395, Complainant makes the same allegations as those noted above against DCBC-SOB and its Treasurer David Henson. In response, DCBC-SOB, makes the same contentions noted in ADR 394. With respect to the cost of the newspaper ads, the Respondents assert that the cost of the advertisements attributable to the federal candidate was $232.15, well below the $1000 threshold for registering with the Commission and filing FEC reports.

Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on June 20, 2007. The Commission reminds you, however, that failing to include an adequate and appropriate disclaimer on public communications, is a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act. 2 U.S.C. § 441d and 11 C.F.R. § 110.11(a)-(c). You should take steps to ensure that all the Committee's public communications comply with the FECA in the future.

The FEC is obligated by federal regulations to make a finding to terminate its proceedings public, as well as the basis therefore. 11 C.F.R. § 111.20(b). In addition, the Commission will also place on the record copies of the complaint, correspondence exchanged between Respondents and the Commission, and reports prepared for the Commission by this office to assist in its consideration of this matter. Accordingly, copies of documents relative to this matter will be forwarded shortly to the FEC's Public Information Office.
