Re: ADR 420 (RAD 07L-37)
Carney for Congress Committee and Larry Golden, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Golden:

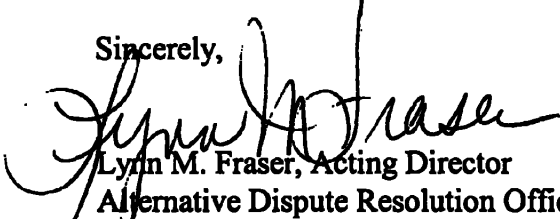

Enclosed is the signed copy of the agreement resolving the referral initiated September 25, 2007 with the Federal Election Commission ("FEC/Commission") against Carney for Congress Committee and Larry Golden, Treasurer ("Respondents"). The agreement for ADR 420 (RAD 07L-37) was approved by the Commission on November 12, 2008 – the effective date of the agreement.

Note the specific time frames for compliance in paragraph 9 of the agreement. Please forward to this office, a statement confirming Respondent's compliance with the terms listed in paragraph 6 of the aforementioned agreement. The letter should note the dates on which Respondents satisfied each of the terms listed in paragraph 6 and contain the ADR caption and case number. The civil penalty payment should be sent to the attention of the Accounting/Finance Office of the FEC. The civil penalty under the agreement is due on December 26, 2008. Please put the ADR case number on the civil penalty check as well, to ensure crediting to the correct case.

As you are aware, the settlement agreement will be made part of the record that is released to the public. The Commission will also place on the record copies of the referral, correspondence exchanged between your office and this office prior to our entry into settlement negotiations and reports prepared for the Commission by this office to assist in its consideration of this matter. The Commission is obliged by Federal statute to place on the public record documents in closed enforcement and alternative dispute resolution cases; accordingly, copies of documents relative to this matter will be forwarded shortly to the FEC's Public Information Office.

This agreement resolves the matter that was initiated by the Commission pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities regarding violations of federal election campaign laws. I appreciate your assistance in effectively resolving this matter and bringing the case to a mutually acceptable conclusion.

Sincerely,

Lynn M. Fraser, Acting Director
Alternative Dispute Resolution Office

Case Name: Carney for Congress

NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT

This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission ("FEC" or "the Commission") pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. Following review of the matter, and in an effort to promote compliance with the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the FECA"), and resolve this matter, the Commission entered into negotiations with Brian Svoboda, representing Carney for Congress, and Larry Golden, in his official capacity as Treasurer (collectively "Respondents" or "the Committee"). It is understood that this agreement will have no precedential value relative to any other matters coming before the Commission.

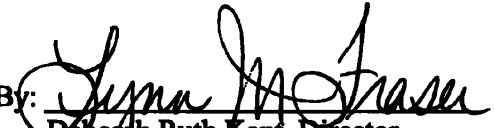

Negotiations between the Commission and Respondents addressed the issues raised in this referral. The parties agree to resolve the matter according to the following terms:

1. The Commission entered into this agreement as part of its responsibility for administering the FECA, and in an effort to promote compliance on the part of Respondents. The Commission's use of alternative dispute resolution procedures ("ADR") is guided by the Administrative Dispute Resolution Act of 1996, 5 U.S.C. § 572, and is an extension of 2 U.S.C. § 437g.
2. Respondents voluntarily enter into this agreement with the Commission.
3. The Reports Analysis Division referred the Respondents for the cumulative nature of deficiencies on reports filed with the Commission in the 2005-2006 cycle. A committee may be referred if the cumulative nature of the reporting errors reveals the committee is not in substantial compliance with the law. 2 U.S.C. 437(g).
4. The Committee stated that Congressman Carney was a first time candidate for federal office and that the Committee had little experience with the volume of financial activity. The Committee also explained that it was entirely staffed by volunteers unfamiliar with campaign finance law and that the Committee did not utilize the reporting software consistently.

5. The Respondents further state that they have paid all administrative fines for failing to file required 48-hour notices during the 2005-2006 election cycle.
6. Respondents, in an effort to avoid similar errors in the future, agree to: (a) certify to the Commission that it has issued an internal controls policy guided by the Commission's April 5, 2007 statement of policy in this area; (b) attend a FEC training; (c) hire a campaign finance firm to review all reports before they are filed; and (d) pay a $1000 civil penalty.
7. Respondents agree that all information provided to resolve this matter is true and accurate to the best of their knowledge and that they sign this agreement under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746.
8. The parties agree that if Respondents fail to comply with the terms of this settlement, the Commission may submit any unpaid civil penalty to the U.S. Treasury for collection or undertake civil action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia to secure compliance.
9. This agreement shall become effective on the date signed by all parties and approved by the Commission. Respondents shall comply with the terms set forth in paragraph 6 within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this agreement.
10. This Negotiated Settlement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on the resolution of ADR 420 (RAD 07L-37), and effectively resolves only those issues identified in paragraph 3 above. No other statement, promise or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party that is not included herein shall be enforceable.
