Re: ADR 425 (RR 07L-40)
Connecticut Republicans and Gerald Labriola, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Labriola:

The Reports Analysis Division of the Federal Election Commission (FEC/Commission) determined that matters arising from its recent review of reports filed by the Connecticut Republicans warranted further examination for possible violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. The Commission, thereafter, reviewed the file and voted on November 6, 2007 to assign this matter to the FEC's Alternative Dispute Resolution Office (ADR Office) for processing.

The FEC established the ADR Program to provide an informal means for resolving matters that come before the Commission and to facilitate negotiations directly with Connecticut Republicans and Gerald Labriola, Treasurer (Respondents or Committee). The ADR Program provides Respondents with an opportunity to negotiate, and if appropriate, mediate settlement of a matter that is mutually agreeable. The negotiations occur prior to any Commission consideration of whether there is reason to believe a violation has occurred. If negotiations and/or mediation are successful, the resulting settlement would conclude the matter.

The Commission, in referring the matter to the ADR Office, determined that the case is eligible for processing in the ADR program. If Respondents decide to participate in the Program, i.e., negotiation and/or mediation, you must: 1) indicate in writing a willingness to have your case submitted to the ADR process; 2) agree to participate in the bilateral negotiations and if appropriate, mediation; and 3) waive the statute of limitations while the matter is being processed under the FEC's ADR program.

The issues referred to the ADR Office, and the focus of our subsequent negotiations are summarized as follows:

Summary: Treasurers of political committees are required to report all financial activity, including all receipts, pursuant to the FECA. RAD referred the Connecticut Republicans and Gerald Labriola, Jr., Treasurer (Respondents or the Committee) for failing to disclose all financial activity on their 2006 October Monthly Report. The Committee filed its original 2006 October Monthly Report on October 20, 2006. An amended 2006 October Monthly Report filed on March 2, 2007 disclosed $295,740 in additional receipts. A RFAI was sent to Respondents on May 4, 2007.

In response to the inquiry from RAD, Respondents stated that they filed an amended 2006 October Monthly Report when they realized the original 2006 October Monthly Report did not include items received in September, but deposited in October. The contributions had incorrectly been disclosed on the 12 Day Pre-General Report, rather than on the earlier 2006 October Monthly Report, based on the date of deposit rather than the date of receipt.

If after reviewing this letter and the enclosed brochure, which describes the ADR program, Respondents would like this case selected for ADR processing, you need to affirmatively indicate that on the enclosed Commitment to Submit Matter to ADR Program form. Failure to respond affirmatively within fifteen (15) business days of receipt of this letter will be taken as a notice of disinterest in the program and your case will be dropped from further consideration for ADR. In that event, your case will be sent to the FEC's Office of General Counsel for further processing, and the likelihood that the Committee will be audited may increase.

If you decide to participate in the ADR Program, please provide any additional responses Respondents would like to make, including proposed stipulations or terms to resolve the matter. Please also provide some dates and times when you'd be available to discuss this matter in detail on a separate sheet of paper. I will then review my calendar, so that a time can be scheduled.

This matter has been designated as ADR 425. Please refer to this number in future correspondence with the FEC. If you have any questions about the ADR Program, please contact me directly at the number given below.

Sincerely,

Lynn M. Fraser, Assistant Director
